

Chapter 2564– 2565 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2564

For so many years, Mark is also well-informed, but he has not yet contacted one, which shows how rare such a strong person is.

But Mark didn't expect to meet someone on this isolated island!

“If I expected it to be right, the kendo master who killed the giant ape outside should be this person.”

“Mom, it's unlucky.”

“It happened to happen.”

Mark's eyes twitched, cursing secretly in his heart.

Originally, Mark thought that the kendo master had already left after beheading the giant ape and obtaining the treasure.

After all, looking at the traces of fighting outside, I'm afraid it should have happened a few days ago.

For such a long time, it is enough to leave the American continent.

But Mark counted a thousand things, except that he didn't count. Not only did he not leave, but instead he stayed in place and practiced directly in retreat.

Yes, the black robe figure in front of him, the reason why Mark hasn't been spotted yet is entirely because he is immersed in the state of cultivation, and he doesn't care about him.

Otherwise, with the perception of such a strong person, when Mark steps on this isolated island, it is estimated that this black-clothed strong person will be able to detect it!

“Don't say anything.”

“While he hasn't noticed it, get out quickly.”

Mark knew that the person in front of him was a hard stubborn stubble, he couldn't provoke him, and he would be planted here if he could not.

Therefore, I planned to leave here as soon as the other party hadn't found it.

Although Mark is proud, he is by no means an idiot.

Naturally, he wouldn't do things that are looking for death!

However, just when Mark was about to leave.

Hum~

A blue light flashed again.

Almost instantly, Mark was attracted by the ice blue fruit in front of the black figure.

The fruit, floating in the air, faintly glowed.

Yes, the gleam that Mark saw before came out of this spirit fruit.

At the same time, with the breath of the black figure, the ice blue spirit fruit was also spinning.

Through the colorful light and shadow, Mark vaguely felt that a stream of pure spiritual power was pouring from the spirit fruit towards the black figure.

“This fruit?”

At the moment when he saw this fruit, Mark's pupils shrank, and his whole body trembled suddenly.

“This... Could it be, Millennium Ice Spirit Fruit?”

There was a record in the Yundao Tianshu.

One flowering in ten years, fruit in ten years, maturity in ten years, and reincarnation in thirty years, it is the essence of the soul.

In the Dollar Lingguo, there are different kinds, which grow in the beautiful place of Zhong Ling, and are nourished by the heaven and the earth. They are mature for thousands of years, and they are the Dollar Lingguo of the Millennium.

This kind of millennium spirit fruit often grows in extreme environments, so due to environmental reasons, it often has different attributes.

For example, those who grow in extremely cold places are spirit fruits with ice attributes.

Growing in extremely hot places is a spiritual fruit with fire attributes.

The ice-blue light blooming in front of him is undoubtedly the ice attribute, the thousand-year ice spirit fruit.

Treasures of this level, even in the Yundao Tianshu, are placed in the ranks of heaven, material and earth. They are the absolute treasures of cultivation, and they can be absorbed and swallowed even if they are titled masters.

Mark dared to guarantee that this fruit alone would be enough to attract the strongest in the top rankings and fight for life and death.

“I didn’t expect that the treasures of heaven and earth recorded in the Yundao Heavenly Book actually appeared, and I came across.”

Mark’s eyes were fiery, and his heart was fluctuating.

The excitement in my heart is beyond words!

Chapter 2565

In the cave, Ya Que was silent.

It was quiet everywhere, and the sound of air movement could almost be heard.

In the faint dim light, there was a person sitting cross-legged, breathing regularly.

But the other person was standing there with fiery eyes, staring at the icy blue fruit.

And this “promising” man is naturally Mark!

Is he moving?

nonsense!

This is something that is regarded as the most precious thing in the Yundao Tianshu, can Mark not be moved?

He traversed thousands of rivers and mountains, and traversed half of the earth. Wasn’t what he did was a treasure that could enhance his strength.

But now, such treasures of heaven and earth are in sight.

The thousand-year ice spirit fruit, for Mark, was undoubtedly a great opportunity that could not be met.

If he missed it, Mark would have to fan himself in the future.

However, what can be done no matter how excited you are.

The strength of this person in front of him is set above him.

If you go straight up to grab it, you will most likely put yourself in danger of life and death.

As the saying goes, a gentleman does not stand under a dangerous wall.

If it falls here for something outside of the body, it is not worth it.

“Hey~”

“Forget it!”

“I can only say that this treasure has nothing to do with me, Mark~”

After struggling for a long time, Mark finally shook his head and sighed.

Following that, he took a heavy and painful step, turned and left here, disappearing into the darkness behind him.

Ten seconds later~

“No way, no way.”

“The treasure is right in front of my eyes. If I don’t accept this special gift, then I will be a shameless pen!”

Some people get upset, even scolding themselves.

Obviously, Mark is such a cruel person.

So, he regretted it and walked back here.

As the saying goes, wealth is in danger!

Mark figured it out, so he will give it a try today.

The big deal, seeing that the situation is not good, I just slapped away!

If you can’t run away, you have to rely on the dragon god body to carry it.

What’s more, the current situation is quite optimistic for Mark.

The opponent is obviously in deep retreat.

He approached carefully for a while, and then launched a surprise attack on the person, causing a thunderous blow to the opponent.

It is certain that you can’t kill you, but it’s for sure to hurt the opponent seriously.

In this case, even if the opponent is awakened, his strength is undoubtedly greatly weakened.

Under the circumstances, the possibility of Mark winning the treasure is undoubtedly extremely great.

This is also the reason why Mark turned back halfway and prepared to give it a try.

However, Mark also had to admit that his own method was indeed not “righteous” enough.

Even he himself has a guilty conscience and feels sorry for the senior in front of him.

After all, if there is no grudge or grievance, he suddenly slapped himself in the palm of oneself, and was also robbed of the treasure by himself. This matter is indeed somewhat unremarkable.

But there was no way, Mark really wanted this thousand-year ice spirit fruit.

Soon after, he was going to the Chu family.

Faced with such a behemoth as the Chu Family, if Mark wants to retreat all over, he must need the help of this ice spirit fruit.

It was only possible for this class of heaven, material and earth treasures to allow Mark to cultivate further in a short period of time.

Of course, Mark could grab this ice spirit fruit and run away.

But in this way, the greatest possibility is that he will be overtaken by the man in black, and then he will be counter-killed, and the treasure will return to the hands of the man in black.

Therefore, in order to be foolproof, Mark must first wound the man in black in front of him.

In this case, even if the opponent wakes up and gets up to chase, he may not be able to catch up with his strength greatly damaged.
