

Chapter 259

Three days for the invitation, two days for the call, and the same day for the slip. China is a country that pays great attention to etiquette. The less the circulation of personnel in a region, the more the rules are. On the contrary, the younger the region is and the higher the degree of urbanization is, the rules are slowly disappearing, and there is nothing good to say. Don't talk about status. It's boring.

The frontier is originally a province gathered from all over the country. People from the South and the North all have it. There are too many rules, and there are no specific rules. Zhang Fan is a little old-fashioned, and Shaohua is much better.

"A friend's dinner is just a party. How can you pay so much attention? You have a lot of things. Besides, make an appointment in advance. Do you have time!"

"That's right. Let me call someone! What are you eating? " Zhang Fan generally doesn't stick to this kind of problem, which is not a matter of principle. Home is not a reasonable place!

"Instant boiled mutton! I don't know if other restaurants are open these days. "

Tang Jingjing, Zhu Bing, Lu Renjia, Li Liang, Li Hui, Wang Yanan, LV Shuyan, and Shaohua's best friend Jia SuYue. He had called Lao Chen and his wife, but Lao Chen didn't trust the hospital. Lao Chen really fell down and helped Zhang Fan. He was very worried.

In the county hospital, there were people who didn't care about anything. Now there are no corners of the hospital that he is not familiar with. The half old man who helped Zhang Fan because of Zhang Fan's compassion has now become Zhang Fan's right arm. If the hospital lacks such a person who understands business and is very worried, Zhang Fan really can't play! Lao Chen also has shortcomings, that is, he doesn't understand management. Sometimes his eyes are too small and he is too economical.

For example, hospital gauze is usually purchased in pieces from pharmaceutical companies. Lao Chen thought it was unnecessary. He even organized nurses to buy gauze rolls, make gauze blocks by themselves, and then disinfect them by themselves! Zhang fan can't laugh or cry. In fact, this is not a matter of money. People's Health Bureau has designated to buy it somewhere. There is definitely a problem if they don't buy it! It's not worth asking for trouble for a little money! So Zhang Fan has been looking for a talent in this field.

People who can not only reassure Zhang Fan, but also convince the public are really hard to find!

The people who came here were those who had a good relationship with Zhang Fan and Shao Hua and could talk. People are like this. They want to find a friend who doesn't involve interests. They can't count more than three. The stronger you are, the fewer such friends you have! May be the price of success!

Zhang Fan and Shao Hua are owners. They didn't invite friends in advance, so they waited for friends at the door of the hot pot shop early! They stood at the door of the hot pot shop like a concierge. It was a little strange!

Zhu Bing and Lu Renjia came first. The former criminal police became economic police. Once a strong man with muscles like a calf, he got a little fat in a few months.

"Zhang Fan, it's really harder to see you than to see our director!" Or as always warm, straightforward, directly pushed Zhang Fan's hand out to shake hands, and a bear hug came!

"Ouch! Strangled! Can you stand this posture? "

Zhang Fan took the time to tease Lu Renjia. If Zhang Fan doesn't say anything else, he can be regarded as their introducer, so he is qualified to say this joke!

"Fuck you, they all say that doctors, police and hooligans among people. Shaohua, you should take care of him. At that time, when you met for the first time, you matched people!" Lu Renjia smiled! Their couple is really bumpy.

It's not easy to get together after an accident and the strong opposition of the old road! It's desperate" It's very cold. You go in first and have some friends. Shao Hua, you go with them first and open the wine for officer Zhu first! "

"I quit drinking! You two go up and wait here for me and you! " Zhu Bing said.

"Well, let's go up. Let's go up, Jiajia and us." Shaohua took Lu Renjia up.

"Have you got any cigarettes? Give me one." Zhu Bing lost his smile and suddenly became a little serious. Zhang Fan bought some boxes of cigarettes because he wanted to treat him.

"What's the matter? You've given up drinking. Are you going to close the mountain for afforestation? "

"Well, almost."

"Good thing, then why do you look like a rag."

"I'm a little hesitant!"

