

Campus Master Chapter 3001

“It’s better for me to go personally, there’s only one manager in charge over in Kepong, if there’s any emergency at that time, I’m afraid he won’t be able to cope with it!”

Han Zhong was a little uneasy, although the country of Kepong was small, it had a large population and extremely high spending power, even the top international mobile phone brands such as Fruit and Four Star would consider Kepong as a very important market, whereas China, for Fruit Mobile, was only a third-rate market.

Although this has something to do with the fact that China’s piracy and copycats are rampant, there is no doubt about the importance attached to the Kepong market.

But the most crucial thing is that the radical faction in Kepong is now dominant, which makes some of the Kepong people extremely hostile to China, and Han Zhong is worried that these people will make secret mischief, and when the time comes, there may be some unexpected incidents, so Han Zhong cannot afford not to go!

Xiao Yuxuan’s head shook lightly, “I don’t think so.”

Han Zhong asked, “Why?”

Xiao Yuxuan said, “Ji Feng once said, now he is already a thorn in the side of some people in Kepong, especially the Sumida Group and Lingxia Group and some other group companies that are extremely close to the official relations of Kepong, but also consider the Tengfei Group as a big enemy, if you go to Kepong, the security aspect

Han Zhong smiled at that, “No need to worry about security, the big deal is I’ll bring two bodyguards over, although Kepong is rampant with triad’s society, but I heard that the security aspect is actually doing quite well, there shouldn’t be any problems.”

Seeing that Han Zhong was somewhat unconcerned, Xiao Yuxuan became even more worried, there were some of the grudges between Ji Feng and the people of Kepong that Han Zhong was clear about, but there were also many things that Han Zhong was not clear about, but she knew, so she knew very well that certain people within Kepong hated Ji Feng to the bone, and as Han Zhong was the general manager of the Tengfei Group and a close friend of Ji Feng, it was impossible for those people not to be concerned about him.

“I think it’s better this way, you discuss it with Ji Feng and see what his opinion is!” Xiao Yuxuan said, she didn’t strongly stop Han Zhong, because Han Zhong was also bent on thinking about the company, so she couldn’t discourage him.

Besides, Xiao Yuxuan couldn’t judge the situation of Kepong, and Ji Feng knew this best, so she let Han Zhong go to Ji Feng for discussion.

Han Zhong nodded and said, “Alright then, I’ll contact Ji Feng here.”

However, when Han Zhong called, Ji Feng was talking to Wang Xin.

“Boss, according to my tracing, the person who used that number is in Jiangzhou, I once tried to call the number using an internet phone and found that it was through!” Wang Xin said.

“The number is through?!”

Ji Feng smiled and immediately asked, “Then did you take the opportunity to trace it?”

He knew that when a phone call was made, the exact location of the phone user could be traced based on the source of the signal, and Wang Xin was definitely an expert in this area and had helped him trace it more than once.

However, Wang Xin’s answer was somewhat disappointing to Ji Feng: “Traced it, but didn’t catch up, the other party didn’t speak after he got through, there was only breathing sounds on the other side, this was to ask me to speak first, I used voice changing software to deliberately pretend to be an employee of a communication company and lied that I wanted to return the call, but the other party hung up immediately upon hearing it.”

“Heh! Vigilance is still very high!”

Ji Feng sneered and frowned for a moment as he deliberated.

At that moment, Wang Xin added: “At that time, although I didn’t trace the other party’s exact location, I did find out that the tower used by the other party’s mobile phone signal was in Jiangzhou, and it was in downtown Jiangzhou! Only, Jiangzhou was too densely populated and lost too much, and the signal was not maintained, so I could not continue to trace it.”

Ji Feng nodded slowly, “You’ve done a good job, hard work.”

Wang Xin said, “Boss you are polite to me again, this is what I should do!”

Ji Feng smiled, and suddenly his heart moved and he asked, “Wang Xin, did you call this number again after you traced it?”

Wang Xin said, “No, I was afraid that the other party would get suspicious, so I didn’t call again. Because this number of the other party is not registered, in fact, within the communications company is almost exactly who is using it, and this reason for the return call can only be used once, so

“I understand.”

Ji Feng nodded, hung up the phone, he secretly pondered, it seems that this person does not know that he has been watched, and is not very alert, or, he is still something is not done, otherwise he should normally turn off the phone.

After all, using this kind of unregistered phone card must mean that you want to conceal your identity, and concealing your identity naturally means doing something you don’t want people to know about

“So, is it possible to try this person?!” Ji Feng said secretly in his heart.

“Let’s do it!”

Ji Feng made up his mind and was ready to call Wang Xin again and ask her what kind of voice changing software would be best to download, but then he thought about it, before Xiang Yongzhan also sent himself the voice changer that was retrieved from the villa about Shao Jie and Zhai Yadong, and he thought that this device would be good, no matter if it was a mobile phone or a landline.

The first time he thought of this, Ji Feng immediately looked up some information about voice changers for sale in Jiangzhou on the internet, and then prepared to drive there.

And at this time, Han Zhong's phone call suddenly came.

"Han Zhong, what's wrong? What's the emergency?" Only then did Ji Feng realise that he had four or five missed calls on his mobile phone, all from Han Zhong, which made him wonder what was so urgent about Han Zhong, and he immediately picked up the phone.

"You've been talking to someone just now, so I tried a few more calls." Han Zhong explained, "So what, I was planning to go to Kepong for a trip, but Mr. Xiao didn't think it was right, so I asked you what you wanted to do."

"Go to Kepong?"

Ji Feng was stunned, "Did something happen over at Kepong?"

Han Zhong explained, "No, I just don't feel at ease, so I'm going over to take a look."

Ji Feng immediately understood what he meant and knew why Xiao Yuxuan had to stop him. After a moment of contemplation, Ji Feng said, "Han Zhong, you should not go over there personally, send someone else, the Tengfei Group needs you to sit down!"

Han Zhong couldn't help but say, "But if anything unexpected happens over there in Kepong"

"Business matters, then we will use business means to solve it!"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public. If there is a problem in which area, send someone from which department. If there is a problem with the official of Kepong, then contact the official of Jiangzhou directly and let the embassy or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs come out, there is no need for you to go personally!"

"What you said is fine, but it's"

"There is no but, you ah, the recent period of time should not go to Kepong, and, now is not the time to go!" Ji Feng said.

Han Zhong could not help but ask: "Not the time to go? What do you mean?"

He felt that Ji Feng's words were somewhat meaningful.

Ji Feng said, "Later!"

There were some things that there was no need to tell Han Zhong now, and there was a lot of information that was confidential and could not be divulged.

Han Zhong couldn't help but sigh, "Fine, you're the boss anyway. But I'm just worried, Kepong is not a small market, if this market can't be opened, then the whole Asian strategy will be a failure by half!"

"It will definitely be opened, don't worry!"

Ji Feng laughed: "3D TV is the first product of Tengfei Electric, if this still can't open the Kepong market, then there is not much point for you to go there. Even if you have to go, you have to send someone who is familiar with the situation in Jie Peng, wouldn't you be caught blind if you go?"

Hearing this, Han Zhong nodded silently, "Alright, then I'll listen to you!"

Ji Feng knew that he was a bit reluctant, so he couldn't help but laugh, "Han Zhong, don't rush now, there will definitely be opportunities for you to go later, moreover, there are quite a few opportunities!"

Han Zhong laughed, "Then I'll wait."

"Alright, that's it for now, I have things to do on my side, you've also worked hard, take a rest." Ji Feng smiled and hung up the phone.

"Ugh!"

Han Zhong shook his head and sighed, then stretched his hand to Xiao Yuxuan, "He doesn't agree."

Xiao Yuxuan laughed, "That's fine, let's talk about it later."

"That's all that can be done."

Han Zhong nodded and said, "I'll go back first then, there are still some more arrangements to be made over at the boundary canopy, I'll report back to you in time if anything happens!"

Then, Han Zhong went back.

When Han Zhong returned to his office, Wang Jun was waiting, and when he saw him return, he immediately asked, "Honey, how was it?"

"Not good, General Xiao didn't agree and didn't approve it." Han Zhong shook his head and said, "Also, in the company you have to call me Mr. Han, not husband."

"What's wrong, you're still not happy when I call you husband?" Wang Jun asked unhappily.

"It's not that I'm not happy about it, but it's a sensitive period right now, and Mr. Xiao is a bit displeased with me himself, so I have to pay attention to all aspects!" Han Zhong said helplessly.

Wang Jun immediately asked, "Xiao Yuxuan is unhappy with you?"

Han Zhong gave her a look and said, "Why do you look so happy? The boss is unhappy with me, I'm about to lose my position as general manager, and you're still happy?"

Wang Jun said, "I am not! I'm just surprised, didn't Xiao Yuxuan always trust you a lot? Ji Feng also trusts you a lot!"

Han Zhong shook his head and said, "Trust? That also depends on who it's for!"

Wang Jun immediately nodded and said, "That's right, no matter how good your relationship with Ji Feng is, it's not as good as Xiao Yuxuan's. Ji Feng must trust Xiao Yuxuan more than you. Mr. Han, it's great that you have this understanding, I used to be afraid that you would be foolish and just know how to work hard and be sold and still help count the money, now I'm relieved!"

Han Zhong glanced at her and smiled, "It's good that you're relieved."

Wang Jun smiled sweetly and went forward to take Han Zhong's arm, saying, "I'm concerned about you, I'm afraid you'll suffer."

Han Zhong smiled.

