

Campus Master Chapter 2861

“Ta-da-da

The power of the submachine gun was unmistakable at this moment.

But what made the Cheetahs angry and impatient was that the taxi in front of them was still unharmed, and they didn't know what was going on, but the taxi just couldn't catch up, it was some distance ahead and just beyond the range of the weapons.

In terms of displacement, the taxi was far inferior to the pursuing car, and in terms of acceleration and car performance, the taxi was even worse, but the car behind them just couldn't catch up.

“Faster, faster!”

The leader of the Cheetahs shouted angrily, a white man of about forty years of age, looking extremely tough, but at the moment he was full of anger, with a sinister and ruthless look in his eyes, constantly roaring and urging the driver, “Hurry up, are you a loser? You can't even catch up with a taxi!”

But in his heart, the driver could not say what he wanted to say. If we talk about the speed of the car, the car in front of him was not really too fast.

But the problem was that this was not a race track, and the taxi didn't go in a straight line, it was going all over the street, making the car behind him have a lot of power but no power at all, and he had to drive as steadily as possible, otherwise a sudden sharp turn would probably throw the person in the passenger seat half out!

The only thing that could be brought into play was the car's sharp cornering and braking performance, and the only way to keep up with the taxi in front of him during the sharp corner was to rely on good braking performance.

The driver was sweating profusely as he listened to the boss's roar. He didn't know how the taxi in front of him could turn so easily, especially when he was passing through a section of the road where there were cars parked randomly on both sides of the road and the aisle was so narrow that only two cars could pass side by side at most. The taxi was going at full speed and could easily pass!

But when the car coming from the opposite direction reached him, he had to slow down, or else he would have crashed

“Hurry up!”

The driver's heart chilled as he heard the anger in the boss's words, not just towards the taxi in front of him, but also towards himself!

At this moment, the people who were angry were not only the Cheetahs, but also the dignitaries and celebrities who were following behind them, who were even more impatient and anxious!

Because all of them were involved in this matter, usually these people also supported the faction of dignitaries, and looked down on the mainland, of course, there were also interests involved, but it was certain that they all chose to support the faction that divided Treasure Island from China.

Therefore, when they saw Ji Feng flee, they were all extraordinarily anxious.

It was not without risk, but in fact with great risk, because it had already aroused the discontent of many people within the top echelons of Treasure Island, which was considered to be intensifying the conflict with the mainland, which would have a great impact on the businessmen who invested in the mainland, and also on the economic development of Treasure Island.

It is important to note that the economy of the island is now inextricably linked to the mainland in every aspect, with mainlanders visiting the island every year for shopping and consumption alone accounting for a significant portion of the island's economy.

But most of the time, it is just a spontaneous boycott by the mainland folk, which is not influential enough to cause much damage.

And if Ji Feng escaped today, then their plan to kill him would be exposed. At that time, no one could say whether the mainland top brass would introduce any policies to curb Treasure Island in a fit of anger, or point the spear at them directly, in which case the other top brass of Treasure Island would definitely not be on their side.

What's more, if Ji Feng doesn't die, then some people are difficult to account for.

Therefore, no matter which way they looked at it, they had to kill Ji Feng today, and they absolutely, absolutely could not let Ji Feng escape!

That dignitary and several celebrities were constantly urging the driver, their expressions were even more gloomy, but the impatience in their eyes could not be concealed in any way.

"Tell Wang Yongsheng to bring his men to stop that car!" Finally, the fat-headed dignitary couldn't help himself, sitting in the car and looking at the taxi in front of him that hadn't even caught up and was almost running further and further away, he couldn't help but say in a deep voice, almost yelling out.

The bodyguard sitting next to him immediately took out his mobile phone and started making calls!

"Bunch of trash!"

This dignitary couldn't help but curse angrily, "So many people, dealing with a mere few people can still get into this mess now, and it hasn't even been done properly by now, even as the other party looks like they're about to run away! Tell Wang Yongsheng that if he wants to survive, he must block those few people for me today, if he can't, the Evil Wolf Gang won't exist!"

The bodyguard immediately responded, "Yes!"

When Wang Yongsheng received the call, he was actually on his way to catch up, the people he had previously arranged around the hotel had all been killed, this was the news he got when he couldn't contact the ones he had arranged and sent his little brother to check, his eyes were red with anger!

Ji Feng! Ji Feng!

He couldn't help but roar low twice, the hatred that was pressing in his throat almost made him go crazy, there weren't many people in his Bad Wolf Gang, but more than half of them had already died at Ji Feng's hands!

First, the second one was killed and 20 to 30 other brothers were killed at the same time, which had already broken the bones of the Bad Wolf Gang, but now, the man he had arranged was killed again, and without a single shot being fired, he didn't even know when this happened!

Wang Yongsheng's heart was filled with such hatred!

Once these people died, the entire Vicious Wolf Gang was instantly reduced by a large part It could be said that the greater part of the Vicious Wolf Gang was destroyed by Ji Feng's hands!

Now that he had received this call again, Wang Yongsheng's ruthless nature immediately exploded.

Whether or not the Vicious Wolf Gang could still survive depended on whether or not they could kill Ji Feng today!

However, Wang Yongsheng had never thought that if he hadn't taken the mission to assassinate Ji Feng for money, then why would he have lost so many elite fighters? Even his penis had gotten involved?

And all those people he had arranged for tonight were all prepared to kill Ji Feng when he came out, and while they were all done away with, Wang Yongsheng hated Ji Feng instead!

"Inform everyone to intercept Ji Feng at all costs! If he doesn't die today, none of us will survive, and whoever doesn't fucking sell out, don't blame the gun in my hand for not recognising him!" Wang Yongsheng roared.

"..... Yes!"

When Wang Yongsheng's order was conveyed, but all the people from the Vicious Wolf Gang who were involved in today's action all went crazy and started chasing desperately towards the taxi that Ji Feng was in.

It had to be said that in the chaotic political arena of Treasure Island, there was indeed some truth to the fact that some political figures liked to use the power of the black `doors to solve some problems.

These triad figures have no scruples because there are people above them to back them up, and they are even ostensibly employees of such-and-such a large group, so they know the local situation very well, and they are so ruthless and ruthless that ordinary people are afraid of them, so they do some things very smoothly.

The same was true at this moment, as soon as the people of the Evil Wolf Gang moved out, immediately the whole northern city was in chaos, especially this area where Ji Feng and his men were fleeing, that was even more chaotic.

The reason is that the people of the Wolf Gang are not concentrated together, and they are very familiar with the streets and alleys, so they scampered out of nowhere without warning.

In this way, it immediately caused Ji Feng and the others to encounter some trouble.

Bai Zhu steadily drove the car, although the car skills she learned from Ji Feng had not yet been mastered, they were no worse than many racing drivers, so the small displacement taxi became exceptionally light under her control.

Following the route she had scouted, Bai Zhu drove calmly, and she had time to look in the rear view mirror from time to time, so as to keep the distance between her and the pursuers, without losing them completely by driving too fast, because their aim was to attract these people to them and then break them one by one, not to really run away!

“Bang Bang Bang Bang~!”

Just then, a car suddenly burst out from the alley in front of them and crossed the middle of the road at once, while two pistols stretched out from the car window that had been lowered long ago, and fired several shots at the oncoming taxi.

Bai Zhu was alerted when the car on the other side of the road came out, so she reacted quickly and hit the steering wheel, the body shook a little, but directly came to a small distance drift, crashed through the guardrail and drove into the opposite lane, avoiding the bullets.

And at the same time, Liu Zejun had already raised his hand and pulled the trigger on that car: “Bang Bang Bang”

Immediately after that, I saw that car lurched forward for a moment, and then it plopped down, and the man in the car’s hand that was stretched out of the window dropped down, and the pistol fell to the ground.

“Whew~”

“SQUEAK-!”

There was another violent sound of tyres scraping against the ground as Bai Zhu drifted once more, once again crashing through the guardrail in the middle of the road and back into the normal lane.

She looked, without the slightest panic.

However, Ji Feng, who was sitting in the back row, could not help but frown slightly. The appearance of this car made him realise that this was definitely not a good sign, because it definitely would not be the chasers behind taking a shortcut to catch up with them, 100%, it was the people in charge of the blockade in front!

The other side was using a wider force!

Looks like a change of plan!

Campus Master Chapter 2862

We can’t go on like this!

Ji Feng’s mind turned rapidly, although it seemed that this sudden appearance of people and horses did not have much strong combat power and did not constitute a threat to them yet, however, these people harassing them from the side again and again would bring them some trouble and would at least distract some of their energy.

The pursuers behind them were already numerous and had advanced weapons, even heavy weapons like rocket launchers. The reason why Ji Feng and his men had chosen to ‘flee’ was that the other side was outnumbered and outgunned, so they had chosen to draw them over and then take them down individually.

Now if their plan to flee was disrupted by this sudden appearance of another group of people, it would not be good for them!

So, Ji Feng made a split-second decision and decided to change his tactics!

“Bai Zhu, change the plan, no need to go to the outer ring, go straight to our landing spot!” Ji Feng mused and said in a deep voice.

“Landing spot?!”

Bai Zhu was slightly stunned, then immediately nodded and responded, “Got it.”

Liu Zejun, however, could not help but freeze for a moment, then said, “Boss, that landing spot is our last hiding place, if we lure people there, then the next”

“If we can’t even manage today, where’s the next?!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice: “The other side’s people have increased, we must change our plan and just go to the landing site!”

“Understood!”

Liu Zejun nodded his head and stopped talking. He had only offered a different opinion to remind Ji Feng, as well as for Ji Feng to use as a reference, since Ji Feng had now made a decision, there was nothing more to say, unconditionally carry out Ji Feng’s orders!

Yang Bin tightly gripped the gun in his hand, his face was resolute, but in his heart he couldn’t help but feel a little anxious.

This was because he suddenly realized that among all these people, he was the only one who was the most useless. If we compare strictly, his marksmanship was even inferior to that of a small-time gangster in the black ‘doors’!

For example, in this escape, he found that he could not help much at all, but would most likely become a burden to Ji Feng.

Now was the time when Ji Feng needed the most manpower and help, but he could only watch and had to let Ji Feng run with him, which really made him hold his head up a bit.

However, at the moment, no one noticed Yang Bin’s expression, Ji Feng was thinking about what to do next, while Bai Zhu was concentrating on driving, and as for Liu Zejun, he was incomparably alert, scanning the surroundings to prevent any more sudden attackers from appearing.

“Boss, neither Zhang Lei nor Xiao Yao seem to be following us.” Liu Zejun suddenly spoke up.

“Contact them!” Ji Feng said.

It was Ji Feng’s arrangement that Yao Zhijian should stay behind, because Yao Zhijian’s sniping skills were so excellent that if he hid in the shadows, he would definitely be able to exert great power at critical moments and have an unexpected effect.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual situation.

However, since the tactics were going to change now, it was definitely necessary to inform Zhang Lei and Yao Zhijian.