"Bullshit, none of the people chasing the road director have a company or a platoon. You're still hypocritical."

"I'm wondering if I want to tell you something. It's illegal!"

"If you can say it, don't say it if you can't. I'm not curious!" Zhang Fan has the biggest secret, so he understands others and doesn't force them.

"No, I don't feel like a thing!" Zhu Bing lit a cigarette, very tangled!

"Look at you, how big a thing do you want to borrow money? How much? I'll find a way to scrape it up for you." Zhang Fan doesn't know what others say. Looking at Zhu Bing, things should be big. He can't refuse directly, so he gave Zhu Bing a step!

"Yes!" Zhu Bing suddenly washed his cigarette and said, "if you have anything about medical rebates, deal with it early. That's all. Just know it yourself."

Zhang Fan was slightly stunned, but he didn't do anything. In the past two years, he really didn't get much in this regard. Besides, he checked and checked this kind of things every year. He didn't care at all. Zhu Bing looked at Zhang Fan's indifference and didn't say anything again.

"Have a cigarette with me! I'll smoke alone. When Jijia comes down, she will talk about me again. If you smoke with me, I'll say you let me smoke!" Zhu Bingxiong had the same body and said he was afraid of a woman. The scene was too funny. Zhang Fan pointed to him and said, "Okay, hey! Gentle village, hero tomb! Look at you! Come on, smoke one."

After a while, other people also came one after another. Zhang Fan, Li Hui, Li Liang and Zhu Bing smoked a cigarette at the door of the hot pot shop and talked a few words before they went up.

"Where's your daughter-in-law? Why didn't she come?" Zhang Fan asked Li Hui who came alone. Although they are in the same hospital, they are usually busy and have hardly met, so they make an occasional phone call or something.

"It's a little effective to protect the fetus for several months. I didn't dare to bring her out in the cold."

"That's good. Let's go. Let's go up." Zhang Fan invited some men who had finished smoking in. These friends have been close friends for two years.

Zhang Fan doesn't drink, Zhu Bing wants to close the mountain for afforestation, Li Hui has to go home to take care of pregnant women, and Li Liang is boring alone. Everyone simply drinks.

This is how people get along with each other. After a long time, the two sides are impressed with each other. In the past, Zhang Fan didn't care much about dressing up, but he began to pay attention to it slowly after he was with Shaohua. This is purely trained.

Shaohua also learned a lot from Zhang Fan. Although he didn't know the reason, he just studied unnaturally. For example, as long as it was raw meat, Zhang Fan usually rinsed the meat for three minutes after the pot opened. Shaohua also learned the same!

"Hua Zi, don't you think the meat is a little old?" Jia SuYue saw the difference and said to Shaohua.

"Yes! I haven't noticed. Zhang Fan seems to eat like this. Not old? " Shaohua turned and asked Zhang Fan.

"Ouch! People say that a woman is stupid for three years when she is pregnant. You start to be stupid before that! Ha ha! "

"I tickle you!"

"Let's talk to Dr. Zhang. What do you say? Let's learn!" Tang Jingjing said with a smile. She is the oldest and has the highest official position. Although she can't control others, this position is placed here. Social people can't avoid vulgarity.

"There's a saying, but today I'll treat. I'm afraid you'll say I'm stingy."

"You are stingy." Wang Yanan ate a mouthful of oil and couldn't wipe it off. He didn't forget to say that he fell into the well. Then he found a helper, "isn't it, Li Liang."

"Yes!" Li Liang looked at Zhang Fan, clenched his teeth and said definitely!

"Ha ha, forget it. I'll tell you after dinner."

"Just say it." Jia SuYue did not let Zhang Fan go.

"Doctor Zhang, give us more knowledge." Lu Renjia also got involved.

"Well, since it's hard to be gracious, I'll say it. Shaohua, hurry to eat more and have a drink!" After Zhang Fan greeted Shaohua, he wiped his mouth, sat up straight and said.

"This is actually a probability problem."

"Hurry up and don't lose your appetite!" Jia SuYue urged.