"By the way, I have a relative back home who works in technology, but recently lost his job, he knows our company has good benefits and wants to come in, can you help?" Wang Jun suddenly asked.

Campus Master Chapter 3002

"Learning technology?"

Han Zhong couldn't help but glance at Wang Jun at his words and asked, "Learning what kind of technology? And to enter Tengfei Electric?"

With a smile on her pretty face, Wang Jun nodded and said, "Yes, it's my aunt's kid, my cousin, who studied electronics technology and has been in the industry for many years, but recently their company's efficiency is not very good, so they tossed around and found me."

Han Zhong asked, "So you want him to join Tengfei Electric?"

Wang Jun shook his head and said, "Which is I want him to enter Tengfei Electric ah, but he wants to enter. You don't know how hot the sales of 3d TV sets are now, and our company already has good benefits, so I don't know how many people want to join our company"

Han Zhong nodded with a smile and said, "So that's how it is!"

"Yeah."

Jun Wang said, "Actually I know this might be difficult for you, and I didn't mean to cause you any trouble, but my cousin has approached me, and my aunt has also called me, so I just can't push it away"

Han Zhong smiled and nodded, "I understand, I understand it all."

Wang Jun took his arm and said with some embarrassment, "Actually, I also know that this will definitely make it difficult for you, because I heard that many executives in our company also want to introduce their relatives in, but they were all rejected by you, if you start this, then it will definitely have some impact on your prestige, but, I really can't help it, since I grew up my aunt has treated me very well, and"

"Let him come for an interview tomorrow!" Han Zhong said.

"What?"

Wang Jun was still thinking about what to say, and for a moment did not hear clearly what Han Zhong said.

Han Zhong said, "I said, let your cousin come to Tengfei Electric tomorrow for an interview, I will say hello to Mr. Li, if your cousin's skills really pass, then of course, no problem, now Tengfei Electric was ready to expand, is short of talent, anyway, recruiting others is also recruiting, then might as well recruit their own people!"

Wang Jun was overjoyed at his words, "Honey, that's very kind of you."

Han Zhong laughed, "You know I'm good, right? Then be good from now on!"

Wang Jun gave him a blank look and said, "Nasty, when have I not been nice?"

Han Zhong smiled and said, "Okay, now I'm going to start working, you help me organize the documents, yes, send this document to Mr. Xiao!"

Wang Jun nodded, took the document and sent it over to Xiao Yuxuan.

And then, Han Zhong picked up the phone on the table and dialed the number of Tengfei Electric's boss Li Xin, "General Li, this is Han Zhong is like this, tomorrow there will be someone to your company for an interview, later I will send you the details, this person, you have to personally take, just take it with you"

Hanging up the phone, Han Zhong sat in his chair in silence for a moment before he opened his computer and checked his email.

"Clang clang"

The phone on the desk suddenly rang, Han Zhong picked it up and picked it up, "This is Han Zhong."

"Mr. Han, there's a call coming in from Mr. Fujita of the Hishita Group."

"You tell him to call my office directly!" Han Zhong said. Fujita from the Hishita Group?

The call came in quickly, Fujita's Chinese was a bit stiff, "Hello Han-san, this is Fujita from the Hishita Group, please forgive me for intruding!"

Han Zhong smiled, "What can you tell me, Mr. Fujita?"

Han Zhong was already immune to the politeness of the Kepong people, and he knew very well that behind such elaborate courtesies, the Kepong people were actually hiding a wolf's heart.

I know that your company's 3d TV sets are being sold in Kepong, what I want to say is that we would like to establish a partnership with your company and build a factory in Kepong in the form of a joint venture, this would be quite beneficial to cost control, I wonder if Han Sang has this idea? "

Han Zhong just smiled when he heard this and said, "I am sorry, Mr. Fujita, we have no intention of a joint venture so far, and now that sales are already underway, there is no longer any need for a joint venture!"

"I don't think so!"

Fujita said, "If we build a factory in Kepong in a joint venture, we will have good control in the area of transportation costs and, moreover, it will be very beneficial for the people of Kepong to approve of the product."

Han Zhong immediately frowned at his words, "Mr. Fujita, are you trying to tell me that the people of Kepong will not approve of our products if we don't have a joint venture?"

Fujita immediately said, "Han-san you misunderstand, your company's products are excellent and the people do approve of them, it's just that, as you know, there is still a part of the people in Kepong that actually doesn't approve of Chinese products, moreover, the market in Kepong isn't that simple, there will be some people who don't like China and therefore don't like Chinese products!"

"What you mean, are those shameless bastards?" Han Zhong chuckled and said, "Thank you for your kind words, Mr. Fujita, but we didn't include those shameless bastards when we made our sales estimates at the time, and we didn't have much hope for that part of the market."

As soon as Han Zhong said that, he heard a bit of ragged breathing on the other end of the line, and it was clear that Han Zhong's ungracious name for one part of the Kepong people had irritated Fujita.

"Han-san, if we both cooperate, I believe your company's products will sell better!" Perhaps because he had been irritated by Han Zhong, Fujita said slowly after a while, but his tone was already a bit hard.

"I'm sorry, we have no idea of a joint venture for the time being." Han Zhong was not going to talk nonsense to him and said directly.

"Well, if Han-san changes his mind, please contact me!" Fujita said.

"No problem!"

Han Zhong smiled, "If one day we have an idea for a joint venture, we will definitely contact you!"

Fujita didn't say anything else, just hung up politely.

Han Zhong couldn't help but shake his head, "Inexplicable!" However, he was a little chilled inside at such politeness from the Kepong man, he could be sure that his words had irritated Fujita just now, but the other party could still politely end the call.

Although such excessive and elaborate courtesies were undesirable, it was likely that such a first-time contact with a Kepongese would have been deceptive. Moreover, the deep sophistication that the Kepong people hid behind such exaggerated manners also sent chills down Han Zhong's back.

When dealing with such people, one really had to be careful and careful again!

After pondering for a while, Han Zhong did not understand the intention of Fujita's call to him.

What's more, Han Zhong knew how bad the relationship between the Lingxia Group and Ji Feng was!

Therefore, there was no need for the Ringshita Group to enter into a joint venture with the Tengfei Group, and this call from Fujita was really strange.

Since he couldn't get through it, Han Zhong naturally wouldn't risk spilling the beans, he just put it in the back of his mind, but didn't care too much about it, now his attention was on the sales of 3d TV sets.

The day passed quickly, but at the end of the day Han Zhong did not go back, not only him, the senior management of the Tengfei Group, also did not go back, but took the initiative to stay and work overtime.

There wasn't really much work, the main reason they stayed was because they wanted to wait for the feedback on the sales information from Kerry and KAI Peng.

"It's out!"

It was after 9pm when Han Zhong received a call from Li Xin, on the phone, Li Xin was very excited: "Mr. Han, the sales figures are out, big sales!"

"Good!"

These were the two words Han Zhong was waiting for, a big sale! This means that Kerry and KAI Peng's sales results are at least not bad, and that's enough!

Li Xin said, "The sales situation in the market is better than we expected, especially in Kepong, the sales far exceeded our estimation, I've already had someone send the specific statement to Mr. Xiao!"

"Oh?"

Han Zhong smiled but couldn't help but be a little surprised, "The sales in Kepong are a little better?"

Li Xin nodded and said, "Yes, the sales in Jie Peng are better, our branch's information investigation team will not return until three days later, but according to their report on the phone, the people in Jie Peng are extraordinarily fond of the 3D TV sets, and there is also a phenomenon of emptying the goods in one directly-managed shop, if not for the temporary transfer of goods, that directly-managed shop will have the embarrassing situation of having no goods to sell! The situation!"

Li Xin's words really made Han Zhong extremely surprised, he originally thought that there was a part of the population in Kepong that was hostile to the Chinese, so perhaps the situation of Kerry would be much better than that of Kepong, but he did not expect that it would sell better over there instead!

"What about the San Kingdom and the Southern Ocean?" Han Zhong asked in a hurry.

"The results haven't come out yet, but they will definitely come out tomorrow at the latest at work!" Li Xin said, "The staff over there are already working very hard too, so I can't really rush them!"

"Don't rush, I can already sleep soundly just with the information from Kerry and Boundary Pong!" Han Zhong laughed, "General Li, you've worked hard too, go back and rest early."

Li Xin was calling from the office phone, obviously people were still working overtime.

After hanging up the phone, Han Zhong hurriedly went to Xiao Yuxuan's office, 3D TV sets sold well in Kerry and Kepong, the Asian market was half successful, and Han Zhong could not wait to see the specific sales volume!

At this moment, Xiao Yuxuan was seriously looking at the report in her hand, her face couldn't help but wear a joyful expression, this report wrote in detail the sales results of Tengfei Electric in Kui Peng and Kerry.

"General Xiao!"

Han Zhong walked over with big strides, his face beaming with joy, "We've succeeded!"

Xiao Yuxuan nodded and handed the statement to Han Zhong, saying, "Take a look, this is what Mr Li from Tengfei Electric has just sent, our strategy has been successful, the sales of the directly operated shops are amazingly large!

Campus Master Chapter 3003

The Kerry market is a big seller, the Kepong market is a big seller!

The Russian market, too!

It was as if a hurricane had passed through the country, and the 3D TV sets of Tengfei Electric were almost irresistible, sweeping through half of Asia!

The astonishing sales not only made other home appliance companies in China look at it sideways, but even the home appliance giants in other countries around the world could not help but be horrified!

