

Chapter 2730 - 2731 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2730

“They have no strength. It is not difficult to be destroyed by the martial arts powerhouse.”

At this time, it was the Indian warrior, Lei Meng.

It's Lelo's nephew.

He was ordered to come to America this time to find the whereabouts of his lost uncle.

However, who would have thought that as soon as Lei Luo finished speaking, a companion whispered: “Brother Meng, look, is the rosary on the ground the one that Uncle Lei often wears?”

“Huh?” Raymond heard the words and looked at him immediately.

Sure enough, I saw a rosary lying in the mud, covered with dirt.

“This is not my uncle's.”

“Although the materials are very similar, our uncle's rosary is all engraved with the word thunder. This one does not.”

Raymond laughed while fiddling with the rosary.

However, he turned around, his face suddenly changed.

Just because, after the soil above fell, on the rosary, a word “thunder” suddenly appeared.

Boom~

Like the thunder, it exploded in a crash from the mind.

Raymond's whole person was stunned there at the time.

In the eyebrows, the horrified color gradually magnified.

“Difficult...Could it be...”

“Uncle Lei...he...”

“Do not!”

“Impossible~”

“This is absolutely impossible~”

When Raymond was full of panic and whispered like crazy.

Among the surrounding people, some people gradually recognized the relics of the deceased.

“This watch belongs to Philson~”

....

“This is my brother’s phone...”

.....

Soon, more and more relics were recognized.

Some even recognized the heads of the dead.

At this point, although everyone couldn’t believe it, they had to be sure that the people buried in the ruins before them were the powerful men of the countries who had lost contact for a few days.

In other words, hundreds of powerful people from all countries have all died!

Moreover, death is tragic.

Some were broken into pieces, and some bones did not exist.

Of the hundreds of strong men, none of them left a whole body.

The cruelty of the murderer and the cruelty of the enemy shocked everyone.

That night, the incident here spread out.

For a time, the martial arts around the world became a sensation.

The powerhouses of all countries are all horrified!

In just one night, the brutal killing here caused a terrible wave in the martial arts world.

The martial arts powerhouses of all countries are all furious.

Order a thorough investigation of the truth and find the murderer.

As for the online warrior forum, after seeing the pictures sent from the scene, it exploded directly.

.....

“Oh my God!”

“Too miserable~”

“The earth was stained red with blood.”

“How many people have to die?”

.....

“Many of them are elites of martial arts from various countries.”

“All of this was destroyed by the regiment?”

“I’m afraid that many countries will have pain!”

.....

“Fuck!”

“Too awesome~”

“Hundreds of strong men are all dead.”

“This is at least five titled masters!”

“What kind of force does it have to mobilize five titles?”

“I feel like this is going to single out the whole world~”

.....

“Not always.”

“The powerhouses at the top of the list are enough to beat these people alone.”

...

In the forum, everyone talked about each other.

But everyone guessed and guessed, and everyone thought that either the gang committed the crime or the most powerful person at the top of the list.

In short, being able to slaughter so many people is definitely not what an ordinary master can do.

Therefore, the focus of the martial arts of the next countries is all on the investigation of the murderer.

Who did this massacre?

Chapter 2731

The first object of suspicion was naturally Truman.

After all, the tree attracts the wind.

As the world's strongest martial arts force, Truman will naturally be regarded as the biggest suspicion when such things happen now.

But after all, it was just a suspicion. Before the evidence was found, everything was not enough for the following conclusions.

Therefore, in the next few days, the powerhouses of various countries began to look for some clues in the place where the crime occurred.

Soon, someone found a grave head behind the big tree.

“Ok?”

“Why is there a grave here?” Someone suddenly wondered.

“It might be a mound, how could there be a grave in this wilderness.”

“That's not necessarily true. What if the murderer piled a grave for his companion before he left?”

.....

“Stop arguing, if it’s a grave, just dig it and see.”

When everyone was arguing, Raymond walked over and directly suggested digging up this mound.

“good idea!”

Everyone agreed to Raymond’s suggestion.

Afterwards, the words fell, and one of the crowd slapped a palm at the mound in front of him.

Boom~

As the mud flew, an unkempt head covered with mud also flew out of it.

“I go!”

“Have a head?”

“It looks like a grave!”

“If it’s not surprising, this grave head must have been pushed by the murderer to his dead companion.”

“As long as we find out who the owner of this head is, then the real culprit of this bloody massacre will emerge.”

When everyone trembled, Raymond saw it thoroughly.

He should even conclude that the person buried in this tomb must be related to the murderer.

“All the warriors of my countries were killed, and no one survived, only the murderer survived.”

“So, this tomb must be piled up by the murderer for his companions.”

The others also nodded one after another, feeling that Raymond’s words made sense.

“In that case, we all come over and see if anyone knows this person.”

While talking, Raymond kicked the head in front of him into a nearby river, and after the river washed clean, he threw it in front of everyone again.

Everyone looked around, and then they all shook their heads, saying they didn't know each other.

"However, looking at the looks, it should be Asian."

"Come and see from the Asian side, do you know anyone?"

In the crowd, someone shouted like this.

However, when Raymond heard that he was Asian, he said coldly: "Asian?"

"It seems that it should be done by the martial arts in the summer."

"In my place in Asia, I also have this ability in the Indian martial arts and the Yanxia martial arts."

"And my Uncle Lei and others died tragically here, so it can't be my Indian country."

"According to the elimination method, it is sufficient to judge that it must be the work of the hot summer!"

"What's more, didn't you find out that there are people in the martial arts of our countries who have been damaged by this, but the people of the martial arts in the summer are not."

"I think this murderer must be from the hot summer."

"Simply, let's take this first level directly, go to the Yanxia Wushen Temple, and ask them to be fair!"

In fact, from the very beginning, Lei Meng suspected that it was the work of Yan Xia martial arts.

After all, there has been a long-standing grievance between Indian martial arts and Yanxia.

That is to say, the warriors of the hot summer will kill them to the strong of India, or in this tragic way.

He didn't say anything because of no evidence before.

But now, all signs indicate that the executioner of this killing is inseparable from the Yanxia martial arts.
