

Super Rich Dad Chapter 279-280

Chapter 279 - Face

‘What’s going on here?’ One waitress was stunned and at a loss for words, murmuring.

Another one was even more frightened, her face turning green, her expression stiffening as she said incomparably nervously, ‘What the hell is going on here? What can we do, this is an antique, breaking it would be’

As she said this, the waitress was clearly in tears, her face full of shock and panic.

Because no one knew better than them the value of this broken pile of blue and white porcelain water spray.

It was said that it had been specially auctioned back from overseas by their boss, Qiao San, who usually had great regard for it, and every time he came to inspect the Cloud Mist Villa, the first thing he would look at was this.

And now it was broken.

‘I remember Mr. Qiao said that this spray of water cost him three million dollars at the time he auctioned it, what can we do about this?’

A waitress said with trepidation.

‘Hurry up and call someone!’ The other one said hurriedly.

The two of them were about to pick up their walkie-talkies and call for help.

But as soon as they picked up the walkie-talkie, before they could say anything, they heard another harsh sound coming from the side.

The two waitresses’ hearts were in their throats as they turned their heads in astonishment to see something even more desperate.

They saw a man and a woman in front of the hotel’s main entrance pagoda, struggling to tear down a pair of plaques hanging high above them.

Seeing this scene, the two waitresses were immediately blinded.

They knew that the plaques were even more valuable, as one was said to be an authentic handwriting of a Southern Song calligrapher, while the other was even more significant, being the imperial handwriting of an emperor of the previous dynasty.

The two plaques were so valuable that even when they were hung above the hotel’s pagoda, they were covered with a glass diaphragm.

Cousin Xue Yuning and Fan Deng had already torn off the glass diaphragm, and one of them had already yanked off one of the plaques.

With a 'pop', a plaque landed on the ground with a sound, and several huge cracks fell out.

Seeing this scene, the two waitresses' hearts were about to jump out of their chests.

These two knew very well what the result would be if both plaques were shattered.

If they guessed correctly, Qiao San would completely explode when he saw the scene in front of him!

There would be no hesitation at all in tearing the two people in front of him to pieces.

Qiao San liked to collect, which was why he had placed so many antique objects in the Cloud Mist Villa, and many of the objects here were collectibles that Qiao San was particularly fond of.

Among them were the celadon porcelain spout and these two plaques.

Originally, Qiao San had thought that the plaques were hanging high above the ground and that the fountain was placed in the square in front of the door, so unless he had encountered some robbing bandits, there would certainly not be any problems.

But he seemed to be too naive too.

The two waitresses, emboldened, rushed towards Cousin Xue Yu Ning and Fan Deng.

'Hey, stop, what are you doing? Stop it now!' One of the waitresses shouted.

Only they were still a step too slow, as Fan Deng watched the duo run over and with a fierce force, that last plaque fell down in the process.

The wooden plaque seemed to have decayed due to its age and fell into countless pieces.

'There was a splash of wood.

The two waitresses were immediately confused.

'What are you doing?' One of the waitresses looked at Cousin Xue Yuning angrily and shouted, 'Do you know what you have done? This is an antique, it's very valuable!'

The waitress was trembling with excitement as she looked at the two plaques on the floor, which were basically certain to be scrapped.

They were of course clear about the identities of Cousin Xue Yu Ning and Fan Deng, because before Jiang Hao had brought them over, Qiao San had specifically instructed them about this matter.

Moreover, all of them, the hotel staff, had also heard about Jiang Hao's identity through the grapevine.

It was precisely because of this that the two waitresses were so restrained.

Otherwise, if this was anyone else, they would probably have called for security.

Cousin Xue Yuning looked at the two waitresses with disdain and sneered, 'What are you looking at, I don't like this, so I want to smash it, what can you do? It's not like we won't compensate you!'

The action of Xue Yuning's cousin really stunned the two waitresses.

They had been in the service industry for a long time and had even seen some unreasonable customers, but this was the first time they had seen someone like Cousin Xue Yuning.

Such people were simply ridiculous and abominable.

'You're destroying public goods, if you keep doing that, we'll call the police!' A female waitress said discontentedly.

Just as she finished her sentence, another waitress nudged her gently and whispered something in her ear.

Obviously the waitress who had opened the door to call the police was already in a hurry.

But the other one seemed to have a shred of sense, these two people were brought in by Jiang Hao, so they had to consider Jiang Hao's side of the family in whatever they did after all.

