

Chapter 2874– 2875 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2874

“In the future, if martial arts can achieve something, why come here to be an audience and cheer for others? At that time, you will be the protagonists of all the attention, like the old man of the Lu family, you will be worshiped by the world.”

“By the way, I haven’t asked you yet, which one do you belong to?”

Putting it on, there was a kind-faced old man, smiling while asking them what they were saying.

However, Zhang Xinyu and others were dumbfounded.

What martial arts?

What teacher?

Did they cross?

Has it come to the ancient times when swordsmen are arguing among a hundred schools of thought?

Just when Zhang Xinyu and the others hesitated, He Yurou was Huizhilanxin, and soon thought of someone, and hurriedly said: “We don’t have a teacher, but we have been ordered by Mr. Jiang Dongchu, so he can be regarded as half of his apprentice.”

“Mr. Jiang Dongchu?” The people on the boat were taken aback, one of them was surprised, “You mean, that Mark?”

There are few famous people in Noirfork Budo.

Mark is the only one who is famous for Hot Summer.

Now that they heard the name of Mr. Jiang Dongchu, they naturally thought of Mark.

“Unexpectedly, you turned out to be his disciples?”

“Your teacher is an amazing wizard.”

“But it’s a pity, Tian is jealous of the talent.”

“Sorry~”

On the boat, someone shook his head and sighed, with some regret in the words.

“Huh, what a stunning wizard, but a lucky and arrogant kid.”

“I’ve heard that Ye Fanzhi is slutty, and he is very defiant, even the king of fighters and other powerful pillar countries don’t pay attention to it.”

“At first, the Juggernaut and others went to Noirfork to invite him, but he didn’t go to Yanshan to discuss matters.”

“The face of the Lord of the Martial Arts Hall, he even a junior dare to brush?”

“This kind of person is fine if he is dead.”

“Otherwise, such a stubborn madman will become my confidant in the hot summer martial arts in the future.”

Among the crowd, there were also people who disdain to speak.

In short, today’s Mark is also a controversial figure in the hot summer martial arts world.

Most people in the world marvel at his talent, but dislike his arrogance and arrogance.

In the eyes of the world, juniors should look like juniors.

Even if you have mastered no matter how strong the power is, you have to understand etiquette and etiquette in front of the martial arts seniors.

When everyone was talking about Mark, the loss in He Yurou’s eyes was undoubtedly more intense.

Could it be that the glorious young man on Dongchang Lake had really fallen?

He Yurou seldom pays attention to a person so much. In college, there are many girls around chasing various stars, but He Yurou has no feeling for those male and female stars.

But Mark is an exception.

Especially on the Dongchang Lake, Mark defeated the Japanese powerhouse, after raising the flames of Xia Guowei, He Yurou worshipped him inexplicably.

For more than a year, he has been watching him silently, eager to meet him again day and night.

But He Yurou never expected that when he learned about him, it turned out to be Mark’s death.

At this moment, He Yurou felt unspeakably uncomfortable.

“Yurou, look ahead.”

“What a spectacular scene~”

Just when He Yurou’s mood was depressed, Zhang Xinyu’s excitement yelled suddenly in her ears.

He Yurou looked up and saw that a luxurious and exquisite outdoor venue had been built on the island in the middle of the West Lake.

The eyes are full of flowers.

The fiery red carpet, like a burning flame, covered the entire island.

Chapter 2875

Not only that, but even more pleasing to the eye, she was the lady of etiquette wearing a cheongsam dress on the island of the lake.

Everyone is as shy as a flower, and tender as water.

The grace and moving of Jiangnan beauties are vividly revealed in them.

At this time, these maids were busy serving fruit plate red wine and various snacks to the table.

The beauty of West Lake, the beauty of Jiangnan.

Add that mellow wine and tantalizing food.

The island today seems to have truly become a paradise on earth.

Seeing the vast ostentation in front of him, all the other people on the island trembled.

“It deserves to be Jiangbei Lu’s family.”

“This financial power, in this ostentation, looking at the entire Jiangbei, it is also shown by the Lu family.”

“Today’s Lu family has such a trend.”

“Wait for today’s celebration of a country, the Lu family’s power will surely skyrocket again.

“At that time, the entire Hot Summer Land can be overwhelmed by the top martial arts families such as the Mo Family and the Xiao Family, right?”

In the hot summer, one can be called a family of martial arts, one is a big family with at least a hundred years of history and heritage, and the other is that there is at least one master in the family.

In the hot summer, there are more than one billion people who can get this condition, and it is no more than two palms.

As for the top family, even less.

Generally, there are people in this kind of family who are at the core of the martial arts power in the summer.

For example, the Mo family of Gritsberg, because of the shelter of Mo Gucheng, the king of fighters, dominates the martial arts world in the summer, and will not fail for a hundred years.

As for Mark's Ye family, it is undoubtedly a long way from being a martial arts family.

After all, the background is too shallow.

The whole family, except for Mark, a "fairy", are all "mortals".

More importantly, the relationship between Mark and the Ye Family is not very good.

In this case, it is estimated that the Ye family will not become a martial arts family in a hundred years.

"Welcome to you gentlemen and young ladies~"

As Leonard Chu and others disembarked, the waiter who had been waiting by the side immediately stepped forward to greet them respectfully.

Then, he led a group of people into the seat.

"It's so lively."

"Is anyone in the Lu family getting married?"

"Otherwise why put such a big scene?"

Looking at the prosperous and grand surroundings, Zhang Xinyu asked curiously.

"What's the marriage?"

"Today's feast is a title feast."

"As far as Gritsberg Wushen Temple is concerned, they have sent people to come to the banquet in person." An old man shook his head and said, just laughing at the young ignorance of these Guwazi.

"Title feast?"

"War God Temple?"

"This~"

Leonard Chu and the others became more confused as they listened. This time, even He Yurou was at a loss, and had no idea what they were talking about.

"Why, you don't even know the title?"

"Your teacher didn't tell you before he was alive?" The people around were also suddenly surprised.

"Finally, let me tell you briefly."

“In the summer martial arts, standing at the pinnacle is the titled master.”

“Everyone is a strong person at the pillar country level.”

“One person can be against a million troops.”

“They hold the strongest power, and similarly, they also hold the greatest power.”

“In the hot summer, there are more than one billion people, and only six titled masters are alive today.”

“Now, Lu Songliang, the Patriarch of the Lu family, broke through overnight after being trapped by the master for decades.”

“Today, the Lu family held a big banquet and invited the tycoons of the world to celebrate. He broke through the shackles and was promoted to the titled master.”
