

Chapter 2898– 2899 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2898

However, He Chen is not stupid. Although he has a murderous intent on Mark, Mark is the titled master after all. Mark has just experienced a title battle. It is a time of huge consumption at this time, but He Chen still didn't have the confidence that he could get rid of Mark only with his own strength.

Therefore, in the face of everyone's persuasion, He Chen said solemnly: "This Mark really deserves to die!"

"The indiscriminate killing of innocents is cruel."

"Everyone is right. If you don't take the opportunity to get rid of it today, it will become the biggest disaster to my martial arts in the summer!"

"However, although this junior is at the end of the crossbow at this time, the centipede is dead and not stiff."

"If you want to kill it with one blow, I am far from it."

"We have to wait for a concerted effort to completely kill this junior with a thousand strength."

He Chen's words can be described as a hundred responses.

In just an instant, everyone present responded.

"Great!"

"I'll wait to work together~"

"Exterminate this thief!"

"Walking for the sky!!"

Whoosh whoosh~

In an instant, several figures rose into the sky among the crowd.

As the storm swept through, a series of moves began to converge from everyone's hands.

"Wave legs!"

“Fengxingquan~”

....

“Promise Sword~”

.....

“Mantis Claw~”

.....

Or fist or palm, or split or chop.

Various attacks were released without reservation.

It can be said that the Eight Immortals cross the sea, each showing their magical powers!

In order to punish Mark, these people also worked hard, using all their housekeeping skills one by one.

The entire West Lake boils violently like boiling water.

These people in front of them, perhaps brought out alone, each one is not strong enough.

But when ten people, one hundred people get together?

The so-called Hundred Rivers into the Sea, the so-called Sparkling Fire.

When countless weak people gather together, they can naturally explode with immense power.

After the crowd made moves, He Chen in the crowd no longer hesitated.

His eyebrows are cold, and his old eyes are like torches.

In the public area, vigor gathered.

Within the veins, there is qi and blood rushing.

Infinite power began to gather in his palm.

The whole person is like a bow that gradually opens.

Until the end, it becomes a full moon.

“Overlord’s Palm!”

Boom~

A low and bursting shout, it can be described as shocking.

Thousands of power, immediately released.

Leonard Chu and others in the distance saw a majestic palm print sweeping out.

Until the attack with everyone, gathered together.

As the saying goes, quantitative changes cause qualitative changes.

With so many people working together, the countless attacks gathered together to form a huge energy storm.

Like a wild beast, roaring, roaring, swept away in the direction where Mark was.

Wherever we passed along the way, the wind and clouds moved and the rocks fell apart.

The entire West Lake was almost overturned.

“This~”

“This~this...”

Seeing such a terrifying scene before them, Leonard Chu, Yang Zijiang and others were completely stunned.

In the eyebrows, there are all shocking colors.

They can hardly imagine that this kind of sight that only appears in movies on weekdays, they actually saw it with their own eyes today.

It turns out that manpower can be so powerful?

Leonard Chu and the others only feel that the worldview over the past few decades is shattered at this moment!

However, when Leonard Chu and others trembled, only He Yurou clenched her small hands, her beautiful eyes looked forward without blinking, and her eyebrows were full of worry.

She didn't know whether Mark could withstand the attacks of so many people?

Chapter 2899

Booming~

Energetic swept through, and the waves were overwhelming.

Everyone's attack is only like an ocean storm sweeping across the four directions, converging towards Mark with an incomparable momentum.

Under the sky, the young man stood with his hands.

The indifferent eyebrows looked down at the sentient beings under their feet in this way, and also at the majestic offensive that swept through them, listening to the evil words from the sentient beings under their feet.

For a moment, Mark suddenly smiled.

The laughter was harsh, cold, and ridiculous.

“Hahaha~”

“The Lu family deceived me, now even you ants dare to deceive me?”

“Fine.”

“If you want to fight, then fight.”

“I, Chu Tianfan, have spent my whole life, why should I be afraid of people?”

“If one person kills me, I will kill another person.”

“Ten people kill me, I will kill ten people.”

“A hundred people kill me, I will kill a hundred people.”

“If the people of the world kill me, I will kill the people of the world!”

Mark’s cold laughter was filled with incomparable awe.

The power of horror, like a storm, swept all over the place.

The Tianhe is trembling, and the West Lake is rushing.

For a while, the world here is almost as cold as an ice cellar.

“This this..”

Seeing the scene before him, Leonard Chu and others trembled again.

They didn’t expect that Mark would be so majestic just by drinking it?

The majestic power is not at all weaker than the combined attack of hundreds of people in front of him.

“Huh, just bluffing.”

“Don’t panic everyone.”

“This bastard has just finished the war, and it must be the end of the battle at this time.”

“I waited for a combined force to hit it, and it was definitely not something he could contend with alone.”

He Chen in the crowd shouted loudly, cheering for everyone.

“that’s right!”

“Two fists are hard to beat four hands. With so many of us, can we still not be able to compete with him?”

“Kill all the people in the world?”

“It’s arrogant and ridiculous.”

Everyone responded.

While speaking, the power in his hand became fierce again.

At the same time, Mark, who had been quiet and motionless, suddenly rose into the sky.

He stepped on Tianhe, with strength like a dragon.

Standing in the void, there is like a god.

After that, he lifted his foot, and stepped down suddenly, as if Mount Tai was pressing on the top.

The first style of Yundao Tianjue, Yunyang kicks, reappears in the world.

Afterwards, with an unstoppable force, they ran into each other fiercely.

However, who could have imagined that the stalemate that everyone expected did not appear.

At the moment when the attacks of both sides touched, the powerful storm formed by everyone’s combined attack had been crushed by the waist.

Yes, there is no obstacle at all.

If the autumn wind swept the fallen leaves, it would melt the remaining snow like boiling oil.

Mark directly smashed all the people’s reliance in an instant with the momentum of destroying the dry and decayed.

“This this..”

“how can that be?”

.....

“No~”

“This is absolutely impossible!”

“How can we not even be able to stop one of his moves from the attacks of so many of us?”

Seeing the scene before him, He Chen and others were blinded.

They never dreamed that the combined attack of so many of them would be crushed so easily.

“The second style of Yundao Tianjue, the fierce landslide!”

Boom~

There was another loud noise, like a horror.

Under Mark’s deep and angry shout, an even more terrifying attack had already condensed into shape.

The huge boxing shadow is as thick as a mountain.

In front of Mark, they gathered together.

“No... not good!”

“Rewind~”

“Everyone, rewind!!”

After seeing that Mark’s second attack was brewing, He Chen and the others were frightened.

I just felt horrified, and my scalp was numb with fright.
