

Chapter 292

William?

With this name, William and Liu Xiangye raised their heads and looked at Sun Meilin at the same time.

Even William himself didn't expect that the old man He Jifeng would sell himself.

Liu Xiangye frowned, "William? Why haven't I heard of such a genius doctor before, but I have vaguely heard that there is a waste son-in-law named Lu in the Bai family."

Sun Meilin could not say anything at once.

But at this time, Liu Xiangye continued: "But since it was recommended by an old expert like He Jifeng, it means that this genius doctor William should have more profound skills than He Jifeng."

Sun Meilin hurriedly flattered, "Xiang Ye made sense."

Liu Xiangye showed a wry smile, "It's just that, can we get this kind of famous doctor who is more powerful than He Jifeng? Sun Meilin, otherwise we will try to find a better doctor. After all, time will not wait. people."

Sun Meilin suddenly showed a sly gleam at this time. He suddenly smiled and said to Liu Xiangye: "Xiangye, our uncle's identity, and his injuries, how can I get an ordinary doctor to come? You don't know, I just happen to know that genius doctor William, he is the grandfather of my good brother."

William was taken aback, looking at this Sun Meilin amusedly?

He knows me? Am I still the grandfather of his good brother?

Then how old should I be.

But Liu Xiangye was overjoyed and looked at Sun Meilin in surprise, "Really! Do you know the genius doctor William?"

Sun Meilin said with a smile, "Of course, he is an invisible old genius doctor. Most people seldom hear his name. It's a bit difficult to get him out of the mountain."

In Sun Meilin's expectant eyes, Liu Xiangye really pleaded, "Meilin, can you figure out a way..."

This is what Sun Meilin waited for, "Let me try, I can only spare my dignity, and I have to ask the genius doctor William to save our uncle."

Liu Xiangye's face was moved, and she was a little choked in the cold, "Thank you Merlin, I really don't know how to thank you."

"I'll go out and make a call." Sun Meilin said again.

However, when he was about to go out, he found that William was still in the room.

He immediately became unhappy, and said for Liu Xiangye: "Why are you still not leaving!"

It was impossible for William to leave. Now that he heard Sun Meilin say that he knew him, he already knew he was going to do something, so he wouldn't leave.

He casually found a reason and said: "I have a major news to tell Brother Tigger. I must wait for him to wake up."

"Important news? Is it about Xiangdeng Village? Or is it about Sirius?" Liu Xiangye asked William immediately.

William smiled without saying a word, pretending to be profound.

However, he was thinking of the two words Liu Xiangye said just now.

Incense Lantern Village.

Sirius.

It seems that Brother Tigger was injured this time because of these two words.

"If you don't tell me, don't tell me, then you wait and don't be an eyesore here. In addition, I seriously warn you that if you dare to move my dad, I will kill you on the spot!" Liu Xiangye said, actually He took out a small dagger from his wallet and danced to William in demonstration.

William nodded indifferently, then sat down on the chair beside him, closing his eyes and resting.

Brother Tigger wouldn't be able to die for a while, William needed some time to digest the smell he had just smelled from Brother Tigger, and the blackening of his eyebrows that seemed to be poisoned.

William wanted to know, that Sun Meilin said he knew him, what the hell would he do later?

Sun Meilin watched William sit in the corner and couldn't help but sneered: "Xiang Ye, it seems that this guy is a dogleg of your dad. He is still pretending to be in front of us. Later, your dad will wake up and let your dad rush. Leave him, look at him and be annoying, pretend to show someone a poker face."

Liu Xiangye glanced at William indifferently and nodded, "I also think this kid is getting in the way, I will tell my dad."

"Then I'll go out and call for Doctor Lu." Sun Meilin said and went out.

After going out, he couldn't help but want to laugh.

Sun Meilin is a rich second-generation, and has been struggling to pursue Liu Xiangye recently.

