

Chapter 2808– 2809 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2808

Seeing Chu Qitian coming back, he frowned.

Chu Qitian shook his head: “It’s not a teacher, it’s a great elder.”

“Oh?”

“That old thing, could it show you a look?” Chu Zhengliang’s brow furrowed deeper.

Although the great elders are highly respected among the Chumen, they can’t be wildly spread to their Chu family.

Chu Qitian didn’t conceal it, and truthfully told the reason why the elder reprimanded him.

When Chu Zhengliang heard this, his brows suddenly stretched out, and he turned his head and continued to run the business.

“Then you deserve it!”

“Tang Yun is not only your teacher, but also the master of Trumen, and the leader of our three families.”

“That said, even I dare not say it.”

“You bastard, how dare you speak disrespect to the doorkeeper.”

“The Great Elder just scolded you. If I was there, I would have to scratch your ears.”

Chu Zhengliang also made a serious criticism of Chu Qitian.

Chu Qitian lowered his head: “Dad, I know I was wrong.”

“But, I just feel upset.”

“Do you know that today is a big trouble in Chumen, a woman who has the strength to fight with me, Teacher Tang Yun, for whom is she here?”

“Who is it for?” Chu Zhengliang was also interested.

Chumen Mountain occupies a huge area.

Although Chu Family Manor was also on Chumen Mountain, it was still a little far away from the main hall of Chumen Headquarters.

Therefore, although Chu Zhengliang had heard of the previous news, he did not visit the scene in person, and naturally he did not know many details.

“He came for that evil kind, Chu Tianfan.”

“Because the teacher killed Chu Tianfan, she came to give him revenge.”

what?

“Even for him?”

Chu Zhengliang was also surprised when he heard this. A pair of pupils shrank suddenly.

An old face that was originally calm, but now it was ugly, almost dripping with water.

“I really didn’t expect that an abandoned son abandoned by my Chu family would still be standing behind such a strong man?”

“It seems that we have always underestimated him.”

For a long time, their father and son felt that no matter how powerful Mark was, he was only alone, fighting alone, with no support behind him.

Therefore, even if they learned that Brian Chu had the power of title, Chu Zhengliang and the others were only shocked and felt that it was a threat to the position of the son’s heir, and they did not feel jealous and afraid.

After all, his Yang Chu family has a solid foundation, and the strong are like clouds.

Lonely people like Mark, in front of the behemoth of the Chu family, are not scary at all.

But now, the appearance of this woman made Chu Zhengliang had to be shocked.

Because this means that behind that young man, there are very likely some terrifying connections and forces.

If this is the case, what Mark can threaten is not just his son’s heir, but the entire Chu family!

“But fortunately, that abandoned son has been killed by Tang Yun’s master.”

“It’s because he really had some monstrous connections before he was alive, but when he died now, everything has become a vain.”

“Everything is not enough to be afraid of.”

Chu Zhengliang said happily.

In the past, Chu Zhengliang, like his son, did not take Mark seriously.

However, until the last time he had a face-to-face and fight with Mark on the shores of Japanese waters, Chu Zhengliang had undoubtedly been more afraid of this nephew.

Now, it was revealed that behind Mark, there was still a peerless powerhouse comparable to Tang Yun.

Chu Zhengliang didn't dare to imagine what kind of confident trouble this class of people would become in the future if they didn't die!

Chapter 2809

“Qi Tian, Mark is Chu Tianfan's business, didn't you say it to the outside?”

Fortunately, Chu Zhengliang looked at his son solemnly again, and asked in a condensed voice.

Chu Qitian shook his head: “No, father.”

“Right now, no one knows that Mark, who died under the sword of the teacher in the depths of the rain forest that day, was the abandoned son of my Chu family, Chu Tianfan.”

“Very good.” Chu Zhengliang nodded, “This matter is rotten to me. Don't tell anyone.”

“After all, that Brian Chuis the abandoned son of my Chu family after all. The more powerful he is, the more he beats our Chu family in the face.”

“More than that, I am afraid that it will also affect your status in the Chu family.”

Chu Zhengliang's remark is by no means a false statement.

Among the juniors of the Chu family, Chu Qitian is recognized as the most talented person.

Once the people of the sect learned that Brian Chu was so good, they would inevitably compare with Chu Qitian.

This superiority is judged by natural forces!

Regardless of strength or woman, compared with Mark, Chu Qitian was completely defeated.

Therefore, the fewer people who know about Mark, the better.

For these, Chu Qitian naturally understood it.

However, he himself was not reconciled.

“Dad, what do you think I am inferior to that country bastard?”

“The cultivation base is inferior to him, it has already frustrated me a lot.”

“But now, the woman behind them is so strong? So awesome?”

“Why!”

“What exactly is this for?”

“How can he, Brian Chuand He De, make such a woman pay like this?”

“Could it be that I, Chu Qitian, really can't compare to the wild species born by a country woman?”

During this period of time, the successive blows undoubtedly made Chu Qitian extremely frustrated.

As a result, he has begun to doubt his ability.

The self-confidence and pride that were once utterly effusive, after all, was crushed by Mark.

It wasn't until this time that Chu Qitian realized that there was such a big gap between him and Mark.

That young man crushed him in strength during his lifetime.

Even if he has fallen, as far as the woman is concerned, it has crushed him again.

Seeing how discouraged and distressed his son was, Chu Zheng conscientiously felt compassionate. While touching his son's head, he comforted softly: “Tian'er, why bother to belittle yourself?”

“Back then, your father and I were inferior to your uncle in many respects.”

“At that time, almost everyone's eyes were on your uncle, saying that he was a monster that was hard to come out of the Chu family in a century, and was the backbone of the future of the Chu family.”

“But what about the result?”

“At the end of the laugh, sitting in this position as the head of the house, isn't it your father or me?”

“So Tian'er, the momentary success or failure is of no importance at all.”

“The one who laughs last is the real king!”

“What's more, that Brian Chuis still a few years older than you, and it is normal that your cultivation is not as good as him.”

“Maybe, when you reach his age, your martial arts attainments will be superior to him.”

“As for women, you don't have to be discouraged.”

“Father has found a good wife for you many years ago, and made a marriage contract with his father.”

“As long as you can successfully marry her as your wife, your father will plan for you in the future.”

“Years later, your teacher Tang Yun's current position will be where you will be in the future.”

Chu Zhengliang's words were like a raging fire burning in the room.

Among them, what a huge ambition is implied
