I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2600 – 2601

The

reason why there is no divorce is because of me and my brother.

So it is equal to our two children, and it is her burden.

It has been instilled in us since childhood.

It made my brother and I ingrained, and both felt we were redundant.

This kind of thinking was instilled from childhood, and when we grew up, my brother and I both felt that it was right for my mother to love her nephews and nieces, and our two brothers and sisters, in front of them, were sins.

My siblings never raised their heads in front of my relatives.

Always inferior.

My aunt, my aunt and the others will support their children no matter what, and let them read more.

But what about me and my brother?

I couldn't afford tuition since elementary school, and I still couldn't afford tuition in junior high school. I just knew a few words and then dropped out of school. How could such two siblings have such a skill?

These so-called skills of mine, decent jobs in big cities, including my so-called boyfriends, are not just packaged by me, they are basically collapsed in one blow.

Now that I've been exposed, my mother's heart is naturally full of anger.

She wanted to get angry, but the doctor told her that her illness could not be angry, otherwise she would have been angry long ago.

And me, I was also full of anger, and I wanted to get angry for a long time.

So when my cousin and cousin came to our house to collect our house, my mother and I finally broke out, and we had a fierce fight. "

Christopher couldn't help but ask, "Would your mother also agree to let you give the house to your aunt's house?"

Galia said with tears: "Yes, she not only asked us to give the house to my uncle's house, but also let us give it to my uncle's house. I saved the money I worked so hard to save for three years, and I didn't pay back my credit card. I saved 30,000 yuan and planned to pay it back to my uncle.

My mother meant that the house had to be given to my uncle. The money has to be given to my uncle's house."

Christopher slammed the table abruptly: "This will not give people a way to live! How can you be a mother like this."

Galia sighed and smiled bitterly: "You With the same expression and action as my dad, my dad also reacted in the same way."

Christopher: "I rarely hear you mention your dad?"

Galia smiled helplessly: "Compared to my mother, I am really more Hate my dad, my mom just thinks we are a burden, at least she knows how to make a bite for me and my brother. She is just too close to her family and looks down on us, but my father, he looks down on me and my brother, But as a man, he never thought about how to make money to support the family.

Instead, he only thought about how to get something back from my grandmother's house and my uncle's house.

This is my dad's life. If he is so useless, anyone can bully him . But he also has his own scheming , he just thinks, you all look down on me anyway, so I can hug you a little more, just a little more.

He never wants to, he owes others, he always has to pay back Yes .

He didn't even think about how our two brothers and sisters lived from childhood to adulthood.

They, my father and my mother, never thought about this.

But one thing, my father was very gentle to me and my brother, He never beats or scolds us. In loving us, my father loves us a little more than my mother gave you.

So my brother and I have been more close to my father since we were young, but also because my father is more close to us and is reluctant to beat and scold us, so whenever my brother and I are angry, we are angry at my father.

Never got mad at my mom, never got into a fight with my mom.

This time, it was the first time I quarreled with my mother.

My cousin and cousin came to ask for our house, and as soon as they left, my mother said, 'Since I agreed to give the house to your uncle's house, I can't be a shameless person! '

I asked my mother ' Do you think that our surname Yan is shameless? '

My mother sneered and said 'Yes! '

I asked her, 'You live with the three of us shameless, do you want shame?'"

Christopher was stunned: "Why are you questioning your mother like that? "

Chapter 2601

Galia lowered her head: "Because I was out of breath, I stopped talking at that time."

Christopher She opened her mouth and wanted to say something she didn't want to say, but she still decided to say it: "Galia, after hearing you say so much, I think, in fact, in this family, although your mother has a bad temper, although the market looks down on you, but In this family, she still has a little more responsibility than your father.

Don't you think?

I don't know your father, nor your mother.

I just learned from your mouth. "

Galia weighed heavily. Nodding: "I know, I understand that for our family, it is still my mother who pays more to take 11,000 steps back. If I don't understand my mother, I won't be able to do it every month for so many years. I have sent money to her.

My mother is in charge of all the money in the family.

I would rather take credit card money to my mother because she is really working hard.

She has really paid a lot for my family, more than Since my father, she is already a bit better.

I understand her difficulties.

She is indeed very embarrassing in front of my aunt and uncle.

So, I try to satisfy her and let her have face in front of her relatives, not only It's because I'm vain and because I know she works hard.

It's not easy to know that she has paid a lot for this family. With a husband like my father, even a woman has a grumpy personality.

I understand it all.

It is because I feel sorry for her and pity her, so she is ill, even if I die of poverty and I sell myself, I will cure her.

I just want her to know that I love her.

I love her more than her parents' nephews and nieces, and more than her sister's children.

I am her biological daughter.

No matter how someone kisses her, they can't have me kiss her.

If her family's nephews and nieces are so fond of her, why is she sick, and the nephews and nieces don't pay to see her doctor?

Why? When

she said this, Galia's aggrieved tears flowed.

She looked at Christopher and asked Christopher over and over again: "Why? Could it be that her biological daughter is stinky shit in her eyes? Could it be that every time she was in poor health and fell ill so many times, it was my daughter who took money from her credit card to see a doctor, didn't she know?"

My nephew and niece, who have been in so much pain since childhood, why didn't they pay for her to see a doctor?

why!

Why can't you think about it.

My daughter is so bad, she is not human!

She just raised Wen Yankuan over and over again. Her grievances were all reflected in her words.

At this moment, Christopher could clearly feel Galia's grievances, which had been suppressed for a long time, 30 years of grievances Christopher gently patted Galia on the back, and asked warmly, "Is this your 30 years of grievance? You have been wronged for so many years, and at that moment it finally broke out. Your whole grievance is actually hoping that your mother can understand you more.

Don't love your family's nephews and nieces more than you.

You didn't really want to say such a bad thing to her, did you? "

Galia cried and questioned: "I am her own, born from her belly! If I am shameless and humble, then what is she?"

A woman who despises her children all the time, how can she be so noble ?
Where are you going?

Can you be alone?"