However, Liu Xiangye has an arrogant personality, and behind him is Liu Tigger, a tiger of Qingcheng, as his father.

So Sun Meilin dare not come hard at all.

The soft Liu Xiangye is too cold to eat this set at all.

Today I finally seized the opportunity to show my courtesy.

Haha, what William!

What a doctor of land!

Where does Sun Meilin know this shit?

But Sun Meilin saw Liu Tigger's whole body hurt, and thought that it would be enough to find a good surgical doctor to come and bandage it. Liu Xiangye was making a fuss.

However, this fussing just gave Sun Meilin a chance.

Sun Meilin thought. Later, he would just find an old doctor to come over and replace the unknown so-called William. After he cured Liu Tigger, he would be Liu Xiangye's father's benefactor.

She must not give her arms.

Starting from empiricism, Sun Meilin instinctively believed that the genius doctor He Jifeng could admire must be an old man.

So he immediately called and asked a friend to ask someone to come and help.

Three people waited in the room for less than twenty minutes, and someone knocked on the door.

Sun Meilin knew that the person he had invited was here, and hurriedly stepped up and said: "The old genius doctor is here, I will open the door."

He opened the door and three people walked in.

The current one, black-clothed and white-bearded, with a prisoner's dragon stick in his hand, he really smelled like a stranger in the world.

Behind him, stood two young men in white Tang suits, carrying medicine boxes or something in their hands.

"See me, Mr. Lu, why don't you kneel!" one of the young men shouted majestically.

But he was immediately stopped by the old man, "It's all my own, no."

"Doctor Lu, I didn't expect you to come so soon. I am so grateful. This is Liu Xiangye, my good friend, you must help her." Sun Meilin said exaggeratedly.

The old man squinted at Liu Xiangye and didn't seem to put her in his eyes.

Liu Xiangye saw that this old man was so arrogant, he couldn't help but mutter, he was really an expert, he had a temper.

She hurriedly lowered her eyebrows and said, "Hello, Doctor Lu, please help my dad."

The old man snorted and said to Liu Xiangye: "It's only because of Sun Xiaowa's face that the old man came out. But only this time, next time, Sun Xiaowa, your father will die, the old man will not come out."

These words made Liu Xiangye tears in his eyes.

She said sincerely to Sun Meilin: "Meilin, I didn't expect you to sacrifice so much, I don't know how to thank you anymore."

Sun Meilin was so happy and crazy. He asked the fake William to say these words in order to make Liu Xiangye more grateful.

Now it is true.

Liu Xiangye is about to take the elderly and them to see Liu Tigger in the lounge.

At this time, passing by William.

William didn't move.

The old man looked down.

The young man behind him shouted again: "Who are you! Seeing me, Mr. Lu, dare not to kneel in rudeness!"

@vamp20w0rk

Chapter 293

William raised his head, glanced at the old man slightly, and sneered: "A deceiver who wants me to kneel, are you worthy?"

The sound is not loud, but like thunder!

The old man's face changed instantly, and he couldn't help looking at Sun Meilin.

He was timid.

Sun Meilin's face stiffened slightly, and he immediately returned to its original state, and said aggressively, "Good thief, what a big tone! Dare to be so presumptuous in front of Old Lu!"

The situation was deadlocked all at once.

And Liu Xiangye glanced at William contemptuously, and said to the old man: "Mr. Lu, don't care about him. This guy is just a little brother of my dad and doesn't understand the rules. You see my dad is in danger, can you show him first? Next, in a moment, I will take care of this guy myself and give you a satisfactory explanation."

The old man snorted coldly and walked towards the lounge.

Several people were in the lounge. The old man told people around him not to approach him, then took the medicine box and checked it with Liu Tigger.

This old man was originally a retired surgeon, but he was comfortable with bandaging.

Liu Xiangye hesitated outside for a while before entering the room hesitantly.

As soon as she entered, she saw blood stains all over the bed, and her entire face turned pale.

