

Chapter 2816– 2817 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2816

Ruyu's pretty face was followed by a brilliant smile, slowly blooming.

“Finally, do you want to wake up?”

The shallow laughter, with inexplicable joy, drifted far, far along the breeze.

Boom~

A more violent gust of wind rolled up, bringing up a burst of deafening sonic booms.

The movement here awakened an old man who was sleeping soundly.

“Yep?”

“what happened?”

“Could the earthquake be impossible?”

Gaia leaped out of a boulder like a wild dog stepped on its tail.

He had a gloomy old face, looking at the strange sky in front of him, his whole person looked a little dazed, and he was also a little bit startled.

“No, this is a sandstorm?”

“Fuck!”

“This is so good, why did you blow up the sandstorm?”

“If you are paralyzed, let's hide first.”

“Where is Yue Yao?”

“I'll go, you still have your mind to play the piano there.”

“Quickly, find a place to hide.”

“The sandstorm is coming.”

Gaia said eagerly, urging Yue Yao to find a cave to avoid.

However, Yue Yao was very calm, with a delicate smile on her delicate face.

“It’s not that the sandstorm is coming, it’s a monster, it’s coming out.”

“Huh, monster?” Gaia was stunned, somewhat unable to understand Yue Yao’s words.

But soon, Gaia seemed to realize something, a violent spirit in his mind, his old eyes widened.

“You mean, the dragon came out?”

Gaia’s words almost roared out, and then quickly turned around and looked in the direction of Mark’s retreat.

Sure enough, Gaia discovered that the hut where Mark was located had become the center of the storm.

The endless power of heaven and earth, like a call, surging wildly and converging there.

Looking from afar, a huge tornado appeared there.

The rich and pure terrifying power made Gaia feel terrified and trembling.

“Haha~”

“It’s the Dragon Lord!”

....

“Mom, the Dragon Lord will finally wake up.”

“It’s been more than half a year, it’s so hard for me to wait~”

.....

“Retreat for so long, if I don’t come out again, I thought the Dragon Lord was dead?”

“Haha~”

On the shore of the lake, Gaia Haha smiled.

The whole person was very excited, like that, like a wanderer living away from home, finally waiting for his father who had been away for many years.

Of course, the main reason why Gaia was so excited was that he waited too long, and he was annoying.

Now that I can finally see the moon and the moon, I finally don’t have to stay boring here in the future. Gaia is naturally happy.

Booming~

As the energy gathered, the world began to tremble more and more violently.

The huge tornado seemed to contain all the energy in the world.

Almost all the power of the world with a radius of one thousand meters was completely wiped out!

Under the storm, a little green light flashing could still be seen vaguely.

Stabbed~

Suddenly there was a crisp sound, as if something had cracked.

Immediately afterwards, a powerful force resembling Yaoyang, like a bomb, was released suddenly.

Under this shock, the small house several feet square was shattered in an instant.

In the chaotic woods, a thin figure, like a green light, like a thunder dragon, instantly rose into the sky.

“This this...”

At that moment, both Gaia and Yue Yao were stunned.

They raised their heads and looked forward idiotically.

I saw that between Tianhe, there was a young man standing proudly.

He has black hair like a waterfall, his eyebrows are full of prestige, he looks up to the sky and howls.

At the same time, the huge tornado, as if being summoned, went crazy in the young man's body.

From a distance, the young man standing proudly in the sky is like a vast ocean standing in the sky, filled with hundreds of rivers and stars, swallowing thousands of miles like a tiger!

Chapter 2817

Under the sky, the terrible power almost eclipsed the world.

Finally, after an unknown period of time, the tumult of the world gradually subsided.

And the boy between the sea of clouds finally opened his eyes that had been closed for several months.

The eyebrows are deep, like a galaxy, piercing through time and space, looking at the distant Tianhe.

“Hanging for a thousand days, drinking ice for ten years.”

“I, Chu Tianfan, today, I have washed all my lead and cultivated to great success.”

“The past has become a cloud.”

“After today, dare to ask how many people are there in the world who can be against me?”

Feeling the supernatural power of the waves in the body that resembles the vast ocean, the young man’s eyes are full of power and pride.

The sound of mixing, like thunder, rolls past the sky here.

The yellow sand was trembling, and the limelight was all over the sky.

It is as if the clouds on the other side were all shattered under Mark’s majesty.

Looking up at the young man who looked like a shining sun in the sky, Gaia and others were already stunned.

Especially after feeling the majestic power of Mark’s body, Gaia, who was excited, knelt directly on the ground and shouted: “Congratulations to the Dragon Lord, great success!”

“Congratulations to the dragon lord, the lead has been washed away, and the cocoons will be transformed into butterflies~”

Gaia’s congratulations continued to sound.

Those old eyes that looked at Mark were full of shock and respect.

Of course, not only Gaia, but also Yue Yao, who has always been calm, felt the terrifying power from Mark, her delicate pretty face couldn’t help showing a bit of tremor.

“This breath, I’m afraid it has surpassed my teacher back then.”

“Unexpectedly, the boy who was as immature as me back then, inadvertently, has grown to this point?”

Yue Yao said softly, in that soft tone, there was joy, satisfaction, surprise, and even more admiration and admiration.

Yue Yao remembers that when he first met this young man, his cultivation base was not even a grandmaster.

Even the strength is not as good as myself.

At that time, he was chased and killed by the people of the division and fled for thousands of kilometers all the way to the west. Finally, he broke into the Gobi desert of Xijiang and finally met Mark, who was also chased by others.

In this way, two people who did not meet each other skillfully met under the arrangement of fate.

Moreover, the almost similar sufferings and experiences of the two quickly brought their relationship closer.

In this way, Yue Yao and Mark quickly became friends.

And, under the cooperation of the two, they finally solved the enemy who came to chase and kill.

The oasis in front of her was also discovered by a coincidence between her and Mark.

Now, many years have passed.

The immature young eagle back then, after all, has fluttered its wings for nine days and is alone.

He completely transformed into a man who stood upright.

“Mark, congratulations.” Yue Yao whispered, that inaudible voice, like a natural sound, was actually like that, so she turned to listen.

---

---

After a long period of noise, the wind and sand disappeared, and everything was silent after all.

Here the world has once again restored its former calm.

After the retreat, Mark, who had just awakened, also condensed his breath.

Like a peerless sword, it was once again hidden in the sword box.

Compared with the past, Mark now appears more deep and introverted, and even more unfathomable.

“Dragon Lord, you finally wake up.”

“I thought you wouldn’t be able to wake up, so just shut it down?”

“Haha~”

Gaia came over, laughing, a mouth that kept talking from the very beginning, like a babble.

Mark just nodded, and didn’t pay much attention to this guy.
