

Chapter 2924– 2925 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2924

Looking at that posture, it seemed that if the God of War blocked him again, he would join the God of War.

“I said, the land of Yanshan Mountain cannot tolerate each other’s compatriots.”

“You leave it temporarily.”

“I’ll take care of Mark’s matter.”

“Don’t worry, if Mark is wrong, no matter how talented he is, this God of War will never forgive him.”

Ye Qingtian is the strongest in Vietnam after all.

The King of Fighters is no matter how angry he is, but Ye Qingtian’s face, he can’t help but give.

“Huh~”

“Okay, God of War, I believe you this time.”

“I want to see how you deal with it fairly.”

The King of Fighters snorted coldly, and then walked away immediately.

Stand behind with the Sword Saint and others, and watch the God of War deal with it.

Suddenly, the entire Yanshan Mountain was silent.

No one spoke, only the breeze swept, and the green grass groaned.

After a long time, the gloomy words of the God of War broke the silence here.

“Mark, don’t you explain to me?”

“I give you the title of Huaxia Martial Arts, give you glory, and give you the title of unparalleled talent.”

“I, Ye Qingtian, have high hopes for you, and hope that you can support Vietnam’s backbone after many years.”

“But how about you, this is how you repay me? Repay the Martial God Temple? Repay Vietnam? Repay your motherland?”

“The title of Killing Pillar Country, destroying the heroes of Jiangbei.”

“Master Wushuang is so majestic?”

“I am afraid of the seven pillar kingdoms of the Seven Pillars of the Martial God Temple. The killings in the country for a hundred years are not as good as yours.”

“With so many compatriots’ blood in your hands, there is no guilt in your heart?”

“To me, Ye Qingtian, the wise, unexpectedly, but on you, looked away!”

Ye Qingtian looked at Mark, and a low voice slowly sounded.

The words were full of disappointment and questioning towards Mark.

“Hahaha~”

“Explanation?”

“Guilty?”

Mark suddenly laughed when he heard this.

He looked up to the sky and laughed, his laughter resounding like thunder.

In the laughter, there is endless irony.

“God of War, these words should be me asking you!”

“As soon as you came up, you accused me of destroying the Lu family, killing Lu Songliang, and sweeping the West Lake.”

“But why don’t you ask me, why did I kill them?”

Mark sneered and asked sharply.

“Let me talk about the people of the Lu family. They deceived my wife and children, harmed my mother, and invaded my Noifork foundation while I was suffering. Shouldn’t they die?”

“As for that group of so-called Chinese warriors, Jiangbei is powerful, they are the ones who besieged me first.”

“Now that I am suppressed under the West Lake, they are also responsible for their own sake and irresponsible!”

“And your Martial God Temple.”

“When I was ordered to go to America, how did you Ye Qingtian agree to me?”

“But what you said, the Martial God Temple will help me protect my family.”

“But what about the result?”

“My mother has not healed since she was disabled again, and my wife almost lost her life after nine deaths.”

“If I come a few days later, my Noifork Foundation will be ruined!”

“Lao Tzu worked for the country outside, nine dead for a lifetime, just want to make some contribution to the Chinese martial arts.”

“And you can’t protect my relatives. You are still helping the tigers and abusers, and now you are protecting the Nalu family and their sons from refusing to hand it over.”

“Is this the Martial God Temple in your mouth?”

“Is this the Martial God Temple in your mouth?”

“I have a country in my heart, but you have me in your heart!!”

Boom~

Mark shouted like thunder, sonorous, like a stone falling to the ground.

An arrogant voice, eyes full of coldness.

The old faces of the God of War and others who asked directly, turned red and speechless!

Panic, I don’t know how to answer?

Chapter 2925

“You mean, the Lu family murdered your family?”

“Martial God Temple still shelters?”

“This this”

“Did you make a mistake?”

God of War was shocked.

He didn't expect that in Mark's heart, there was such a great resentment towards the Martial God Temple and the Yanxia Martial Arts.

“Mark, there must be some misunderstanding in this.”

“You are the strongest pillar country in my hot summer. You have led the way to America to serve your country.”

“Under this circumstance, our Martial God Temple will take good care of your relatives. How could it chill the heart of my hot summer hero?”

“After you disappeared, we thought you had fallen. In order to appease your family, we even sent a working group to offer condolences.”

“You now say that our Wushen Temple is a tiger, helping others murder your relatives. This is absolutely nonsense. Where did you hear this?”

Ye Qingtian frowned and asked anxiously.

At the end, God of War seemed to remember something, and then continued: “Oh, I remembered it.”

“More than half a year ago, a man named Lu Hua really had a bad attitude towards your relatives.”

“But the person surnamed Lu has been captured on the spot by me.”

“Later, he was sent to the martial arts court for trial and was severely punished.”

“That matter has been properly resolved, and the culprit has already been executed by our Wushen Temple. And at that time, it did not cause any substantial harm to your loved ones.”

“Why do you want to kill for something that has passed away?”

“Don't you think you made a fuss?”

The God of War said in a deep voice, and his words were full of displeasure.

Obviously, Ye Qingtian thought that Mark committed a terrible disaster in Jiangbei because of that incident six months ago.

However, God of War had already dealt with that matter.

He has given Mark's family an explanation.

Mark is now reluctant to forgive, and if he turns over the old account, God of War is naturally a little unhappy.

Feeling that Mark was too small-minded and too heavy to kill, he killed the whole family for a small matter that was already resolved.

This kind of temper is really hard to please, and even a little offensive.

“Executed?”

“God of War, when you say this, are you treating me Mark as a fool?”

“If Lu Hua is really executed, who is it that insulted me Noifork and insulted my relatives in the past six months?”

“Who is hiding in the hall at this time, who is protected by your Martial God Temple?”

Mark sneered, then asked Ye Qingtian.

When the god of war heard the words, he was taken aback.

“What do you mean?”

“Why, didn't Na Lu Hua be executed in the first place?”

“And continue to be a disaster for Noifork?”

Hearing this, Ye Qingtian suddenly realized something.

Immediately turned his head and stared at the king of fighters aside.

“The King of Fighters, what the hell is going on?”

“I remember this incident was handed over to you.”

“Then Lu Hua, could it be that you let him go?”

The God of War asked coldly, his anger suppressed in his words.

You know, all the things that have been handed over to the Supreme Budo Court to deal with have been extremely bad and extremely influential cases.

It is precisely because of this that in the memory of God of War, none of the people who were sent to the highest martial arts court in Gritsberg came out alive.

When he asked Lu Hua to commit suicide in the martial arts court, he actually declared Lu Hua's death sentence.

But now it seems that the development of things afterwards is somewhat beyond the God of War's expectations.
