

Chapter 2588– 2589 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2588

Above the ruins, someone looked at the traces of battle in front of them, with fear and tremor in their hearts.

They couldn't imagine how fierce the battle would be at that time.

The noise here naturally attracted the attention of many powerful people.

For a time, warriors from various countries surrounded one after another.

Lu Yanxi and Lu Hua are naturally no exception.

“I go!”

“Here, did an earthquake happen?”

“The earth has cracked such a big hole?!”

Upon seeing this, Lu Hua couldn't help shouting in surprise.

Kong Ming didn't speak, but looked down at the ruins under his feet carefully, and then solemnly said: “It's not an earthquake, these are all human work.”

“If I didn't expect it, there must have been a big battle on this island.”

“The two sides participating in the war are at least the master's cultivation base.”

“Look at this scene, ten days have passed since the original battle.”

what?

“Kong Lao, you said this.. Is this what humans do?”

“No way.”

Lu Hua's eyes widened in disbelief.

Didn't he never meet the grandmaster, his grandfather is the martial arts master in the summer

However, Lu Hua dared to guarantee that even a martial arts master with blood like a dragon would definitely not be able to cause such damage.

Kong Ming ignored Lu Hua, but looked for traces and moved on.

Soon, he came under the hill and found the great ape that was sealed by a sword and died.

“My God~”

“What a big ape?”

“The King Kong in the movie is probably not half the size of this ape, right?”

The size of this ape really shocked everyone.

However, while everyone was shocked, they were all excited.

“To be able to breed such a monster, this place must be extraordinary.”

“A thousand meters around, there must be treasures growing.”

“Even if it’s not an elementary spirit fruit, it’s not inferior to the extent of its preciousness~”

Among the crowd, someone said excitedly.

These words undoubtedly aroused the greed in everyone’s hearts.

For a time, the powerhouses of the various countries began to search the surrounding areas carefully, just like opening up wasteland and panning for gold.

“Master, shall we look for it too?”

Mike Jones, who had just arrived here not long ago, undoubtedly joined the search under the suggestion of his subordinates.

After all, this lake island is too special.

Not to mention the deep location of the rainforest center, surrounded by lake water, it can be described as isolated from the world.

In addition, the aura here is full of spirits, and even the giant apes in front of them are cultivated.

Anyone who has a bit of a brain can guess that there are treasures on this island.

Of course, after seeing the ruins of the Great War here, many people thought in their hearts that the treasures might have been taken first.

But, it’s all here, always look for it.

“found it!”

“I found it. That pure power came out of this pile of rocks.”

At this time, I don't know who shouted.

Soon, everyone was attracted.

Kong Ming, Lu Yanxi, and even Mike Jones and others all heard the sound and looked over.

It was at the foot of a mountain, but it seemed as if it had been destroyed by man. A large number of rocks shattered and rolled down from the mountain, and finally gathered here into a huge pile of rocks.

At this moment, under this pile of rocks, there was a stream of pure power unceasingly gushing out from it.

How vivid is that strong power of heaven and earth?

“It seems that there is something under this pile of rocks?”

Everyone looked at the scene in front of them, everything was stunned, and they all guessed.

Chapter 2589

“Will there be any monsters under it?”

“Like the giant ape outside.”

At this time, someone suddenly said such a sentence.

When everyone heard this, the few people who had rushed up just now turned pale with fright, and then quickly jumped off the pile of rocks.

The rest of the people also took a few steps back unconsciously.

After all, although the treasure is good, it must be enjoyed by life.

The enthusiasm for treasures in my heart quickly dissipated.

Everyone immediately regained their senses.

For a while, everyone was watching from a distance, and no one dared to step forward to find out.

After all, if there is really any monster under the boulder, then the person who is the first to explore will most likely become cannon fodder.

Therefore, everyone naturally dare not step forward, waiting for others to go.

For a while, the situation here fell into a stalemate.

However, this is not a solution.

In the end, it was Mike Jones who stood up, his face looked majestic, looked around the crowd, and said in a deep voice: “It seems that you all don't want to be the first person to pass the road.”

“However, being so stalemate is not a solution.”

“I suggest that in a while I choose a few people and join forces to smash these boulders.”

“So, let us see what is buried under this gravel?”

Mike Jones’ deep voice echoed.

After hearing this, everyone around nodded.

“Ok.”

“Master Jones is a good idea.”

“In this way, a lot of danger can be avoided.”

“I see, just do it!”

.....

“Okay, let’s just do what Master Jones said.”

“Choose a few good players, work together, and smash these rocks.”

“We want to see, under this huge boulder, is it a dragon or a worm?”

“Master Jones, you are well-informed and come from a family of Trumans. I think it’s up to you to choose the strongest.”

“Your words have the heaviest weight, and everyone will listen.”

In the end, after discussion, everyone unanimously decided to use Mike Jones’ method to smash these rocks with force to find out.

“Okay, then it’s better for me to respect my fate.”

Mike Jones let out a big laugh, and then selected a few strong players among the strongest players in the world.

“Angie, stay away.”

“Be careful while the rocks fall to you!”

Seeing that the strong men were already ready to go, Mike Jones called An Qi in advance to stay away.

“Ok?”

“An Qi, you damn girl, what are you looking around?”

“Hurry and hide with me?”

Mike Jones saw that he had shouted for a long time, but he didn't get a response, and he was suddenly unhappy and fierce.

“Oh, here comes it~”

An Qi replied perfunctorily.

Since arriving at the island in the lake, An Qi looked around, absent-minded.

But where did Mike Jones know that Angie has been looking for someone.

“Hey~”

“It seems that Big Brother Mark has really gone back.”

During this time, everyone was looking for treasure, but An Qi was looking for people.

However, she looked at everyone here, but she didn't find the thin young figure at all.

An Qi's mood, like the setting sun, also fell.

The look dejected, like an eggplant beaten by cream.

An Qi knew very well that after returning to the family this time, she was afraid that she would never see her Mark brother again.

In fact, An Qi didn't know what was wrong with herself. Since Mark said goodbye to him that day, Mark's figure has been lingering in her mind for the past few days.
