

Chapter 2640– 2641 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2640

It's like not knowing where these two people came from, no one knows, where will they go at this time?

However, with the departure of Fen Tian and others, the heaven and earth here only recovered their long-lost peace.

A peak duel ended in a fiasco between the King Yintian and the King of Persia.

Especially Burning Heaven, in the end, he was cut down by Yu Yunsheng.

If this is the case, even if the Burning Heaven injury recovers in the future, his strength will be greatly damaged, and he will suffer a lifetime disability.

Recalling the scene just now, many people still have ups and downs, and it is difficult to calm down for a long time.

“The majesty of the titled powerhouse is indeed something we can't match in my life.”

“I don't know, among my descendants, is there a chance to reach this ultimate martial art state?”

Under the dense forest, countless people shook their heads with emotion.

People, only after seeing the vastness of the sea, do they know their insignificance.

Before this, many people in this area were proud of their martial arts achievements, and they were even more prestigious and self-esteem in the martial arts of their own country.

Once, they thought that their strength had already stood on the heights of martial arts.

Even if it is not a peak powerhouse, it is definitely worthy of being a party prince.

However, only after he truly experienced the majesty of the titled master did he realize that their strength is a fart in front of the real strong.

“But, is that beautiful grandmaster just now really strong?”

“The two titles were directly exploded by her.”

“The second strongest in Asia, was cut down by her life!”

“I really don’t know, who is this beautiful grandmaster?”

While feeling that they are weak, many people are still shocked and curious about Yu Yun’s strength.

Many people began to secretly guess the identity and background of this woman.

“Let me say, you should be curious about the origin and background of that young man instead of being curious about the identity of this beautiful master.”

“Just now the beautiful grandmaster, after seeing that young man was injured, went crazy chasing down the King Yintian and the King of Persia.”

“Obviously, the relationship between these two people is by no means ordinary.”

“Moreover, if I expected it to be good, they should be in a romantic relationship.”

“Think about it, is it mundane to be able to conquer such a majestic woman, that young man?”

Among the crowd, someone suddenly talked about Mark.

When he said so, everyone was awakened just now.

“Fuck!”

“According to what you said, the most awesome person is not the beautiful grandmaster, but the hot summer boy?”

....

“I’m paralyzed, I really envy him.”

“At a young age, it’s all about a strong cultivation base, and there are such outstanding women with him.”

“That’s the titled master?”

“It’s exciting to think about falling in love with this class of women.”

“I don’t know, what will it be like at night for a titled master-level woman?”

Among the crowd, many people got farther and farther, and finally they even dreamed up and became self-conscious.

“Haha~”

“You old devil, your saliva is almost draining.”

.....

After talking and laughing for a while, the powerhouses of various countries, driven by curiosity, met to explore the cave in front of them.

Sure enough, it was already empty inside, and there was no treasure in it.

“Hey~”

“It’s estimated that the beautiful grandmaster has already been handed over.”

“Treasures belong to the strong after all.”

“Let’s go away.”

“Let’s all go back too.”

Chapter 2641

On the isolated island, the hustle and bustle is gone.

The powerhouses of all countries have also begun to go back.

However, even though this time still came home empty-handed, in the eyes of everyone, there was not much loss.

On the contrary, many people’s faces are filled with excitement and pride.

“Haha~”

“Can witness the shocking battle of three titled powerhouses with my own eyes.”

“Brother, this time we are not worth the trip.”

.....

“That’s not it?”

“This matter, we can go back for a lifetime.”

.....

“But, you said, that Hot Summer Boy is really also a Titled Grand Master?”

“At his age, being able to become a master is extremely incredible.”

“If he is still a titled master, that would be too ridiculous, right?”

.....

“I don’t think so!”

“It is estimated that what kind of forbidden technique he used to improve his strength for a short time.”

“Otherwise, with his own power, I am afraid that he will not be able to stop King Yintian’s blow.”

While everyone was proud, they were talking about Mark again.

After all, a twenty-year-old titled master is really unacceptable.

You know, before this, the youngest titled master was thirty years old.

And Mark shortened this record by ten years.

It’s like the current world record for the 100-meter sprint is more than nine seconds, but one day, someone suddenly ran into the 100-meter race for five seconds.

Do you believe it?

Ghosts will believe it!

It is estimated that at that time, everyone would suspect that the watch was broken, either because the person used some high-tech methods, or there was some shameful tricks in it.

Anyway, no one would believe that someone could shorten the world record by that much by their own ability.

Just like now, many people questioned Mark’s strength, and they thought that Mark used some secret technique to make his strength soar in a short time.

There are numerous martial arts secrets in the martial arts world, and some of them are forbidden.

These forbidden techniques are often extremely powerful, allowing people to explode with a powerful force far beyond their own realm.

However, the consequences are also extremely serious.

Basically, it is at the cost of permanently damaging one's health or lifespan.

It is precisely because of this that such secret techniques are often banned by the martial arts of various countries.

But even so, there are often people who are eager for quick success and quick gains, ignoring the prohibition, and practicing secretly.

"It seems that it should be the reason for practicing forbidden technique."

"It's a pity that such a good seedling went astray and embarked on the path of such evil spirits."

"This time, even if he survives by chance, he is afraid that he will become a useless person because of the backlash of the forbidden technique."

"Hey~"

"The person who had a promising future is completely abolished~"

.....

"What's a pity, it's all on his own account, and it's not a pity to die."

"Furthermore, these people who are eager for quick success and quick benefits often have extremely problematic character."

"If the title is really achieved in the future, it will definitely be a great disaster in the martial arts world."

"Now it's abolished, which is also a good thing~"

Among the crowd, some sighed, some sneered, and some gloated.

The so-called various states of life are nothing more than that.

In this way, these people talked and went away.

Here, only Mike Jones and other Trumans remained in place.

"Master, did you say that the person just now was our sect master?"

At this time, a subordinate behind him suddenly asked in a low voice.
