

Chapter 2698– 2699 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2698

After all, Fen Tian was entrusted by Chu Qitian to come and kill Mark this time.

From this perspective, his position is consistent with that of Truman.

Now that Chu Qitian's rescuer has arrived, it naturally means that his crisis of burning the sky has also been lifted.

A few minutes ago, Fen Tian was chased by Gaia like a dog.

Now, the situation has turned around one hundred and eighty degrees.

Fen Tian's situation also turned from danger to peace at this moment. One can imagine how comfortable Fen Tian's mood is at this time.

“Stop talking nonsense, what's the ending, maybe?”

Gaia grinned and replied sharply.

However, the confidence in his words was obviously insufficient.

All this is only because of the terrifying strength and prestige of the woman in front.

Looking at all countries in the world, everyone in martial arts knows their name and is not afraid of their might.

You know, this graceful woman is the most powerful person in the world of martial arts.

none of them!

“Ah?”

“The tone is not small.”

“Why, do you think you and the bastard can contend against her? Contend against the Truman Sect Master, the most powerful person on the top of the list?”

“Stop dreaming!”

“I’m telling you, don’t say you are the two of you, even if you add the six pillars of the hot summer, that doesn’t necessarily help Tang Yun?”

Fen Tian sneered and laughed, and the laughter was full of disdain and contempt for Gaia and others.

Yes, the person in front of Chu Qitian called the teacher is the Chu Clan master at the top of the list, Tang Yun!

It’s no wonder that Gaia and the others would be so gloomy and solemn after seeing this person appear.

After all, the name Tang Yun has long been synonymous with power and strength.

A few words are extremely important!

If it was normal, Gaia would definitely not say anything at this time, and Sa Yazhi would have run away long ago.

But now, Mark is still there, even if Gaia has a thousand or ten thousand thoughts of escape in his heart, he dare not leave Mark and run by himself.

I had to hold on here with a pale old face.

Of course, Gaia is not idle either.

If he couldn’t beat the Lord of Truman, could he still not be able to beat the half-worn King Yintian, Burning the sky?

“Perhaps you are right.”

“However, before that, I will kill your old dog first!”

Gaia yelled angrily, stepped up into the sky again, and slammed his fist in the direction of Fen Tian.

In this way, Gaia and Fen Tian fought together again.

However, during the war, Gaia deliberately pulled him out of the battlefield with Burning Sky. In short, Mark and Tang Yun are far away from them.

In this case, Gaia can easily escape when the situation is bad.

“Dragon Lord, it’s not Gaia, I’m afraid, it’s mainly your gods fighting, and we mortals can’t get in.”

“All I can do is to keep up with your pace without dragging you down when you are ready to run.”

Presumably to comfort himself, or to ease the guilt in his heart, Gaia whispered secretly in his heart while beating with Fen Tian.

When Gaia and Fentian fought farther and farther, Mark stood alone on the banks of the cold river.

He was expressionless, with a pair of cold eyes, staring straight ahead like this.

There, there is a beautiful shadow, standing gracefully.

The two people looked at each other like this.

There was a cold wind on the lake.

In the breeze, that beautiful purple skirt flutters, the silk is like snow.

Her eyes are cold, but she has peerless majesty.

Although the face is covered with light veil, it can't conceal its allure appearance.

Chapter 2699

The moment he saw her, Mark was stunned.

Not only because of her stunning appearance and noble temperament, but more importantly, from her body, Mark actually felt an inexplicable familiarity.

“Teacher, you are finally here.”

“If you don't come again, I'm a master of Truth, I will be killed by this scornful country boy.”

At this time, Chu Qitian had already gotten up from the ground.

Then he didn't care about wiping the dirt on his body, and screamed, while ran in the direction of the woman in the purple skirt.

“The master, it's him.”

“it's him!”

“It's this humble and contemptuous country boy. Elder Keith was killed by him, and even our five black-clothed guardians of Truman were all compromised by him.”

“More than that, he still doesn't put you in his eyes.”

“I also said that I will pacify Chu Sect in the future, and I will step on you, Teacher.”

“I just can’t stand him offending you so much, so I just shot him.”

“Unexpectedly, this stinky boy combined with others to attack me and even take my life.”

“Teacher, please be the master for the disciples, and for the heroes who died in Chumen.”

“Please sect master, kill him!”

Chu Qitian’s words are sad, sincere and full of affection. Incited the woman’s constant provocation.

In the end, the old eyes were red, and tears flickered in his eyes, as if he was sorrowing for his dead companion.

Had it not been for Mark’s depths, I guess he would have been fooled by Chu Qitian’s acting skills.

However, in the face of Chu Qitian’s sad words, the woman in front of him did not pay attention.

Above the pretty face, there is still a cold and indifferent.

There hasn’t been any waves due to this.

For a while, there was a strange silence here.

Mark didn’t speak to her.

Only Chu Qitian couldn’t wait any longer and sold miserably again, begging this woman to kill Mark.

Finally, this time, the graceful woman in front of her did not remain silent again.

The moving eyes swept across the four directions, and finally landed on Mark.

After hesitating for a long time, she turned around and didn’t want to look at Mark again.

The cold voice immediately sounded: “You go.”

“As long as you agree, you won’t provoke the Chu Sect again in the future, let alone provoke the Chu Family. I can assume that what happened today has never happened.”

what?

Hearing Tang Yun's words, Chu Qitian on the side was immediately shocked, his eyes almost staring out, and he hurried forward to persuade Tang Yun anxiously.

"Teacher, no."

"This country untouchable killed so many of us Truman."

"Even Elder Truman, two people died under his hands."

"What's more, all of the five black-clothed guardians of Chu Sect were all compromised by him."

"This kind of hatred cannot be said to be shared."

"If you let him go like this, then if this matter spreads out in the future, it will definitely damage my Truman's majesty."

"Teacher, you must not let him go~"

"Let the tiger go back to the mountain, it will definitely be a big trouble in the future."

Chu Qitian was full of sorrow, and when he persuaded Tang Yun bitterly, he almost knelt down to beg each other.

"shut up!"

"You are a defeated general, what right do you have to despise the origin of others?"

"It keeps saying that he is from the country, what about you?"

"In front of him was a complete defeat and almost lost his life. Now, what right do you have to despise him?"

Chu Qitian didn't know where he angered Tang Yun. As soon as his voice fell, Tang Yun's cold scolding came in his ears.