The charm of 3d TV sets was simply irresistible, apart from those highly technological charming electronic products, there had never been any product that could go all the way like 3d TV sets, receiving such a warm welcome from consumers!

When Ji Feng received the phone call from Xiao Yuxuan, he couldn't help but smile.

The 3d television set really lived up to the expectations of the public, hard to open up the sales road in all sides of the siege, when Han Zhong insisted on the establishment of direct shops in Asian countries, with shopping malls and electrical appliances sellers at the same time, has now also seen the effect, especially Kerry and KAI Peng's Tengfei electrical appliances direct shops, although the investment is huge, but the effect is quite good.

According to statistics, sales in the directly-managed shops alone account for a large portion of the total sales volume!

When Xiao Yuxuan went home to talk about this, she couldn't help but feel: "Han Zhong is very discerning, when he first set up the directly-managed shops, some of the executives in the company felt that it was not necessary to set up directly-managed shops, because at that time the TV sets had not yet been officially put on sale, and even if they were put on sale, such large appliances as TV sets were not suitable for direct operation. ”

Ji Feng asked, “Oh? Why?”

Xiao Yuxuan said, “Because the investment to set up a direct shop is huge, which is not very profitable compared to what a direct shop can do. Because TV sets are different from other electronic products, although the updates are not too slow, consumers do not change their TV sets frequently, so direct shops actually end up being easy to turn into experience shops instead!”

TVs are special commodities, unlike smartphones which have a short lifespan of just a few years, and are not essential items in people’s lives, especially with the increasing popularity of internet terminals, TV sales are declining year on year.

There is a saying in China that mobile phones are now used as computers, computers as televisions and televisions as ornaments!

Although this saying is somewhat biased, it does explain to a certain extent the shrinking market for television sets.

Even for some very famous TV programmes, sometimes the practitioners would lament that it was getting harder and harder to do the job of a TV station nowadays.

“However, Han Zhong was extremely insistent at that time, and at that time, I chose to support Han Zhong considering that it was only the stage of creating a brand now, and although the investment in direct shops was huge, it was good for building up a brand image, which was also considered a kind of advertisement.”

Xiao Yuxuan said, “But I didn’t expect that the directly-managed shops would play such a big role in this sale! It shows that Han Zhong’s vision was extremely correct!”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “Han Zhong’s eyes are very open, which is very directly related to his exposure to business operations since he was a child, but the more this is the case, the easier it is often to make mistakes, the key will depend on one's analytical ability, in this regard, Han Zhong has done a very good job indeed."

Han Zhong's ability, in this marketing exercise, has been confirmed once again.

"However, the directly-managed shops established in Kerry have had a far lower effect than the directly-managed shops in Kailipong." Xiao Yuxuan said.

"Why?" Ji Feng asked.

"The people of Kerry are too united!" Xiao Yuxuan said, "According to the feedback from the survey, many Kerry people, even though they are fond of our 3d TV sets, eventually choose Kerry's own brands such as Four Star! Moreover, the people in charge of the survey asked several consumers who knew that many of the TVs were made in factories in China, but still chose to support their home country's brands!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be silent for a moment before saying, "The Kree, indeed, are very united, and this virtue of theirs is really something that many countries should learn from!"

The Kree people's patriotism is most directly reflected in their solidarity and support for their own goods, which is well known throughout the world.

For example, during the economic crisis, when Kerry looked like it would not be able to support itself, the patriotic fervour of Kerry burst out and almost every household lined up to donate money to the country, women gave out their gold and silver jewellery, while men received as little pay as possible and did everything they could to save for the country, and in the end, Kerry survived the economic crisis!

For example, the most common thing you see on the streets of Kerry is their own cars, and many celebrities are calling on the public to support national products, even when they go abroad, they don't forget to sell their own kimchi!

The patriotic fervour of the Kerry people is evident!

This is precisely why, when Canon, the undisputed leader of the camera industry, entered the Kerry market, even though everyone knew that the quality of this brand's cameras and their photographic effects were indeed better and more professional than other brands, many Kerry people still chose the domestic brands.

Even now, this camera industry leader is still being suppressed in the Kerry market by Kerry's own brands, and just can't do with Kerry's national products!

This is not because the quality is not good, but because the people of Kerry are crazy about supporting national products!

Now, it's the turn of Tengfei Electric's 3D TV sets!

Xiao Yuxuan said, "That's because there are no domestic products in Kerry that can match us, otherwise, our 3d TV sets would never sell that much in Kerry!"

Ji Feng laughed: "Then always stay ahead, so that Kerry people will always have to consider our products as one of the alternatives, and gradually become the first choice again!"

Xiao Yuxuan nodded and said, "That's also the group's plan!"

"What about the Kepong side?!" Ji Feng asked, Kerry's situation was just like that, so he was more concerned about the Kepong market, because the sales of Kepong were really a bit out of his expectation.

"The Kepong market is very hot, which made us all not expect that the people of Kepong would like our 3d TV sets so much!"

Xiao Yuxuan said, "It was only after investigation that we found out that the young people in Kepong's love for electronic products can simply be described as crazy, and the situation of direct shops selling out of stock is only seen in Kepong! It's no wonder that when the owner of Qiao Gang went to Kepong, he was frantically surrounded by fans of the fruit phone, and there were even cases of fans fainting from excitement!"

Ji Feng slowly nodded and said, "It seems that we don't know the situation abroad carefully enough! The company is growing too fast, all aspects need to be slowly perfected up!"

In his heart, he was thinking that the reason why 3d TV sets are able to sell so well in Kepong is, I'm afraid, not only because Kepong people like high-tech electronic products, at the same time, that the hot adult `s market, if viewed with 3d TV sets

The next day, Asia is the scope of the sale of the region will be the information back, Tengfei electrical 3d TV set achieved amazing results.

This report card shocked the entire television industry, causing a cry of alarm – the wolf is coming!

But we all understand that the rise of Tengfei Electric in the world has been almost unstoppable, if we say that before the launch of the tactics, outright refusal of Tengfei Electric's products into the country, but now

The company's phone number is almost bursting at the seams with people who want to work for the company, those who want to cooperate, and those who want to ask about the situation, making Xiao Yuxuan and Han Zhong almost too busy to do anything!

While at this time, Ji Feng also started to do his business.

Ji Feng held the phone, thought about it, and put it down again.

He intended to try the number that spoke to Rong Suyan, originally he intended to try it directly with his own phone, although this is behind Rong Suyan's back to investigate her, but Ji Feng is asking for a clear conscience, the purpose is only to investigate clearly, hoping to solve Rong Suyan's trouble secretly, even if Rong Suyan knows it later, it is nothing.

However, Ji Feng still dismissed this idea after thinking about it, not that he was afraid that Rong Suyan would be angry if she found out, he didn't even consider this issue. The point is, if the owner of this strange number harbors malice towards Rong Suyan, or is someone with some energy, then it is better for Ji Feng to hide behind it for the time being!

This way, not only would he be able to take the initiative and move in and out with ease, but also, he could see things from a spectator's point of view.

Having made up his mind, Ji Feng was ready to find a public phone booth to dial this number, but this kind of place was actually not very easy to find, because public phone booths were basically on the street side, and there were too many murmurs around, so the voice changer might not be able to work that well.

"Young Ji, why don't you simply use my mobile phone!" Bai Zhu said, "My mobile phone is encrypted, the other party can't find out!"

"No need!"

Ji Feng shook his head, although Bai Zhu's phone was encrypted, it was actually just ordinary encryption, compared to Bai Zhu's phone, Ji Feng's own phone encryption was more complicated.

However, Ji Feng did not want to use it easily, although he did not know who the other party was, but standing in the dark was the best way.

"Then buy another card!" Bai Zhu suggested.

"That's the only way to go!"

Ji Feng nodded and asked Bai Zhu to purchase a phone card at a small shop, then drove the car farther away, replaced the phone card and prepared the voice changer as he began to dial the number.

When the phone dialed, Ji Feng immediately stared and held his breath, waiting for the other party to pick up.

However, the phone rang several times in a row and the other party did not move, but Ji Feng was not the least bit anxious, he just held the phone and waited quietly.

“Buzz~”

The phone suddenly vibrated, a brilliant light flashed in Ji Feng’s eyes, and it was connected!

He slowly put the voice changer to his mouth and said, “Hello.

Campus Master Chapter 3004

“Buzz~”

The phone suddenly vibrated, a brilliant light flashed in Ji Feng’s eyes, and he picked up!

He slowly put the voice changer to his mouth and said, “Hello.”

This voice changer Ji Feng had tried repeatedly before, and his voice now became a husky voice that sounded somewhat like a middle-aged male.

There was only the sound of breathing on the other end of the phone, but no one answered back. Ji Feng couldn’t help but frown, it seemed that the other party still had a certain sense of anti-surveillance.

After waiting for a moment, there was still no one on the other end of the phone to speak.

Ji Feng knew that he could not delay any longer, otherwise the other party would definitely be alerted, so he immediately opened the door and asked, “What are you doing in Jiangzhou?”

The breathing on the other end of the phone immediately paused, and when Ji Feng heard it, he said in his heart, “Something’s up!

“Don’t think that no one knows about the things you’ve done, there’s an old saying, if you want people to know, you can’t do it unless you do it yourself!” Ji Feng sneered, “You think it’s alright just because you don’t say anything?!”

Bai Zhu next to him could not help but be a little nervous, Ji Feng was swindling the other party so much, if he was not right, he might cause the other party to be alerted.

