

Chapter 2618– 2619 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2618

“Next, die!”

Fen Tian made a long scream in the words of senran, holding a long knife, and pointed at Tian.

“Thunder!”

Stabbed~

In the tremor and trepidation of everyone, I saw a branch-shaped mountain peak in the depths of the sea of clouds, piercing the void.

Then, the ten-meter thunder snake, like a waterfall, flew under the stream.

The lightning flashed and the thunder snake surged.

The surging power, trembling all directions.

However, just when everyone was astounded, Mark, who was on the cusp of the storm, after seeing the ten-meter thunder snake attracted by Fen Tian, his original solemn face was immediately relieved.

“Just this point of Thunder, dare to say that it is the power of heaven and earth?”

Mark shook his head and smiled.

Today, it is not the first time that he has seen this kind of thundering technique.

Many years ago, Mark had personally seen the majesty of the celestial master Lei Fa.

It’s just that Baizhang Thunder was what attracted that time!

The power of thunder in front of him is far inferior to that of the past.

“It seems that you still haven’t grasped the essence of the Heavenly Master’s Thunder Law after all.”

“shut up!”

“You are so young, you are dying, are you still pretending to be forced?”

“For a while, when you were under my thunder and turned into ashes, I think you still laughed out?”

Fen Tian was pulling the power of Thunder, while cursing angrily at Mark.

He is undoubtedly going crazy by this hot summer boy!

He originally thought that after he cast Thunder Magic, he would see Mark's horror and panic.

But he didn't expect that Mark didn't show the slightest panic, but he was still in this dead duck mouth, still pretending to be forced?

“is it?”

“If this is the case, let's take a look, and who will be the last laugh after a while?”

Mark let out a chuckle.

Afterwards, his whole body exploded suddenly.

In the pubic area, Yundao Tianjue was running crazily.

Under the tendons, the surging force surged.

The golden light surging all over, the dragon god's body fired.

At this time, Mark, the power of the whole person, is undoubtedly condensed to the extreme.

Although, the thunder method used by Burning Heaven was not as powerful as Mark imagined.

But after all, this is the power of thunder, the most arrogant and domineering power in the world.

Even more excuses, this Burning Heaven is also a strong man on the list, and is the titled master of the Asian continent second only to the God of War.

Mark naturally dared to blaspheme.

Shot at this time, even more go all out!

Finally, with Mark gaining momentum to complete.

Bang~

There was a low boom, like a thunderstorm.

I saw Mark stepping on the ground and rising to the sky.

Between the sea of clouds, Mark stood upright, surging like a dragon.

At the same time, Mark's majestic and ethereal voice echoed in the sky at this moment.

“Yundao Tianjue~”

“The first style, Yunyang... kick~”

However, just as Mark’s words fell, when the torrential offensive was about to step on the front of the Fen Tian, who would have thought that the abnormal change would happen at this time.

In the depths of the dense forest, a figure in a gray robe appeared quietly.

This person was so fast that once he appeared, he would fly across the world like a flying bird.

With a terrifying speed surpassing the sound, he directly rushed into the battle, and immediately rushed behind Mark.

Then, a cold light flashed in his hand.

A sharp short blade reflected the afterglow of the setting sun and pierced Mark’s back neck!

“Brother Mark, be careful~”

At this time, everyone hadn’t recovered at all. Some didn’t even notice the figure that suddenly appeared behind Mark, and finally An Qi called out first.

“Ok?”

“what?”

Mark was shocked immediately, his face changed drastically, and his pupils suddenly tightened.

Chapter 2619

too suddenly.

All this almost happened between lightning and fire.

One second ago, the King of Yin Tian Fen Tian held a sword to induce thunder, and Ye Fanyun Daotian showed his domineering power.

But in the next second, that strange figure appeared behind Mark like a teleportation.

Moreover, the opposing party’s choice at this time can be described as extremely tricky.

It was the key time for Mark to infuse his mind to deal with Burning Heaven.

Under this circumstance, Mark’s energy was undoubtedly all on Fen Tian’s body, so he naturally had no time to take care of him.

Terrible speed, tricky timing, and the momentum of the thunder that will kill you.

It can be said that the person behind him performed a sneak attack to a near perfection.

It was the Chinese God of War Ye Qingtian who was here, and he had no time to react to this blow.

Yes, when Mark noticed that someone was attacking, it was already too late.

At that point, it was too late for Mark to react.

The only thing he can do is to rely on his almost instinctive reaction and try his best to avoid his vitals.

Huh~

The sword entered the body, and the cold light flashed.

The next moment, in everyone's trembling eyes, an extremely sharp short blade broke Mark's defense within an extreme time, and fiercely inserted Mark's back.

A fierce energy rushed directly into Mark's body through this short blade that entered the body. ,

Huh~

Mark was injured in an instant, his body trembled, and a mouthful of blood came out immediately.

However, what made this sneak attacker suspicious was that his own mortal blow, after inserting three inches into Mark's body, his short blade, as if stuck by something, was actually difficult to get in the slightest.

“Ok?”

“Damn it!”

“How is this going?”

Behind Mark, the gray-robed man's face was on one side, astonishment appeared in his eyebrows.

You know, he has been hiding here for a long time, and he has been waiting for this opportunity.

In this case, even if Mark is really a titled master, he is confident that he will kill him with one blow.

Even if it can't die, it will definitely be abolished, and there will be no power to fight again.

Of course, the prerequisite for all of this is that his own knife must penetrate Mark's body completely.

Only in this way can Mark's vitals be hurt.

But now, what he never expected was that he had only pierced half of the time and place, and he could hardly enter the slightest.

This situation will undoubtedly reduce the power of his blow!

When the gray-robed man was surprised, Mark had already turned his body, his cold eyes were flushed with blood, staring at the gray-robed man in front of him coldly.

The bloody profile is so horrible and horrible.

It was this man in gray who was shivering unconsciously.

“You... are you crazy?”

“If you don't fight against Lei Fa, do you want to deal with me instead?”

The man in the gray robe was shocked.

You know, Mark now has an enemy.

There was thunder from the sky in front of him, and the culprits behind him secretly attacked and killed.

When the sneak attack has been successful, anyone who is normal will inevitably deal with the Leifa with all his heart and soul, and then find a way to retaliate against the sneak attacker.

However, what made this gray-robed man never expected was that this Chinese teenager turned to retaliate against him in spite of the power of falling thunder.

“This is a lunatic~”

This is the only thought in the gray robe man's mind at this moment.

Afterwards, he naturally didn't dare to stay anymore, turned around and ran.

However, close combat can cause the most damage to the target, but likewise, such a short distance will inevitably lead to the difficulty of escaping far in time after the attack is unsuccessful.