Cold sweat kept flowing out of her forehead.

William couldn't help feeling amused when she saw her weird look.

It turns out that this arrogant guy is seriously dizzy.

No wonder she didn't always guard her father's side just now.

Liu Xiangye seemed to have prepared, put on a pair of sunglasses, and then asked the old man, "Doctor Lu, my father's injury does not matter, right?"

The old man said casually: "It doesn't matter, ordinary trauma, it's very simple, the old man will just bandage him."

Sun Meilin on the side was secretly proud, it really was a bit of skin trauma, so he still needed a lot of fanfare to find a genius?

It seems that I have done the right thing and found the right person.

After listening to the old man's words, Liu Xiangye's heart relaxed slightly, "Then there will be the genius doctor Lao Lu."

William stood at the back, and did not stop the old man.

Although this old man is just furry kung fu, William can still let him do the trivial matter of dressing up the wound.

The old man took ten minutes to bandage Liu Tigger's whole body, and then put him back on the bed.

He signaled that everyone could leave here.

Several people returned to the office outside, and the old man couldn't help but proudly said: "It's embarrassing to have the old man go out in person for this little problem. Sun Xiaowa, if there is nothing to do in the future, don't call the old man."

Sun Meilin quickly pretended to nodded yes.

Then, the old man looked at William again with an arrogant expression, "Little Wah, why are you laughing at your face? Could it be that you don't agree with the old man's medical skills?"

Everyone looked at William.

William's eyes were clear, but the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

A look of sneer.

Liu Xiangye's brows frowned on the spot, and he said coldly, "What kind of attitude is this! You don't hurry up to apologize to Master Lu! Believe it or not that my dad wakes up, I will let my dad punish you heavily!"

The old man carried his hands on his back, like a grandmaster.

And William smiled, "Your dad wakes up? Then you have to wake up for your dad."

Liu Xiangye's face changed, "What do you mean! Do you dare to curse my dad!"

The old man sneered even more, "Hehe, if an old man takes action, do you still dare to say he can't wake up? The old man bet he will wake up in an hour."

"Oh? Really? Otherwise, go in and take a look at Brother Tigger?" William said with a smile.

Take a look?

What to look at

Liu Xiangye was taken aback.

And Sun Meilin rushed to William in a vigorous step, "What do you mean! Do you dare to doubt the medical skills of God Doctor Lu? Do you know who is God Doctor Lu? Kneel me down!"

"If you want me to kneel, yes, go in and take a look at Brother Tigger." William said casually.

This time Liu Xiangye looked at William suspiciously.

This kid, from the very beginning, looked like Taishan collapsed and his face didn't change color. Now he is even more vowed, is there really something wrong with it.

She put on her sunglasses and went into the lounge to see her father.

Outside, Sun Meilin said with a sneer: "Boy, you are afraid that you don't know how to write death words at all! This is the master doctor Lu himself..."

However, before he finished speaking, he heard Liu Xiangye scream from inside.

"Dad! What's wrong with you, Dad!"

Then, when everyone saw Liu Xiangye rushing out, grabbing the old man's hand, their expressions became too tense, "Mr. Lu, please go in and see my dad! He looks terrible!"

Everyone was stunned, what happened inside?

The old man also looked inside quickly.

From this look, he had an amazing experience, and was shocked by the scene before him.

I saw that Liu Tigger was still unconscious, but the corner of his mouth was bleeding out!

The blood that came out turned out to be black!

The old man was just a surgeon. He panicked when he saw such a strange picture.

He looked at Sun Meilin helplessly.

Sun Meilin was also shocked by the scene in front of him, but he finally said in a deep voice, "Old Lu, you can see it again."

Where would this old man look.

He was crying without tears.

His previous arrogant aura was wiped out. At the moment of his life, he has become conscientious. "Well, your father's illness, the old man feels nothing, this is normal. The old man still has important things to do, so let's leave first. ."