However, Ji Feng was not nervous at all, both Bai Zhu's findings and Wang Xin's tracing proved that this person was in Jiangzhou, because every time the other party was calling, the signal tower he used was in downtown Jiangzhou!

Therefore, Ji Feng was confident that he could swindle the other party into talking!

"Who are you?" The person on the other end of the phone finally spoke, however, as soon as Ji Feng heard this voice, his eyebrows abruptly furrowed and a brilliant light flashed in his eyes.

He would never forget this voice no matter what.

Wu Zhiyong!

Just in an instant Ji Feng could be sure that this voice on the phone was Wu Zhiyong's!

Ji Feng had never thought in any way that the owner of that mysterious number was actually Wu Zhiyong, didn't this mean that the person who had been in contact with Rong Suyan was him? So, was it possible to think that Rong Suyan hadn't broken off contact with Wu Zhiyong all along?

At this moment, Ji Feng's mind was turning rapidly, and countless thoughts and speculations flashed through his mind, and he was surprised.

He really did not expect that this phone number was actually Wu Zhiyong's!

However, Ji Feng had already developed a stable character, so even though he was surprised, his emotions didn't fluctuate in the slightest, instead he thought of how to make use of this opportunity!

So Ji Feng immediately said, “Wu Zhiyong, you came to Jiangzhou, what kind of storm do you want to raise?!”

“Who the hell are you?!”

At the other end of the phone, Wu Zhiyong’s voice lowered, with some surprise hidden in it, as if he didn’t expect someone to actually call him directly on his mobile phone and be able to call out his name in one breath!

But apart from surprise, there was also a hint of anger in Wu Zhiyong’s voice.

“Being revealed as a person, this makes you ashamed and angry?”

Ji Feng sneered darkly and said, “It doesn’t matter who I am, what matters is that you shouldn’t appear in Jiangzhou, I’m afraid?”

Wu Zhiyong on the other end of the phone said in a cold voice, “Please announce yourself! If you don’t have anything to do, I don’t have that much time to waste with you!”

Ji Feng said in a cold voice: “Wu Zhiyong, if you walk too much at night, you will meet a ghost!”

“I don’t know what to do!”

Wu Zhiyong coldly snorted and hung up the phone straight away.

Ji Feng slowly put down the voice changer and held the phone, his eyes cold and frightening!

It was actually Wu Zhiyong!

Ji Feng now finally understood why Rong Suyan was so excited when she received the call, it turned out that the person who contacted her was actually the youngest of the Wu family, Wu Zhiyong!

Ji Feng knew very well what the word Wu Zhiyong meant to Rong Suyan, not only because Wu Zhiyong was the eldest grandson of the Wu family, but more importantly, Wu Zhiyong was also Rong Suyan's former boyfriend, Wu Zhihe's elder brother!

Either one of these identities would definitely cause Rong Suyan an incomparable headache for her!

But was Rong Suyan's excitement really just because of this?

Ji Feng held the phone, his brows slowly furrowed, revealing a thoughtful expression.

What was the relationship between Wu Zhiyong and Rong Suyan, this could not help but make Ji Feng think deeply, because the connection between Rong Suyan and the Wu family was too deep before, moreover, the kind of reaction Rong Suyan had when she was on the phone was really a little too excited.

This made Ji Feng involuntarily recall that Rong Peng was so quick to agree to his proposal to cooperate, and even took out his entire family fortune to take a stake in the subsidiary being built by the Tengfei Group, and only took such a small share.

But if you think about the fact that Rong Peng was willing to take out his entire family fortune, and if you think about the fact that Ji Feng had repeatedly asked Rong Peng to come out but was rejected by him, but now he suddenly agreed to do so, are these strange practices and reactions indirectly indicating something?

"Young Ji, how is it?"

Bai Zhu carefully opened her mouth and asked, Ji Feng's demeanor made her realize that things might not be too good.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "It's fine, just a little accident, the owner of that phone number is, surprisingly, Wu Zhiyong!"

Bai Zhu was stunned, “Wu Zhiyong?!”

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, “Yes. This world is really too small, it’s actually him!”

Who would have thought that the mysterious number that he had managed to secretly investigate before was actually Wu Zhiyong’s, which was completely unexpected and made Ji Feng very surprised.

Bai Zhu asked, “Then did he recognize you?”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “No. But I did recognize him!”

The moment he heard Wu Zhiyong’s voice, Ji Feng immediately recognised that it was Wu Zhiyong’s voice, and most importantly, he understood from that the fact that Wu Zhiyong and the Rong family still had a connection.

“Let’s go, let’s go home!” Ji Feng suddenly said.

“Yes!”

Bai Zhu immediately responded and slowly drove the car towards home.

All along the way, Ji Feng didn’t speak again, but in his heart he was secretly mulling over everything he had discovered today, he vaguely had a strange feeling, but what exactly it was, he couldn’t say.

It’s as if

I was fooled, and there was some inexplicable anger and irritation in my heart. And the person who tricked him was the Rong family!

“They, what the hell is this going to be?!”

“Young Ji, there seems to be a car following us behind!” Bai Zhu suddenly said, her voice pulling Ji Feng’s thoughts back to reality.

“Following us?!” Ji Feng couldn’t help but sneer at his words, “This is really all kinds of bulls and snakes coming out!”

“Should we get rid of them?!” Bai Zhu asked.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “No need, let the other side follow, I’d like to see what they’re up to.”

Bai Zhu then understood that young Ji was going fishing. So, she slowed the car down a bit so that it would be easier for the other party to follow. Of course, she wouldn’t slow down too much, as that would only make the other party lose him, and then it would be impossible to fish.

For the rest of the journey, Ji Feng began to deliberately pay attention to the car that was following behind him. It was a silver and white car, the body looked a bit worn, very ordinary in the rolling traffic, and no one would be able to recognise it when it was thrown onto the street.

“Bai Zhu, it seems that you have really practiced, your eyesight is quite poisonous!” Ji Feng glanced sideways at the back and couldn’t help but laugh.

Bai Zhu smiled, “Otherwise, I wouldn’t have spotted a car following so quickly.”

Ji Feng smiled and suddenly said, “Slow the car down a bit more so that the other side can follow, I want to see who is following us!”

Bai Zhu nodded silently and gently lifted the accelerator, the car slowed down, the white car behind gradually followed, since it was following, the other party could not do too obvious, if Ji Feng’s car was fast the other party also followed fast, Ji Feng’s car slowed down the other party also followed slow, then even a fool would know that the other party was following.

Therefore, when Bai Zhu suddenly slowed down the car, the car behind was not good enough to continue to keep the distance, so it had to slowly overtake.

Ji Feng quietly looked out of the window, and when the two cars were driving side by side, Ji Feng turned his head to look at that car, but found that there were only two people in that white car, and one of them was looking at his car with binoculars.

“Humph!”

Ji Feng secretly snorted coldly, this was really unexpected, he had only just come out and someone was actually following him!

“Buzz~!”

That car was side by side with Ji Feng’s car for just a moment before it accelerated with a jerk, the engine let out a roar, and, overtook.

Bai Zhu immediately asked, “Young Ji, shall we chase after it?”

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, “No chase!”

“But if we don’t chase, the other side will run far away.” Bai Zhu hurriedly said.

“If they are really following us, then they must not be able to run far!” Ji Feng said with a cold smile, “Unless, they have another purpose, or they aren’t following us at all!”

Because he wasn’t paying attention to the outside earlier, his mind was just thinking about Wu Zhiyong and Rong Suyan and the Rong family, so he didn’t notice if this car was following him or not. But if it was, the other party must have an agenda, then it would definitely come back to approach him again, or follow him again.

“Pay attention to the cars around and behind you and see if there are any rotating followers!” Ji Feng reminded, then he slowly closed his eyes and began to close them to rest.

Bai Zhu followed Ji Feng’s order and kept the car at an even speed, keeping her eyes vigilantly watching the surroundings to find out if there were any other cars following. In the end, she did not find any.

Just like that, the two of them made their way to the villa area, and Bai Zhu steered extremely skillfully and started to turn into the gate.

“Buzz-!”

However, just then, a low engine roar suddenly came, while Ji Feng could faintly feel the ground and the car vibrating even while sitting inside the car.

He immediately turned his head to look, only to see an incomparably tall big truck crashing over from the opposite side.

Bai Zhu’s face suddenly changed dramatically, it was too close!

Campus Master Chapter 3005

“Hum-!”

However, just at this moment, a low engine roar suddenly came, while Ji Feng could vaguely feel the ground and the car shaking even when he was sitting inside the car.

He immediately turned his head to look, only to see an incomparably tall big truck crashing over from the opposite side.

Bai Zhu’s face suddenly changed dramatically, it was too close!

“Be careful!”

Ji Feng’s reaction was swift to the extreme, as soon as he saw the big truck, he steeply shouted, “Jump out of the car

Boom~!

Ji Feng’s words hadn’t even fallen when the big truck crashed over!

Just at this instant, Ji Feng had already grabbed Bai Zhu’s arm, while he bowed his waist, and an incomparably powerful force suddenly erupted from his leg, kicking viciously at the door of the car.

“Boom!” With a loud bang, the car door was kicked up a large chunk, but the latch on the door was incomparably strong, and the door did not open.

At this time, the big truck had already crashed into the BMW X6, and Ji Feng and Bai Zhu only felt their bodies shake violently at the same time, and then a huge force came over violently, and even Ji Feng was upended by this huge force!

