

Chapter 2672– 2673 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2672

Countless times in desperation, countless times in a lifetime.

No one knows how Mark survived the pursuit and killing for so many years.

No one knows how much Mark has paid for avoiding these overwhelming pursuits over the years.

Mark will never forget that on the rainy night that year, his mother held the knife with both hands, just to protect himself from the killer's hands.

Mark couldn't forget, that night at the villa in the western suburbs, with seventy-two stab wounds on his back.

More than that, in order to avoid Chumen's attack, Mark left his hometown when he was very young and avoided everywhere.

He knew that Chu Qitian's goal was him.

As long as he leaves home and leaves his mother, then his relatives will not be in danger.

Therefore, for a long period of time, Mark has been home from all over the world.

Even later, he put aside the dignity and face of a man, entered the Zuoqiu family, and suffered humiliation.

Too much.

Mark has been unable to count how many hardships he has experienced over the years, and how many pains he has endured.

And all of this is thanks to my younger brother!

“Ha~”

“Hahaha~”

However, facing Mark's harsh words, Chu Qitian suddenly smiled.

He laughed wildly, with endless contempt and pride.

"Chu Tianfan, now, you are still so arrogant and ignorant, or so whimsical."

"Kill me? Still take my head?"

"What do you take?"

"Could it be that you rely on your broken body?"

Chu Qitian asked back, his tone arrogant and wanton.

"If it's your peak moment, I can still believe some of your words."

"But now, after the battle on that isolated island, how much do you have left?"

"Don't think I don't know, you almost died here a few days ago."

"I heard that I was rescued by a mysterious strongman in the end."

"Before I came, I was worried that the mysterious strong man will always protect you and walk with you."

"But now it seems that I am worrying too much."

"Think about it, too, a titled powerhouse who can save your life is already a great favor to you. How could it still protect you forever."

"So, Chu Tianfan, take it to death."

"You are just a remnant, so how can you be against the power of the five great masters of Chumen?"

Chu Qitian smiled triumphantly, looking at Mark's gaze as if it were a dead body.

As early as a few days ago, after Elder Keith died under Mark, Chu Qitian immediately contacted the senior Chumen and urgently mobilized the strong to besiege Mark.

Of course, Chu Qitian's reason for arranging troops here was to avenge Elder Keith.

Originally, Chu Qitian hoped that Chu Sect could send several titled masters to siege Mark,

However, the elders of Truman seemed to be worried that the noise would be too loud, and eventually the titles of various countries would come, and the situation would be uncontrollable at that time.

Therefore, the Chumen high-level finally decided to dispatch five martial arts masters to the rainforest to assist Chu Qitian in slaying Mark.

At the beginning, Chu Qitian naturally didn't think that this little power could threaten Mark.

After all, this guy had a strong record of single-handedly singled out the entire Japanese martial arts. Unless Chu Qitian was looking for death, he would never use this lineup against Mark.

But later, as Mike Jones reported on the Battle of the Isolated Island, the two titles severely injured Mark, Chu Qitian laughed at that time.

He knew that the opportunity was here.

Chapter 2673

Mark is a dying body, naturally there is no reason to be afraid.

Therefore, Chu Qitian immediately led the five great masters under him to search for the whereabouts of Mark.

In the end, the effort paid off.

Chu Qitian blocked Mark by the lake.

It seems that heaven is going to kill him!

Chu Qitian was naturally overjoyed.

At this time, when facing Mark, he spoke to Mark in a victorious posture.

However, he thought that after he said these things, he would definitely see Mark panic and worried.

However, he was disappointed.

From beginning to end, Mark's expression was so calm.

On the delicate face, there is no joy or sadness.

The whole person is like an ancient well.

Even though he was deeply encircled, he was still calm and composed, and there was no waves in his heart.

The appearance of Mark undoubtedly made Chu Qitian extremely unhappy.

“Chu Tianfan, do you know that what I hate most is your self-righteous appearance.”

“You’ve been like this since you were a kid.”

“I think I’m the eldest son of the Chu family, the future heir, and the descendant of Tianzi, and I think I am Chu Qitian’s brother.

“But, all of this is ultimately just your wishful thinking, your wishful thinking.”

“Chu Tianfan, I can tell you without hesitation, since the day you and that country woman from your mother entered the Chu family, we, the Chu family, have never looked at you directly.”

“On the contrary, I feel that your arrival is a shame and a deep blasphemy against the majesty of my Chu family.”

“Back then, if it wasn’t for your foolish dad who had been protecting your wives, I would have killed you two scumbags a long time ago, how would you wait until Grandpa personally drove you out?”

Chu Qitian cursed harshly, and his words contained deep contempt and disgust for Mark.

However, these words of Chu Qitian seemed to touch something Mark wanted to protect.

Therefore, as soon as his words fell, Mark’s eyebrows immediately cooled down.

“Just now, who did you say is a mean person?”

Mark said every word, and in a few words, it seemed that there was a great deal of weight in it.

In an instant, the temperature of the world here, without realizing it, dropped a few minutes.

However, the more Mark was like this, the happier and more arrogant Chu Qitian was undoubtedly.

He just wanted to provoke this hillbilly, just to trample on his dignity and bottom line.

The more Mark became angry, the more cheerful Chu Qitian naturally became.

“Haha~”

“Who am I talking about?”

“Don’t you know it in your heart?”

“Yes, I’m talking about you and your mother.”

“My Chu family is the world’s richest family, the world’s first rich family.”

“It is the Chu Sect, which was also created by my ancestors of the Chu family and named after the Chu family.”

“My Chu family, how noble and majestic is that.”

“And your mother, but a countrywoman, a humble farmer.”

“Of course, there is nothing wrong with being humble, and there is nothing wrong with being humble.”

“The fault is that your mother, a humble and contemptible person, even wanted to marry a wealthy family and join my Chu family tree.”

“She deserves too?”

“As for you, a bastard born of a bitch.”

“Return to Chu’s parents?”

“Also passed down from generation to generation?”

“It’s simply a stumbling block in the world!”

“I am a big member of the Chu family, are you two lowly people who can get involved?”

Chu Qitian smiled wanton, the arrogant voice and proud words echoing everywhere.

From beginning to end, Chu Qitian talked to Mark with a high attitude.