“I’ll make the contact!” Yang Bin said immediately, the only thing he could do now, I’m afraid, was to make a phone call, as everyone in the car had something to do.

“Tell them that we’re going back to the drop point!” Ji Feng said, “Ask them what their plans are.”

“Yes. Sir.” Yang Bin immediately answered.

Yang Bin then hurriedly contacted Zhang Lei, who soon answered the phone, and Yang Bin immediately said, “Zhang Lei, sir asked what your next plan was, and also, sir has decided to change his tactics, we are going straight back to the landing point!”

Zhang Lei on the phone did not know what to say, Yang Bin immediately said, “Because there was a sudden accident on the road, a car suddenly appeared to block us

After saying a few words and describing the situation in general, Yang Bin suddenly turned his head and said, “Sir, Zhang Lei said to put you on the phone!”

Ji Feng nodded, played a little fancy with the pistol on his right hand, handed it over to his left hand, and then took the phone, “Lei Zi, where are you now?”

Zhang Lei said, “I’m right behind the people from the Bamboo Alliance Gang, by the way, Ji Lihai and Ji YuYing are also involved in this matter.”

Ji Feng frowned, “Are you sure?!”

Zhang Lei sneered, “I followed right behind them, do you think you can be sure?!”

“I know.”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Then let’s ignore them for now, no matter who is trying to deal with us, be prepared to meet our counterattack! Lei Zi, you put this matter aside for now, the plan has changed, we’ll go straight back to the drop point, what are you going to do?!”

Zhang Lei said, “Alright, I know what to do, you be careful.”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “You too.”

“Squeak-!”

Suddenly an ear-piercing sound of sharp braking came, another car rushed out, “Whew!” With a loud bang, Ji Feng raised his hand and aimed at the driver’s side windshield of that car and pulled the trigger straight away, bang!

I saw the car lurch forward and smash through the guardrail and into the opposite lane.

Boom!

There was a loud bang and the car collided with a car in the opposite lane, because the car had suddenly entered the opposite lane, the car in the opposite lane had no time to brake, and it crashed into it, sending the car skidding for more than ten meters, leaving a mess!

“Buzz~~!”

Bai Zhu didn't even change her expression for a moment, steadily passing.

Yang Bin, however, couldn't help but be shocked, just now that car had been braked, how come Ji Feng shot that driver to death and the car rushed out again?

However, Liu Zejun's face showed admiration, this is the difference in strength, not to be convinced. The process just now, if Liu Zejun had to do it, he would never be able to do it so easily and calmly, because the mastery of timing, as well as that gun skill, all need to be exquisite to the peak to do.

In fact, just now, the car suddenly came across, in the moment of emergency braking, although it seems that the car stopped, but at that time the car's huge inertia and impact is the biggest time, Ji Feng shot the driver, and naturally made the car lost the braking force, the huge inertia also let the car rushed out!

This process is simple to say, but to do it, it is like a nightmare.

The car rushed out without warning, extremely sudden, and Ji Feng was still on the phone, but he was still able to react so quickly, and most importantly, Ji Feng was holding a gun in his left hand, but he was still able to shoot so accurately

The most important thing is that Ji Feng is holding a gun in his left hand and he can still shoot so accurately.

As the car continued to drive, Zhang Lei's voice came over the phone, “Crazy, was that a gunshot just now?”

“Well, another car was dispatched!”

Ji Feng said indifferently, “Let's do this first, you take care of yourself!”

Zhang Lei said, “Don't worry, I know what to do, we'll see what happens later.”

And then, the two of them ended the call.

“Bai Zhu, speed up!” Ji Feng suddenly said.

“But if we accelerate any further, the cars behind us may not be able to keep up!” Bai Zhu said.

“Don't be afraid that they won't be able to keep up, don't worry, they definitely won't give up!” Ji Feng sneered, “You always keep this distance, maybe they will even suspect it!”

Bai Zhu then understood, without saying a word, he started to increase the throttle, the car accelerated once again, and in a flash, he pulled away from the people from the Cheetah Mercenary Group behind him.

“Chief, they're going faster again, we're about to lose them!” The driver of one of the Cheetah Mercenary Regiment's cars that was pursuing behind them hurriedly said.

“Rubbish!”

The boss of the Cheetah Mercenaries couldn't help but curse angrily, “Speed up, if you lose the men, I'll rip your head off!”

The driver shivered and his hand on the steering wheel couldn't help but shake a little, which caused the boss to get even angrier: “Idiot, you're going to die, are you driving or driving a tank?!”

The driver muttered in his heart that it would have been better if he had been driving a tank, for he would have been invincible in a tank on the battlefield, unlike now, when he could see the target with his eyes raised, but he could not catch up with it, and the other side was always out of range, making them really helpless.

Seeing that the distance was getting farther and farther away, the boss of the Cheetahs knew that just scolding the driver would not work, and this was not a solution either, so he immediately started to contact someone.

The news soon reached the dignitary, and as soon as he heard that Ji Feng was actually about to run away, he immediately became anxious and then hurriedly instructed the people of the Bad Wolf Gang to pay close attention to where Ji Feng and the others had gone. At the same time, he even contacted the others, no matter what, he must not let Ji Feng get away!

Since Bai Zhu began to exert her full strength and brought the car's performance to an extremely high level, her speed steeply increased, and naturally, she gradually lost the pursuers of the Cheetah Mercenaries, and then, she directly drove back to the landing point with the fastest speed – that building of a semi-fortress nature that was built early by the army that had retreated to.

“Old Liu, you go up to the roof of the building, Xiao Yao's sniper rifle here is still one, it will be handed over to you, not for accuracy, mainly for deterrence!” Several people got out of the car, Ji Feng quickly barked instructions: “Yang Bin, you

He paused, then said, “You also go upstairs, take an automatic rifle, when people come you will strafe!”

Yang Bin nodded silently and pursed his lips.

Just now Ji Feng paused for a moment, it was obvious that he was having a difficult time about how to arrange his position, it was obvious that there was not a lot of room for him to play now, when bullets were flying here, one could not go for close physical combat, right?

Something had to be done, he couldn't be a liability to Mr., surely!

Campus Master Chapter 2863

“Whew~~”

Holding the cold automatic rifle in his hand, Yang Bin pursed his lips and took two deep breaths, trying hard to calm himself down, but, looking down at the rifle in his hand, Yang Bin was not calm again.

He could use this rifle, but it was taught to him by Yao Zhijian two days ago, but he only knew how to use it, he was not proficient at all, which is why Ji Feng let him take the automatic rifle and strafe it directly, because he was not good at point blank shooting and sniping and so on.

Even the terms point and shoot and sniping were terms that he had only heard from Yao Zhijian, but had never seen before.

“Yang Bin.”

Suddenly, a voice came, Yang Bin jerked his head around, but he saw Ji Feng was slowly walking to his side, he stood up at once: “Sir!”

Ji Feng smiled and said, “Why, what are you thinking about, so lost in thought. Are you a bit nervous?”

Yang Bin immediately shook his head and said, “Not nervous! Sir, I just I just feel a bit useless, I don’t know how to do anything, and I can’t help you much in this emergency, I”

“Who said you can’t help me?!” Not waiting for Yang Bin to finish, Ji Feng interrupted him and said, “Know why I arranged for you to be here?”

Yang Bin shook his head, but in fact he understood it very well in his heart, but he was too embarrassed to say so.

Ji Feng said, “That’s because, I arranged you here in order to use you to attract the attention of those people, think about it, after those people come after you, you are here to strafe them, isn’t it a big threat to them? Wouldn’t they have to find a way to finish you off first then?”

Yang Bin was a bit puzzled.

Ji Feng laughed, “When you draw all those people’s attention away, wouldn’t I be a bit safer then? Also, wouldn’t I have enough time and energy to prepare for a counterattack?”

Yang Bin was stunned. He hadn’t expected Ji Feng to say that, but he didn’t feel the slightest bit uncomfortable in his heart. Because this life of his was saved by Ji Feng, now even if Ji Feng said that he would take his life away, he would have no complaints.

However, he did not expect Ji Feng to say it so bluntly.

But in the next moment, Yang Bin suddenly reacted to the fact that when Ji Feng said this, he didn’t really want him to attract the enemy’s attention here, let alone to make him cannon fodder, just to put his mind at ease.

Because, to say that the threat to the enemy and to attract the enemy’s attention, Liu Zejun’s position was more important than his, and the threat to the enemy was also greater, the enemy must first want to take out Liu Zejun, not him.

If he is the cannon fodder, then Liu Zejun is the cannon fodder of cannon fodder, it can be said to be a death send!

Therefore, Ji Feng’s words simply do not stand up, Yang Bin just a little thought to know Ji Feng’s words must be to comfort himself, deliberately told himself that is the cannon fodder, so that he is not that embarrassed, think they are useless

Yang Bin felt even more guilty in his heart, he just nodded heavily and didn’t say anything.

“Be careful later, don’t be too desperate!” Ji Feng patted Yang Bin’s shoulder, he knew that Yang Bin was not a good talker either, so he did not say anything more. Moreover, this was not the time to talk, he had to go and make preparations, otherwise, I was afraid that the next thing would be a bit troublesome.

Afterwards, Ji Feng went back up to the roof and arrived at the sniping point, and found Liu Zejun loading his magazines, he walked over and asked with a smile, “How about it, are you ready?”

Liu Zejun smiled, “I’ve gotten used to it, and today I really got back a little bit of the feeling I had back then, it’s been a long time since I’ve played like this, I’m quite looking forward to it!”

“That’s good!”

Ji Feng laughed, “Take care of yourself, safety is most important, I’m the main one today!”

Liu Zejun immediately said, “That won’t do, boss, today’s focus is on you, the main force is us!”

“No need to argue, I have my own arrangements!” Ji Feng waved his hand and said, “Make sure you stay alive, that’s an order, do you hear me!”

“Yes!” Liu Zejun immediately shouted.

“Very good!”

Ji Feng smiled and patted him on the shoulder, saying, “You get busy. I’ll send some bullets up for you later.”

Liu Zejun bared his teeth and said, “Boss, I promise to shoot off a few more heads for you!”

“I’ll wait!” Ji Feng laughed.

Afterwards, Ji Feng went downstairs and arrived at the lobby on the ground floor, but he saw Bai Zhu looking around vigilantly, and then looked down at a small computer in his hand, checking the surveillance around this area to see if someone was coming after him.

Old Zhou provided this building with water and electricity, and this was exactly what Ji Feng wanted, so he took advantage of the two days to install surveillance around, but of course it was not the same as the surveillance in ordinary homes or companies, the surveillance he installed was for defence. The purpose was to prevent people from sneaking up on him.

And now, it was time for these monitors to come into play.

Seeing Ji Feng coming over, Bai Zhu had a somewhat worried look between her eyebrows, and she hesitated for a moment before saying, “Young Ji, is it appropriate for us to be here?”

“It’s nothing, I just think that if we are here, it will be a hard battle, but the disparity in power between our two sides is a bit big!” Bai Zhu said.

