

Chapter 2630– 2631 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2630

This is undoubtedly unthinkable for Mike Jones.

Therefore, when Yu Yun wiped Mark's blood with pity and distress, Mike Jones immediately rejected his speculation.

At this time, Yu Yun was still awkwardly helping Mark wipe the blood on the corners of his mouth.

However, Yu Yun seems to have never done such a job of serving people. Originally, it was only a bit of blood on the corners of her mouth. After being wiped by Yu Yun, half of her face was covered.

Mark was a little bit dumbfounded: "I'll do it myself. If you ask you to serve me, I'm afraid I can live or not."

"You~"

Mark's words made Yu Yun's Qiong nose almost crooked.

You know, all along, others have served oneself, so how can she take care of others.

Now, she put down her body and went to wipe the blood on him herself.

If it's someone else in the clan, I'm afraid it would have been flattered and grateful for a long time.

But this bastard in front of her still dislikes her?

Yu Yun is almost going to be pissed off by this guy.

All the original touches disappeared at this moment!

"Huh, I don't bother to care about you."

Yu Yun angrily threw the handkerchief into Mark's arms, but suddenly got up, turned her head to look at King Yintian who was staring forward, burning the sky.

At this moment, the cold and majestic temperament appeared on Yu Yun again.

She was expressionless, her beautiful eyes were filled with killing intent and anger, and a cold voice quietly sounded.

“He hurt you.”

“Mark, wait for me.”

“I’ll be back in a while.”

After speaking, Yu Yun lifted her footsteps, moved Lianbu slightly, and slowly approached in the direction of King Yintian.

No one knows what kind of anger is in Yu Yun’s heart at this time.

Especially after seeing Mark’s injury just now, deep in Yu Yun’s heart, there was a kind of nameless business fire, which burned blazingly.

For so many years, there has never been a moment that made her angry like she is now.

There was never a moment when she wanted to kill someone so eagerly as she is now.

Huh~

The cold wind rolled up boundless leaves.

At the moment when Yu Yun got up, everyone only felt that the temperature of the sky and the earth dropped by a few minutes.

A majestic killing intent, like a storm, swept out from the shadow in front.

Under this majesty, everyone shuddered.

Even King Yintian Burning the sky, also felt a huge and deadly threat.

Fen Tian’s expression suddenly became serious.

After feeling the other party’s good strength, Fen Tian did not immediately do it, but politely said: “Friend, I am the Yintian King Fentian.”

“Today’s matter is the grievance between me and him.”

“I hope this friend will save face and not interfere in today’s affairs.”

“If you agree, it’s all because this king owes you a favor.”

“how is it?”

Fen Tian asked in a low voice, his posture was very low, and his tone of voice was extremely polite.

However, in the face of Fen Tian’s words, Yu Yun remained silent, stepping forward and moving on.

“Friend, give me a word?” Fen Tian frowned and asked again.

But, this time, the only response to him was the words of Yu Yun, like ice.

“I said that if I hurt him the slightest bit, I will kill you all.”

“King Yintian, today will be your death day next year!!”

Huh~

Chapter 2631

The words of coldness and coldness, like a cold wind, swept all over the place.

In the scorching wind, the after-rhyme dresses fluttered, and three thousand blue silks were chaotic like snow.

The whole body’s momentum was released suddenly at this moment.

“Friend, if you have something to say, there is no need to face each other with swords~”

Fen Tian, the King Yintian, was immediately shocked and hurriedly put on a low posture, saying good things like Yu Yun.

Those who know the current affairs are the best!

After the previous battles, even if Fen Tian still had enough energy, he was far behind his peak state.

It can even be said that the battle with Mark just now has consumed most of Fen Tian’s energy.

Now he is not in his heyday, so naturally he tries to avoid fighting with others.

Therefore, if it can be solved with words, Burning Heaven still does not want to do it.

However, Yu Yun would not care about Burning Heaven’s words.

Before Fen Tian's words were finished, Yu Yun's majestic attack had suddenly fallen.

Whoosh whoosh~

Under the Tianhe River, Yu Yun held a seven-foot green peak, her long skirt fluttering, and the green silk was like snow, facing the direction of Fen Tian, angrily cut down.

The speed is as fast as a flash of light.

Obviously everyone only saw Yu Yun wielding a sword, but where the eyes came, the sky was filled with Yu Yun's sword light.

The overwhelming fierce sword aura is like a sword river woven with sword light.

And Yintian King Burning the sky is just a piece of fish in Jianhe.

"My friend, if you have something to say, there is no need to make a fuss so stiff~"

"The big deal, the treasures in this cave are divided equally among us."

....

The wind was violent, and the sword aura raged across the sky.

Even at this time, Yin Tian Wang Fen Tian was still working hard to recover.

Of course, Fen Tian's mouth put on a gesture of seeking peace, but the movement of his hands did not fall in the slightest.

When Yu Yun cut down with the sword, Burning Heaven's powerful offensive had also been completed.

After seeing that a big battle was inevitable, Fen Tian immediately changed his face and sternly said: "Smelly girl, shamelessly!"

"I really think that the king was injured, isn't it your opponent?"

"You're just a weak woman, and you don't know who's crotch minister is at night, so you dare to rant about this king?"

"Today, this king will thwart you, so that you won't even be able to die next year!"

The King of Yintian Fentian was also pressed into anxiousness.

He is also the martial arts leader of South Asia, and the master of the heavenly list, and the low-pitched plea just now is the limit he can bear.

However, who would have thought that the woman in front of her would not give any face.

He even ignored him, tore his face and slapped him!

The clay figurines also have three points of anger, not to mention that the King Yintian, who is the leader of a country's martial arts, burns the sky.

He had already decided that even if he was seriously injured this time, he would have to slaughter the woman.

He didn't believe it, how good can a woman be?

Even if he is injured, he has to touch her to try the woman's reality.

In this way, the furious King Yintian immediately stepped onto the ground, and the crazy sword in his hand surged wildly.

The violent wind that brought up raged everywhere.

In just a few breaths, Burning Heaven also slashed with several swords.

The sword beams horizontally and horizontally, like a giant dragon galloping, and then the attack of Yu Yun, fiercely colliding with each other.

Keng~

Soon, the two had already faced each other with swords.

The metal humming sounded like thunder, resounding everywhere, and sparks shot.

Everywhere in the eye is the mighty power of the two.