"Li Liang, Dr. LV and Ya Nan probably forgot about this. In other words, our place is a pastoral area, isn't it? "

"Well, yes, it's a pastoral area." Tang Jingjing said that she was very clear about this administrative division.

"There is a difference between free range livestock and captive livestock in pastoral areas, that is, they eat natural forage, and the meat quality is relatively delicious than that of captive animals." Zhang Fan continued after drinking tea.

"Delicious is delicious, but it has many parasites!"

"What's the matter? Many parasites are directly killed by gastric acid and eosinophils. Don't fool us!" Wang Yanan is a little sour.

LV Shuyan's face turned a little white.

"Then I won't say!"

"Talk about it. We must talk about it. We're going to close the mountains for afforestation. We must pay attention to it. We have to think about our children if we don't think about ourselves." Zhu Bing said quickly.

"Ouch! Why do you say everything! " Lu Renjia is a little shy!

"Well, ha ha, I'll talk about it. Everyone has almost eaten. Shao Hua, go and check out! " Zhang Fan directly sent Shaohua away.

"What's the hurry? I'll pay the bill." Zhu Bing wants to get up and grab it. Several other people are also ready to rush to pay the bill.

"Well, it's just a meal. Who's different? Sit and listen to me tell you a story!" After Zhang Fan stopped them to sit down, he said again.

"This parasite can't be killed by stomach acid. It must go through high temperature. For example, this tapeworm must be boiled for three minutes before it can be killed. When cooked, it's all protein. Maybe it tastes better than mutton! "

"What is a tapeworm?" Lu Renjia asked curiously. At this time, LV Shuyan hurriedly said, "I'll make it convenient. Zhang Fan, wait until I go out!"

I hurried away. I didn't know she was in a hurry! And Wang Yanan didn't respond directly. Surgery trained her out!

"Have you seen the zombie film?"

"Yes."

"In that zombie film, there is a scene in which many long white sticky insects climb out of the Zombie's eyes. That's tapeworm! If there are white spots in the meat, they may be tapeworm eggs! "

"Oh!" Jia SuYue had a little nausea. He stood up, patted Zhang Fan on the shoulder and went out!

"True or false, how should you pay attention? If you are pregnant, will it affect you?" Although Lu Renjia felt uncomfortable, she hurriedly looked at the meat on the plate and asked with a strong forbearance. Tang Jingjing smiled and listened to Zhang Fan.

"Yes, it can destroy the human immune system. This kind of parasite is afraid of high temperature! "

"Oh, well, you must pay attention in the future!" Lu Renjia looked at the mutton in front of him. He was a little nauseous and full!

"Why not eat!" Shaohua came in. Except for a few boys, girls hardly eat.

"In order to save money, your family Zhang Fan directly talked about disgusting things!" Wang Yanan said with a smile.

"Hi! You forced me! "

"He hates it. Let me tell you, when I first met him, he threw me up. Being a doctor is not taboo! Is it Asian male? "

"No way, that's the job." Wang Yanan sighed. She was really tired this year. A woman worked hard in orthopedics and wanted to stand in the Department. It took more effort than a man!

"When will you decide to take a course?" Wang Yanan asked Zhang Fan and added, "don't you want to come to orthopedics?"

"Me? Soon! " Zhang Fan said, eating cooked mutton.

In the past, I had to sing after dinner. Now I'm old and have a lot of things. Each family has its own things. After a few words, I broke up.

"Do you think Ya Nan and Li Liang have hope?" Shaohua took Zhang Fan's arm and they walked slowly on their way home.

"I don't know!"

"I guess it's hanging!"

"It's hard to say! A woman's ears are soft, and she may just say a few good words. "

"What, did you think so!" Shaohua stared round and grabbed Zhang Fan's soft meat and asked.

"You! You are different. You are smart, virtuous and beautiful. You are reasonable! "

"Then I'll tell you a reason." Shaohua wants to pinch the soft meat inside Zhang Fan's arm. Zhang fan runs away quickly.

"Ha ha!" Laughter!