With that, the old man walked outside, and the prisoner's dragon stick that had not left his body suddenly became unnecessary.

Stride like flying.

When Liu Xiangye saw this scene, he immediately seemed to understand something, and immediately shouted: "You stop me!"

Sun Meilin secretly shouted badly, and Liu Xiangye would find out.

Before Liu Xiangye was concerned and confused, so Sun Meilin was able to let the old man impost, and now the old man can't solve this injury, even more timid on the spot.

Liu Xiangye is not a fool.

And Liu Xiangye had already rushed outside, and happened to see the old man about to grab the door.

But at this time, the old man seemed to be frozen, screamed, his body thumped, and he fell straight at the door.

In this scene, Liu Xiangye was stunned. What happened?

"Sun Meilin, who is this old man! What have you done!" Liu Xiangye saw Sun Meilin and grabbed Sun Meilin by the collar.

Sun Meilin was shocked and was about to quibble.

At this moment, I saw William sneer on the sidelines.

Suddenly he thought, and pointed to William and said, "I know! I know! This kid did all this! Didn't he touch Brother Tigger just now? He must have moved his hands and feet at that time!"

Chapter 294

Liu Xiangye can be regarded as half a person in the world.

When she heard Sun Meilin's words, a cold light flashed in her eyes, and a dagger appeared silently in her hand.

The dagger hit William's neck directly!

"Say! Who are you! Are you a spy from Sirius! Dare to do something to my dad! You are tired of life!" Liu Xiangye shouted with a cold face.

William's dagger was in front, but his face remained unchanged.

He gently squeezed the dagger in one hand, and smiled: "Who am I? Then listen carefully. My name is William."

My name is William.

These four words are like drinking!

Liu Xiangye's entire face changed color!

"You, your name is William? Then he is..." Liu Xiangye couldn't help looking at the old man who fell to the ground.

Sun Meilin's face distorted instantly, how could this be!

How can there be such a coincidence in the world!

This kid is William!

He rushed over in one step, and hit William in the face with a punch, "You dare to talk nonsense to me here, and see if I don't teach you!"

However, William suddenly snatched Liu Xiangye's dagger!

A flash of cold light!

Sun Meilin suddenly wailed like a pig!

I saw that dagger pierced Sun Meilin's entire palm!

The blood, so immortal, shot Liu Xiangye in the face.

Liu Xiangye's face turned pale, and when he rolled his eyes, he went into a coma!

"You! You!" Sun Meilin wanted to attack William with bad words.

But William looked at him with a hint of cruelty in his eyes.

Sun Meilin instantly felt stared by the tiger beast and wanted to retreat, but found that his legs were completely soft.

William snorted, ignoring this kind of clown, turned and headed into the lounge.

Seeing that Liu Tigger was still vomiting blood, he shook his head slightly, took out the silver needle, and helped him heal.

Liu Tigger is poisoned.

It should have been poisoned on the blade that hurt Liu Tigger before.

Fortunately, this was just ordinary poison, and William quickly detoxified it.

After half an hour, Liu Xiangye, who was outside, woke up quietly.

She opened her eyes in a daze, and found that the office was empty.

However, the blood stains all over the floor gave her the urge to coma again.

She resisted the discomfort, remembering her father in her heart, and staggered towards the lounge.

With this probe, her face suddenly changed.

I saw William sitting on Liu Tigger's bedside, closing his eyes and resting.

As if knowing that Liu Xiangye had woke up, William opened his eyes and said, "Your dad is no longer a serious problem. He should wake up soon."

At this moment, Liu Xiangye was completely speechless to the person in front of him.

Before, I thought he was just a little brother of his father.

However, this person is ruthless!

All of a sudden, Sun Meilin's hands were abolished!

Now, he also said that his father was fine.

Did he heal his father just now?

By the way, he also said that he is William.