According to Ji Feng's previous plan, they had lured the Cheetah Mercenaries out and then attacked them one by one, so that the Cheetah Mercenaries had an empty advantage in numbers and weapons, but they couldn't use it. But now that they had returned to their base, the situation had changed!

Once the Cheetah mercenaries come after them..... should say, they will definitely come after them, this way of fleeing will definitely leave traces that can't be covered, moreover, Ji Feng didn't let them cover traces and hide their tracks, but when the enemy comes after them and they hold here, then it will become a hard battle.

For the people of the Cheetah Mercenaries, it might be a little difficult for them to fight an offensive battle, but the difficulties were certainly not many, because with modern technology, there were simply too many ways to capture this building.

But for their side, there were too many difficulties in trying to hold it.

Originally, if Zhang Lei and Yao Zhijian were both here, with Yao Zhijian and Ji Feng's marksmanship, the two of them would have been able to seal the entrance and the Cheetahs would have had to pay a huge price to get in.

However, Yao Zhijian was not there, and Zhang Lei was not there either. With such a small number of men, how could they possibly hold them off?

How could Bai Zhu not be worried?

However, Ji Feng smiled and said, "Bai Zhu, don't worry, the reason why we are going back here this time is partly because the people who want to kill us this time are definitely not just from the Cheetah Mercenaries, but also the Vicious Wolf Gang and perhaps other forces, the reason for coming back here is to get them all to gather here and then kill them all in one go!"

Bai Zhu was even more stunned, "A net?"

It was not even clear if they could hold this place, so how could they possibly kill them all in one net?

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely kill them all! You forget, I'm prepared!"

Bai Zhu immediately reacted and asked, "What you're talking about, is that box?"

"That's right!"

Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

When they came to Treasure Island, apart from bringing their clothes and luggage, they didn't even bring a single bullet, everything was sent through the military's secret channels, including Yao Zhijian's sniper rifle, and some other weapons.

And Ji Feng also got another thing at that time, a small suitcase, a little smaller than an ordinary suitcase, which Ji Feng never opened, so Bai Zhu didn't know exactly what was put inside.

"Wait for the good show!" Ji Feng smiled faintly, squeezed Bai Zhu's small hand and said, "Later, I'm going to place you in this lobby, this is the most dangerous place, it's likely to be the enemy's firepower concentration point, afraid or not?!"

Her stunningly beautiful face carried a kind of determination.

Ji Feng lifted his hand and slid his fingers across Bai Zhu's delicate and tender face, causing her pretty face to flush, "Following me is really making you suffer."

Bai Zhu, however, only pursed her lips and smiled, then shook her head. Whether following Ji Feng was aggravating or not, she knew best in her own heart. After living so long, the days following Ji Feng were the best and happiest times for her, she was not at all aggrieved, instead she was filled with a sense of happiness.

"Alright, be on guard!"

Ji Feng kissed Bai Zhu on that smooth forehead, in the end it was a girl, before in the vicinity of the venue because of the explosion and got a head full of dust, as a result the first thing Bai Zhu did after returning was to go wash her face

Afterwards, Ji Feng went upstairs and went to his room.

"Buzz~~!"

When the loud roar of the engine in that dark night became clearer and clearer, Liu Zejun, Yang Bin, and Bai Zhu, all three of them were alert, and at the same time, they all clutched the weapons in their hands.

They knew that a great battle had come, and it was about to start!

In the distance, the high-intensity light had shone over, so obvious in the darkness of this remote place. Standing on the roof of the building, Liu Zejun could even clearly see the speeding cars.

He picked up his communication device and said, "Boss, the devils are coming!"

Ji Feng, who was working on something in front of the tabletops in one of the empty rooms, didn't even look up, he just said indifferently, "Then get ready to work, don't skimp on the bullets and see how many you can take out today!"

Liu Zejun's smile had a coldness in it, "I've prepared eight magazines!"

Eight magazines meant eighty rounds of ammunition!

The sniper rifle Yao Zhijian was using was a professional sniper rifle, and a ten-round magazine was extremely powerful and accurate.

Ji Feng was then relieved as he added, "Yang Bin, don't be nervous, take your time!"

"Yes, sir." Yang Bin clenched his fist.

Campus Master Chapter 2864

But no one expected that the battle would come so suddenly, just at the beginning, and it instantly went into high gear!

The first to arrive was the Cheetah Mercenaries, but the gang did not get too close, stopping at a great distance, and, they also blocked the front with the cars they were sitting in, as if forming a trench, while they were hiding behind, not knowing what to get up to.

But in reality, Liu Zejun and the others knew very well that the gang must have been discussing tactics, especially Liu Zejun, who was really no stranger to the behaviour of the Cheetah mercenary group, as this was a common tactic used by mercenary groups in military operations.

Imagine, in the absence of a clear understanding of the reality of the situation, no one will act rashly, the mercenary group of these veterans in the battlefield is certainly not the case, they know better than anyone to avoid the danger, but also more shrewd than many people, always at the most appropriate time to find a way to save their lives!

Moreover, the Cheetah mercenaries had blocked the car in front of them and from a distance, making it impossible for any other weapons present to reach them, except for the sniper rifle in Liu Zejun's hand.

But in order not to scare the snake, Liu Zejun did not do it immediately, and most importantly, he had not yet found the boss of the Cheetah mercenary group, that guy is very cunning, has not shown his head, and because it was dark, so the line of sight is not very good, Liu Zejun calmly lying on the roof of the shooting point, waiting for them to attack.

However, no one expected that this seemingly stalemated battle would suddenly break out – when the roar of car engines came once again, a long line of convoys was seen in the distance, stopping near the Cheetah Mercenaries' convoy.

But the next moment, a large number of armed men suddenly rushed down from the convoy, each with a weapon in their hands.

Wang Yongsheng got out of the car with a gloomy face, and looking at the small, dark building in front of him, he gritted his teeth and said, "Those bastards are hiding here?"

These people were none other than the people from the Vicious Wolf Gang.

And the person leading the group was none other than the leader of the Vicious Wolf Gang, Wang Yongsheng. He had chosen to lead the team himself. Ever since that day when Old Two died under Ji Feng's men, Wang Yongsheng had planned to avenge Old Two, so he personally went to the hotel to meet Ji Feng, wanting to see what kind of person could actually kill so many people from the Vicious Wolf Gang.

But what he didn't expect was that after he got there, the other party would be so arrogant that they wouldn't even give him a chance to speak, leaving him humiliated!

Wang Yongsheng immediately vowed secretly that he would catch those bastards with his own hands, whether it was Ji Feng who led the way, or that kid who had kicked his men unconscious, he would not let them go, he would catch them and treat them well!

Now, this opportunity was finally coming!

"Where are the men?!" Wang Yongsheng gritted his teeth and asked in a deep voice.

“Gang master, they’ve hidden inside this building, I saw their car drive this way with my own eyes, look, that taxi is still parked in the courtyard!”

A junior brother hurriedly ran over to report, while saying that he also pointed at the taxi in the distance, at this moment the taxi was in tatters, obviously it had been hit quite badly, no doubt this was the taxi that Ji Feng and the others were in just now!

The little brother hurriedly finished his report and then waited with anticipation for his boss’s praise, but who knew that the praise was not forthcoming, but Wang Yongsheng’s face sank and he shouted coldly: “Is that all? Just because there are taxis in this yard, you can be sure that they must be hiding in this yard? Couldn’t they have abandoned the car and escaped?”

The little brother was startled, who knew that instead of praise he was reprimanded, he was terrified, Wang Yongsheng’s ruthlessness was known to them all, he hurriedly said, “Boss, I’ve been watching here, they can’t run away, and they haven’t

“This

That little brother didn’t know how to answer, in fact he knew that Ji Feng and the others had been here all along, because this neighborhood was so remote, how far could they run if they just ran on two feet?

The most important thing is that from the time Ji Feng and the others fled here to the time Wang Yongsheng came after them, the time in between was actually only ten minutes, where could people run in such a short time?

“You go, go and try to see if they are inside!” Wang Yongsheng suddenly said.

“Huh?!”

The little brother was dumbfounded.

Wang Yongsheng turned his head and said, “Give him a gun, if they’re inside, then you’ve made your mark, and I’ll remember your merit, but if they’re not inside now, hmph! You wouldn’t be unaware of the rules of the gang, would you?!”

The little brother’s face suddenly turned white, the rules of the gang?

He gritted his teeth, took the weapon and ran towards the small courtyard with his back bent, it had to be said that those in the black’s gang were actually a bit more ruthless than others in terms of ruthlessness.

Of course, more importantly, they all knew that there were not many people on Ji Feng’s side, and the only people they saw were Ji Feng and a woman beside him anyway, so it was for this reason that this little brother dared to go alone with his weapon.

With his weapon in hand, he went outside the courtyard, leaning against the wall and stretched his head to look in through the gate, which was barred and could easily be seen from the inside.

When he saw that the gate was locked from the inside, the little brother began to poke his head in.

He said to his men, "Brothers, this time we not only want to avenge the murder of Lao Er and his brothers, but also, this matter is of great importance, whether or not our Bad Wolf Gang can rise like the Brotherhood and the Four Seas Alliance depends on whether or not we can do it today!"

"If we can't do it, then needless to say, none of us will survive!"

With a ruthless look in his eyes, Wang Yongsheng said, "But if we succeed, then our Bad Wolf Gang will rise quickly and will be recognised by the top, and we will be the fourth big gang after the Bamboo Association, the Brotherhood and the Four Seas Alliance!"

As soon as the others heard this, a look of excitement appeared in their eyes.

The three major gangs, especially the veteran Chuk Yuen Gang, had a great influence among the public, especially in the hearts of those of them who were on the street, they were the Harvard University and Oxford and Cambridge in the university, and any one of these three gangs, even a small leader, would make their bosses scorn them.

Now when they heard that the Bad Wolf Gang might become the fourth largest gang, how could they not be excited?

"So, now it's time to fight to the death!" Wang Yongsheng was very satisfied when he saw the reaction of his men.

"Boss, don't worry, we'll definitely finish off those guys!"

"That's right, boss, give the order!"

The men under his command shouted, each with a ruthless look on their faces.

Wang Yongsheng was satisfied as he waved his hand, "Very good! Go on then, and bring those bastards back to me!"

"Boss, isn't it still not certain if they're in there? Go on now?" A heartthrob asked in a low voice.

"Humph!"

Wang Yongsheng sneered, "Do you really think I've only sent that one kid to track them down? Don't worry, they are inside, but can't you see that gang is watching, we also need to hide our hand, we can't let others know our full details!"

As he said that, his gaze swept a glance at the people from the Cheetah Mercenary Group on the other side.

The heartthrob immediately understood and was very impressed.

"Go!"

The adoring look from his heartthrob made Wang Yongsheng very receptive, and he waved his hand and shouted.

At once, the men of the Vicious Wolf Gang all began to rush towards the small courtyard in droves.

At this time, the original guy who had gone to test it out was the one who had already poked his body out and then aimed his gun at the lock on the gate.

“Boom~!”

