

Chapter 2614– 2615 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2614

Once, everyone thought that the power of the master was Mark's biggest trump card.

But what happened today has broken everyone's evaluation of Mark time and time again.

Strange body law, the technique of refining the body.

No matter what kind of secret technique, it is extremely rare and precious in the martial arts world.

After all, there are too few body refining techniques and secret techniques in the martial arts world.

As the saying goes, things are vaguely expensive.

Even the common body art secret technique, or the art of refining the body, will be robbed by the martial arts powerhouses.

What's more, Mark is still using a secret technique that can compete with titles.

Even the War God Temple in the scorching summer, I am afraid that it will never have this background, and it can store such precious secret techniques.

For a while, the once ordinary young man was undoubtedly even more mysterious in the hearts of everyone.

When everyone was frightened, no one noticed that Mike Jones in the crowd suddenly widened after seeing Mark's body refining operation.

"This this.."

"This is the Dragon God Body?"

"How can he get a dragon body?"

"This is absolutely impossible!"

Mike Jones stared at his eyes, it was hard to believe that their Truman Supreme Secret Art was actually displayed on a young man in the summer.

The dragon mystery technique was only accessible to and practiced by the master of the past dynasties.

At the beginning, Mike Jones was fortunate to see the Truman master used it once. This powerful technique of refining the body left a very deep impression on Mike Jones.

However, after the shock, Mike Jones discovered that Mark used it, which seemed a little different from the one used by their Truman Sect Master.

“No, I remember that the sect master’s dragon body was a feminine force.”

“And what Mark exudes is masculine power.”

“The temperament is very different.”

“This shouldn’t be the dragon god body~”

Mike Jones shook his head. After seeing these differences clearly, the shock in his heart only faded a bit.

But how did Mike Jones know that the dragon body was originally divided into yin and yang.

What Mark used was naturally very different from the one used by the Chumen master.

But think about it, such a supreme secret technique, because of Chu Qitian’s status and power in the Chu family, he has not been exposed to it for so many years, not to mention the lower status of Mike Jones?

Bang~

Suddenly, there was a loud noise in front.

I saw that Mark, whose Dragon God body was fully opened, did not hide again this time.

Rather, he stepped up into the sky directly in a primitive way, in the most violent posture.

With a punch that breaks the sky, you can resist the power of the burning sword!

Upon seeing this, Fen Tian suddenly sneered with disdain.

“A mortal body, dare to vainly want to contend with the sword?”

“What a wishful thinking!”

While laughing, Fen Tian's mad sword in his hand rose against the storm.

Afterwards, with an unpredictable force, he fiercely confronted Mark's iron fist.

However, the scene of knife-cutting tofu did not appear as expected.

Wherever the fist and the knife collided, sparks shot out instead.

It seems that this knife was not cut in Mark's hand, but on the gold stone.

"This... this is impossible!!"

Fen Tian's expression completely changed, and there was panic on the majestic face.

For the first time in so many years, he panicked while fighting people.

"Isn't there too many things?"

The storm swept through, and the leaves were flying.

The afterglow of the setting sun reflected Mark's delicate and calm profile.

Facing Fen Tian's panic, Mark just smiled back.

Afterwards, it was a general offensive of violent storms, like raindrops, pouring down against the burning sky.

If we say that the previous battle was a special performance by Burning Heaven.

So next, it will be Mark's solo show!

Chapter 2615

Bang~

Before the Dong Mansion, Mark gave a fierce punch and slammed it down at Fen Tian.

The majestic fist strength brings a surging momentum, like a huge boulder into the sea, in this world, setting off a huge wave.

Fen Tian was shocked and hurriedly waved his knife to block.

Boom~

With a punch, Mark hit Fen Tian's blade again.

Amidst the skyrocketing tremors, a majestic wave of air suddenly spread from the place where the two were fighting against each other and madly spilled in all directions.

After the punch fell, the two of them hit it off.

He stepped back on the ground a few steps.

However, it was finally blocked.

“Oh, what a powerful body-building technique I think.”

“Now it seems, but so.”

“I used 50% of my strength to block it.”

“If this king is doing his best, you are afraid that you won’t be able to move this king at all!”

On the solitary island, Fen Tian’s eyebrows were sharp, and he sneered.

However, no one noticed that the blade in Fen Tian’s hand was still trembling.

There is even more blood looming in the mouth of the tiger where he holds the knife.

It seems that his situation at this time is not as optimistic as he has shown.

Yes, no one knows what deep dignity and jealousy hidden beneath Fen Tian’s calm appearance.

Mark’s weird and powerful, undoubtedly greatly exceeded his expectations.

In particular, this physical exercise method shocked him even more.

Before, when Mark avoided his attacks by relying on his body skills, he just felt depressed and angry. But now, Mark unexpectedly broke out a power that was not weaker than him.

This undoubtedly made Fen Tian feel the threat of life for the first time!

Of course, Fen Tian is not a guinea pig with poor skills now, he still has his hole cards to be useless.

However, Fen Tian himself knew that even if he used his hole cards and tried his best to kill the young man in front of him, it would be a tragic victory.

At that time, he will also be at the end of the crossbow, and will even be injured.

This is definitely not a good result for Fen Tian.

After all, the purpose of his coming here is not to fight the weird boy in front of him, but for the treasure.

Therefore, under various considerations, Fen Tian's killing intent on Mark has faded.

He just begged to let Mark take the initiative to retreat.

Therefore, he just pretended to be calm and calm just now, so that Mark could retreat in the face of difficulties.

But sometimes, the development of things does not follow what I expected.

Facing Fen Tian's sneer, Mark didn't care.

After he stabilized his figure, he stepped on the ground, waved a heavy fist and rushed away again.

"is it?"

"Then I am really looking forward to it, how will the Heavenly Kings of India try their best?"

A faint laughter echoed in the wind.

At the moment Mark's words fell, Mark's second wave of attacks had already arrived.

This time, Mark's offensive was undoubtedly more violent.

Or fist or palm, or split or chop.

In a short span of time, almost a thousand punches were made.

At this time, Mark's body was filled with golden light, and the shadow of the dragon rose behind him.

Looking from a distance, it was like a steel demon coming from the depths of Shura.

He roared, he chopped.

Facing the Fen Tian in front of him, his attacks were pouring frantically.

He didn't have a sword, and he didn't need a sword.

Because today's Mark is the most powerful divine weapon in the world.

The blessing of the dragon body almost gave him the bones and bones of steel.

Boom boom boom~

Mark made ten punches in one second and swept all directions with one punch.

The surging majesty and the majestic momentum made the great earthquake tremble and the Tianhe tremble.