“Bai Zhu!”

Even at such a crisis point, Ji Feng still shouted, his heart hanging on Bai Zhu.

The huge impact caused the airbags in the front row to explode, and the huge impact made her dizzy and almost faint.

“SQUEAK—!”

The big truck did not stop after hitting the BMW x6, even if it was just the weight and inertia of the big truck itself, it was not that easy to stop, especially at such a fast speed, it would be even more impossible to stop, only to see the cars sliding sharply after the collision, sliding forward for a distance of several dozen meters before they came to a stop.

When the two cars came to a halt, the vehicle that Ji Feng was riding in looked like a pile of scrap metal from afar, with the entire front end stuck under the truck, and a strong pungent smell emanated from the scene, from the tyres rubbing violently against the ground, as well as the pungent smell from the smoke coming from the car.

The sound of the violent crash stunned the people around, especially the security guards at the entrance of the community, who were dumbfounded and stared dumbfounded at the scene of the crash, a crash at such a distance they had almost never seen before!

“..... Holy crap!”

Someone couldn't help but exclaim.

“This, this”

“The crash killed a man! Such a violent impact, the person must have died!”

“Hurry up and call the police!”

The violent crash made those security guards and people around look dumbfounded and scared at the same time, this kind of tragic car accident, in the city road may not have a few months one, only heard in the past on the highway often have the car to scrap, but this scene happened right in front of the eyes, let the surrounding people are really frightened.

Everyone understood that the people in the SUV would definitely not survive such a tragic crash, which made a lot of timid people couldn't help but feel weak in the legs.

“Haha! Nice collision!”

Meanwhile, at the side of a road near the villa area, a black car was parked, two people were sitting in the car, one of them was looking in the direction of the villa area with binoculars, when he saw the tragic crash, one of them couldn't help but laugh haha.

“Tsk, that’s a crash that’s pulverised!”

“You’re playing with fire!”

Another person, however, could not help but feel a little worried and frowned, “With Ji Feng’s status, now that he’s been crushed to death, then the Ji family will definitely not rest in peace next, and if they are found out, then

The man from before waved his hand full of concern and said, “Don’t worry, it won’t be found out, I’ve made all the arrangements, that truck driver won’t talk! Even if the Ji family has great ability, they won’t find out anything from a dead person’s body! This time, Ji Feng will die for nothing!”

The other man was silent, but in his heart, he couldn’t help but feel vaguely worried. The energy of a top-level magnate family like the Ji Family was something that outsiders couldn’t imagine, not to mention that when they were fighting with other factions, they seemed to be struggling a bit, but in reality, that was just because of the rules and some means couldn’t be used.

Moreover, those factions that fought with the Ji family were also very powerful, and some of them were even not weaker than the Ji family.

But now the situation is completely different, Ji Feng is dead, this is a huge matter, the Ji family is afraid that under the rage of all the means to use, then, even the Ji family is at the same level of the great clan will have to avoid its edge!

But when he thought of the identity of the man in front of him, the other man could not help but shake his head helplessly, some words could be said once, but if they were said too often, they would be annoying.

But he couldn’t help but be a little worried, maybe this time it would lead to a fire!

“Look, the car is smoking, it’s about to burst into flames!” The man with the binoculars said with a laugh, “Is it going to explode? I’ve never really seen a car crash and explode before, it must be spectacular!”

The other man rushed to look, but because he was far away, he could only see smoke coming out of the front, but couldn't see whether it was dust and smoke from the impact, or smoke from the burning vehicle!

"Let's go, there's bound to be police coming here if something happens, don't let anyone notice!"

"Go? I'm still waiting to see a good show, how can I leave? To be able to see Ji Feng's corpse, this can wake up laughing even in my dreams!"

"....."

The other man could only shake his head helplessly.

.....

"Bai Zhu! Bai Zhu!"

In the SUV that had been completely scrapped by the collision, Ji Feng was stuck in the seat, but one of his hands was still holding onto Bai Zhu, even though the impact was as violent as it was just now, he didn't let go of his hand.

But when the impact stopped and both cars stopped swaying, Ji Feng couldn't help but feel a little anxious, because he felt Bai Zhu's breathing was a little shortness, as if she was injured.

"Ji Shao"

Bai Zhu's voice was very faint, and there was a hint of pain in her voice.

Ji Feng immediately felt a rush in his heart, "Bai Zhu, how are you?"

The impact that Bai Zhu, who was sitting in the driver's seat, endured under that violent impact just now was naturally imaginable, which made Ji Feng extremely worried.

Bai Zhu said with some difficulty, "Ji Shao I'm fine!"

The moment Ji Feng heard this, he knew that Bai Zhu was not alright at all, she must have been injured. In an emergency, Ji Feng immediately activated his bio-current at full power, his penetrating eyes immediately opened, his gaze directly penetrated the seat in front of him, and when he looked at it, he could not help but be shocked.

He saw that Bai Zhu was stuck diagonally on the driver's seat, the cab in front of her was deformed by the impact, her legs were squeezed dead underneath, her expression was in some pain, obviously she was injured.

"Grass!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but roar in anger, as he pushed against the seat in front of him, curled his legs up and put his knees against it, roaring low as a huge force suddenly erupted from his legs.

"Crunch!"

Under Ji Feng's huge force, the seat in front of him was actually hardened a bit, and Ji Feng immediately had more room to move around.

He exerted his bio-current with all his might and his body exploded with great strength, using his feet instead to stomp the seat in front of him away as hard as he could, while grabbing the white pearl with one hand and buckling the backrest of the driver's seat with the other, he started to exert his strength.

"Look, that car is moving?" The people outside were shocked to find that the SUV, which had been scrapped by the collision, was halfway under the truck, but at that moment, the body was moving!

"It's really moving!"

Some people almost thought they had lost their eyesight and rubbed their eyes vigorously to find that the buggy was really moving and was constantly making metal scraping sounds, even accompanied by some crunching and breaking sounds.

Could it be that someone was still alive after such a violent impact?

“Boom!”

Even though the SUV had been hit, the metal latch on the door was not so easy to kick open. The huge force of his kick broke it!

However, at this moment, Ji Feng did not have any joy of being saved, the moment he kicked open the door, he smelled a smell of something burning, and then looked outside, there was actually burning smoke floating in

The car was going up in flames!

The discovery that the huge impact had hit the off-road vehicle at some point and had caused it to spontaneously combust, gave Ji Feng a shock.

Without saying a word, he immediately frantically kicked the passenger seat's backrest, “Bang Bang Bang!”

He kicked seven or eight feet in a row, bending the backrest forward, before he explored his body and passed his hands under Bai Zhu's armpits, holding her upper body.

At this moment Ji Feng really hated the electrically adjustable seat, which was not working at all at the moment, so he couldn't help but grunt angrily, slanting his body with one foot on the steering wheel, leaning his shoulder on the backrest of the driver's seat, and starting to make a mad effort: “Roar!”

He roared, his whole body almost bursting out at this moment, an incomparably terrifyingly huge force that instantly squeezed that seat with a clicking sound, the sound made by the slot being forced to slide.

The driver's seat finally slid back a little, Bai Zhu's legs had room to move, and Ji Feng put his hands on it, slowly holding her and pulling her outwards.

"Hiss...!"

Bai Zhu suddenly sucked in a breath of cold air, but the next moment she gritted her silver teeth and didn't say a word.

Ji Feng immediately asked, "What's wrong, did you touch an injury?"

"..... I'm fine!" Bai Zhu said through clenched teeth.

"Bear with it, we have to get out, this car is burning, it's likely to explode!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice, "I'll shout one, two, three, you cooperate with me to make the power!"

"Mm!" Bai Zhu nodded her head.

"One, two, three!" Ji Feng shouted, Bai Zhu supported with both hands and cooperated with Ji Feng's force, finally, her legs were slowly pulled out.

One inch

Campus Master Chapter 3006

In the car, Ji Feng was holding his breath and was carefully dragging Bai Zhu out, he had to use his maximum strength but also ensure that he could not hurt Bai Zhu, it was really difficult to grasp the degree in between, fortunately at this time Ji Feng was at full power of bio-current, he could clearly see the position of Bai Zhu's two legs.

Bai Zhu's feet and calves were squeezed by the bumps under the seat and steering wheel, even though Ji Feng had already opened some gaps against them, it was impossible to pull Bai Zhu's legs out at once, he could only do it slowly!

“Mmm!”

Bai Zhu suddenly let out a muffled cry.

Ji Feng’s forehead was sweating a little, “Bai Zhu, bear with it, it’s almost done!”

He could clearly see that Bai Zhu’s left calf was showing an abnormal bend, obviously it had been fractured, and even the slightest movement would cause a heart-breaking pain.

“I’m fine!”

Bai Zhu clenched her silver teeth, she had suffered many injuries when she was an assassin before, a fracture was not something that would kill her, she was able to hold on.

Ji Feng nodded and took a deep breath, one leg knelt on the back seat, while the other foot was against the gear handle, inch by inch, he dragged Bai Zhu outwards.

“Miso~”

Suddenly, Ji Feng’s hand was light and Bai Zhu was dragged out. Without saying a word, he held Bai Zhu and bowed his waist and started to back out quickly, because the space inside the car was limited, so Ji Feng relied entirely on his knees to move, but his speed was incredibly fast, and he soon carried Bai Zhu out, then backed up sharply and ran frantically towards the security room.

“It’s out, it’s out!”