He fired a shot and sparks splattered from the gate, but, to his dismay, the gate was not knocked off the lock with a single shot like the one released in the movie He immediately raised his hand and was ready to fire another shot.

“Ta-da-da”

Suddenly, the opposite side of the building came a burst of gunfire, the next moment, the man was hit with a few tremors, and then fell to the ground.

Seeing this scene, Wang Yongsheng was instantly enraged, originally he wanted to let this little brother to scout the way, although he also had the suspicion of letting this guy be cannon fodder, but did not necessarily let him go to his death, mainly to scout the way and confuse the people of the Cheetah Mercenaries, did not want to let others know their bottom.

This was a disgrace, and Wang Yongsheng immediately shouted, “Go!”

In the next moment, the Wolf Gang’s junior brothers started to run towards the wall, as it was certainly easy to get shot at in the open view of the gate, but with the wall in the way, there was no problem.

At the same time, a few of the men who ran to the front even started to throw things inside through the wall.

“Boom~!”

The next moment, there was a violent explosion in the courtyard.

Yang Bin instantly cursed in anger, the people from the Vicious Wolf Gang, they had brought grenades!

However, the heat wave from that violent explosion had brought about smoke and dust, but he could barely lift his head a little to take a closer look.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the Wolf Gang’s men rushed to the wall at once and started to climb up the wall in two or three people working together.

At the same time, Liu Zejun on the roof of the building was sullen and motionless. From his angle, his vision was unaffected and when he saw the cooperation of those Bad Wolf Gang men, he immediately knew that this was definitely not the first time these men had experienced this kind of thing, and they were very skilled in their movements!

Sure enough, in just a few moments, many of them climbed up the wall and tried to rush in while the smoke was filling the air.

It was time!

In the next moment, the sniper rifle in Liu Zejun’s hand was aimed at those on the wall, while he whispered, “Yang Bin, the men are on the wall, sweep across!”

Campus Master Chapter 2865

Ta-da-da!

The sound of fierce gunfire cut through the silent darkness at the first moment.

Although Yang Bin's vision was affected, he was still able to see more or less clearly, the explosive power of grenades was naturally far from comparable to rockets, and it was windy at night in this remote place, so the smoke was soon blown away by the wind, and by this time, Yang Bin had already started to strafe the men of the Vicious Wolf Gang on the wall.

"Burst burst burst"

The powerful backlash might be a burden for ordinary people, but for Yang Bin it was nothing at all, which made his gun exceptionally stable, so the strafing was not particularly accurate, but it had a horrible stability!

So, with enough bullets, Yang Bin shot out two bullets without hesitation, and the next moment, all that could be heard was the sound of screams on the wall, and the miserable screams were heard one after another.

This sudden scene frightened the Wolves, although they were known for their fierceness, but now when they were at the height of their power, they were struck by this sudden blow, which was like a blow to the head.

Wang Yongsheng was also terrified!

He looked at this scene in front of him in shock, his mouth wide open and unable to speak, how could this happen?

Wasn't the other side still being chased by them like a dog in distress and fleeing? How could there be such strong firepower all of a sudden?

In just a few moments, almost half of the men on the wall had been lost!

The men he had brought with him today were almost all the men of the Wolf Gang, but in the blink of an eye, half of them had been killed, which was tantamount to wiping out the Wolf Gang!

What's more, with so many people dead, they hadn't even entered the courtyard, not to mention capturing Ji Feng and the others.

If so many people had died and caught Ji Feng, it would have been better, but now Wang Yongsheng was even thinking that he might not be able to catch Ji Feng even if all his men were beaten up by the end of the fight, and this was the entire fortune of the Bad Wolf Gang!

In the short moment when Wang Yongsheng was frozen on the spot, the battle had been going on, and it was incredibly fierce. Those members of the Vicious Wolf Gang who were slower to react, as well as those who were instantly dazed, were strafed once more by Yang Bin, and their miserable screams became even more wretched as they fell off the walls one after another.

"Get back here!"

When Wang Yongsheng reacted, he found that two-thirds of his men had been taken out in the blink of an eye. This really hurt him, his heart was aching and angry, and he was jumping up and down in anxiety.

In fact, he didn't need to tell him that the remaining men didn't dare to attack anymore, and the rest of them turned around and fled back without saying a word.

Although they were usually extremely fierce, they were not regular soldiers after all. Although these people were all elite fighters in the Bad Wolf Gang, compared to the army, it was actually not too much to say that they were a rabble, under such circumstances, how could these people dare to continue attacking against the strafing?

However, when he saw that the men who had returned were all in a terrible state of disarray, and that there were only a few dozen of them, all standing there in panic, it really hurt Wang Yongsheng, and he was so angry that he almost went mad and roared, "Bastards! I'll kill you all!"

But it was not clear whether he was talking about his own men, or whether he was fuming at the courtyard.

Especially, when he saw that the men from the Cheetah Mercenaries over there seemed to be having a laugh, and were clearly pointing towards this side while talking about them, Wang Yongsheng was instantly even more furious.

This bunch of foreign cowards, thanks to the fact that they are still mercenaries, with powerful weapons in their hands, instead of letting their own men go, they are letting their own men go to their deaths!

Wang Yongsheng couldn't help but curse in his heart, these bastards must have known that the people inside the courtyard were powerful, but when they saw their men attacking, they didn't warn them, instead they just stood there watching the fun!

"Cowards! Bastards!"

Wang Yongsheng couldn't help but curse twice in anger, annoyed to the core, but there was nothing he could do about it.

There was nothing he could do, the Cheetahs were not his men, so he could not say anything even if they did not remind him, and what's more, the Cheetahs were still that man's men, so what could he do even if he was angry?

In desperation, Wang Yongsheng gritted his teeth and turned to his belly and said, "Pass on my order, call everyone in the gang over, and call all the people from all the halls over too.

The boss said, "Boss, the people in the various halls are all watchdogs, if we call them all over, then there will be trouble on our turf"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. Go, do as I say!"

Wang Yongsheng saw this very clearly, since he had come to this point today, if he gave up halfway, instead of gaining any benefit, he would be held in hatred by that dignitary, but at this time, so many of his men had already died and his strength had been greatly reduced, so even if he wanted to join others in the future, it would be impossible.

So, today, he had to fight for his life!

Watching his belly scramble to call someone, Wang Yongsheng stood there with a gloomy face, looking at the small building in front of him, and then at the people from the Cheetah Mercenaries not far away, his whole person was a bit manic.

“Buzz~!”

At this time, the sound of a car came from far behind, but it was those dignitaries and celebrities who had arrived, not enough they did not get out of the car, but stopped just further away, Wang Yongsheng cursed in his heart, but still he could only hurry and walk over quickly.

The window of a luxury car slowly lowered to reveal the fat-headed dignitary, who glanced at Wang Yongsheng and asked, “How did it go?”

Wang Yongsheng said, “There’s a small problem for now, but it’s been confirmed that they’re hiding in the small building in front, I’m already mobilizing my men, but the firepower in the small building is too strong for my men to rush in”

“Rubbish!”

The dignitary grunted, “Can’t even handle such a trivial matter!”

Wang Yongsheng looked embarrassed to the extreme, but did not dare to retort, he could only say, “Sorry to disappoint you, but if those mercenaries can cooperate, I guarantee that I can take the small building and get the people out in the shortest possible time!”

“Alright, I’ll arrange it!” The dignitary waved his hand and somewhat impatiently shooed Wang Yongsheng away.

At this time, the dignitaries’ and celebrities’ bodyguards had already gotten out of their cars and scattered in all directions, standing guard around.

The dignitary called the head of the Cheetah mercenary group over and said, “Take down this small building in front, any questions?”

The strong man immediately said, “No problem!”

“Very good!”

The dignitary nodded with great satisfaction and said, “Very well, there is the son of a big figure from the Chinese mainland inside, kill him and your aim of revenge will be achieved, let’s begin!”

When the Cheetah Mercenaries moved, their aura was instantly different.

The most important thing was that these mercenaries were all battlefield veterans, all of them were experienced in combat, and their weapons were also more powerful, the people of the Vicious Wolf Gang were not at all on the same level compared to them.

He was not afraid of death, but he was afraid that even if he died, he would not be able to protect his husband!

Not only him, even Liu Zejun who was lying on the roof felt some pressure, but instead of being afraid, his whole body was excited, the more pressure, the stronger his desire to fight`!

Even if Yao Zhijian and Zhang Lei were not here at the moment, Liu Zejun would still have the confidence to defend the place, but with just a few of them, it would be unrealistic to wipe out the other side!

At this moment, the people of the Cheetah Mercenaries had already finished their preparations, they were carrying various weapons and began to slowly approach the small courtyard. the courtyard and threw it in.

“Yang Bin, strafe!”

Liu Zejun’s low shout caused Yang Bin to react abruptly, and although he didn’t understand why Liu Zejun had told him to let him fire just as soon as the Cheetah Mercenary Regiment’s talents came into range, he pulled the trigger without hesitation.

“Ta-da-da ……”

Because of the barrier of the wall, the distance between the Cheetah Mercenaries entering range and shooting dead was actually not too long, but if he fired just as soon as the opponent entered range, it would be easy to make the opponent retreat, in which case the killing power would not be great.

For example, as soon as Yang Bin opened fire, he saw the Cheetah Mercenaries suddenly turn and run, and before Yang Bin could adjust his shooting direction, they all ran out of range.

However, in the next moment, Yang Bin finally understood why Liu Zejun had told him to fire so early.

“Boom boom boom!”

Hearing only a few explosions, he saw that after the Cheetah Mercenaries threw out something that exploded, it suddenly erupted into a thick smoke that instantly filled the entire courtyard, and Yang Bin’s vision was instantly affected very badly!

Smoke bombs!

Yang Bin instantly understood that these people had smoke bombs!

But on second thought, since the other side even had rocket launchers, it wasn’t that unusual for them to have smoke bombs now!

Campus Master Chapter 2866

“Ta-da-da ……”

Seeing the dense smoke emitted after the smoke bombs exploded had begun to fill the air, especially some smoke bombs or directly from the two ends outward spraying dense smoke, the speed is frighteningly fast, in the blink of an eye the courtyard was already filled with smoke, seeing the visibility rapidly decreasing, Yang Bin could no longer hold back and began to frantically strafe.

At this time, Liu Zejun still didn’t do anything, he only urged Yang Bin, “Pay attention, don’t inhale those gases, protect your eyes!”

Although it is not known whether this smoke bomb has poison or not, but, in his experience, many smoke bombs actually have irritating gas, if people inhale will be tears and snot, even can not breathe directly suffocated, more serious consequences, there are also live choking to death!

With the reminder of Liu Zejun, Yang Bin immediately took a bottle of water, held the gun in one hand and tore a piece of cloth off his shirt with the other hand, poured water on it and covered his neck, tied a knot at the back of his head, and then continued shooting!

However, because the smoke emitted from the smoke bombs was too dense, in just a few moments, the courtyard was already filled with smoke, and Yang Bin also felt some stinging acidity, which was because the smoke bombs had been sealed and blown over.