While she was hesitating, William had already stood up and walked towards her.

At this moment, she no longer had the cold arrogance she had before. Seeing William coming, she instinctively backed away several steps.

She came out with William, and finally couldn't help it, and asked, "What happened just now? What happened to Sun Meilin?"

William said casually: "That old man is a fake, he should be just a general surgeon. It was Sun Meilin who called to impersonate me, so he should be courteous to you."

Liu Xiangye stomped his feet with anger when he heard this, and gritted his teeth and said: "Good, you Sun Meilin! Even I dare to lie! If something really happened to my dad today, I must take his skin off!"

William didn't even bother to discuss this kind of villain.

"By the way, what happened to my dad?" Liu Xiangye asked again.

"Your dad is poisoned, the old man can't tell at all. I will write a prescription later, and you will follow the prescription to grab the medicine." William said again.

Liu Xiangye nodded instinctively.

She looked at William quietly, a bitterness in her heart.

Where did this kid come from?

It always feels magical.

By the way, the father should know the magic of this kid, so he asked himself to call him for help before he fell into a coma.

It's a pity that he looked down on others and spoke coldly to him before.

Fortunately, his adult doesn't remember the villain's past. Otherwise, if there is any accident to his father, it will be completely the evil result of his own hand.

Thinking of this, she resisted and said to William, "Thank you for saving my father."

"I am good friends with your dad, so I will save him naturally. It has nothing to do with you," William said.

This Liu Xiangye was arrogant, and William didn't bother to talk to her.

These words made Liu Xiangye angry.

What kind of temper, this kid!
Isn't it just a little capable!

There are too many genius doctors in the world, I'm really not rare!

In front of me, I was still showing up, I pulled down my face and apologized, you still do!

How old are you!

Liu Xiangye stared at William fiercely, and did not speak any more.

The two were silent for ten minutes, when they heard a cough from inside.

William got up and walked inside.

Liu Xiangye also put on sunglasses and walked in.

Liu Tigger had opened his eyes slightly.

When he saw William, Wushen's eyes burst into light.

But his voice was extremely weak, "William, you really saved my life."

William smiled and said, "I owed you a favor before."

Liu Tigger nodded slightly.

William walked over, helped Liu Tigger up and leaned on the head of the bed.

Liu Tigger saw Liu Xiangye wearing sunglasses, his eyes softened suddenly, "Xiang Ye, you probably know each other too, this is my good brother, William."

Liu Xiangye snorted and did not speak.

Not only dissatisfied with William.

Even more dissatisfied with my father.

Liu Xiangye fainted blood since childhood.

But Liu Tigger has never dealt with blood!

After Liu Xiangye was sensible, she did not know how many times she persuaded her father Jinpen to wash his hands.

But Liu Tigger never listened to her.

Liu Xiangye also planted a seed of hatred in her heart since she was a child.

She felt that her father didn't care about her feelings, or even her daughter.

She looked at Liu Tigger coldly, and after making sure that he was fine, she walked outside coldly.

Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, and said to William: "I'm sorry, every family has a hard-to-read sutra. My daughter has this temper..."

William nodded, indicating that he didn't care.

He felt that although Liu Xiangye was indifferent in appearance, he was even acrimonious.

But when Liu Tigger was really in danger of life, she still cared about it.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be confused just now and be fooled by Sun Meilin.

Leaving her aside, William looked at Liu Tigger, "Brother Tigger, since you told me to take action, then you should have something to tell me."

Liu Tigger looked at William, and finally sighed and asked an inexplicable question, "Do you know Qin Tianlang?"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 295

William nodded and said, "I heard a little bit. Under Qingcheng, one tiger and one wolf divide the world."

Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, "Where do I start? When I was young, I had a violent personality and a brutal force, almost suppressing Qin Tianlang."

"When I was about to kill Qin Tianlang, the child gave birth to Xiangye, but she died on the spot because of a dystocia."