“Hurry up and call an ambulance”

Those surrounding security guards and passers-by were all astonished, they didn't expect to be able to see anyone else coming out of the SUV, they all thought before that the people in the car must have all died, and they must have died horribly, but now they saw Ji Feng hugging Bai Zhu and running out in a hurry, this made them unable not to be surprised.

However, in the next moment, something even more surprising happened – the young man didn't go anywhere with the woman in his arms, but ran directly towards the security booth, which was empty at the moment.

The young man then put the woman down and locked the security booth from the outside. Several security guards were just about to stop them when they saw the young man suddenly rush towards the scene of the crash.

The next moment, the young man jumped on the door of the open car with a single arrow step, and at the same time grabbed the driver inside, and then jumped down from the car again.

This series of movements was so fast that people couldn't help but be dazzled. If they didn't see it with their own eyes, they would have thought it was a movie!

However, at this time, the truck driver was also full of blood, because there is no safety device on the truck, especially this kind of dump truck, there is no safety protection at all, this driver was not lightly impacted.

However, Ji Feng's eyes were not the least bit compassionate, instead they were filled with coldness as he placed that seemed on the ground, grabbed the other party's wrist and snapped it with his backhand.

"Ka-ching!"

"Wha—"

The driver's eyes opened abruptly, his body shook twice, the stimulation of intense pain made him wake up, but because of the excessive injuries, it was not even the strength to scream out.

The cold light in Ji Feng's eyes was bitterly cold, but he still took out a bottle of special effects current from his pocket, poured out two capsules and fed them to the driver, and then he immediately asked coldly, "Say? Who told you to come and kill me? If you tell, you will die alone, if you don't, your family will all suffer with you!"

This driver would not survive!

Ji Feng's gaze passed through his body, and he could see that a broken rib had already been inserted into the internal organs of this driver, and at this moment, this man's body was already bleeding profusely, so he simply could not wait until the special effect current took effect to immediately conduct an interrogation, and even, there was no time to even urge the bio-current to simulate into neurotoxin.

"Say!"

Ji Feng coldly shouted, "I can find out your identity information at any time, and when the time comes, your family will definitely follow you down! Say!"

The driver was extremely weak and opened his mouth for half a day before spitting out broken words, "Yes, it's Wu"

"Who is it!"

Ji Feng looked cold, his face sunk like water, and coldly shouted.

The driver's lips trembled a few times, wanting to speak but no longer capable of doing so, suddenly his eyes widened, his body trembled a few times, a strange sound came out of his throat, then his body went limp and he lay on the ground without a sound.

"Grass!"

Ji Feng stood up and heavily kicked the driver's body, surprisingly, the driver was kicked out sideways, banged on the hub of the truck and bounced back to the ground, but the driver was motionless, at this time he had no vital signs!

Ji Feng's expression was frighteningly cold, and his eyes were filled with murderous intent!

This was murder!

He was absolutely sure that the car accident just now was 100% murder! The reason was that, not to mention that there was no construction work going on in the vicinity of the villa area, the dump truck should not be here, even if it was just passing by, but in that situation just now, the other party did not slow down at all, instead, at the moment when it was about to hit, the dump truck was still accelerating, based on this point alone, Ji Feng was enough to conclude that the truck driver intended to murder!

Not to mention, whether there were any braking marks at the scene!

He jumped on the cab of the truck again and took a glance, a cold light flashed in his eyes, then jumped down and ran back quickly, while shouting, "Stay away, it might explode!"

The people who were watching were not close to the car, but if the car exploded, this distance would not be safe. When those people saw that Ji Feng had run away and said it was going to explode, they were all scared and hurriedly backed up to find a safe place, but they were not willing to leave and stayed to watch the fun.

Ji Feng did not have the time to care if those people were looking for death themselves, he hurriedly ran towards the security booth, but his eyes were incomparably cold and his face was as deep as water.

"Boom~!"

The car exploded!

Ji Feng, who was running, could clearly feel a wave of heat hitting him, but the next moment he kicked open the door of the security booth and rushed in, then quickly closed the door behind him.

It was only until this time that he saw that the truck was actually burning up a big fire, and it was actually the truck that had just exploded, except that the fire was spreading rapidly towards his BMW x6, and soon surrounded the car as well.

“Boom!” With a loud bang, the truck’s huge fuel tank erupted into fierce flames, engulfing Ji Feng’s car in one go.

“Boom boom!”

Both cars blew up!

And the corpse of that driver next to the truck was also engulfed in flames, and after the intense flames, the corpse had been thrown far away.

After Ji Feng helped Bai Zhu to sit on a chair, he stood in front of the glass window of the security booth and watched all this, his face expressionless and a murderous look in his eyes.

“Young Ji! Be careful!” Bai Zhu warned in a frightened voice.

“I’m fine!” Ji Feng slowly shook his head and said in a deep voice, “This is someone trying to silence him!”

In the cab of the truck, Ji Feng saw the steering wheel lock right in front of the driver’s seat, which was covered in blood, and thought that the driver had died after his body hit that after the crash.

However, the front of the truck collided with his SUV, or his car burned first, and as a result, his car had not exploded yet, but the fuel tank located in the middle of the truck’s weighing body unexpectedly exploded, which was very strange.

From all indications, it was clearly a man-made crash engineered by someone, and, moreover, someone who wanted to silence him after the crash!

The truck driver, obviously, was the one to be silenced!

“How ruthless!”

Ji Feng sneered, “First a car accident, then an explosion, and finally being able to silence the executor, what a good plan!”

Bai Zhu smiled and said in a shocked voice, “Young Ji, you’re saying that this was deliberately designed by someone?!”

Ji Feng nodded his head and said, “One hundred percent sure!”

Even if he wasn’t a criminal investigation expert, the scene was too obvious, especially since he saw a lot of things before the car exploded, things that even the police might not be able to see, after all, with such a violent explosion, I’m afraid all the evidence and such at the scene would be pretty much destroyed.

Ji Feng could be sure that this was definitely murder!

He gazed around, and according to human psychology, for a murder of such uncertainty, the planner would normally be watching from somewhere nearby, wanting to make sure that his plan had succeeded before he left.

It’s as if there are criminals who, having committed a crime, can’t help but return to the scene of the crime again at some future date, for the same reason – it’s a unique psychology!

However, this violent explosion had left everything around in a mess, Ji Feng didn’t see any suspicious people, he couldn’t help but frown, could it be that the plotters weren’t around?

Because usually if there was danger, or if he was being watched secretly, Ji Feng couldn’t help but have a feeling like a man’s back, but today he didn’t have that feeling.

“Bai Zhu, can you still hold on?” Ji Feng gave up looking, it was chaos outside, trying to find the plotters was almost impossible, Ji Feng decided to wait until the chaos had calmed down a little and save Bai Zhu first.

“I’m not a big deal!” Bai Zhu said, “Young Ji, let’s wait here for a while and go out when the police arrive!”

“No need!”

Ji Feng said, “I’ll take you to the hospital now, let’s go!”

He picked up Bai Zhu with one hand and kicked open the door of the security room with his foot, then walked quickly towards the outside. At this time, Ji Feng’s vigilance was at its highest, and at the same time, the murderous intent in his heart had intensified to the extreme!

Campus Master Chapter 3007

“Old Xiang, it’s me!”

Casually calling a taxi, Ji Feng sat in the car with Bai Zhu in his arms and rushed towards the hospital, then he took out his mobile phone and dialed Xiang Yongzhan’s number.

Xiang Yongzhan smiled, “What did you say?”

Ji Feng said, “Someone wants to murder me!”

“..... What?!” Xiang Yongzhan froze for a moment, perhaps because Ji Feng’s tone was so calm that he surprisingly didn’t react for a moment, but the next moment, Xiang Yongzhan steeply raised his voice: “What’s going on?”

“In front of my neighborhood, my car collided with a dump truck, this is murder!” Ji Feng said, “Right now I’m taking Bai Zhu to the hospital, you immediately send someone to take over there, seal off the scene, cordon off the surrounding area and look for any suspicious people!”

Ji Feng firmly believed that if that driver wasn’t the mastermind, then the person who had engineered the crash was one hundred percent watching the scene.

Of course, perhaps this person was not at the scene to watch directly, but in some other way, such as remote video, or some other way, but Ji Feng was almost certain that, whether from the perspective of criminal psychology or human nature, a person who wanted to accomplish something in a hurry would not be able to help but pay close attention when he or she was expecting the outcome in a million ways.

Xiang Yongzhan immediately said, “I’ll go and arrange it!”

He didn’t have any unnecessary nonsense, he knew better than anyone else the truth that soldiers are valuable, and as a soldier he naturally knew what to do at this time. After saying these words, Xiang Yongzhan hung up the phone, obviously going to make arrangements for action.

It was a while before Xiang Yongzhan called Ji Feng’s mobile phone again and asked, “Ji Feng, can you be sure that there are definitely still suspicious people at the scene?”

Ji Feng said in a deep voice: “It’s almost certain!”

Xiang Yongzhan nodded slightly and said, “Then, I’ll send someone to secretly control the scene first, and start checking from the periphery first, so that we can find the suspicious people first, so that we won’t alert the snake.”

“That’s the best!”

Ji Feng said, “In addition, the other side has a backhand, tell your men to be more careful and not to have unnecessary damage.”

Xiang Yongzhan smiled fiercely, "I'm afraid they don't have an arrangement, as long as they have an arrangement, they won't be able to get away!"

"Hang up!"

Ji Feng smiled and hung up the phone, but the cold light in his eyes kept flickering.