At this time, Liu Zejun, likewise, had already protected his nose and mouth, but still did not make a move, he did not make any movement, as if all this in front of him had nothing to do with him.

Only, if you look carefully you will see that in those eyes of Liu Zejun's, the eyes are cold and frightening!

Yang Bin couldn't stop them!

Liu Zejun knew very well that with Yang Bin's marksmanship, he couldn't stop those people from the Cheetah Mercenaries, because those people were too experienced in combat, and Yang Bin was no match for them in this aspect of the battle!

Even Liu Zejun was sure that Yang Bin had not even hit a single member of the Cheetahs with his round of strafing!

In fact, as soon as the Wolves retreated, Liu Zejun knew that this was the end of Yang Bin's role. In the next battle, the only thing Yang Bin could do was to look for opportunities to fight with people in the flesh.

In the next battle, Liu Zejun would be the main force!

He gripped the sniper rifle in his hand and stared coldly at the smoke-filled courtyard in front of him, the Cheetah Mercenaries would definitely attack, and most likely not now.

What Liu Zejun was waiting for, was the people from the Cheetah Mercenaries!

"The sound of gunfire!"

Yao Zhijian's face instantly turned cold as he gritted his teeth and said, "These motherfuckers are starting to make their move, Zhang Lei, should we go over there? I'm afraid that the boss and his few men alone won't be able to stop the Cheetah Mercenaries!"

Zhang Lei shook his head and said, "There's no rush, if they can't even stop them, adding the two of us may not change anything, we stay outside, we can launch a surprise attack if necessary, or worse, we can pick up Ji Feng when they retreat!"

"But"

Yao Zhijian frowned, "We're just going to watch?"

Zhang Lei said very calmly, "Well! Just watch!"

No one had noticed that at the outermost edge, there was a car parked at the roadside, and in it were two people no one could have expected, Zhang Lei and Yao Zhijian.

They had arrived when the Bad Wolf Gang's men launched their attack, but neither of them moved because they both knew that if they wanted to attack the small building with just that rabble of the Bad Wolf Gang, then the Bad Wolf Gang's fighting strength would be really outrageous!

They didn't even put the Vicious Wolf Gang in their eyes, instead they observed the others as they attacked.

But now that the people from the Cheetah Mercenaries attacked, Yao Zhijian couldn't help but feel a little nervous. He naturally knew how powerful a mercenary group was, not to mention the powerful weapons, but just the combat experience alone was not comparable to ordinary people, let alone a rabble like the Wolf Gang could hope for.

The two of them were at the outermost edge, and even if they wanted to rescue them, it would take some time before they could fight their way in, even if they launched a surprise attack, but the people of the Cheetah Mercenaries were not vegetarians either.

"Zhang Lei, or else"

Yao Zhijian clenched his teeth, "Let's tie up the people over there!"

His gaze, looking towards where the group of celebrities and dignitaries were parked, gritted his teeth, "I'm sure I can take care of their bodyguards, the rest of them won't be much of a fighter, they can easily be controlled in their hands."

Zhang Lei nodded slightly and said, "That's one way to go, let's see, don't act rashly now!"

Yao Zhijian was then somewhat helpless, but at this time when Ji Feng was inside, he had to listen to Zhang Lei, so he could only stand by and watch for the time being. However, when he thought about Zhang Lei's command on previous occasions, Yao Zhijian was convinced.

This evening, Zhang Lei showed extraordinary resilience and command ability, especially at that critical moment, Zhang Lei was even more unruffled in the face of danger, even when he saw that Ji Feng and Bai Zhu were likely to have been killed by the rocket, but he still managed to think of saving some strength and let the three of them get out of the car, and went to save Ji Feng by himself.

If it were an ordinary person, in that situation, I am afraid that he would have already run away directly with a chill in his heart, or instinctively dodge, even if he had enough guts, but if his brain was hot, he would definitely step on the accelerator to the end and rush straight through, where could he still think of splitting his troops to save his strength?

Moreover, in the several subsequent commands, Zhang Lei also did a pretty good job, he was able to find himself hidden in the green belt, and he was also able to lead himself to follow closely behind those people, so that the two of them could always be the yellow bird hiding behind the mantis!

Therefore, through these several commands, Yao Zhijian already did not have the slightest doubt in his heart about Zhang Lei's commanding ability, and he believed that Liu Zejun was the same.

He believed that Liu Zejun was the same. For this reason, Yao Zhijian did not have any problem with Zhang Lei's constant pressure not to move.

Only, he could not help but be a little worried that if their rescue was not timely enough, maybe Ji Feng and the others would be in some kind of danger. After all, the Cheetah Mercenaries still had some combat power.

"Hmm?!"

Just as Yao Zhijian was pondering, Zhang Lei was suddenly frowning, "Why did she come out? Couldn't resist?"

Yao Zhijian immediately asked, "Who?!"

Zhang Lei pointed to the front and said, "See that woman, Ji Yu-Ying, who came with his old man, disguised for so long, now the fox's tail finally can't be hidden, it seems that the Chuk Yuen Gang is also involved in this matter!"

Yao Zhijian frowned and said, "Ji Yuet-jen is also involved? Are you sure?!"

Zhang Lei sneered, "Otherwise, why else would she be the one to call the madman and ask him to attend that bullshit salon? Why did we find that there was already someone there in ambush as soon as we got there? If this has nothing to do with Ji Yueting at all, then how do you explain that she's coming over with her old man now?"

Yao Zhijian said with a sullen face, "If this is really related to Ji Yueting, I will definitely not let her go!"

Previously, he had always thought that Ji YuYi was quite nice to Ji Feng, but if this was all a sham, then this woman was too scary and too good at acting. In the end, she was the beautiful snake?!

"Look, she seems to have gone over!" Yao Zhijian said immediately.

"I saw it!"

Zhang Lei said in a deep voice, Ji YuYing seemed to be going forward, but was stopped by a bodyguard before she took two steps, he couldn't help but sneer darkly as he watched, still had the guts to go in? She was not afraid to face Ji Feng directly?

But at this moment, Ji YuYi's face was as frosty as her beautiful eyes stared at the bodyguard and said coldly, "Get out of the way, don't force me to kill you!"

The bodyguard stiffened his head and said, "Miss, it's too dangerous ahead, you can't go through."

"Get out of the way!" Ji YuYi said in a cold voice.

"YuYi!"

Ji Lihai's voice rang out, "Listen to me, don't fool around, come back!"

Ji Yuhui was instantly furious, "Mr. Ji! My friend is in constant danger up ahead, he could die at any moment, I'm going to save him, and you call this nonsense?"

"He'll be fine!" Ji Lihai said, "Come back!"

“Humph!”

Ji Yuet Yin snorted coldly and said, “I won’t listen to even half a word you say again! Mr. Ji, if I haven’t broken any gang rules, then ask your men to move aside, otherwise, I’m going to kill them, and no one will stop me!”

Ji Lihai’s face instantly sank as he said in a deep voice, “Yu Ying, if you keep fooling around like this, you’re the one who might really get your friend killed, come back!”

“How ridiculous!”

Ji Yuhui laughed coldly, “I’m hurting my friend? So then you’re saving him instead?!”

After saying that, she no longer said anything, but directly pulled out her gun and aimed it at the bodyguard who was stopping her, saying, “Die, or get out of the way, your choice!”

Ji Lihai said in a deep voice, “YuYi, believe me, the moment Ji Feng escaped here, he was no longer in danger, what you need to do now is to wait and see what happens instead of being so impulsive, look at you, where is half the appearance of a Miss of the Chuk Yuen Gang!”

Ji Yueting’s eyebrows knitted, “What do you mean by that?!”

Ji Lihai said, “Let’s talk in the car!”

Ji Yuet-yeung hesitated, but turned around and got into the car, and then she asked in a cold voice, “Can you say it now? Or are you thinking of how to lie to me again!”

In the face of her cold words, Ji Lihai said to the driver and the bodyguard in the passenger seat, as if he had not heard them, “You two go down first.”

The two of them immediately responded, opened the door and got out of the car.

Only then did Ji Lihai let out a soft sigh and said, “YuYing, you’re still so impulsive after so much training in Rice? With you like this, how can I feel comfortable leaving the Chuk Yuen Gang in your hands?!”

“Thanks! I don’t need it!” Ji Yuet-jen snorted, not believing Ji Lihai’s bullshit at all, “Tell me, what did you mean by that just now!”

Campus Master Chapter 2867

Ji Lihai shook his head and sighed mentally before saying, “Have you forgotten where you put Ji Feng and the others when they first came to Treasure Island?”

Ji YuYi sneered, “What place? Wasn’t it just arranged in your house, and didn’t people end up not staying there?!”

Although she did not know what Ji Lihai had said to Ji Feng at that time, she could roughly guess, otherwise, why would Ji Feng have gone to stay in a hotel?

As for what Ji Feng had said to her about going on a mission, Ji YuHai did not believe it at all.

Ji Lihai didn’t argue either, but simply said, “Old houses like those built by the military back then, because they were built for war reasons, don’t even block off the back roads.”

Ji Yuhui frowned at Ji Lihai and did not say anything, waiting for his next words.

“So a house like that would usually have an underground passage!” Ji Lihai said, “When I bought the house back then, I actually came to see this side, but the house over here was too small, so I gave up and chose the one I have now!”

“What do you mean?!” Ji Yueting suddenly realised something and asked.

“Don’t you understand?!” Ji Lihai asked.

“You mean there are underground passages under this house too?!” Ji YuYi asked, but her expression was serious, if that was the case, then it meant that Ji Feng had a way of escape, even if he couldn’t beat the Vicious Wolf Gang and the Cheetah Mercenaries, he definitely wouldn’t die here!

Ji Li Hai said, “Knowing this, do you think there is still a need for you to go over there now?!”

Ji Yueting’s brows furrowed as she pondered carefully for a while before asking, “Are you sure you didn’t lie to me?”

“If I said I had lied to you, do you think you would be able to get in under the current situation?!” Ji Lihai did not reply, but asked rhetorically.

For a moment, Ji Yuethai was speechless. Indeed, with such a fierce battle ahead, she might not really be able to get in. Even if she was the Miss of the Chuk Yuen Gang, they did not recognise her. Even if the people of the Wolves Gang had scruples against her, I am afraid that those from the Cheetah Mercenaries would not put her in their eyes yet.

During her years abroad, Ji Yuet had a good understanding of how mercenaries worked.

However, she was now desperate to know what exactly was Ji Feng’s situation at the moment, had he been injured on the way to escape? Or was there anything he needed help with at the moment? These were all questions that Ji Yuhui was eager to know.

“I still have to go in!”

Ji YuHai said, “Tell me where the escape tunnel here is and what it leads to, I want to go in through the escape tunnel!”

Ji Lihai’s brow furrowed at that, “Didn’t you understand what I said?”

“I heard you!”

Ji Yuqing said, “But I can’t just stand by and watch my friends fight there while I stand idly by!”

Ji Lihai said in a deep voice, “Didn’t I tell you that I would help him!”