"That's why I have always owed Xiangye. It was after she was born that my temper gradually reduced, and I made an agreement with Qin Tianlang to divide the city in two ways, so that the water in the well will not be offended by the river."

"In the past few years, Qin Tianlang has not died of ambition and has been growing his strength. In the past two years, he has been faintly eager to move. But he has not been able to find a suitable reason for war."

"A while ago, there was a man named Kaleb who came to my subordinate Klutz. You should remember Klutz."

William nodded, motioning for him to continue.

Liu Tigger sighed, "Klutz has just arrived in Qingcheng after all. I don't know the doorway inside. The rules are broken. It just robbed Sirius' business and gave Sirius a reason to go to war."

"So, for a while, I've been fighting Sirius all the time. My injury was also calculated by the villain Sirius."

After William listened, there was no other expression.

He is not very interested in such disputes.

He suddenly changed the subject and said, "I'm finished talking about Sirius, but there is another thing I am more interested in."

"What's the matter?" Liu Tigger asked.

"Fragrant Lantern Village." William spit out these three words.

Liu Tigger's face changed on the spot, "How did you know Xiangdeng Village!"

William couldn't comment.

He heard the name of this village from Liu Xiangye just now.

This name reminded him of another thing naturally.

Before the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association, the room was full of red lanterns.

That red lantern is interesting.

Seeing that William didn't explain the reason, Liu Tigger shook his head bitterly, "I don't know where you heard it, but since you already know it, I won't hide it from you anymore. Are you free tomorrow?"

William nodded, "Yeah."

"Tomorrow, I will take you to Xiangdeng Village for a tour, before the village is destroyed." Liu Tigger said this, with unspeakable sadness in his eyes.

William made an appointment with him and left Liu Tigger.

When he returned, he knew the final result of the farce of the Bai family from Felicity's mouth.

Before Yasmine went to the bureau, she had been looking for relationships all over the world, but it really made her find a relationship.

Therefore, the Bai family was only fined and educated, and none of them went to jail.

William had already guessed that there would be such a result, and he didn't take it seriously.

Early the next morning, Liu Tigger's car stopped in front of William's house.

After William got in the car, he found that Liu Xiangye was driving.

Liu Xiangye was obviously dissatisfied with

William, and he didn't even say hello.

She didn't shy away from the existence of William, and said to Liu Tigger with an unhappy expression: "Are you really going to take this kid to Xiangdeng Village?"

Liu Tigger said gently: "Well, this is the first time I have taken a guest back in the years since I left the village."

William was taken aback.

It turned out that Liu Tigger came out of this village.

No words all the way, the car drove on the mountain road for five hours.

It was not until noon that I reached a small fork in the road.

The car couldn't get in, so Liu Tigger asked Liu Xiangye to lean the car on the side of the road, and the three of them walked in.

After a while, William smelled a faint fragrance.

This scent is exactly what William smelled on that cinnabar century lamp.

The village should not be far away.

Liu Tigger was obviously timid, with sadness written all over his face.

Three minutes later, a small village appeared in front of William.

Liu Tigger led the way, and William followed.

Walking into the village, William immediately discovered the weirdness of the village.

This village is very small, there are only about a hundred families, and all the houses they live in are thatched huts, and they are shabby.

Bright red lanterns are hung at the entrances of their houses, which are exactly the centennial lanterns of cinnabar.

However, according to common sense, red lanterns are hung at the door, and the surname should be written on the lantern.

But no one wrote the last name.

What's more weird is that there is a coffin under the lantern at the door of every house!

This makes people have goose bumps.

However, Liu Tigger and Liu Xiangye were obviously used to it and turned a blind eye to this.

Liu Tigger seemed to see through William's thoughts and explained faintly: "This village is Xiangdeng Village. The people who live in it are all craftsmen slaves who escaped from a place hundreds of years ago. They have been slaves for generations. It was carved into the bones, so they thought that they did not have the qualifications to have a surname. Even my surname, Liu, was taken after I left the village."