This matter was definitely a murder, this was already an indisputable fact, there was no need to go into detail or do any further on-the-spot deduction or anything like that, Ji Feng could be sure. But the question is, who is the mastermind of this murder?

This, then, was the crux of the matter.

Ji Feng couldn't help but think of the few broken words that the driver had said before he died, among which, the driver seemed to have mentioned the word 'wu', but at that time, the driver was already badly injured and his internal organs had been inserted by the broken ribs, so he didn't have any extra strength to answer his questions, so when he spoke, his voice was very low, and his bite was not clear and vague.

Therefore, Ji Feng was not sure which word was pronounced as 'wu'! At least, from the truck driver's mouth, it was impossible to determine which word it was, because there were many other words with the same pronunciation!

But Ji Feng's mind could not help but conjure up a person Wu Zhiyong!

Amongst his enemies, if he could say the word Wu and wanted to put him to death, apart from Wu Zhiyong, he really couldn't think of a second person who met these two conditions!

What's more, Wu Zhiyong is now in Jiangzhou, and before that, he and Xiang Yongzhan had confronted Wu Zhiyong when they were chasing Old Li, and at that time the two of them went head to head, neither of them giving up half a step, and Wu Zhiyong was extremely passive at that time.

“According to Little Uncle’s information, Wu Zhiyong’s father Wu Zhengmin is now seriously ill, Wu Zhiyong should have come to Jiangzhou to seek medical treatment for Wu Zhengmin, in that case, why would he suddenly send someone to murder himself?” Ji Feng thought to himself.

“Could it be that

Ji Feng’s heart suddenly moved and a possibility occurred to him, “Could it be because of Rong Suyan and the Rong family?”

Wu Zhiyong wanted to move the Rong family!

Or there was some kind of deeper connection between Wu Zhiyong and the Rong family, and some of what he had done recently might have touched Wu Zhiyong’s fundamental interests, so it made him thunderously angry and immediately moved against himself to kill him, and soon put it into action to kill himself!

Ji Feng’s heart sank a little, this possibility was the last thing he wanted to see, if that was the case, then it meant that the Rong family and the Wu family were once again cooperating with each other, then Rong Peng’s heart was really too deep!

But when you think about it, Ji Feng dismissed this suspicion, because Rong Suyan’s demeanor when she was talking to Wu Zhiyong, etc., was not like that. At that time, she did not know that she could see her through the car window glass.

“Wu Zhiyong, is it you or not!” Ji Feng asked coldly in his heart.

Because Ji Feng had given a double cab fare, the taxi driver drove very fast and arrived at the nearest regular hospital in ten minutes. In the car Ji Feng had already used his fluoroscopic eyes to give Bai Zhu an examination, the left calf was fractured and there were no other injuries, fortunately at that time Bai Zhu was not only wearing a seat belt, but the SUV was quite protective of people, it was only because the impact was really too violent that this injury occurred.

After accompanying Bai Zhu to reset the bones and put them in a cast, Ji Feng then put his heart down, he used his perspective eye to see that the reset was very good, and arranged a single ward for Bai Zhu, she then started to practice body building exercises, bio-currents have quite a good effect on the repair of injuries, Ji Feng was already very experienced with this.

“Ding

Ji Feng’s phone suddenly rang, it was Tong Lei calling.

“Ji Feng, are you and Bai Zhu alright?” On the phone Tong Lei’s voice was urgent and full of worry.

“We’re fine, it’s just that Bai Zhu has been slightly injured, how did you know?” It had only been an hour since the incident, so did Tong Lei know so quickly?

Tong Lei said, “It was the community’s property that called to tell me, they knew it was your car through the license plate, then they called to inform me!”

It was only then that Ji Feng realized that vehicles had to have passes to enter and leave the villa area, not even access cards, and the property owner had registered each owner and left an alternate contact information, when this villa was bought Ji Feng was planning to buy it for Tong Lei, so the alternate contact information was left with Tong Lei’s number, so it was not surprising that she knew so quickly.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public. The first time I hung up the phone, Xiao Yuxuan and other people called again, Zhang Lei and Yi Xingchen also called, so Ji Feng had to explain the situation to them one by one.

Only when he was done with these did Ji Feng call Xiang Yongzhan.

“Why does your phone keep taking up the line?!” Xiang Yongzhan asked, “I called three or four times just now, and you were prompted to be on the line.”

“People at home are calling!”

Ji Feng said, “How about it, are your people in place?”

Xiang Yongzhan said, "They were in place half an hour ago and have started to line up around the area, the scene is now under control and no suspicious people have been found yet."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "It seems that this person is very shrewd!"

He had looked carefully at the scene at that time, but there was not the slightest clue, nor could he detect if someone was secretly watching him, now it seems that the other party was not only prepared, but also extraordinarily vigilant and careful.

"I'll continue to check on my side, I'll call you first if there's any news, remember to keep your phone open!" Xiang Yongzhan admonished.

"Don't worry, if I can't get through on my phone, you can call Bai Zhu's number!" Ji Feng said.

After hanging up the phone, Ji Feng turned back and looked at the ward, Bai Zhu was practising aerobics, so he sat down on the bench outside the ward.

Half an hour later, Bai Zhu woke up from her cultivation state, Ji Feng heard the movement and hurriedly pushed the door in, just in time to see Bai Zhu holding the head of the bed and preparing to lie down, he immediately went over to support her, Bai Zhu couldn't help but have a smile on her face.

"Your leg is broken, and you're still trying to be brave!" Ji Feng said, "Hurry up and lie down!"

"Mm!"

Bai Zhu answered softly. Although Ji Feng's tone was raw and more like a reprimand, it was warm to Bai Zhu's ears.

Ji Feng asked, "How do you feel now?"

Bai Zhu shook her head and said, "It doesn't hurt much anymore, the body building exercises really help, the bio-current feels warm on the legs and the pain is all eased a lot!"

"The bio-current can do more than that, you can definitely get out of bed soon if you keep practicing!" Ji Feng laughed, they say that it takes a hundred days to break a bone, but with the bio-current repair, it definitely won't take that long.

"I know."

Bai Zhu nodded, when she was in Southern Guangdong, the people chasing after the dynasty suffered an explosion, at that time she and Ji Shao were both seriously injured, but Ji Shao was the one who had almost recovered in just a few days, it was just that she was more seriously injured at that time, she was not able to practice body building exercises, later when her injuries got better, she also gradually discovered the wonderful use of bio-current.

"Ji Shao, that truck driver" Bai Zhu immediately thought of the crash again.

"The person is already dead!"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "The other party did a very clean job, leaving nothing behind, and the truck driver was also silenced by the other party!"

Not only was it silenced, but it was a very clean silencing. A steering wheel lock, coupled with the vehicle explosion, even the slightest trace of it was burnt away straight away, professional ah!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Ji Feng laughed: "Don't worry, we can definitely investigate, I have my own way, now your task is to recuperate, don't think so much!"

He sneered in his heart, did he really think that everything would be fine if all traces were eliminated?

Campus Master Chapter 3008

About an hour after Bai Zhu was hospitalised, Yang Wei and Chen Hua, who had recently joined the Tengfei Group, arrived at the hospital, and Ji Feng instructed them to protect Bai Zhu, and the two took turns to guard her closely, never leaving her.

For Yang Wei and Chen Hua, these two girls, Ji Feng is still relatively at ease, the military background of their discipline is naturally needless to say, but also for the implementation of orders is meticulous, this point in the security department during this time, they have been proven this characteristic.

Even, Yi Xingchen had mentioned the two girls to him more than once, saying that they were really born to do this job, and even planned to ask Ji Feng to let the two of them stay in the war team in the future and not to transfer them away again.

At that time, Ji Feng only laughed but did not say anything, after all, he still had a shortage of people on hand, especially this kind of girls who had both strict military training and a certain level of combat ability, so Ji Feng naturally could not put the two of them in the battle team.

Now, they really had a use for them!

“Bai Zhu, you can rest in the hospital first, with Yang Wei and Chen Hua and the two of them taking care of you, there will definitely be no problem!” Ji Feng held Bai Zhu’s hand and said, “I need to go back first.”

“Then you take care!” Bai Zhu said immediately, he knew that Ji Feng had a lot of things to do, and after the explosion that had just happened, Ji Feng definitely had to give an account. Moreover, now was also the best time to track down the murderer.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be careful!” Ji Feng said.

“Let Yang Bin follow you!” Bai Zhu suddenly remembered something and said, “Yang Bin’s injuries have healed, and it just so happens that there is nothing important going on in the Security Department now, so let Yang Bin follow you during the time I am not by your side.”

Ji Feng thought about it and nodded, "Fine, I'll let him come over here!"

A few days ago, Yang Bin had already returned from the military hospital at Min Fu's military base after being discharged from the hospital. In Treasure Island, he had fought desperately with that Transformer, which, coupled with the injuries he had sustained in the battle, had left Yang Bin seriously injured and even bedridden for a while.

After this period of treatment, Yang Bin finally got better. In fact, if we go by his injuries, it could almost be said to be a miracle that he could recover in such a short time, but this was not particularly strange for Yang Bin, he practiced internal martial arts and with the support of his internal energy, his body naturally recovered quickly.

Leaving the hospital and returning to the district, Ji Feng found that Yang Bin was already waiting at the entrance of the district.

"Young Ji!"

Seeing Ji Feng, Yang Bin looked extra happy, "I can finally follow you!"