Chapter 280 - Manager Wu

Jiang Hao was a character that even Qiao San had to give way to. They were just a group of working girls, so if they broke Jiang Hao's face because of this matter, it was actually themselves who would suffer in the future.

'Calling the police?' Cousin Xue Yu Ning hummed disdainfully, 'You're scaring me? You call the police, what's wrong with us? I still say, we damaged your things, just pay you according to the price, what are you talking to me here? Get lost, don't force me to be rude!'

Cousin Xue Yuning had a brutal and unreasonable stance, looking aggressive.

Those two waitresses also looked helpless.

But just at that moment, the hotel's security guards also rushed over at the sound.

A security captain looked at the two of them and at the damaged things on the ground and asked the two waitresses, 'What is going on here? What do they want?'

The two waitresses shook their heads, of course they didn't know why these two people acted as if they were crazy and started smashing things as soon as they entered, and acted as if I was poor and I was justified.

The security chief frowned, looked at cousin Xue Yu Ning and asked sternly, 'What are you doing? Do you know how much the things you have smashed are worth?'

Seeing that the security guards had surrounded themselves, Cousin Xue Yuning also knew a hint of fear, so her attitude tightened up quite a bit.

But still looking justified, she said back, 'Oh, just this broken thing, how much can it be worth? Let me tell you, the man who arranged for us to stay in the hotel, he has money, you mind him asking for it, today my mission is to just smash it!'

After saying that, cousin Xue Yu Ning then fought to pick up a broken piece of wood on the ground, bang and smashed another piece of glass aside to you all.

'Are you guys out of your minds?' The security chief was simply a little surprised to see this, but even more annoyed and ordered directly, 'What are you still standing there for? Get me under control and TO go!'

The security chief was furious, pointing at Xue Yuning's cousin and Fan Deng and shouting angrily, 'Don't you have any shame, do you know what this place is? I think you've lived long enough!'

The security chief didn't care so much, who cares who you are, the security of this hotel is under his own control, you are making trouble here now, aren't you slapping me in the face?

If you dare not give me face, then don't blame me for not giving you face!

Originally, Cousin Xue Yuning thought that for this kind of shitless hotel, it was estimated that the security guards wouldn't dare to do anything to her, so she dared to act so recklessly.

But now when she heard that they were going to do something to her, she panicked and hurriedly said, 'What are you doing? I'm warning you not to go too far, we are people of status, living in this shitty place of yours is already giving you a lot of face, believe it or not'

Before Cousin Xue Yu Ning could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by the security chief, who sneered and said, 'Excessive? Oh, don't you think you're even more excessive? And this is too much for you? Oh, then I'm afraid you haven't seen our real tactics!'

These security guards were all strong soldiers under Qiao San in the past, and they had followed him all the way through the fight.

They had never seen any battles before, so you two little minions dare to shout here.

Especially this security captain, he was loyal to Qiao San, and now that cousin Xue Yu Ning dared to smash the boss's most beloved things in his own boss's venue, they were just looking for death.

He had no intention of letting them off anyway.

A few security guards were quick to take control of the two men, which frightened Cousin Xue Yuning and Fan Deng.

The two men struggled desperately, and Cousin Xue Yuning even shouted and screamed, but it was still to no avail.

‘Take them away and take them to the house without surveillance. I want to see if they dare to behave themselves again today!’

A few security guards were about to stand Xue Yu Ning’s cousin and Fan Deng away, but at that moment, a voice came over, directly calling the two of them to a halt.

‘Stop!’

The crowd was stunned and looked sideways, seeing a middle-aged man in a suit walking over quickly at this moment.

This middle-aged man’s eyebrows were locked as he walked over and hurriedly went up to break the hands of the security guard who was controlling Xue Yuning’s cousin.

‘What are you doing?’ The middle-aged man questioned in a cold voice.

When the many security guards, and the two waitresses, saw the middle-aged man, a hint of awe appeared in their gazes, and they all dared not say a word and lowered their heads.

Only that security captain, who seemed to have hardened a few points, but his attitude towards the middle-aged man was always respectful.

‘Manager Wu, these two people are causing trouble, I’m taking them away, what’s wrong?’ The security guard asked with a surprised look on his face.

This middle-aged man was none other than the general manager of this Cloud Mist Villa, and also Qiao San’s right hand man.

He had also heard the argument over here and rushed over, but as soon as he came over, he saw this security captain preparing to take away cousin Xue Yuning and Fan Deng, and rushed forward to stop them.
