

Chapter 2572– 2573 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2572

“Since I have said it to you just now, naturally I won’t want it back.”

“But your cultivation” Mark had to say something, but was interrupted by Yu Yun directly.

“You don’t need to worry about my practice. There are many treasures of practice in the world, and I don’t lack this one.”

“It’s you who acted so shamelessly and made many enemies in martial arts. Still think of improving yourself as soon as possible to avoid premature death.” Yu Yun said coldly, but after finishing her words, she added, “You die. It doesn’t matter, I’m afraid grandma will be sad.”

Mark shook his head and smiled as he listened.

I thought this stupid woman was really arrogant and lovely.

“Are you all alone during this time?”

“Girls are always so alone, but it’s not safe.”

“Today, lucky you, it was me who met.”

“If it’s someone else, it’s estimated that the palm that attacked you will kill you.”

Mark is the only shameless person who can call this shameless thing a favor.

Yu Yun gave this guy a blank glance, and didn’t bother to be angry with him, and replied coldly: “First take care of yourself.”

“With my own strength, I dare to go here alone.”

“If it weren’t for grandma’s sake, you would have been a dead soul under my sword.”

The cold voice quietly echoed here.

Mark didn’t answer again, just smiled faintly.

The gentle smile makes people feel like a spring breeze.

For a while, the world here fell into a short silence.

Neither of them spoke any more.

Finally, Yu Yun hesitated for a moment, suddenly raised her head to look at Mark, and asked softly: "How did you practice the Yunyan Sword Art I gave you?"

Mark nodded and said with a smile: "Well, I have basically mastered it."

"Then have you considered joining any forces or sects to practice more powerful martial arts secrets. At the same time, you will also be guided and taught by the most powerful. With the guidance of a famous teacher, you are better than you alone. Great."

"Like this ice spirit fruit, I guess you got it, but I don't know how to absorb it."

Yu Yun asked slowly, her cold voice, like a wind yin, very pleasant.

"Join the power?"

"What force?"

Mark smiled faintly, just like chatting with Yu Yun.

Mark feels particularly relaxed and comfortable every time he chats with Yu Yun.

It's like a confidant meeting.

"Trumen."

Yu Yun replied.

But Mark frowned.

Upon seeing this, Yu Yun thought that Mark was worried about her identity as a hot summer person, and continued: "You don't have to worry about how to enter."

"Even though the Trumen rules prohibit the Yan Xia warriors from entering the sect. But I have a friend who has some power in the Trumen."

"I will write her a letter. If you go to Truman with this letter of recommendation, no one dares to stop you."

Yu Yun wanted to continue speaking, but when she saw Mark's already completely gloomy face, her words stopped abruptly.

“Mark, what’s the matter with you?” Yu Yun asked suspiciously.

Mark chuckled softly: “It’s nothing.”

“It just feels that a person like me from a humble background really got in because of a relationship. People would be scorned, ridiculed, and eventually swept out of the house.”

“In that case, why bother to find it boring?”

Mark said lightly, with a bit of self-deprecating and chill in his words.

Truman, hasn’t Mark been there?

When he was still living in the Chu Family, Mark had already dealt with the three Chu Family members.

Mark still remembers the faces of those who claim to be the number one power in the world.

Moreover, it was Chu Dollar who had swept Mark’s mother and son out of the house, the former Chumen sect master and the elder of the Chu family!

Chapter 2573

It is precisely because of these painful and cruel memories that Chu Men, regarded as the highest palace of martial arts for people in the world, is not only unattractive to Mark, but also makes him feel disgusted. And resentment.

“Mark, you don’t have to worry about these.”

“The martial arts world emphasizes strength, not family background.”

“With your talent, even if you can’t be a sect master in the future, it is still very possible to be a red-clothed guardian under one person and over ten thousand people.”

Among the Chumen system, the most powerful, the most sacred and inviolable is the Chumen master.

And under the sect master, is the position of the red protector.

The guardian of the red clothes is only responsible to the master of the sect, and the sect can be controlled under the sect.

It is the deputy sect master and the major elders who are bound by it!

It can be said that the red-clothed guardian represents the will of the Truman Sect Master.

If the sect master is the emperor, then the red guardian is the regent.

However, the power of the red-clothed protector is certainly powerful, but if it is not well controlled, it is very likely that it will backfire and threaten the power of the master.

Therefore, for so many years, this position has basically been vacant.

The Truman was established for so many years, and there is only one recorded red-clothed guardian, who is the married wife of a certain Truman master.

It can also be seen that the person who can sit in this position has a very special relationship with the master.

Now that Yu Yun said this to Mark, it was enough to show that she values and trusts the young man in front of her.

However, how could Mark agree.

Refuse directly.

“Yu Yun, you don’t have to say it.”

“Even if the Chu Clan gave me the sect master, I won’t enter.”

“I am used to being free and comfortable by myself, and I don’t like to join any power sect.”

Mark said in a deep voice, his tone a little blunt.

“Well, if you don’t go, you won’t go, just as if I didn’t say it.” Mark’s attitude made Yu Yun a little unhappy.

This bastard is so kind as to be a donkey liver and lungs!

Moreover, if you don’t go, you can’t say it. If you speak well, you will die?

It seemed that Truman owed him something.

“You go.”

“I don’t have to see you again in the future.”

“I don’t want to be attacked and injured again.”

The gentleness of Yu Yun just now disappeared instantly.

Instead, the coldness and arrogance as usual.

After speaking, Yu Yun immediately turned around, ready to leave.

“stop.”

“I still have something to ask you!”

Mark suddenly called him, his expression serious and serious, as if there was something important, he wanted to ask Yu Yun.

Yu Yun also stopped and turned to look at Mark. Liu frowned and asked in confusion, “What else do you have?”

Mark didn't answer right away, with a pair of deep eyes, staring at her like this, expressionless.

Mark's seriousness made Yu Yun feel a little panic and nervous.

Could it be that he guessed the origin of his identity?

Just as Yu Yun was hesitating in her heart, Mark's voice quietly sounded.

“Yu Yun, did you wear the clothes I gave you last time?”

“Well, is the size still right?”

“Do you still like the style?”

“I visited several stores and looked at no fewer than a thousand items before I found one that is similar to your previous one.”

Mark smiled, his eyes swept over Yu Yun's breasts unconsciously as he spoke.

However, no one answered.

After Mark asked this, the world here seemed to be stagnant.

The world is a dead silence.

After a long time, there was an extremely angry voice that resounded through the world.

“Shameless, go to death!”

Whoosh~

Sword Yin sounded, and a vertical and horizontal sword qi was cut to Mark.
