

Chapter 2660– 2661 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2660

“If you had revealed your identity early, how could I have ignored you before?”

“In the middle of the dense forest, how could I leave you behind and go with Lu Hua?”

Lu Yanxi shook her head and said, her face full of mockery and sarcasm.

In the words, there is a strong sense of loss and regret.

Kong Ming’s mood was never calm.

For a long time, Kong Ming has regarded the Zhuguo powerhouse as an idol he has pursued throughout his life.

His biggest dream in his whole life is to be able to chat with the powerful Zhu Guo, talk to them, and let them guide himself.

Kong Ming once felt that his dream would be difficult to realize in his life.

But in the end, Kong Ming only knew that he had been so close to this dream.

From the summer to the Americas, from the Amazon rainforest of Edensberg Road, they were under the same roof for so long. Kong Ming didn’t know how many opportunities he had to ask for advice from the strongest of Zhu Guo, but he missed them all.

Thinking about it now, Kong Ming felt that his intestines were all regretful.

“I have been chasing dreams all my life, but it turns out that my dreams are all around me.”

“It’s all my old thing, with no eyes but no beads.”

“I missed my life~”

Kong Ming felt sad the more he thought about it, and finally reached out his hand and couldn’t help but scratch his ears.

Until now, the three of them knew who they didn’t want to see along the way.

After being ashamed for a long time, Kong Ming raised his head and looked at the God of War again: “God of War, you are right. If Mark is also a titled master, then Burning the sky alone might not kill him.”

“Grandmaster Mark still has a chance of surviving.”

“We keep looking.”

When Kong Ming and the others ran away, Gaia, King of Persia, had not yet appeared, so they didn't know that Mark had not faced Burning Heaven at all, but two titled masters.

“Great.”

“We keep looking.”

Lu Yanxi also said.

However, just when they were ready to continue searching on this isolated island.

Suddenly, a figure seemed to flash by not far away.

The figure was so fast that it flashed past, so that Kong Ming and the others didn't even see it.

But Ye Qingtian noticed it naturally, and frowned and shouted.

“Ok?”

“who is it?”

“Stop me!”

In a low voice, Ye Qingtian stepped up into the sky and chased forward.

Soon, it disappeared at the end of sight.

“Old Kong, what's the matter?”

“Just now, was there anyone?”

Lu Hua and the others were a little dazed, completely unaware of what happened.

Old Kong said solemnly: “I guess there is, otherwise the God of War will not have such a big reaction.”

“Let's go, let's chase over and take a look.”

Old Kong shouted, and then the three of them also chased forward.

This chase is nearly a day.

When Lao Kong and Ye Qingtian met again, they had already left the island in the lake.

“God of War, how about it, chasing... have you caught it?”

After chasing down the road, the three of Kong Ming were very tired, and they spoke out of breath.

Ye Qingtian shook his head: “Let that person escape.”

“what?”

“How strong is that to escape under your hands, God of War?”

“Could it be that King Yintian couldn’t burn the sky?”

When Kong Ming and others heard this, they were immediately surprised and asked in horror.

Ye Qingtian was silent, his old eyes were gloomy, and no one knew what he was thinking about right now.

“God of War, what shall we do next?”

“Will you go back to Master Mark?” Kong Ming and others asked again after being quiet for a while.

Chapter 2661

After learning about Mark’s true identity, Kong Ming and others were undoubtedly more polite in addressing Mark.

“I think that even if Grandmaster Mark is not dead, he will definitely not be on that island anymore.”

“If it were me, I would definitely leave there immediately and escape far away, lest I be caught by that Burning Heaven.”

“After that, think of a way to return to Vietnam.”

At this time, Lu Hua suddenly interrupted.

Kong Ming nodded, feeling that what Lu Hua said was reasonable.

But Ye Qingtian never spoke.

“Ok?”

“Isn’t this Kong Lao?”

“Didn’t you run away, why are you still here?”

Just as Kong Ming and the others were talking, a few laughter suddenly came from behind him.

Kong Ming looked back and saw a few foreign warriors walking towards this.

These people are the warriors who have left from the isolated island and are preparing to return to their country.

But when he saw them, Kong Ming was overjoyed, and he quickly stepped forward and asked: “It just so happens that I have something to ask you.”

“What was the result of the battle before the cave mansion?”

“Is it the Yintian King Fentian who won, or the young man in my hot summer?”

“Also, do you know where the boy has gone?”

“Is he still alive?”

Kong Ming asked several questions one after another.

Those people didn't hide it either.

Tell them exactly what happened that day.

“what did you say?”

“The Persian King Gaia is here too?”

“Two titled masters, encircle Mark?”

“One of them, still sneak attack?”

At first, when he heard that Mark's fierce battle with Fen Tian could still gain the upper hand, Ye Qingtian was still a little surprised.

However, the more you listened, the more solemn Ye Qingtian's expression became.

Especially when he heard that at the time of the decisive battle, the Persian King Gaia raided Mark and directly injured Mark with a short knife. Ye Qingtian's face was completely pale.

He finally started to panic.

Before, he believed that Mark was not dead yet because he felt that burning the sky alone was not enough to kill a grandmaster.

But now, the situation has completely changed.

Not one titled master, but two.

Moreover, Mark was successfully attacked.

In other words, Mark's situation is already desperate.

Ye Qingtian could almost guess the ending.

“Yes.”

“Fentian, King of India, and Gaia, King of Persia, are clearly in collusion.”

“One is fighting head-on, and the other is attacking from behind.”

“What a good seedling, it was just scrapped.”

“Although a woman appeared in the end and took him away.”

“But I guess, with such a serious injury, he is afraid that he will not survive.”

“The two titles are encircled, and the enemy is attacked on the back and the back, and the thunder is no longer in the body, and the key points are still penetrated by the sword~”

“Then it will end in a terrible way.”

“Hey~”

“Sorry.”

When talking about Mark, these people also sighed again and again, feeling sorry for Yan Xia Wudao.

Such enchanting geniuses are definitely martial arts geniuses that have been difficult to produce for thousands of years.

But now, before he became famous in the world, he smashed into the sand on that isolated island.

This story, it is estimated that anyone who listens to it will feel a pity.

After comforting Kong Ming and others, these people also shook their heads and continued to walk outside the rain forest.

As the world’s largest primitive rainforest, the Amazon is extremely large.

It is these warriors, if they want to go out, it may take several days.
