

Chapter 2638– 2639 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2638

A cold voice without the slightest emotion also sounded immediately.

“I said, anyone who hurts him will die.”

“Today, neither of you two can leave.”

The faint words contained endless majesty.

At the moment when these words fell, there was a sudden cold wind in this world.

Immediately afterwards, Yu Yun mentioned the long sword in her hand again, and it seemed that a powerful killer move was already ready.

When Gaia and others saw this, they completely gave up their illusions.

Yintian King Fentian even gritted his teeth and cursed: “It looks like you are going to follow us and you will never die.”

“In that case, there is nothing to say.”

“Fight!”

“We today, even if we die, have to break your teeth.”

Fen Tian said with a sullen voice, under his eyebrows, there was a decisive look.

It is as if, in a desperate situation, doing the final battle between trapped beasts.

Boom~

Sure enough, after speaking, Fen Tian once again gathered power.

The surging power, like a storm, poured madly on his body.

Of course, today’s momentum is undoubtedly much weaker than before.

“Gaia, come.”

“Last fight~”

“Life and death, each has his destiny!”

At the last moment, King Yintian Fentian glanced at Gaia.

Then the two of them seemed to have reached a tacit understanding, and they violent at the same time.

“Folo Boxing!”

“Bo Ruo Palm!”

....

Amid the majestic shouts, I saw the bodies of Fen Tian and Gaia, like arrows from the string, rising into the sky.

Then, with a fist and a palm, almost at the same time, he slammed it at Yu Yun.

The majestic power, like a river, rushes forward.

After the final struggle of the two titled masters, Yu Yun naturally did not dare to neglect.

She was engrossed, a pair of beautiful eyes staring at the movements of Gaia’s two closely.

After their offensive whizzed in, Yu Yun immediately waved a long sword to block.

However, just as Yu Yun was ready to deal with their second wave of offensive, the next moment, all the awkward things happened.

I saw King Fentian and Gaia both turning around and running after finishing a move.

The speed of these two people was so fast that they almost used all their milk-feeding energy, and they seemed to have to flee outside of the isolated island with their feet on Tianhe.

“This...”

“This... Is this going away?”

The crowd onlookers below were dumbfounded at the time, their mouths twitched, and their faces were full of consternation.

They didn’t expect that the two of them who had just turned around and fled straight away?

Say the most ruthless words, but do the most intimidating things.

“These two people are also two weird flowers in the martial arts world~”

Mike Jones couldn’t smile, shaking his head and talking.

In fact, it was not just them, but Yu Yun herself. After seeing the two people who were suddenly far away, there was also a brief astonishment on their expressions.

However, it was only a moment.

Soon, Yu Yun recovered her calm, her beautiful eyes were still sorrowful.

“Want to run?”

“Can you run away?”

Yu Yun whispered, expressionless.

Then he held the sword in both hands, raised his head, and looked straight ahead. The sharpness on the sword pointed directly to the place where Fen Tian and others had fled.

The next moment, a cold shout, quietly exploded.

“The extreme of the sword, kill!”

Whoosh~

Below the sky, I saw a long rainbow light up.

As if the purple gas came from the east, it split the world and penetrated the space in a moment.

Actually appeared directly behind the two King Yintian.

“what?”

Chapter 2639

“This...what kind of swordsmanship is this?”

“How... how could...”

At that moment, Fen Tian paled in shock, his eyes widened round.

In the eyebrows, there was a look of horror and disbelief.

Fen Tian never dreamed that Yu Yun’s sword could come soon and penetrate the space?

Huh~

Jing Hong fell, and Jian Qi swept across.

In this way, in a scream of extreme screams, Fen Tian’s right arm was smashed under Yu Yun’s sword.

“Ah~”

The bones and muscles were broken, the blood was red, and the blood spilled into the sky.

That dazzling blood is even redder than the setting sun!

“Asshole, how dare you be so cruel?”

“You wait for me.”

“The hatred of the broken arm today, in the future, I will burn the sky to repay it a hundred times.”

“When we meet again, this king will wait for you, frustrating bones and ashes~”

“Bone bones and ashes~”

The vicious and painful voice of Burning Heaven trembled the world like thunder.

What kind of resentment it was that almost made the rocks tremble and the vegetation cracked.

What kind of pain and stern sound made everyone shudder.

After speaking, Fen Tian endured the pain, holding his broken arm and dragging his mutilated body, he continued to flee towards the distance.

On the other hand, because Fen Tian helped him block most of the power of that sword, the situation of Gaia, King of Persia, was much better.

However, swept by the remaining power of that sword aura, he vomited blood and flew out, and finally fell to the ground.

However, after Gaia landed, he gritted his teeth and quickly stood up from the ruins, and then, as if burning the sky, he seemed to flee towards the outside of the island as if he continued to be crazy.

However, after being hit hard by this, the speed at which the two escaped was significantly slower.

Yu Yun held a long sword and chased away again.

Seeing that, Yu Yun would not give up if she didn't kill these two people.

“Aftermath, it's okay~”

“No need to chase.”

At this moment, Mark's call suddenly came from behind him.

However, Yu Yun did not listen to Mark's words, but coldly replied: “I said, whoever touches you the slightest will die.”

“You promise, and so do I.”

At this time, the lingering rhyme is surprisingly stubborn.

She threatened not to kill the two of Fen Tian and Gaia, and her sword would never be returned to the sheath.

In this way, Yu Yun stepped on the void, and once again chased and killed the two in the direction where they fled.

However, who could have thought that at this moment, Mark, who had been holding on, seemed to have reached the limit of what he could endure.

His body trembled, and finally he snorted, a mouthful of hot blood, and then he vomited it out.

This time, Mark could no longer remain sober.

My consciousness gradually became blurred, and the light and shadow in front of my eyes gradually dimmed.

In the end, he could no longer see Yu Yun's back.

In the afterglow of the setting sun, the scarred young man in front of him was finally overwhelmed and collapsed on the ruins.

This time, Mark didn't stand up again.

“Brother Mark~”

An Qi's call was full of endless sadness and misery, just like this, it passed through the ages.

“Mark~”

After hearing this call, Yu Yun immediately turned around, when she saw the figure of the young man lying on top of the ruins.

Whoosh~

A figure flashed past, and the fragrant wind filled the air. The aftermath that had originally planned to hunt down Fen Tian and the others finally turned back.

With anxiety and worry on her face, she picked up the boy who had fallen on the ruins, and then left quickly.

Soon, those two figures disappeared into everyone's eyes like this.
