

Chapter 2956– 2957 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2956

Yes, this is one of the three divine artifacts that Mark obtained from Japan in those days, the eight-foot Qionggou jade.

And between the sun and the moon, Mark, who was in it, was majestic and ethereal, just like a god!

“Gather the spirits of the sun and the moon, the formation of the heavens~”

“Gather!”

Suddenly, there was a misty sound coming from the depths of Tianhe.

In an instant, the mountains and rivers trembled, and the sea of clouds churned.

Invisible beams of light rose up into the sky at the feet of Ericson Li and others.

Countless beams of light are intertwined vertically and horizontally, until here, a light curtain covering a kilometer is woven, like a net of heaven and earth, covering the entire Yunding Mountain.

“This~”

“This...”

Under the sea of light, Ericson Li and others were completely dumbfounded, and their brows were full of shock.

“My goodness, Chu...Who is Mr. Chu?”

“Or, he... is he still human?”

Ericson Li cried out in his heart.

In the end, Ericson Li and others could no longer bear the shock in their hearts, and knelt directly to Mark with a bang.

That pious look, like a believer who worships God.

I don't know how long it took, the light and shadow disappeared, and everything was calm again.

And Mark dissipated all the majesty just now and walked slowly to Ericson Li.

With clean shredded hair, a pair of sneakers, and a pair of sweatpants, Mark dressed like a teenager just out of school, ordinary and young.

Just by his appearance, it is estimated that no one would associate the young man in front of him with Mr. Chu, who smashed Noirfork and frightened the martial arts of the summer.

“Don't be overly nervous, I just built a protective formation.”

“In the future, if you encounter an invincible person in a dangerous situation, you can go to Yunding Mountain to avoid disaster.”

“How to use this array, I will give you later.”

“There is the protection of the sky and the sky, and there are few people in the hot summer land who can forcefully break into this place!”

“Ericson Li, starting from today, I will leave this formation to you. The safety of my relatives and friends, Mark, will also be handed over to you.”

Mark was standing with his hands on his back, his face expressionless, and his words were low and calm.

At his feet, Ericson Li was still kneeling.

Especially after hearing Mark's remarks that were almost funeral, Ericson Li was immediately stunned.

“Mr. Chu, why do you suddenly say that?”

“Do you want to leave again?”

Ericson Li could hear the meaning of Mark's words, the feeling was as if Mark was leaving forever.

At first, Mark did not speak.

He just turned around and looked at the distant horizon through the sea of clouds. The heavy and deep words rang slowly: “I came to Wrilfill to leave.”

“The mission is not fulfilled, how can I stop here for a long time?”

“Ten years, there are some things that should be done.”

Bang~

As soon as Mark finished saying this, Ericson Li directly slammed his head on the ground with a bang, and the muffled sound startled the Jinbao and Yinbao brothers who were aside.

“Mr. Chu, you can’t leave~”

“Noirfork can’t live without you, and Wrilfill can’t live without you. I can’t do without you, Ericson Li...”

“Without you, no one can hold this Noirfork, no one can hold this Noirfork~”

Ericson Li shouted sadly, tears streaming down his nose.

Perhaps, Ericson Li really didn’t want to give up Mark.

After all, for so long, he has really experienced too much with Mark.

From the Taishan martial arts war, to the Haitian feast, and then to the Lu Xu family’s troubles in Noirfork.

He witnessed Mark’s growth with his own eyes, and witnessed this young man, from being famous in Noirfork to blasting the heat of summer.

With him, the sky falls and Ericson Li and others are not afraid.

Chapter 2957

But now, Mark said he was leaving.

Moreover, Ericson Li could see that Mark’s departure this time was different from the countless times in the past.

Compared with the past, only this time, he saw the lack of self-confidence in the expression of this young man.

This is unimaginable for Ericson Li.

No one knows better than Ericson Li, what kind of proud Mark is in front of him.

Even if he single-handedly drove into Jiangbei a few days ago, even if he drove into Yanshan alone, even if he faced the title of Yan Xia Shu with his own strength, Mark did not show half hesitation and unconfidence.

But this time, Mark no longer had the pride and confidence he had before.

Ericson Li could guess that maybe Mark's departure today will never return.

For Ericson Li, this is naturally unacceptable for a while.

That kind of feeling is like the vegetation that has been growing at the foot of the mountain, and suddenly there is no lean on it overnight.

From now on, there will be no one to help him withstand the wind and rain!

"Mr. Chu, I can't~"

"I really can't."

"I, Ericson Li, besides being fond of others, I'm just a coercion~"

"I can have today, all of you, Mr. Chu, helped me up."

"Without you, I'm just a lazy pustule..."

"I know what I'm capable of. If you are not here, I really can't afford this Noirfork..."

"Mr. Chu, please don't leave.."

"Miss Qiu, I can't do without you~"

Ericson Li was still crying.

Her nose and tears looked like a stumbled girl kicked off by a scumbag.

However, in the face of Ericson Li's retention, Mark just smiled.

"Okay, don't cry, like a girl."

"Don't worry, after I leave, in addition to this formation, I will leave Qinglong to Noirfork."

"These are enough for you to help me guard Noirfork."

"Don't underestimate this Yundao Heavenly Decision Formation. When it is fully opened, it is the old guys in the Yanxia Wushen Temple. In a short time, they will not be able to break it."

"Well, that's it for today, remember what I said to you today."

"Tomorrow I will go to Fenghai."

“Don’t tell Helen Qiu about today’s conversation.”

“You go back.”

Mark seemed to be tired, waved his hand, and let Ericson Li go back.

Ericson Li’s old eyes were still red. When he left, he glanced at Mark and asked in a low voice, “Mr. Chu, my second child, can I still see you in the future?”

Mark suddenly laughed when he heard the words.

“What do you think?”

“I’m not going to die.”

“Okay, stop the ink stains, get out of here.”

“Remember, keep Noirfork well for me.”

Mark scolded Ericson Li away with a smile.

For a time, there was only Mark left on the entire Yunding Peak.

When Ericson Li left, the smile from the corner of Mark’s mouth also quietly disappeared, replacing it with a rich dignity.

Yes, as Ericson Li could see, this time Mark really lost the confidence and courage he had before.

Even with a ten-year plan, when this day really came, Mark still had no bottom in his heart.

After all, what he will face next is the ancient power that has dominated the world for hundreds of years.

From when Mark had memory, he was instilled in the power of the Chu family and the invincibility of the Chu Clan.

Both the Chu family and the Chu Sect represent the strongest power in the world.