William frowned. The world is so big, there is no wonder, what other craftsmen are there?

But is it really good to live so humbly?

"This coffin is what they prepared for themselves. They are a group of people who have nothing to do with the world." Liu Tigger sighed.

At this time, a gray-haired old man with white hair and a skinny body appeared in front of him.

Liu Tigger hurriedly stepped forward, helped out the old man, and exclaimed gently: "The village chief, why did you come out yourself?"

The village chief was shaking his hands and feet so badly. At this age, he should be ninety one hundred.

The village head smiled kindly, but he said something that made William sluggish, "Brother comes back, and when the brother comes back, it's natural to meet him personally."

Little brother? brother?

What is this generation?

Liu Tigger asked Xiang Ye to help the village chief, and then walked side by side with William.

Seeing William's doubts on his face, Liu Tigger explained in a low voice, "This is my brother who grew up playing with him. Don't look at him like a seven-year-old man. In fact, he is only fifty years old."

Fifty years old!

William's whole body is not good.

Fifty years old looks like a hundred years old?

What is going on in this village!

Liu Tigger said bitterly: "Don't look at him at fifty years old, but in this village at fifty years old, it is a miracle of longevity. The people here, logically speaking, will not live to be forty years old..."

William was shocked!

"Go in first, you'll know later." Liu Tigger said.

When I entered the village, the village was very peaceful.

Many people weave lanterns while basking in the sun.

It's just that these people made William's hair terrified.

All of them were skinny, with sunken eyes, as if they were born with malnutrition.

But when they saw the outsider William, they all smiled kindly.

"I know you still have a lot of questions in your heart, stay and join in tonight's Eternal Life Festival, you will know everything." Liu Tigger suddenly said to William.

Chapter 296

"Eternal Life?" William was taken aback.

Liu Tigger did not explain too much, but led William to the village chief's house.

The village chief's house is still in the innermost part of the village, and it is still a thatched hut with some simple furnishings.

However, William saw something weird.

It was a transparent jar with a red, almost viscous liquid in it.

The liquid wafted a strong fragrance of blood.

Liu Tigger walked to William and stared at the jar and said, "Every household has this jar. I know you are good at medicine, and I don't want to lie to you about what kind of cinnabar water is. You guessed it right, it's human blood."

"Every family uses this blood to make lanterns and then sell the lanterns to make a living. This is the fate of Xiangdeng Village." Liu Tigger patted William on the shoulder and turned to chat with the village chief.

And Liu Xiangye had already ran out to play with the playmates he knew.

Until the dusk fell, Liu Tigger called William outside.

When William went out, he saw a strange red light in front of him.

The lanterns at the entrances of every house are already lit, and the fragrance is overflowing, and being in it, it is like a fairyland, floating in the sky.

William followed Liu Tigger to an empty square where a raging bonfire had already been lit.

About two to three hundred people were sitting around the campfire, chatting, dancing and dancing.

It was just these people that William looked terrified. They were all skinny and couldn't find anyone who weighed more than a hundred catties.

At this time, a misty song suddenly rang in everyone's ears from far and near.

"Ah mile... Ah mile..."

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"The Jade Dragon, the Third Kingdom, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

"Oh... I love you until the jade dragon flies to the sky..."

"Oh... I love me, it stops flowing when I love Lishui..."

"Trust me, follow me, I will let the snow lotus on the mountain drive for you..."

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the third country of Yulong..."

With the sound of this ethereal singing, the faces of the villagers in Xiangdeng Village were suddenly filled with sadness and joy.

It's like a pair of lovers knowing that they are about to live and die together.

They stood up one by one, gathered around the bonfire, and danced.

The singer slowly walked over.

It was actually Liu Xiangye.

A few young girls followed Liu Xiangye.

They sang songs and joined the dancing team.

