

Chapter 2654– 2655 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2654

Yu Yun said blankly, and at the same time passed the delicate wooden box in her arms to Mark.

“It turned out to be a twin spirit fruit?”

“This is too rare.”

“This kind of spirit fruit, even one, is a rare treasure in a thousand years. But now, two of them have appeared at once.”

Mark was a little excited, and his delicate forehead was full of surprises.

He took the wooden box from Yu Yun’s hand, and immediately lowered his head and looked at it carefully.

It was an egg-sized fruit, and there were red awns surging on the round spirit fruit. Just looking at it, Mark could clearly feel that a scorching breath was spilling from the spirit fruit.

“Haha~”

“Good things, good things~”

Mark couldn’t take care of the injuries on his body, and he couldn’t help but hear from ear to ear.

With this fire spirit fruit, Mark’s long-staying cultivation base will inevitably go further.

However, Mark was not happy for long. After calming down, Mark returned the fire spirit fruit to Yu Yun.

“This thing is too precious, I can’t accept it.”

“You better keep it for yourself.”

“So, after returning to the family, you can also explain to the people in your family.”

“Otherwise, you haven’t brought back the two spirit fruits. The elders in your clan, I’m afraid they will blame you.”

Mark has always considered thoroughly.

Although he does need this thing, the spirit fruit is after all a lingering rhyme.

He couldn’t let Yu Yun suffer the blame from the elders in the clan after the Hui clan because of himself.

“They complain a few words at most and they won’t do anything to me.”

“Besides, they don’t have this ability either.”

“You just take it yourself.”

“Don’t worry about the rest, you can’t control it either.”

Yu Yun followed Mark’s tone just now, and said coldly.

The tone was equally blunt, leaving no room for Mark at all.

Upon seeing this, Mark didn’t postpone it anymore.

He gladly accepted the fire spirit fruit, and then smiled and said, “Thank you very much.”

“This favor, count me Mark owes you.”

“If there is a chance in the future, it will be repaid.”

After speaking, Mark ran back to the cave mansion and sat down cross-legged.

He didn’t swallow the fire spirit fruit immediately, but prepared to take care of it for a few days first, and then start refining the fire spirit fruit after recovering part of the injury.

After all, refining fire spirit fruit is by no means a simple matter.

Danger always coexists with opportunity.

After Mark refining, although his strength will be greatly increased.

But in the same way, this refining process is also extremely dangerous.

This fire spirit fruit contains a huge fire attribute power. Mark must suppress these violent powers during the process of refining and prevent them from exploding at the same time, but slowly release them, and then be absorbed by Mark.

These are simple to say, but not easy to do.

In short, with Mark's current physical condition, it is impossible to complete this task at all.

Therefore, in the next few days, Mark has been running the Yundao Heavenly Judgment Technique to improve himself.

As the oldest and most powerful technique of the Chu family, Yundao Tianjue's magic is not only its powerful ability to absorb the power of heaven and earth, but also its extraordinary ability to repair itself.

In the process of Mark's exercises, the muscles and veins that were broken and obstructed in his body were gradually being repaired.

The Yu Yun who was by the side clearly felt that the breath of the young man in front of him was recovering at an incredible speed.

Chapter 2655

Yu Yun couldn't help being surprised at this terrible recovery speed.

"What's the secret behind this guy?"

"He should be more than just a young man from the country."

Looking at Mark who was concentrating on cultivating, Yu Yun couldn't help but fall into contemplation.

Terrible talent for cultivation, and also mastered the extremely rare Yanglong body, and now even this cultivation technique is not vulgar.

Yu Yun found that the more she knew about Mark, the more she felt that she couldn't see through this young man.

She always felt that Mark was full of mysteries, and people couldn't help but approach and explore.

"Is that an interesting guy?"

Yu Yun shook her head and chuckled as she thought about it.

But when Mark was healing, there were a few more figures on the isolated island, quietly appearing.

After they landed on the island, they went straight to the place where Mark fought with Fen Tian and others.

“God of War, this is it.”

“Mark is here, fighting the Yintian King Burning the sky.”

At this time, it was Kong Ming and others who followed Mark to America.

They were afraid of being implicated by Mark, so as soon as the battle between Mark and Fentian started, the three of them ran away and asked for help like the Yanxia Wushen Temple.

It's just that Kong Ming and Lu Hua never thought that for the sake of Mark, they would have shocked their strongest person in the summer, Ye Qingtian.

After Ye Qingtian arrived, he found them and rushed to the location of the incident.

However, when they felt it, the battle had already ended.

There was only mess all over the floor, and dried blood.

At the sight, dead wood and broken branches, gravel and rubble, with a radius of one thousand meters, almost all in ruins.

Even the mountains in front of him were cut off by half.

It is conceivable what kind of battle has been experienced here before.

“God of War, it seems that we are already late.”

“The battle is over.”

“I guess Mark is afraid it will be more ill-fortune.”

Kong Ming sighed and said to Ye Qingtian, with regrets in his words.

Ye Qingtian shook his head, “Look for it first. Mark's strength is extraordinary and he won't fall so easily.”

“Moreover, even if he really falls, he needs to have a corpse.”

Ye Qingtian’s brows were gloomy, and he really didn’t want to accept the reality of Mark’s fall.

After all, they had just lost a genius boy in the Sea of Japan in the hot summer.

If Mark falls again, then the future of the martial arts in the summer will really be cut off.

“There will be no more corpses.”

“Just now, we saw a thunderbolt from afar.”

“It should be the thunder method used by King Yintian.”

“I was struck by thunder, that Mark, I am afraid that there is no bones left.”

“Hey~”

“He is already a master at his age. He should have an infinitely bright future~”

Lu Hua, who was on the side, also pretended to be sorrowful and said from the side.

As Lu Yanxi listened, she rolled her eyes and looked at Lu Hua’s gaze with contempt.

Naturally, she could see that Lu Hua was deliberately pretending to be in front of the God of War.

She estimated that if Mark really fell, Lu Hua would be happy in his heart.

However, facing their words, Ye Qingtian didn’t pay attention to them, and just replied coldly: “Look!”
