

Chapter 2566– 2567 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2566

However, this method is still a bit less authentic.

However, in order to protect himself, Mark couldn't take care of that much!

“Ma De, people are not for themselves, the heavens are extinguished!”

“Sir, sorry~”

As soon as Mark gritted his teeth, he finally decided to shoot according to his own plan.

As for the others, Mark couldn't take care of it either.

What's more, this is the case in the battle for treasure.

Intrigue and deceive, the weak and the strong.

The moment Mark stepped into this battle for treasure, it represented the people he met, either friends or enemies!

Mark naturally treats friends like An Qi sincerely.

But for enemies with conflicts of interest, Mark could not tolerate kindness.

Because, the end of kindness is often that you die.

This is the martial arts world.

Cruel and ruthless!

Whoosh~

Finally, Mark moved.

In the cave, it exploded with a sound.

Mark's body, like an arrow from the string, rushed out instantly.

The speed is so fast that even in this cave, many phantoms are pulled out.

The strong wind brought up countless sands and rocks.

At this terrible speed, a distance of more than ten meters will naturally come in an instant.

“Ok?”

“Who?”

The other party's perception was more acute than Mark expected.

Just the moment Mark approached, this person was awakened in the midst of cultivation.

Dollar Li gathered, energy rushed, above the stone platform, the eyes of the black figure suddenly opened, and a cold shout immediately sounded.

And at the same time this person was awakened, Mark gave a heavy palm, already falling!

The surging might, with an unpredictable force, slammed on the chest of the shadow fiercely.

Bang~

The incident happened suddenly, and the man in black was in deep cultivation just now. When he woke up, it was undoubtedly too late.

In the end, the man in black still followed Mark's way, and he received Mark's palm abruptly.

In the bang, this person was directly shocked by Mark, and his body smashed on the stone wall behind him.

The rocks rolled down, and the energy flew wildly.

This person trembled, snorted, and vomited a mouthful of blood.

At this time, Mark had already snatched the ice spirit fruit, and while laughing, he ran wildly, fleeing towards the outside madly.

“Haha~”

“Your Excellency, you are offended.”

“There will be a chance in the future to make up for today's sin~”

Although Mark knew that he had disturbed people's cultivation and robbed them of their treasures, laughing at this time was a bit like a villain, and it was also very rude to people, even cruel.

Mark wanted to hold back his laugh, but he couldn't bear it.

Who is unhappy with such a treasure?

It is estimated that the man in black was also happy for a long time after killing the great ape and snatching the treasure.

what?

Can only you be happy, can't I be happy?

"Haha~"

"I'm sorry..."

Mark was already far away in the laughter.

In the cave here, only Mark's laughter echoed.

In the next moment, a sharp, angry, and extremely cold voice came out from the cave.

"Asshole!"

"Dare to destroy my practice and grab my treasure."

"Today, I will not set you down, and swear not to be a man!"

"Swear not to be human~"

.....

What kind of anger is that, if only three thousand anger burns the sky.

What kind of chill is that, sweeping Tianhe and freezing it three feet!

And in the midst of the anger that soared to the sky, that black figure, holding a long sword, resisted the injury, with murderous intent, burning with anger, his figure as fast as a stream of light, and rushed out of the cave.

Then he chased and killed the fleeing Mark frantically.

Chapter 2567

Huh~

On the isolated island, two figures whizzed past in the void like a stream of light.

The squally winds that brought up all scattered the clouds in the sky.

And under their feet, the layers of trees were swaying in this violent air current, and a wave of green leaves blew across the island in an instant.

These two figures are not others.

One of them was Mark, who had escaped from Treasure Treasure.

On the other side, it was the man in black who was robbed of the treasure by Mark.

At this time, Mark's firepower was fully on, and his boundless strength gathered on his feet. The speed of the whole person had undoubtedly reached the extreme that Mark could do!

Mark originally thought that relying on his extraordinary speed and in the case of severely hurting the other party, getting rid of the man in black would not be a matter of minutes.

However, the facts undoubtedly exceeded Mark's expectations.

Even if Mark tried his best, he still couldn't get rid of the black man's chase, but the distance between the two was still slowly getting closer.

If it weren't for Mark to dodge and turn around with a weird body technique, he would have been overtaken by the black man a long time ago.

"Ma De, I don't believe it anymore."

"You are a wounded person, I still can't get rid of you?"

"You'll have to drag you to death!"

Using the light from the corner of his eye, Mark glanced at the dark shadow that was chasing frantically behind him.

The veil concealed the opponent's face, and the strong wind disturbed the opponent's long hair.

The black robe danced wildly in the wind, and the whole body exuded a chilling and aura.

Just like a long-haired witch coming out from Shura Hell.

If it is an ordinary person, it is estimated that the other party's such terrifying aura has already made his legs weak.

But Mark didn't have too many worries in his heart.

In his opinion, the man in black is completely holding on at this moment.

It's like a big fish hooked, struggling to death with all its strength.

When it runs out of energy, it will naturally be included in the net obediently!

You know, the man in black just received Mark's hand sturdily.

Even if Mark's palm had left some room, it was enough to inflict heavy damage on the man in black.

Look at the red blood on the veil, and the breath that is getting faster and faster.

Mark judged that the man in black won't be able to hold on for long.

After waiting for a long time, the other party's energy was exhausted, and naturally there was no energy to chase Mark.

After making a decision in his heart, Mark's heart slammed, and his feet moved faster again.

Whoosh~

The wind bursts and the vegetation sways wildly.

Under the Tianhe, Mark's figure resembled a streamer, whizzing past the isolated island.

In this way, Mark played the speed of life and death with each other on this isolated island.

The two fled and chased, from one end to the other, from morning to noon, and from the sun to sunset.

Mark did not expect to be killed, he flew hundreds of times around this lonely island, and what made Mark collapse even more was that he still didn't get rid of the man in black.

"Damn it!"

“Is this guy a dog?”

“How can I chase?”

Mark was almost mad, panting.

He was thinking of dragging the other party to death, but he didn't expect that he couldn't wait until the other party was exhausted.

When Mark trembled at the opponent's endurance, he didn't know that the man in black who was chasing after him was definitely not at peace.

“Who is this despicable person?”

“Not only is the speed not much inferior to my heyday, but the weirdness of the body is even higher than me!”
