

Chapter 2752– 2753 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2652

But Yu Yun still insisted: “Who said that I can’t control it, I am... the friend I know is a high-level Truman. As long as you clarify the matter clearly, someone will help you judge the right and wrong.”

“If the Chu family is wrong, I will naturally have a way to make him apologize to you.”

“But if you don’t tell me anything, I just want to help you, but I can’t help you.”

Yu Yun said anxiously, seeming to be extremely concerned about this matter.

“Let them apologize?” Mark suddenly smiled upon hearing this.

The smile was full of sarcasm and mockery, as if he had heard the best joke in the world.

“Don’t be delusional.”

“I know them too well. In their eyes, only the origin and background are right and wrong.”

“What’s more, there are some things, in the eyes of outsiders, there is no right or wrong.”

“My grievances with the Chu family can only be resolved by myself. Others can’t control it, and there is no need to control it.”

Mark sneered, and there was a strong feeling and chill in his words.

Yes, it is said that upright officials can hardly break housework.

It was Yu Yun no matter how powerful it was and how strong it was in cultivation, but the grievances between Mark and the Chu family were, in the final analysis, a family affair of the Chu family. How could Yu Yun be an outsider to mediate?

You know, the old prince of the Chu family failed to change all of this.

Not to mention others.

“So, do you really plan to fight the Chu Family and Chu Clan in the future?” Yu Yun looked at Mark, with inexplicable emotions in her beautiful eyes.

Mark was expressionless and replied in a deep voice: “There are some things that the Chu family owes me, and I will eventually get back.”

“As for Truman, whether it is an enemy or a friend, that is their choice.”

“If it is another day, when I board the Chu Family, Chu Sect will remain neutral, and it will be fine.”

“But if Chumen decides to help the Chu family, I, Mark, will naturally not be afraid to shrink back.”

“The Chu family insulted me, and I will destroy the Chu family.”

“Trumen provoked me, so I stepped on Trumen!”

“How can I, Mark, be afraid of people for the rest of my life.”

The deep voice, the sonorous words, in this world, can't help but reverberate.

“You~”

After Yu Yun heard it, she was suddenly short of breath. I only feel that Mark is really impulsive, too self-conscious, not to mention her own position, and that Mark wants to single-handedly challenge the Chu Family, or even the entire Chu Sect, with one person. What is the difference between this and death?

“Mark, you bastard!”

“What is the use of .jssh if you say these impulses?”

“You can't even beat me, so what do you use to destroy the Chu family and Chumen?”

Yu Yun asked angrily.

But at this time, Mark's body trembled, blood surged in his body, and a mouthful of blood came out again.

Obviously, the mood swings just now involved Mark's injury.

Mark's body that had just recovered a little, deteriorated again.

Seeing that Mark was like this, the anger and anger in Yu Yun's heart disappeared in an instant. She hurried forward, let Mark sit down, and then conveyed true energy to Mark again to protect his heart. Stabilize his injury.

“All day long I know what I can do.”

“I don't know how to cherish my body.”

“Just like you, let alone challenge the Chu family, even a wild wolf can eat you.”

“Hurry up and sit back in the cave.”

“Also, eat her.”

“After refining and absorbing this thing, your injury will almost be healed.”

While speaking, Yu Yun took out a delicate wooden box from her arms.

The wooden box opened, and inside it was a flaming red spirit fruit with a scorching scent, and it jumped into Mark's eyes.

Chapter 2653

“Yep?”

“this is?”

Feeling the rich spiritual power coming from the wooden box, Mark's brows trembled, and he immediately asked in surprise.

For some reason, he felt that the fruit in front of him was like the ice spirit fruit that Yu Yun had taken just now.

The only difference is that the two just now are ice blue. And this one is flaming red. Moreover, if the previous ice spirit fruit contained ice attribute energy, then Mark could clearly feel that the one in front of him was the opposite, fire attribute energy.

“Why, you can recognize the ice spirit fruit, but you can't recognize it?”

Yu Yun gave Mark a slightly resentful look.

If it wasn't that Mark was seriously injured just to protect himself, it would be absolutely impossible for Yu Yun to take out this fruit.

Hearing Yu Yun's words, Mark's body trembled, and he lost his voice: “Could it be that this... this... this is really, Huo Ling Guo?”

In fact, at the moment when he saw this fruit, the first thing Mark thought of was the Fire Spirit Fruit.

This fire spirit fruit, like the ice spirit fruit, is a treasure of heaven and earth made by absorbing the power of heaven and earth, the sun and moon.

The degree of preciousness of the two is exactly the same.

In other words, these two fruits are exactly the same kind of spiritual fruit.

The only difference is the different attributes.

One is ice attribute and the other is fire attribute.

But the pure energy contained is undoubtedly the same.

However, Mark's thought only lasted for an instant.

After all, these thousand-year spirit fruits are too precious.

Mark felt that it was a miracle to be able to appear an ice spirit fruit.

It is absolutely impossible, there will be another equally precious Fire Spirit Fruit.

However, looking at Yu Yun's reaction, Mark became more certain. The wooden box in Yu Yun's hand contained a thousand-year-old spirit fruit with fire attributes, also known as fire spirit fruit.

Yu Yun nodded, confirming Mark's guess.

However, Yu Yun also had to be surprised by what Mark had seen and heard.

You know, before this action, let alone recognize Mark at a glance, Yu Yun actually didn't know that there were such treasures in the world.

After returning to the sect, she was informed by a respected elder in the sect that she knew the existence of such treasures.

The reason why she went to the Amazon rainforest this time was to get these two fruits.

One of them was refined on the spot.

The other one, she planned to bring back to the sect, one is to give an explanation to the elders.

After all, this operation was basically managed and planned by those elders within the sect.

Even the whereabouts of these two fruits were told by the elders in the clan.

Therefore, Yu Yun always has to bring back some valuable treasures, lest the old people complain.

The second is that this fire spirit fruit is precious and can be regarded as the treasure of their sect.

Unfortunately, the plan could not keep up with the changes.

In order to protect himself, Mark suffered such a heavy blow.

Moreover, he seems to need this kind of spirit fruit very much.

In short, after various considerations, Yu Yun decided to give Mark the last fire spirit fruit as a reward for her shelter before the Dong Mansion.

"These two are twin spirit fruits."

"Although they grow together, they are completely opposite attributes."

"I was also lucky enough to find them after being informed by the clan elder."

"Since that ice spirit fruit is for me to take, then give this one to you."
