

Chapter 2764– 2765 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2764

“Don’t worry, I have already guessed these.” Helen Qiu was not surprised at what Ericson Li found out.

To be Mark’s wife, Helen Qiu is naturally not the kind of silly white sweetness in the dog blood TV series.

Clumsy methods like Lu Hua couldn’t deceive her at all.

“However, I am looking for you, not because of this.”

“Instead, Lu Hua invited me to dinner tonight.”

“At the dinner, he asked for an alliance with me...”

.....

Helen Qiu simply repeated Lu Hua’s intentions to Ericson Li.

Before Mark left, he had instructed Helen Qiu to seek help from Ericson Li and others if he had something to do.

But before this, Helen Qiu undoubtedly came to the time when he needed other people’s advice.

“what?”

“This Gou Ri bastard, actually covets Mr. Chu’s woman?”

“What a brute!”

“When I first saw him, I knew that Lu Hua was not a good thing.”

“Unfortunately, he was entrusted by the state to visit Mr. Chu’s widow. Is this special mother guarding and stealing himself?”

“Don’t say let them shelter Mr. Chu’s relatives, but now they are coveting Mr. Chu’s woman?”

“Mr. Qiu, you must never agree.”

“This person’s intentions are extremely sinister, and his heart is punishable.”

“On the surface, he fell in love with you at first sight and wanted you to remarry and marry you. But in reality, he wanted to occupy the Mufan Group and take Mr. Chu’s woman and even half of his life as his own.

Ericson Li said angrily, his whole person almost trembling with anger.

He had never seen such a mean and indecent person in his life!

It’s nothing more than worrying about Mr. Chu’s legacy, even Mr. Chu’s woman will not let it go.

Helen Qiu was not surprised by Ericson Li’s anger.

At first, she was even more angry than Ericson Li.

However, anger will not solve the problem after all.

“I definitely won’t agree.”

“However, I think that Lu Hua will not give up on this matter.”

“It’s extremely likely that family power will be used to suppress my Mufan Group and bring disaster to Noirfork. At the same time, we will spread the news of Mark’s fall.”

“When Noirfork broke into chaos, they entered directly and integrated strongly.”

“At that time, Mark’s legacy left, I am afraid that it will still be unstoppable.”

Helen Qiu was worried.

Only now did she deeply understand the meaning of an idiom.

That is, virtue is not coordinated!

Yes, all of this crisis, in the final analysis, was what Helen Qiu could do, and it was not worthy of her current position.

In the past, relying on Mark’s fame, he could still conquer the Quartet.

But once this reliance is gone, how many people will be convinced of her in this Noirfork land?

The reason why Lu Hua is so self-confident and arrogant, I must have seen this through.

“This~” Ericson Li frowned.

He also has no good way to deal with the current situation.

“President Qiu, I have investigated. This Lu family is a family of martial arts. If they participate in Noirfork’s affairs, with our strength, I am afraid that they really can’t stop it.”

“However, we are not without the ability to resist.”

“The Azure Dragon team left by Mr. Chu is the sharpest knife in our hands!”

“At that time, if the Lu family really stretched their fingers to Noirfork, we can only use the strength of the blue dragon to sever the Lu family’s minions.”

Helen Qiu nodded, and then sighed: “Now, I can only prepare in this way.”

Chapter 2765

However, Helen Qiu couldn’t help worrying. With the five Azure Dragons, could he withstand the power of a martial arts family?

However, Helen Qiu changed her mind.

Mark died for his country after all. In the martial arts world, it is not an exaggeration to say that he is a martyr.

It stands to reason that widows of martyrs like them should be protected by the state.

Helen Qiu estimated that even if the Lu Family really wanted Mark’s property, they wanted to attack them. It will never come out with fanfare.

After all, this kind of behavior is undoubtedly a risk to the world.

Once people know it, they will be spurned by the hot summer martial arts world.

Therefore, Helen Qiu felt that the Lu family was only secretly using small movements to mess up Noirfork.

If this is the case, it should be more than enough to rely on the Five Azure Dragons to deal with these little movements of the Lu Family.

Thinking of this, the panic and worry in Helen Qiu’s heart undoubtedly disappeared a bit.

So, she asked again: “Second Lord, Qinglong and the others urge it again.”

“Anyway, let them come back before tomorrow night!”

Mark left in a hurry, and did not arrange too many strong men to shelter Noirfork.

After all, Mark didn't pay much attention to it when he took over this task.

I feel that I am a full-level mixed novice village, and I will complete the task and return to the hot summer in a few days, so there is not much planning and arrangement in Noirfork.

After all, Ye Qingtian told Mark at that time that the people from all countries who participated in the fight were all warriors who were not even the master.

And Mark has the power of title, it is more than enough to kill a group by one person.

Therefore, it is normal for Mark to have such an idea of underestimating the enemy.

But Mark had counted a lot of calculations, but he never thought that a small battle for the soul fruit would have shocked so many titled powerhouses.

But fortunately, the Qinglong team trained by Mark is still there.

It is estimated that Mark did not expect that the few offspring he had pointed out at will now become the land of Noirfork, the only barrier to the threat of martial arts!

Of course, Noirfork is big, and there are still some other warriors.

However, most of those people are just a mob, and the martial arts strength is good enough for beginners, and it is simply embarrassing to use them.

At the critical moment, what Jiang Dong can rely on depends on the five Qinglong people left by Mark.

However, during this time, Qinglong happened to be training in the field.

Helen Qiu can only hope that Qinglong will be able to rush back in time.

Just like this, one night will pass quickly.

Helen Qiu continued to work at the company as usual.

As for Mark, Helen Qiu didn't tell anyone except Ericson Li and others.

Even her best friend Susie, Helen Qiu kept it secret.

After all, these matters are of great importance, and a little carelessness will put the Mufan Group in danger.

Helen Qiu is naturally tight-lipped.

In the evening, at sunset, Helen Qiu returned to the Villa at Yunding Mountain.

Not long after arriving home, Helen Qiu received a call.

It was Mark's mother, Ye Ximei called.

The Mufan Group opened a branch in Fenghai, and Ye Ximei took care of everything there.

However, it was off work now, and Ye Ximei called at this time, probably not for official business.

Thinking of this, Helen Qiu's heart trembled suddenly.

After finishing her mood, she answered the phone.

"Mom, how are you?"

"Recently, the company is too busy to see you?"

Helen Qiu said softly.
