

Chapter 2892– 2893 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2892

Low-pitched words sounded quietly above the West Lake.

No one knows what kind of murder and anger contained in Lu Songliang's words?

Then, as everyone saw, Lu Songliang screamed to the sky.

Within a kilometer, the surging heaven and earth energy swept away in the direction where Lu Songliang was.

Then, like a giant whale swallowing water, all of that surging energy was swallowed into his body by Lu Songliang.

His whole body swelled up immediately.

It's like a ball being blown up.

As a result, the blue veins on his forehead were also very vividly exposed.

“This this..”

“this is...”

“My Lu family's taboo technique, exploding?”

Seeing Lu Songliang's situation ahead, Lu Hua's father was immediately shocked.

He never thought that Mark would have forced his old father to such a degree.

Even the taboo technique is used.

You should know that although this body explosion technique can greatly increase power in a short period of time, it has extremely side effects after casting it, and it takes several years to recover the lost skill.

More than that, when this secret technique was used, the danger was extremely huge.

If you are not careful, the whole person will burst and die like a balloon that has been blown out.

It is precisely because of this that this body explosion technique is listed as a forbidden technique by the Lu family, and ordinary people are forbidden to practice. ,

Even people who have mastered this secret technique will only take risks and use this forbidden technique when they are driven to a dead end.

But now, Lu Songliang has used it.

This undoubtedly means that the strength of Mark has made Lu Songliang extremely jealous.

“This Mark, at a young age, really is so powerful?”

“Forcing my father to use forbidden techniques to deal with him?”

At this moment, Lu Ziming’s heart is undoubtedly a little unsure.

He originally thought that using his father’s hundred years of experience to deal with a junior teenager with a shallow background was not a matter of grasping.

But now, the development of things has undoubtedly exceeded his expectations.

At this time, Lu Songliang’s power had reached its extreme.

Lu Songliang, who had swallowed countless powers, had already swelled like a little giant.

He looked at Mark with a stern face, and his hoarse voice was like the sound of crushed stones.

“Junior, can push me to this point.”

“You have fallen here, and you are proud enough~”

Boom~

In angrily, Lu Songliang stepped onto the lake under his feet with the soles of his feet suddenly.

Wow~

Suddenly, the waves soared to the sky, and the whole West Lake boiled again.

At the same time, there were nine water columns rising from under Lu Songliang’s feet to the sky.

After each water column rushes out, it turns into a water dragon 100 meters long.

Sweeping monstrously, Kowloon soars into the sky.

Lu Songliang fingered the sky, drew this hundred-zhang dragon, and slashed away towards where Mark was.

“Junior, take a blow to me, let the dragon fly to the sky!”

Whoosh whoosh~

The wind is roaring and the birds are calling.

Below the Tianhe, the nine flood dragons swept the Tianhe with unparalleled momentum.

However, Mark was still calm in the violent wind.

He has a calm look and a beautiful face.

In the deep pupils, the sea of stars is reflected.

Finally, when the nine water dragons were about to fall, the boy here finally moved.

This movement was shocking!

Chapter 2893

Under the Tianhe River, I saw Mark's body like a streamer, soaring into the sky in an instant.

Immediately afterwards, I heard a dragon chant, resounding through the world.

Mark's upper body robe also quietly exploded under the dragon's roar.

His upper body was bare, and there was golden light on his bronze skin.

The moving muscles resemble the flow of a giant python.

No one knew what kind of majestic power was under Mark's thin body at this time?

More than that, behind Mark, there was a golden dragon phantom, quietly appearing.

The body of the King Kong, the shadow of the flying dragon.

One year later, Mark's dragon body was shocked to the world again!

Just looking at it from a distance, everyone felt that a majestic force was coming oncoming, almost suffocating.

“This...what kind of trick is this?”

“Can you summon a golden dragon?”

Everyone on the island in the heart of the lake trembled.

Staring one after another, looking at the illusory dragon shadow in front of him.

This kind of strange and mysterious technique, they can be said to be unheard of, unseen, and naturally feel tremor and surprise.

“Huh~”

“Except for gold and jade, it’s nothing but defeat.”

“I don’t believe it anymore. My father has already used the forbidden technique. Can the bastard still contend?”

Among the crowd, Lu Ziming clenched his palms tightly and looked ahead viciously.

Lu Hua beside him did not speak.

He just looked at the front with a gloomy look, and his expression was gloomy. No one knew what he was thinking at this time.

Wow~

Energetic sweeping, rushing through the waves.

The wave that rolled up was like a thousand tons of boulders smashed down below.

The majestic power almost swallowed the entire island.

Fortunately, at the critical moment, Grand Master He Chen used martial arts to help everyone block these waves.

Otherwise, the title battle, just the surplus of energy and power, would be enough to kill the warriors on the island.

“Die me!”

Amidst the wind and rain, Lu Songliang’s long drink came out again.

After that, everyone saw Lu Songliang maneuvering the nine water dragons, turning the direction, and smashing towards Mark who was rushing into the air again.

“This junior is also an idiot!”

“You jumped into the air at this time?”

“Don’t he know that when he is in the air and has nowhere to hide, he has become a living target just waiting for others to hit it?”

Among the crowd, many people shook their heads and sneered.

Looking at Mark’s gaze, it was like looking at a dying person.

However, how did they know that from the moment Mark urged the Dragon Divine Body, he had never thought of avoiding, and there was no need to avoid it.

The road ahead is treacherous, and he has never moved forward!

Sure enough, in the face of Lu Songliang’s surging majesty, Mark did not evade at all.

Mark curled up with one hand, punched with a majestic punch, and slammed it down suddenly.

“what?”

“Is this junior ready to resist?”

“Oh my God!”

“Is he crazy?”

“Fools know that when facing the strong, they should avoid their edge.”

“But Mark is actually ready to head-on?”

In the void, watching the young man bathed in golden light and clenching his fists, the people present were surprised.

They didn’t expect Mark to be so big?

Facing Lu Songliang’s desperate blow, he was even prepared to resist with his bare hands.

“What a lunatic?”

“Really a newborn calf is not afraid of tigers~”

He Chen was also surprised and shook his head with emotion.

I just feel that this young man is really arrogant.

Does he think that the desperate blow of the titled powerhouse is something his mortal body can resist?

After all, hitting the stone with a pebble and killing himself.
