

Chapter 2644– 2645 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2644

When everyone left the island in the lake, two figures appeared on the other side of the island quietly.

One of them was graceful and beautiful, with a dusty and noble temperament, which almost made the sun and the moon shining.

However, for such a stunning woman, her beautiful eyes are full of sadness and worry.

This person, not someone else, is naturally the aftermath of the war that has just ended.

And the person in her arms was Mark who was seriously injured and dying.

Yes, Yu Yun did not leave this lake island.

Instead, he took Mark and found another place to hide.

After all, this small island is surrounded by lakes, and it can be said to have a natural barrier.

Whether it is for cultivation or healing, it is an excellent place.

After finding a cave, Yu Yun cautiously placed Mark on the ground.

She looked at Mark's injuries, and it was only at this time that Yu Yun discovered how serious Mark's injuries were.

Two penetrating injuries on her body have already hurt her lungs.

Moreover, due to the strong resistance to a thunder method of King Yintian, the force of thunder entered the body, and the veins in Mark's body were also seriously damaged.

Mark's physical condition at this time can be described as shocking, which is by no means an exaggeration.

"I wanted to kill you at the beginning."

"For me, a ruthless person, is it really worth it to hurt so much?"

As Yu Yun spoke, her beautiful eyes turned red before she knew it.

After a hurried farewell outside the Chu family's old house, Yu Yun thought that she and Mark would never see each other again in this life.

My Dao Xin will never waver for anyone again.

However, who would have thought that good luck would make people foolish.

Fate unexpectedly made her and Mark meet again in this situation.

What Yu Yun didn't expect was that her mood was shaken several times because of the same person.

All the time, all her thoughts and energy have been placed on martial arts.

After so many years, how did she stop by herself? Moved by one person?

But the young man in front of her has repeatedly broken her mind.

Yu Yun remembers that her teacher once told her that if in the future someone let her Daoism fall and shake her heart, then kill him.

Those who make great things, beware of no sidesteps, when the heart is pure, and when the six faculties are clean.

Otherwise, that person will eventually become the biggest shackle on the way of martial arts.

And the current situation is undoubtedly an excellent opportunity for After Rhyme.

She didn't need to do anything, just turned around and left, letting Mark fend for himself here.

As long as Mark dies, there will be no one in this world who can shake her state of mind.

But how can Yu Yun succeed?

She has always considered herself a heartless person.

For so many years, life and death are deprived, life is like ants, life is like weeds.

She is the master of the sky list, she has also killed.

However, facing the young man in front of her, she couldn't kill at all.

To him, there is nothing but owes and emotions.

In the end, Yu Yun stayed, ready to heal Mark.

However, before healing, Yu Yun first pulled off a few strands of silk and satin from her long skirt, then ran to the lake to soak, and then carefully helped Mark wipe the wounds and blood stains on her body after returning.

“Water~”

“water...”

However, just as Yu Yun awkwardly wiped Mark’s wound, Mark’s faint voice suddenly came from her ears.

Chapter 2645

The sound was vague and subtle, almost inaudible.

But Yu Yun was very close to Mark at this time, so she could hear her clearly.

Therefore, Yu Yun Dang even ran to the lake to fetch water for Mark.

However, after walking there, Yu Yun found out that she didn’t have a vessel for holding water at all.

In desperation, Yu Yun could only use both hands, holding a sip of water from the lake, and sending it to Mark.

It’s a pity that when Yu Yun rushed back to the cave mansion again, the water in her hand had already leaked out, and in the end only a few drops fell on Mark’s lips.

“No way~”

“It’s so far from the lake, this method can’t get water at all.”

Yu Yun was a little irritable and anxious.

Before thinking about it, Yu Yun had thought that she was omnipotent. With her power and status, nothing in this world could hold him back.

However, what Yu Yun didn’t expect was that his world-renowned master of the list would be stumped by such trivial matters.

“Water~”

“water...”

In the ear, Mark's weak voice came again.

Compared with just now, Mark's voice was a little lower again, and his delicate face was full of pain.

Yu Yun touched Mark's forehead lightly and found that it was extremely hot, as if she was having a high fever.

Although Yu Yun has not been ill for many years, she still understands some common sense.

She knows that people with fever must not be missing.

"How to do?"

"How can I do?"

"Do you want to take him to the lake."

"But, in this situation, can he still experience this kind of rush?"

As the so-called concern is chaotic.

Seeing Mark's painful look, Yu Yun was confused for a while, feeling helpless.

Knowing that when she saw Mark's trembling lips, a thought appeared in her mind almost instantly.

However, as soon as this idea appeared, it was suppressed by Yu Yun.

"No..."

"I can't do this~"

Yu Yun shook her head and whispered, a few shyness appeared on Qiao's face unexpectedly.

However, in the end, her concern for Mark defeated her reason.

"Forget it, just be willful again."

"Anyway, no one saw it."

After tangling for a while, Yu Yun Yinfang bit her, and then the lotus step moved lightly, the graceful shadow left here again, and went away gracefully.

When she came back again, her cheeks were slightly bulging, perhaps because of lack of oxygen, her pretty faces were still a little red.

In this way, as soon as Yu Yun came back, she ran to Mark like flying.

She bent down, her beautiful and pretty faces approached Mark so slowly.

Looking at Mark's closer eyebrows, Yu Yun's pretty face became more and more red.

In the end, the whole person became nervous, as if ten thousand fawns were touching in his heart.

Yu Yun didn't know why. She comforted herself a thousand times and 10,000 times. She was just saving people, just restoring Mark's favor. Everything was forced by the situation and had no other intentions.

But even so, she still felt shy and embarrassed.

That kind of feeling is like a icy and shy girl who is secretly kissing the one she likes.

“Hey~”

“Fight, this bastard can't see it anyway.”

The after-rhyme under the shyness, eyes closed and heart swayed.

In the next second, her warm red lips were lightly printed on the corners of Mark's lips.
