

Chapter 2676– 2677 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2676

Looking from a distance, it seems that you can feel what kind of majestic power is under Mark's body?

“This this”

As a result, everyone could not tell that the red blood in the lake in front of them belonged to Mark, and those belonged to these fish and shrimps.

“A nasty bastard, dare to challenge my Truman?”

“Before this, I thought how good he was.”

“It looks like it is different from those stinky fish and shrimps in the lake?”

“If you have the courage of a man, you will find your own way of death after all.”

Seeing that the hot summer boy was beheaded so quickly, these five masters couldn't help but shook their heads and sneered. In their words, there was all disdain and contempt for Mark.

Especially the two martial arts masters who didn't make a move, their eyes were full of sarcasm.

“This bastard was so full of big talk before, and after doing it for a long time, it was just a joke.”

“We brothers haven't even made a move, he has returned to his soul for nine days.”

“Master Chu, please invite us again next time, please find an opponent who can see through.”

“Like this little boy, kill him, we all think our hands are dirty.”

Among the five masters, some sneered and laughed.

“Haha~”

“Sorry, it's my fault.”

“I look at him too highly.”

“I thought that even if he was injured, he would be extremely difficult.”

“But now it seems that I am worrying too much.”

“Yes, both King Yintian and King of Persia are the top powerhouses in the rankings, and they are hit hard by the two of them, and this brat really doesn’t have much power left.”

Chu Qitian laughed and laughed. Years of confidant troubles have finally been completely resolved today. At this moment, Chu Qitian only felt a lot more relaxed.

When he laughed, Chu Qitian looked at the blood-stained lake below, and a few hints of arrogance immediately appeared between his eyebrows.

“Fortunately, I have planned so much before this to deal with you.”

“It seems that the rest of the methods are useless.”

“Chu Tianfan, the ten years of grievances between you and me are over.”

“After you die, no one will be able to threaten my Chu Tianqi’s position in the Chu family.”

“Haha~”

Chu Qitian smiled triumphantly.

Amidst the hearty laughter, there was all arrogance and wanton.

It was like a victor standing in front of thousands of troops, proclaiming his glory.

However, at this moment, only an uproar was heard.

The originally calm lake suddenly exploded.

The turbulent waves swept across, and the waves were horrifying.

The flying waves, like rocks pierced through the sky, rolled up a thousand piles of snow.

And in the waves that swept the sky, I saw a young man standing with his hand holding his hand, walking on the water. Standing proud of the river, his golden light shrouded.

Walking with his hand, he was eloquent.

After the body of the dragon god was released, there was the sound of dragons and tigers roaring in the world, which was endless.

“This this”

“how can that be?”

“I’m the three masters of the Truth, dominate the world.”

“It is a martial arts master in his heyday, who insisted on resisting the three martial arts of Chumen that the three of us worked together, and there is no place to be buried.”

“This bastard, isn’t he still seriously injured, how can he resist and not die?”

After seeing Mark appear again intact, these black-clothed law protectors almost stared out.

They couldn't believe that the three major martial arts masters had the strongest blow, this Mark was unscathed?

“Master Chu, is this guy really just a severely disabled body?”

“Is your information correct?”

In shock, some experts from the Chu Sect began to doubt Chu Qitian's judgment.

Chapter 2677

“Really.”

“My intelligence can't be wrong!”

“This bastard was hanged by two great masters before, and Mike told me that he was dying at the time. Even if he doesn't die, he will be disabled.”

“Furthermore, in the past few days, with such a serious injury, it is impossible for him to recover.”

“He must be a half-worn body now.”

“The offensive of your five great masters, he will never be able to sustain it.”

Chu Qitian was also a little frightened. Obviously, he didn't expect that Mark would actually resist the attack of the powerful Chu Sect.

“Quickly, you continue to attack.”

“I think even if he can barely hold up the three martial arts of the Chu Sect, he is afraid that he has already been hit hard.”

“The old wound has not healed, but now a new one has been added.”

“He must have no ability to resist now.”

“You take advantage of this, hurry up and take him away in one wave.”

“This time, he must not be allowed to escape again~”

Chu Qitian was a little anxious and couldn't help urging.

It hasn't been a day or two for him to deal with Mark. There have been many times, allowing this Mark to escape.

Last time, even his father went out in person and let Mark run away.

This time, Chu Qitian would never allow him to let these things happen again.

Therefore, after seeing that Mark was still alive, Chu Qitian immediately urged the strong Chumen to kill him again.

“Great.”

“This time, let’s be together.”

The five Chu Sect masters were obviously aware of Mark’s weirdness.

At this time, they didn’t dare to care about it anymore.

Prepare five people to take action together to completely kill Mark at one time.

However, this time, Mark would naturally not stand there anymore and let them attack at will.

“Is this Truman’s black-clothed protector?”

“I heard that Chu Sect has three clothes to protect the law.”

“The red-clothed guardian has a transcendent status, and his power is overwhelming. Under one person, over ten thousand people.”

“The Purple Clothes Guardian is comparable to those on the top ranking list. Each cultivation base is powerful and unique in the world.”

“And the black-clothed guardians are all composed of martial arts masters. With the combined efforts, they are not afraid of titled masters.”

“This time, if you send the purple-clothed guardian to come, I, Chu Tianfan, might still avoid the edge for a while.”

“But you are only a mere black-clothed guardian, and a few martial arts masters dare to threaten to kill me?”

“Next, I will let you see, Chu Tianfan, my true power.”

The sound of sneer, with a thunderous momentum, swept the Quartet.

Suddenly, there was a violent wind on this isolated island.

Under Mark’s surging power, thousands of trees fell for him, and the Pinghu under his feet set off huge waves.

Thousands of tons of lake water, like crazy, slapped to the shore frantically.

In the fierce wind, only the young man stood up after being lost.

The golden light filled his body, the dragon shadow added to his body, and the surging might, like the god of nine heavens, almost made people afraid to look directly.

After feeling the coercion radiating from Mark, the five powerhouses of Chumen were all shocked.

“This~”

“This coercion”

“How can it be so strong?”

The corners of the eyes of these powerful masters trembled, and they cried out.

In the eyebrows, there is a deep fear and dignity.

Just because of this power, they all trembled.

And for a martial arts master to feel this way, then there is only one reason, that is, the opponent's strength, comparable to titles.

Thinking of this, the horror in the eyebrows of these Chu Sect experts is undoubtedly even worse.

They can't imagine that this young man in front of them will have the power of a titled master?