At the scene, everyone spoke and sang this folk song that sounded very graceful but a little sad.

William thought about the lyrics of this folk song, but he was a little silly for a while.

Liu Tigger's eyes were red when he heard it, and he took a sip of wine and said to William: "This song is called "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon". It is the hometown that this group of people can never go back to. They are the only one to their hometown. Think about it, it's only in this song."

"This is a martyrdom song. The third kingdom of the jade dragon sung in the song is the legendary holy land of martyrdom..."

When Liu Tigger said this, he couldn't say it anymore.

And William looked at these people who were singing and laughing but with sad faces, and somewhat understood the reason for their sorrow and joy.

The sad thing is the avenue of life and death.

The joy is that we went to Huangquan together and saw eternity in a blink of an eye.

"I'll take you to a place." Liu Tigger suddenly got up and said to William.

The two of them carried a cinnabar lamp, one foot deep and one shallow foot, to the bulging hill behind the village chief's house.

When he arrived on the hill, William suddenly felt like stepping into the peach blossom field!

Is this hell?

I saw a big pond with a diameter of five meters on this mountain bag. Blood was gurgling in the pond!

The temperature of the blood water seemed to be very high, forming a wisp of blood gas, which kept lingering in the midair of this mountain bag.

The smell of blood here is even worse, making the blood churn in the body!

"You see, this place is the holy land that the villagers have guarded for generations. We call it the Immortal Pond." Liu Tigger sat down on the edge of the pond and took out the wine he had prepared.

William stared at this blood pool blankly, and his heart was shocked.

"The villagers have been craftsmen for generations. Their ancestral training and the only craft is to make cinnabar lamps for centuries. Oh no, it should be called Xiangxue Centennial Lamps. And the layer of lacquer on the outside of the lantern is used in this pond. The fragrant blood is stained red and will not change color for a hundred years.

"This pool is natural, and there is geothermal underneath. People in this village, from one to eighteen years old, join the ranks of blood sacrifice, two a day, to keep the blood in the pool indestructible, and then add some secret spices. The medicinal materials form this immortal water."

"People outside will only find it very fragrant and exciting when they smell it, but the people in the village are already immune to this smell."

"It's this group of poor people. They are the people who accompany their blood all day long, but they are also the most bloodless people in the world." Liu Tigger said this, his voice choked again.

William was deeply shocked by these last words.

Some of the doubts in his heart gradually resolved.

Why is there the smell of blood in the Fragrant Blood Centennial Lamp?

Why are the people here, all skinny and short-lived?

It's all because of this pond and the thousand-year ancestral instruction.

In the long run, the blood sacrifice, the body has completely collapsed.

This damn immortal pond, damn immortal water!

William couldn't help feeling a trace of compassion and anger in his heart.

"Qin Tianlang already knows about this place, and he has written the battle book. Three days later, he will bring people to fight against Xiangdeng Village. I promised." Liu Tigger said again.

Three days later? William's heart shrank.

"Xiangdeng Village is my first pure land of bliss and my last destiny. I have no regrets." In Liu Tigger's words, there was a sense of relief.

"Is it worth it?" William asked suddenly.

Liu Tigger's eyes flashed, and suddenly he looked at William fiercely.

But this was fierce, steamed by blood, and became sad again. He suddenly asked William, "William, you are a smart man. I have a question that I want to ask you all the time. There are many ways to live in life, but after all, it is vulgar. People have many choices, but in the end they can only embrace the ordinary. There are great immortality and small immortality in the human world. The big immortality is praised by the world, while the small immortality is just to protect the lover, even if it is defeated. You are proud. Which one would you choose?"

William choked for a while, but he didn't know how to answer Liu Tigger's question.

And Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, and suddenly finished the last drink, stood up and turned his back to William, "This Eternal Life Festival is exactly three days. I will accompany these poor people to live forever."

"I will let Xiangye send you down the mountain."