“Did you? But how come I don’t see it at all?!” Ji YuHui sneered, “If you hadn’t asked me to inform him to come to this salon, why would he be in such a situation now? You claim that you will help, but where are your actions?!”

Ji Lihai's face was a little unpleasant when he was accused in such a way by Ji YuYing, and anger faintly surfaced in his eyes, but after a moment, seeing the stubborn look in his daughter's eyes and the guarded and accusing look, he finally sighed.

"You can go in if you want to, but you have to think carefully, once you go in, if someone finds out about this, then I'm afraid you won't have any status in the Chuk Yuen Gang next!" Ji Lihai said.

"..... I know!"

Ji YuYi naturally understood that if the matter of her going in to help Ji Feng was known, then at least all these celebrities present now would definitely have a different opinion of the Chuk Yuen Gang, and might even squeeze the survival space of the Chuk Yuen Gang, especially now that the Chuk Yuen Gang was not the only one, and there were still the Brotherhood and the Four Seas Alliance watching over the side.

I'm afraid that the only viable solution would be for her to leave the Chuk Yuen Gang and never have anything to do with it again, that's all.

"Tell me where the exit of the escape route is!" Ji Yuhui said.

"You've decided?!" Ji Lihai asked with a frown.

"Tell me!" Ji Yuet-yeung said.

Finally, Ji Lihai nodded and told her the address, but said, "If you want to go, you can only go alone, you can't get involved with anyone from the Chuk Yuen Gang, and you can't tell anyone!"

Ji Yuet Yin sneered, "Thanks for your concern, I know what to do! It won't cause you any trouble, don't worry, Mr. Ji!"

The last few words she said were very heavy and her words were full of mockery.

But Ji Lihai just shook his head with a sigh as if he didn't hear it, "In your eyes, I'm not as important as a father as your friend!"

Ji YuHui turned a deaf ear to this and pushed open the car door and got out.

"Remember, after today, bring that boy to see me, it's time to talk about the one who can charm my daughter to death!" Ji Lihai's voice came over.

"....."

Ji YuYi's footsteps gave a beat before she continued to walk forward again, only, when no one could see, a complex look flashed across her eyes.

In the courtyard, the battle was still going on, because it was on the outskirts, the wind was stronger here, which was conducive to the dispersal of the smoke, and in just a few moments, the smoke from the smoke bombs had dissipated, but the visibility was still not very high.

At this time, the Cheetahs began to attack, and this was the moment they were waiting for.

Yang Bin continued to strafe, but at this time, for the Cheetahs, his strafing alone would not be of much use, because these men had a lot of combat experience, if a heavy machine gun was strafing upstairs, they would not dare to rush up, but against an automatic rifle, it was really not much of a threat.

The men of the Cheetah Mercenaries almost ignored the automatic rifle's strafing, in fact, they had a long history of dodging such weapons.

There is a saying that new recruits are afraid of guns and veterans are afraid of guns. The men of the Cheetah Mercenaries were all veteran soldiers who had a lot of experience in how to survive enemy strafing, and especially in a situation like this where they were covered by smoke bombs!

Yang Bin's vision was affected and his mood couldn't help but be affected as well, because behind that smoke, he could vaguely see a black shadow shifting, but it was extremely blurred and his eyes couldn't help but be a little sore, even though he exerted his inner strength to the fullest, he couldn't see through the dense smoke.

No matter how much he strafed, the black shadow still seemed to be approaching, to no avail.

Yang Bin's palms could not help but sweat, the magazines around him were being emptied one by one, but he could not make the black shadow behind that smoke disappear.

"Yang Bin, can you see?" At this time, the voice of Liu Zejun came to Yang Bin's ears.

"I can't see clearly, I can't hit it!" Yang Bin said urgently.

"Then go by your senses and strafe towards the root of the wall!" Liu Zejun said, "Leave the rest to me!"

The root of the wall?!

Yang Bin didn't know what was the point of shooting at the root of the wall, were all those people crouching at the root of the wall waiting to be hit? But since Liu Zejun said so, he would give it a try, after all, Liu Zejun's combat experience was definitely much richer than his!

"Ta-da-da"

Yang Bin didn't know how to point and shoot, so he came up and just strafed, a load of bullets just went out half a pike!

Poof poof poof!

The next moment, Yang Bin vaguely heard a strange sound, accompanied by a few muffled utterances.

He was instantly shaken, he had hit it!

There was no doubt that the muffled sounds just now were actually someone who had been hit but was holding back, but the taste of a bullet hitting the body was not something that could be held back.

It really hit!

Yang Bin was so happy that he pulled the trigger once again, ta-da-da

This time, however, there was no more gain from earlier, and no more sound was heard.

“Boom~!”

Just then, there was a sudden jarring sound from above, but it was Liu Zejun’s sniper rifle firing! At the same time, on this side of the smoke, a foreign man wearing a suit but holding a rifle on his body instantly fell to the ground on his back with a splash of blood rising from his head!

A sniper!

In an instant, everyone around them snapped to their knees, while the leader of the Cheetah mercenary group outside the gate yelled, “Fire suppression, take out the sniper!”

“BOOM~!”

As soon as his words fell, a shot was fired at the concrete door post next to him, sending out some sparks.

He was instantly furious, “Damn it! Where are those yellow-skinned monkeys, tell them to apply fire suppression and take out the damn sniper!”

The smoke grenades wouldn’t last too long, especially with the wind blowing, fire suppression had to be applied, at the very least to keep that sniper’s head up, otherwise we definitely wouldn’t get a hit in today!

The most frightening thing on the battlefield is not the roaring artillery or the heavy machine guns, but the snipers!

The sniper’s killing power is not terrible, but the blow to morale is several terrifying, no one dares to venture out, and whoever does risks getting his head blown off! That kind of deterrent is just terrifying!

As combat experienced veterans, as soon as they see a sniper, the first thing they have to do is fire suppression, to crush the sniper to the ground, or just finish each other off!

“Boom~!”

The boss of the Cheetahs watched as one of his men was shot through the neck, the bullet was so powerful that it instantly tore off a piece of the soldier’s neck, blood spurted out wildly, the soldier hurriedly covered his neck with his hand, someone rushed over to bandage it, but it couldn’t be stopped, the soldier fell limp on the ground, his body kept twitching, obviously in extreme pain!

The leader of the Cheetah Mercenaries was furious!

Campus Master Chapter 2868

“All firepower! Take out the sniper!”

The boss of the Cheetah Mercenaries roared with a grim face and red eyes. The sudden appearance of the sniper had taken out three or four of his men in the blink of an eye, and each of them had been killed in a single blow, without even a chance to rescue them, which was a disaster for the already small Cheetah Mercenaries.

If this goes on, there will be no need to fight this battle! If we don’t take out the sniper, everyone in the room could be taken out by this sniper!

Boom boom boom!

As the boss of the Cheetahs roared out, the members of the Cheetahs, who were experienced in fighting, immediately reacted and started to fight back.

In particular, the weapons they carried were extremely powerful, such as the oddly shaped spear carried by one of them, which fired a shot in the direction of Liu Zejun's location, and with an audible boom, the roof of the small building exploded, splashing concrete blocks everywhere!

If people didn't know, they would have thought it was a dynamite pack, but in reality, it was just a gun that did the damage!

Boom!

With that man's counter-attack, the others also began to attack, the main target naturally being Liu Zejun, who was responsible for sniping from the roof!

It had to be said that if it was simply a matter of fighting, the people of the Cheetah Mercenaries were definitely not bad, and could even be said to have strong fighting ability, even if their numbers were far less than the people of the Vicious Wolf Gang, but the people of the Vicious Wolf Gang were just a bunch of rabble in front of them.

The Cheetahs, on the other hand, were extremely strong, they worked well together, used their weapons skillfully, and were always able to find the most appropriate way to dodge the automatic rifle fire from upstairs, so that they could focus their fire on the snipers on the roof!

"Shit!"

Liu Zejun couldn't help but curse and immediately quietly changed his position to another sniper spot!

Any skilled sniper would never stay in the same position all the time, taking one shot and changing places, this was the most common method.

The legend says that when the volunteer army in North Kerry resisted the MiG army, there was once an extremely powerful sniper who fought for several years in the resistance and three years in the civil war, so that combat experience was absolutely needless to say, so in the battlefield of North Kerry, he alone pressured hundreds of MiG men to dare not advance, and as many as dozens of officers died in his hands.

Eventually, Rice had no choice but to send in the same snipers, ready to do him in with snipers!

And so began a sniper battle that has been passed down for half a century. The Chinese sniper had to use all sorts of tactics to survive, and eventually relied on a hat to attract the attention of the MiG sniper and blow his head off in the nick of time!

The Chinese sniper had severe frostbite, as he was also a top expert and could not afford to make a single mistake in a standoff of this calibre, nor could he afford to be the least bit lax.

The Chinese sniper had even buried himself in the snow for a full day without moving, his body frozen, his clothes frozen to his skin and unable to come off, and he could have torn off a piece of flesh if he had torn hard enough!

The Chinese sniper was seriously wounded after taking out the MiG sniper, and although he succeeded in suppressing the MiG advance and completing a snipe that was at the pinnacle of the international scene, he had to be retired after the battle because of his injuries and became a sniper instructor at the highest military academy.

In his memoirs, he summed up his career as a sniper in the simplest of terms – be calm and take one shot for another!

This phrase, too, has become a phrase that the vast majority of military academies around the world have studied carefully!

Liu Zejun had heard Yao Zhijian recite this phrase more than once, so the moment he was pinned down by the firepower of the Cheetah Mercenaries he immediately remembered this phrase and immediately shifted.

Boom!

As soon as Liu Zejun shifted, the place where he was staying suddenly exploded, although the explosion was only at the edge of the building, but, looking at the scene of the splattered concrete blocks, it also made his back chill, if he had just stayed there, he was afraid that now he wouldn't have a chance to shift!

Luckily, there was more than one sniper spot upstairs, and after shifting to another spot, Liu Zejun quickly lay down, pulled the bolt, and the sniper rifle began to aim.

“Cunning thing!”

A few moments later, Liu Zejun couldn't help but curse, he wanted to aim at the Cheetah Mercenaries boss this time, but he found that the Cheetah Mercenaries boss was standing in a very precise position, no matter how many times he moved, he couldn't aim from any angle, there was something in the middle.

It seemed that the boss of the Cheetah mercenary group was also very experienced in combat, and as soon as he knew there was a sniper, he immediately found a suitable position to hide himself.

With no choice, Liu Zejun then had to turn his gun towards the others!

“Boom!”

The next moment, another man from the Cheetah Mercenaries was taken down, a blood splash burst out directly on his head, but his whole body was carried by the huge inertia of the bullet and instantly fell on his back to the ground, his body twitched a few times, and then he never moved again.

Boom!

Another shot was fired, and a member of the Cheetah Mercenaries fell down in response to the sound.

“Six of them!”

Liu Zejun grinned, Yao Zhijian's sniper rifle was really good, in the blink of an eye, he had already taken out six people, this way of fighting was really cool, being at the top, not having to attack, just waiting for the enemy to attack.

