

Chapter 2938– 2939 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2938

But when the land of Yanshan was noisy, Noirfork, thousands of miles away, was calm.

Since Mark returned to Noirfork, he also returned to Wrilfill with Helen Qiu and her mother.

Before, Helen Qiu and the others left their hometowns to avoid chasing and killing the Lu family.

Today, the Lu family in Jiangbei has been destroyed by Mark, leaving only Lu Hua and his son alone.

It can be said that the Lu family is over. Even if Mark is no longer, it will be difficult to threaten Mark's relatives in the future.

The threat had been lifted, and Mark naturally took them home.

The Villa at Yunding Mountain, which had been desolate for several days, was undoubtedly restored to life again.

I often hear cheers and laughter coming from the villa.

Every evening, you can still smell the fragrance of delicious food.

This is Helen Qiu's cooking.

In the year Mark left, Helen Qiu's cooking skills had undoubtedly been known for a long time. Today's craftsmanship is not much inferior to Mark's mother.

The home that was once torn apart because of Mark's fall, but now because of the arrival of Mark, it has once again restored the warmth and happiness of the past.

After a short reunion with Mark, Helen Qiu returned to work and returned to the Mufan Group to preside over the work again.

As for Mark's mother, Ye Ximei, she was also transferred to Fenghai for recuperation.

After all, Fenghai's branch office also needs someone to watch.

Ye Ximei hasn't showed up for more than half a year, and she is now worried that the branch office there will be destroyed by her younger brothers.

Therefore, Ye Ximei just transferred to Fenghai to recuperate and supervise the work there.

“Mom, do you really want to go back?”

“I have arranged someone over there, so you can rest assured.”

Since his mother’s body has not yet fully healed, Mark naturally is not worried about his mother leaving.

“After you treated me these few days, I feel better.”

“I haven’t been back for more than half a year. The company, and your grandfather’s side, I always have to show up.”

“I don’t need to worry about it.”

“After I’m gone, accompany Helen Qiu well.”

“You brat, you owe her too much.”

“If you bear her, your mother and I will be the first to spare you.”

Before leaving, Ye Ximei pointed at Mark fiercely.

Now that he had decided to return to Fenghai, Mark naturally couldn’t keep her.

Soon, Ye Ximei left Wrilfill in a vehicle.

“Helen Qiu, let’s go back to the house too.”

“The medicine on your forehead should also be changed.”

After Ye Ximei left, Mark called Helen Qiu and returned to the villa.

In the past few days, besides using the cultivation base to help his mother repair his body, Mark’s other main task was to treat Helen Qiu’s scar on his forehead.

For ordinary people, this kind of scar may be difficult to eliminate for life, but for Mark, it is not difficult.

However, in order to make Helen Qiu completely recover as usual, Mark made a special trip to the Chu family’s old house, consulted grandma too, and asked for some medicine.

After a few days, the scar on Helen Qiu’s forehead had really faded a lot.

“Mark, can this scar be completely recovered without leaving any traces?” Helen Qiu asked again, looking at the already faint scar in the mirror.

No woman does not love beauty, and Helen Qiu naturally does the same.

Although she had never told Mark, she undoubtedly felt extremely worried about this scar in her heart.

“Don’t worry, how good is your husband?”

“Life or death is nothing but flesh and bones, let alone this little scar.”

“Within seven days, you will surely recover and be as good as ever.”

Mark smiled and scratched Helen Qiu’s Qiong nose.

Chapter 2939

After returning to the villa, Mark meticulously changed Helen Qiu’s medicine.

After finishing all this, Mark wanted to let Helen Qiu rest at home, but this stupid girl had to go to the company to see it.

After all, life always has to go on.

Helen Qiu couldn’t delay work because of her tenderness with Mark.

Perhaps the Mufan Group is just a non-essential thing to Mark. But in Helen Qiu’s heart, the position of the Mu Fan Group was only under Mark.

Nothing, just because of this group, it is Mark’s hard work and career.

She is willing to spend her life to protect Mark’s career.

In terms of martial arts, Helen Qiu knew that she could not help Mark the slightest.

The only thing she can do for Mark is to help him guard the Mufan Group.

This is why, in the year when Mark was absent, Helen Qiu still stubbornly and desperately fought against the Lu Family in Jiangbei Lu Family.

It wasn’t until finally under compelling circumstances that Lu Tianhe received asylum in the military region.

Helen Qiu insisted on going, and Mark didn’t stop him anymore. Instead, he personally drove his wife to the company.

However, Mark did not stay in the Mufan Group, and soon returned to the Yunding Mountain Villa.

And called Ericson Li over.

“Mr. Chu, you... are you looking for me?”

Standing in front of Mark, even if Mark hadn’t said anything, Ericson Li was already instinctively panicked, and his speech was tied uncontrollably.

Obviously, Ericson Li has also heard about Mark’s actions in Jiangbei.

The first family in Jiangbei, the entire Lu family, were all slaughtered and ruined.

In addition, on the West Lake, hundreds of strong men were ruthlessly killed by the youth in front of them.

Even if he didn't see it with his own eyes, this record was enough to make Ericson Li feel frightened.

He and Mark have known each other for more than two years.

It is hard for Ericson Li to imagine that when I met at the beginning of the year, that boy who was just a humble son-in-law of the Qiu family had already gained such great power in just one or two years.

With every gesture, you have the ability to destroy a huge family.

Mark's power and fear had completely surpassed Ericson Li's imagination.

As a result, Ericson Li now only has awe and respect for Mark in his heart.

"Yeah." Mark nodded slightly, and he took a sip from the teacup on the table at the back, and continued, "Do you know everything about Jiangbei?"

Mark was still tasting the tea, and didn't look at Ericson Li from beginning to end when he spoke.

Ericson Li's expression trembled slightly. He didn't know why Mark asked this suddenly, but he answered honestly: "Listen.. I heard something."

"Well, let's talk about it, any thoughts." Mark continued.

Ericson Li hurriedly said: "It was the Lu family who was rich and unkind, who insulted Mr. Chu's relatives first, and now it is destroyed, and it is also self-blaming, which is very happy."

"Today, Mr. Chu didn't get rid of the Lu family. In the future, I, Ericson Li, will try my best to eradicate the Lu family and avenge Miss Qiu and Madam Ye."

This Ericson Li is also a good hand in praise, and he immediately said the words of praise.

Mark rolled his eyes, a little speechless: "I didn't ask you this, I mean, the Lu family is gone, and his industry in Jiangbei, do you have any thoughts?"

"This..." Ericson Li was stunned, and immediately said ashamed, "I haven't thought about this yet. When I go back, I will plan it out and give Mr. Chu a plan tomorrow."