As long as they still wanted to break through the small building, they would have to get past him first!

If it was in normal times, the other side knew there were snipers, they couldn't hide but they could retreat, but not today, and that, in turn, made Liu Zejun's fight extremely enjoyable!

The men of the Cheetah Mercenaries were going crazy, they hadn't even seen anyone yet, and they had been killed six times before they came up, which was like breaking their arms, which made them go berserk!

"Kill! Kill him!" The leader of the Cheetah Mercenaries roared, "Fire at full power!"

"Boom boom boom"

Without him saying much, the others had long since aimed at Liu Zejun's location and attacked wildly.

This time, Liu Zejun's pressure suddenly multiplied, even though he kept shifting places, but it was as if the Cheetah Mercenaries had focused all their attention on him, no matter where he went, he would draw a frenzied attack from the other side at the first opportunity.

And Yang Bin's strafing could not help much at all, especially with the Cheetah Mercenaries going berserk but working closely with each other, it was no longer as painful as beating up the Vicious Wolf Gang's men.

For a while, Yang Bin and Liu Zejun were almost pinned down!

At this time, Bai Zhu, who had been in the living room on the ground floor, knitted her eyebrows, "Ji Yujie? Why is she there?!"

The next moment, Bai Zhu picked up her communication device and said, "Young Ji, Ji Yuhui has appeared inside the underground passage!"

"Who?!" Ji Feng's voice was a little surprised, "Ji Yuhui? How did she appear there?"

"I don't know. But she's coming this way, it looks like she's specifically looking for it!" Bai Zhu said, "Young Ji, should we get rid of her?!"

"No, let her come over and see what she wants to do!" Ji Feng said.

Bai Zhu nodded silently, but in her heart she was extremely wary, if Ji Yuhui was here to plot something, then she should not try to get out as soon as she came in today.

Looking at Ji Yuhui's advancing figure on the screen, Bai Zhu looked cold, secretly saying, you better not be here to plot against young Ji!

"Eh?"

When Ji Yuhui pushed through the final barrier of the passage and entered the small building along the stairs, but the first thing she saw was Bai Zhu standing next to the exit, seemingly standing here waiting for her? “Bai Zhu, you

Bai Zhu said indifferently, “Miss Ji, what are you doing here? How do you know about this passageway?!”

She was a little surprised to hear a hint of hostility in Bai Zhu’s tone, but immediately understood that Bai Zhu obviously felt threatened by her sudden appearance in the passage, which was understandable when you think about it, because if it were hers, she would definitely be extremely wary if she found her escape route suddenly appearing with a stranger.

“This kind of former building used to have public auctions, so naturally someone knows about this underground passage.” Ji Yuhui said, “Please rest assured that I don’t have any malicious intent, I just came here to see how Ji Feng is doing, where is he?”

“Young Ji is busy!” Bai Zhu said, although her expression eased a little, her heart did not let down her guard, “He is fine, thank you for your concern, if there is nothing else, this is not a suitable place to stay for long now, please hurry up and get out!”

Ji Yuhui said, “I want to see him!”

Bai Zhu instantly said, “Impossible! Ji is busy, no one can disturb him! Especially, it’s you!”

“Me?!”

Ji Yuqing was vaguely upset, “What’s wrong with me? What have I done to you guys? Or have I wronged Ji Feng?”

Bai Zhu said, “Don’t you know yourself?!”

“I

“Why is there an ambush near the venue?!” Bai Zhu’s words choked Ji Yuhui speechless, yes, why was there an ambush near the venue, how did they know that Ji Feng would definitely be there today? Who leaked the news?

“Boom boom boom!”

Just then, a few violent explosions suddenly came from outside, causing the house to jolt, then someone outside was heard shouting, “Brothers, rush in, capture the men alive if you can, kill them on the spot if you can’t, and the women will go to whoever catches them!”

Swish!

Bai Zhu’s pretty face instantly became incomparably cold!

Campus Master Chapter 2869

“Now, do you still want to go in?!” Bai Zhu asked, looking at Ji Yueting.

The sound outside was loud and not far away, even the sound of gunshots could not completely cover it up, it was obvious that someone was involved in the attack again, and by the sound of it, it sounded very much like Wang Yongsheng, the leader of the Vicious Wolf Gang, who was mad and furious and furious before.

With the fierce attack from the Cheetah Mercenaries and the pack of wolves from the Vicious Wolf Gang, the pressure on Liu Zejun and Yang Bin could be imagined, and the small building could be breached at any time, so if Ji Yuqing did not leave quickly at this time, she would definitely be in danger!

However, Ji Yuhui was very determined and said, "Where is Ji Feng, I want to see him!"

Bai Zhu gave her a deep look and did not say anything.

"Hurry up, I want to see Ji Feng, if it's late, it will be too late!" Ji Yuhui's voice rushed a little.

"You're in such a hurry to see Ji Shao, what exactly is the matter?!" Bai Zhu was a bit suspicious, at a time like this Ji Yuhui was still in a hurry to see Ji Feng, what was she up to?!

"I must be seeing him for something, Bai Zhu, did you think I would harm Ji Feng?!" Ji Yuhui said.

Bai Zhu stared at her for a moment before nodding and saying, "Fine! You can go see Young Ji, but I'll have to search you!"

Ji Yuqing was stunned, "Body search?!"

A flash of anger surfaced on her face, searching her was clearly a sign of distrust, which made her furious, Bai Zhu was treating her like a thief!

However, Bai Zhu nodded her head very firmly and said, "That's right, frisking! If you want to go in to see Young Ji, you have to be searched!"

She didn't explain too much, but her tone was very firm. Now that Ji Shao was inside and not coming out, he must be preparing for something, and at this time in reality Ji Shao should not be disturbed, moreover, his attention would certainly not be particularly focused at this time, but one had to be here in case the enemy attacked in, so one had to search Ji Yuhui's body in case this woman had any mischievous intentions.

Ji Yuhui was a bit angry, she couldn't imagine that she had come over with good intentions, and even risked a huge amount of money, but after coming here not only had she not even seen Ji Feng yet, she even had to be searched!

This was simply outrageous!

However, seeing Bai Zhu's guarded and wary look, and thinking about what Bai Zhu had just said, Ji Yuhui suddenly understood that Bai Zhu did not trust her. In fact, when you think about it, if you were in her shoes, you would have done the same thing. You suddenly called Ji Feng to invite him to a business salon when things were calm and uneventful, and then you found out that there was an ambush

If it were anyone else, there would never be any suspicion at all!

"Good, then search your body!" Ji YuYi finally nodded her head and agreed.

“Hands in the air!” Bai Zhu did not move, but her entire body was extremely alert and wary.

Ji Yuqing knew that no matter how she explained herself now, it would not make sense, moreover, she had some vague suspicions in her own heart that this matter was probably a leak from her own old man Ji Lihai, or maybe he had even leaked the news out on purpose, so she had no temper at all when Bai Zhu treated her like this.

If it wasn't for her own invitation, Ji Feng wouldn't have been besieged and mobbed at all, and now even if she did risk coming over herself, what would it mean?

This is like you pushing someone into the river and then jumping in to save them desperately, does that make them grateful to you?

Bai Zhu searched Ji Yuqing's body vigilantly, and only after making sure that she had nothing more than a mobile phone and a few pieces of jewellery, did she stop.

“Are you relieved now?!” Kee said, “I told you, I didn't mean the slightest bit of harm!”

“You go in through the red door up there, Young Ji is inside!” Bai Zhu pointed to the door of a room upstairs and said with a calm face, turning a deaf ear to Ji Yueting's words as if she hadn't heard them.

She stood at the door first and knocked on the door, but received no response. She couldn't help but mutter, “Could Bai Zhu be lying to her?”

She couldn't help but wonder if Bai Zhu was lying to her.

In desperation, Ji Yueting had to knock on the door again, “Knock, knock!”

“Come in!”

Ji Feng's voice suddenly came from inside, and Ji YuHui was instantly delighted that Ji Feng was really inside. She immediately pushed the door and walked in, and saw that Ji Feng was standing in front of a big table, which was piled with all kinds of things, all looking ancient and weird, as if they were some kind of parts, but with some bottles and jars, which was very strange.

Ji YuYi just swept a glance and found that she couldn't recognise it, her gaze immediately fell on Ji Feng and said hurriedly, “Ji Feng, you're not hurt, are you?”

Ji Feng turned his head in surprise, “YuYi? Why are you here?”

Ji YuYi said, “I came in from the underground passage of this house, I”

“I know, I mean, what are you doing coming over here when it's so dangerous?” Ji Feng interrupted her, of course he knew that Ji Yuqing came in through the underground passage, Bai Zhu had told him about it a long time ago, and he certainly couldn't have forgotten about the underground passage when he was originally setting it up, he already knew about it as soon as Ji Yuqing entered.

Ji Yuhui said, “I came to check on your situation, Ji Feng, there are many people outside now, it seems that the people from the Vicious Wolf Gang are here again, as well as the people from the Cheetah Mercenary Group, this adds up to hundreds of people, I'm afraid that just a few of you will not be able to stop them, you should hurry up and take your people away, I will arrange someone outside to send you away!”

“Go?!”

Ji Feng turned back again and continued to fiddle with those things in his hands as he asked, “Where to?”

Ji YuYi blurted out, “Back to the mainland, it’s too dangerous here, they clearly want to put you to death, you should hurry up and leave!”

“If I wanted to leave, wouldn’t I have done so long ago when I first returned here?!” Ji Feng did not even turn his head back, while fiddling with the things in his hands, he said, “On the contrary, you, better hurry up and get out, just like you said, it’s too dangerous here, once the fight really starts later I might not be able to take care of you

“There’s already a fight going on now!” Ji Yuhui said somewhat speechlessly, there will be a real fight later, there is already a fight now, OK! I really don’t know what this guy is doing in this room, can’t he hear the fierce gunfire and the shouting and killing outside?

But Ji Feng just smiled, “Is this even a fight?”

Ji YuYi was speechless.

People had even used smoke bombs and grenades, was this still not a fight?

“Ji Feng, stop being stubborn, hurry up and take your people away!” Ji YuYi couldn’t help but say, “I’ll do my best to send you away, and I’ll make sure you’re safe!”

“If that happens, I’m afraid you won’t be able to stay in Treasure Island, will you?!” Ji Feng turned his head and gave her a look.

“Don’t you care what happens to me, I won’t die if I can’t help it, but you’re like this” Ji YuYi couldn’t help but sigh and said, “Ji Feng, this isn’t called running away, it’s called being stupid when you know you can’t do it! ”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and said, “It’s really nice of you to come here, it shows that you really do treat me as a friend, since that’s the case, then I’ll treat you to a good show!”

“What kind of good show?” Ji Yueting asked, and then added, “Just don’t invite me to watch any show, just hurry up and go, okay!”

“Don’t worry, those people outside won’t want me to die!” Ji Feng said, “If you want, you can stay and observe, you’re guaranteed to be amazed!”

Ji Feng was actually touched in his heart that Ji Yuhui was able to come here. In particular, as the eldest lady of the Chuk Yuen Gang, who could be considered a thousand dollars on Treasure Island, the mere fact that she could come here to persuade herself to go back at such a dangerous time was already very touching to Ji Feng.

What’s more, how could he be unaware of how much risk Ji YuHye had taken in this?

Ji Yuqing treated him as a friend who could give her life, and he naturally would not be stingy in return!

However, at this moment, Ji Yuqing thought that Ji Feng was so stubborn that it was a headache, and could even be said that he was helpless, but when she saw Ji Feng's calm smile and the look of confidence that he exuded, Ji Yuqing didn't know what was in her heart, and with a feverish thought, she said, "Fine! Since you want to invite me to watch a show, then I'll wait and see!"

Saying that, she took out her mobile phone from her pocket and pointed it at Ji Feng.

"What are you doing?!" Ji Feng glanced at her and asked casually.

"Although I don't know what you're doing, but since you've decided, I'll stay and keep you company" Speaking here, Ji Yuhui's pretty face reddened slightly, but Ji Feng was looking down and busy with his own business, so he didn't notice, only to hear Ji Yuhui continue. "I want to record this last process, if say we both die here, we can also leave something behind!"

Ji Feng smiled and could not help but laugh: "Don't worry, we won't die, neither of us will die, but the people outside, it's not easy to say!"

Ji YuYi smiled, but didn't care too much, unless Ji Feng could scatter the beans, otherwise, there were so many people outside, how could they resist?

In fact, when she recalled this moment a long time later, Ji Yuqing laughed and said that she must have been out of her mind at that time, the two of them had no relationship at that time, they were just friends, how could she stay in her head, knowing that what she was about to face was death!

But at this moment, Ji Yuhui was not thinking about leaving at all, she turned around and put herself in the camera of the mobile phone camera as well, making the busy Ji Feng as the background, and said to the camera, "Today, Ji Feng and I, and Ji Feng's friends, we were in an old house in the northern city of Treasure Island, when we were attacked by a crazy attack from the Cheetah Mercenary Corps and the Vicious Wolf Gang, as well as from Treasure Island dignitaries and celebrities"

Campus Master Chapter 2870

Ji YuYi held her phone up to herself and Ji Feng, turning on the video function to record the moment.

Ji Feng frowned slightly and said, "Put the phone away, it's not the end of the world yet, no need to get all worked up like this!"

Ji YuYi, however, shook her head very firmly and said, "No! I want to record this moment, what I'm recording is not just this moment."

Ji Feng looked at her with slight surprise and frowned, wanting to stop again but thought better of it. In fact, Ji Feng did not allow Ji Yuhui to film, not only because he had strong confidence, but more importantly, what he was doing now, he did not want it to get out.

But when he saw the look on Ji Yuhui's face and the angle of his phone when he was filming, he didn't say anything else and just lowered his head and went on with his work.

"Right now, the gunfire outside is the Cheetah Mercenaries and the Vicious Wolf Gang attacking us!" Ji Yuwen's voice was resounding, and her tone carried a very strong sense of indignation, "These people are wielding powerful weapons and are madly attacking us, putting aside the grudges involved, I would love to know where those powerful weapons of these people came from

“Boom~!”

“Listen, the other side also used grenades, and before that rockets, smoke grenades and all sorts of other weapons, and also, they had machine guns, and automatic rifles, and submachine guns in their hands

Ji Yuhui kept on describing the situation, at first glance as if she was a journalist in the middle of an interview.

After she finished this, she then turned something else and pointed her mobile phone camera at Ji Feng who was busy and said, “This is my friend Ji Feng, he was attacked by those people for no reason and even almost died, but now he is not going to give in at all because what he is doing now is preparing to fight back!”

Ji Feng waved his hand, gesturing for Ji Yuhui not to film, but Ji Yuhui just very calmly turned the phone around another direction.

“Ta-da-da

At this time, the gunshots outside were even more intense and the sounds were closer, it was obvious that the people from the Cheetah Mercenaries and the Vicious Wolf Gang had closed in quite a bit more.

Yang Bin and Liu Zejun were both being pressured to lift their heads, but at this critical juncture, the two of them had to fight with all their might and fire frantically to attack, otherwise, once those people attacked, it would be them who would die!

At this time, Bai Zhu also started to do the same.

With an automatic rifle in her hand, she hid behind the wall of the living room, only half of her body was exposed, and her gun was pointed out.

“Boom!”

“Boom boom!”

Bai Zhu started firing point blank, her marksmanship was naturally much better than Yang Bin’s, but with the thick smoke emitted from the smoke grenades blocking her, it also affected her vision to the extent that it made even her marksmanship lose its high hit rate!

In fact, in a battlefield, it might take many rounds to hit an enemy on average, the hit rate was very low, but in this kind of skirmish, and Bai Zhu was an expert with the gun, her hit rate was usually very high, but now, the smoke was affecting her greatly.

But Bai Zhu did not panic in the slightest, her face was cold as she pulled the trigger again and again. Despite the backlash of the rifle, she had no problem at all with her physical condition, only to hear scream after scream as people were shot.

“Charge in and finish them off!”

Wang Yongsheng stood outside the courtyard and yelled frantically, his face a bit grim as he was angry.

This is a battle that can only be won, not lost.

For the Cheetah Mercenaries, the same was true.

And for Ji Feng and the others, that naturally went without saying. With all these factors, it was destined that this battle would be incomparably fierce, and it was absolutely impossible for anyone to back out.

“Zhang Lei, aren’t we going to make a move yet?!” Outside, Yao Zhijian heard the fierce gunfire in front of him, and was so anxious that he couldn’t help but ask.

“Wait a little longer!” Zhang Lei said in a deep voice.

“But if we wait any longer, they probably won’t be able to hold on!” Yao Zhijian was a little anxious.

Zhang Lei shook his head and said, “There are underground passages in the house, if they really can’t hold on, they will take the underground passages, now all we have to do is wait!”

Yao Zhijian was about to say something else when he heard Zhang Lei say, “Xiao Yao, right now, with the two of us, it is highly unlikely that we will be able to fight our way in. Therefore, if we want to achieve big results, the only way is to be able to surprise the other side, and also when they are most relaxed, but now, obviously not the time, even if we rush over, I’m afraid we won’t be able to enter the courtyard, let’s wait!”

Yao Zhijian opened his mouth, but did not know what to say, because he had to admit that what Zhang Lei said was very reasonable.

This thing, guns, really wasn’t something that could just be talked about.

Faced with so many people and so many guns, to break in that really required a bit of luck and even more chance. If the two of them were both reformed, invulnerable to guns and swords, as long as they didn’t hit the vital parts, they wouldn’t have to be afraid of bullets at all, then they could definitely rush straight in, no, they didn’t need to rush in, they just needed to rush straight towards the enemy, just grab one and crush it, where would they need to be so cautious and careful now?

But unfortunately, they are not reformers!

At this moment, Yao Zhijian couldn’t help but envy those reformers!

But now, all they could do was wait. But the question was, did they really have a chance to win by surprise? Did they have a chance to join forces with Ji Feng and the others to attack from the inside and outside?

Yao Zhijian was really worried that Ji Feng wouldn’t be able to carry them!

After all, there were too many people from the Cheetah Mercenaries plus the Bad Wolf Gang, and the weapons were so powerful that he couldn’t even hear the sound of the sniper rifle and the automatic rifle for a while. Although the sound of the gunfire was mixed up, for Yao Zhijian, an expert who played with guns to the point of melting, he could completely distinguish the weapons used by Ji Feng.

“Boss, hold on!” Yao Zhijian couldn’t help but say.

Zhang Lei didn’t say anything, but the hand that had somehow clenched up tightly in a fist also pushed harder, even making his joints a little white from the excessive force.

If there was anyone in the room who wanted to save Ji Feng the most, Zhang Lei definitely wanted it the most, but he had to hold back, because he knew very well that in this situation one less was no less, and one more was really not much, and if it was just a head-on confrontation one more or one less was really insignificant!

He had to wait for his chance!

But at this time, the Cheetah Mercenaries and the Wolf Gang’s men were getting closer, making Bai Zhu feel the pressure, although the Wolf Gang’s men were not accurate, but they could not resist the crowd, and because of the smoke grenade, they seemed to be completely unafraid of death.

Although many people were wounded, not many were killed, and the effect of the smoke grenades was not small.

Moreover, while blocking the attack, Bai Zhu had to turn her head from time to time to check the surveillance so as to ensure that no enemy would suddenly rush over to the escape route and other places behind and around the courtyard, which reduced her efficiency some more.

“Young Ji, this side can barely carry the load!”

Bai Zhu warned Ji Feng, she had rarely been able to hear Yang Bin and Liu Zejun’s gunfire, the other side’s fire suppression was so fierce that Liu Zejun and Yang Bin could not lift their heads at all, with such heavy firepower, if not for the fact that she was hiding behind a wall, I’m afraid she would have been beaten into beehive coals.

In the room, Ji Feng, however, did not raise his head and said, “Got it.”

Then, he went on with his work.

When Ji YuYi heard that, she couldn’t help but shudder, glanced at Ji Feng, paused the video and said, “Ji Feng, it’s already this late, let’s go, don’t hold on!”

Ji Feng smiled, “Not yet!”

Ji YuYi was really helpless, this Ji Feng really used to think he was arrogant, but now she realized that this guy was still so stubborn!

But no matter how she persuaded, Ji Feng was just busy with himself, leaving her helpless, gritting her silver teeth, and could only continue recording.

And at this time, the dignitary and a few celebrities outside, but their mouths were slowly grinning, had already attacked in, and apparently would soon be able to take the small building and kill Ji Feng and the others on the spot!

It was close!

They all seemed to have seen that scene of Ji Feng being killed!

However, in the midst of this great situation, there was a little bit of beauty.

“Where is the escape route, have you found it yet?!” That dignitary asked his beloved in a low voice.

“..... not yet.” The believer shook his head.

“Rubbish!”

That dignitary couldn't help but curse angrily, “Can't even handle such a trivial matter?!”

His believer hurriedly said, “At that time, after these houses were put up for auction, the information was all destroyed, now it is hard to find it for a while, moreover, the owner of this house is an Englishman who is not in Treasure Island, so it is hard to contact him for a while!”

The dignitary said angrily, “Then go and check the files, if you let those boys escape through the underground, I won't spare you!”

His minder rushed off in fear.

“They won't get away!” A celebrity said, “There's still resistance inside, which means they haven't run away, and I'm afraid they don't even know there's an underground passage in here.”

“That's right, they were being chased like lost dogs, maybe this house was a house they inadvertently lived in and broke into, they didn't understand what it was!” Another rich man said.

“I hope that's the case!”

The dignitary nodded and said, “No matter what, these guys have to die, and”

He glanced at the people from the Vicious Wolf Gang and the Cheetah Mercenaries who were attacking frantically in front of him, and his eyes went cold: “And, in the end, it's all their doing!”