Ji Feng smiled and punched him on the chest and asked with a smile, "Good guy, at a glance you've recovered well, it's only been a few days, you're alive and well again!"

When Yang Bin returned a few days ago, his face was still somewhat sickly pale and his body could only be said to have barely recovered, but it hadn't recovered as much as before. But now it was different, it had only been a few days and Yang Bin was already rosy and looked full of energy.

"This is all because of your care, if you hadn't arranged for the canteen to cook special nutritious meals for me, I'm afraid I would still have to recuperate for a while now." Yang Bin said gratefully.

"You should!"

Ji Feng waved his hand and said, "You suffered the injury for me, I"

Before he could finish his words he was interrupted by Yang Bin: “Young Ji, you can’t say that. This life of mine was already yours long ago, you not only saved me, but also my mother, whenever you want this life of mine, just take it!”

“Don’t say that!” Ji Feng smiled and patted his shoulder, “Let’s go, let’s go over there!”

Yang Bin nodded his head and asked again, “Young Ji, someone has assassinated you?” When he said this, he had a murderous look in his eyes, Ji Feng was his benefactor, assassinating Ji Feng would be like assassinating him, in his heart there were two people he respected the most, one was his mother and the other was Ji Feng!

Ji Feng said, “It’s just a clown hiding in the shadows who doesn’t even dare to show his face, just uncover it!”

Yang Bin nodded silently and didn’t say anything else, while in his heart, he secretly decided that if he knew who had assassinated young Ji, he would definitely destroy him!

At this time, at the entrance of the villa area, the scene of the car accident had been controlled and a cordon had been drawn up, the burning fire of the car had been extinguished, and from the large swathes of water stains on the ground around it, it should have been doused by someone using fire tools, perhaps the fire brigade had come.

Ji Feng’s attention was focused on one of them, he didn’t expect Xiang Yongzhan to personally lead the team over, he immediately walked up and said, “Old Xiang, why are you here personally?”

“Nonsense, such a big thing happened, can I not come in person?” Xiang Yongzhan said, “You’re really good, you just left such a mess behind and didn’t even send anyone over, so you just left?”

This made Xiang Yongzhan a bit speechless, when he first arrived here, he found that the fire engines were putting out the fire, this is only a problem, the key problem is that there are still a lot of people around, and some people are actually very close to the scene, this makes Xiang Yongzhan suddenly angry, so many people at the scene, even if there are some traces are all spoiled, still investigate what the hell!

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "There's nothing of value at the scene."

At that time, Bai Zhu was injured and Ji Feng had to take her to the hospital first. Moreover, he had already checked before this, there was no trace at the scene, and even if there was, it had been blown away by the explosion.

Xiang Yongzhan lowered his voice and asked, "Older brother, what's going on?"

Ji Feng said, "What I told you on the phone is what happened, in fact the whole process was very short, from the crash to the explosion was only a few minutes."

Xiang Yongzhan nodded slowly and said, "In that case, it seems that we can only hope on the sky net, if we can find out the source of these two dump trucks and find the identity of the drivers, then maybe we can continue to follow the vine to investigate, if we can't find anything"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "Even if we find the identity of the driver, will we definitely be able to find the mastermind behind the scenes? I don't think so!"

Xiang Yongzhan slowly nodded: "Yes!"

If he dared to assassinate Ji Feng, then it means that there must have been a thorough plan before, moreover, the person's weight must not be light, such a person would never leave clues easily, otherwise, there would be no need to silence the driver.

"No matter what, we always have to investigate!"

Xiang Yongzhan said, "Now my people have gone to contact the police and are going to take over SkyNet's surveillance footage temporarily, so we can find out where the car came from first!"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "I'm counting on you for this."

"I'll do my best!"

Xiang Yongzhan said, "You should also be more careful during this period, since the other party has made a move, they might have follow-up means, don't be careless!"

Ji Feng sneered, "I'm just afraid that the other party won't come!"

He had experienced many assassinations, but none of them had ever been successful. Even with the most dangerous assassination methods and subtle layouts, Ji Feng had managed to escape with his body intact, and even managed to catch the person who came to assassinate him, or even finish him off.

This made Xiang Yongzhan really envious, Ji Feng's body is really quite strong, really don't know what words to use to describe it.

Xiang Yongzhan couldn't help but remember that his father had once said something about Ji Feng, "A tiger's father has no dog's son!"

He also said that in ancient times, with Ji Feng's skills, he would have been a great general, or even a marshal!

This was a very high evaluation!

Ji Feng didn't stay here for too long, after a brief communication with Xiang Yongzhan, Zhang Lei also happened to come over, so Ji Feng directly got into the car and said, "Leizi, drive!"

Zhang Lei immediately asked, "Where to?"

Ji Feng said, "To find someone to settle the score!"

At the Oriental Hotel, Wu Zhiyong stood in front of the window of his luxury suite, looking out at the bustling street, his brow furrowed tightly.

It had been quite a long time since he came to Jiangzhou, but he had yet to find that national player, but he had incurred a lot of trouble. Yesterday, he even received a call from his second uncle, in which Wu Zhengxiang reprimanded him, saying that as the main leader of the county, he should not leave without permission, and that he had been away for such a long time.

He did not believe that his second uncle did not know the purpose of his visit to Jiangzhou. He had come to Jiangzhou to look for the old national expert who had retired at home long ago to treat his father's illness, yet his second uncle still reprimanded him in such a way.

Wu Zhiyong realised that, I am afraid that in Second Uncle's heart, brotherly love may not be that important. Even, finding the nationalist to cure his father, this might not be the outcome that Wu Zhengxiang wished to see!

And this meant that the path of curing his father had actually been met with resistance within the Wu family.

This made Wu Zhiyong feel a little chilled!

He didn't know what was going on, but at this moment he suddenly missed his dead brother, Wu Zhihe. If Wu Zhihe was still alive, even if he was no longer a good person, he would definitely be in agreement with him on the idea of curing his father, and, he would not have to leave the northwest personally at all, just let Wu Zhihe do the searching.

But now, he had to come in person, because he had long realised that since the Wu family had changed, he had fewer and fewer people he could trust and rely on!

"It seems that there are some things that must be done at a faster pace!" Wu Zhiyong said secretly in his heart.

"Ding Ding Ding"

Just as Wu Zhiyong was pondering, the phone in his room suddenly rang, he frowned, who would call to his room landline?

He went to the living room and found that it was the hotel receptionist's phone, he then picked up the phone and picked up, "Hello, what is it?!"

"Mr. Wu, there are some gentlemen looking for you, they say they know you ah, wait a minute"
The receptionist on the other end of the line was interrupted before she could finish her sentence, and then heard a man's voice coming from the phone.

"Wu Zhiyong, you haven't run away yet!"

"Ji Feng! is you!"

Campus Master Chapter 3009

"Wu Zhiyong, you haven't run away yet!"

"Ji Feng! is you!?"

When he heard the voice coming from the phone, Wu Zhiyong's eyelids couldn't help but jump wildly a few times between all of a sudden, and his face then sank abruptly, "Ji Feng, you"

"Pop!"

The first thing that happened was that he heard a sound from the phone, and then a busy tone, and a wave of anger instantly rose from Wu Zhiyong's heart, and then went straight to his head.

Ji Feng had hung up the phone without waiting for him to speak!

He was simply too deceitful!

Wu Zhiyong held back the urge to throw the phone away, but his face had turned iron blue, anger was rising in his eyes, and he was gritting his teeth, as if his words were bursting out from his teeth.

“Ji Feng! You deceive people too much!”

At this moment, Wu Zhiyong really hated him, Ji Feng had called him for no reason, just to tease him, this was like treating him like a three-year-old child to play with!

Wu Zhiyong was so angry in his heart that he could not wait to have a fight to the death with Ji Feng right now!

However, after he took a few deep breaths to calm down slightly, he suddenly thought of a problem – just now, it seemed to be the front desk of the hotel that called?

Wu Zhiyong was subconsciously shocked again, how could Ji Feng’s voice be on the hotel receptionist’s phone? Does this not mean that

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Wu Zhiyong immediately reacted, since there was Ji Feng’s voice in this hotel’s front desk phone, it also meant that Ji Feng must be in the hotel’s ground floor lobby, which meant that Ji Feng had come to this hotel where he was staying.

And

it was to find him!

Otherwise, if Ji Feng just had something else and came to this hotel unintentionally, then even if he knew that he was staying at this hotel, he would definitely pretend that he didn’t know it and just skim over it, instead of calling specifically.

You know, with the relationship between the two of them, there was no longer any need for superficial courtesy at all, in fact, since the death of Wu Zhihe, the two of them were already immortal!

Ji Feng is here!

When this guess should strictly speaking be a conclusion, when this conclusion flashed through Wu Zhiyong's heart, his heart couldn't help but subconsciously jerk a little.

Wu Zhiyong's face turned steeply iron blue and then slowly reddened He found that deep inside himself, he seemed to be vaguely afraid of seeing Ji Feng!

"Humph!"

Wu Zhiyong coldly snorted, not knowing whether it was to cheer himself up or whether he was dismissive of the kind of thoughts he had just had, he didn't even think about it anymore, but put his phone away, then pulled out his chair, poured himself a cup of tea, and sat in front of the window to close his eyes and recuperate.

Perhaps, even Wu Zhiyong himself did not realize that, in fact, this way of doing things, he already had the implication of a great enemy!

As time passed, Wu Zhiyong slowly lifted the cup of tea on the table and was about to drink it when he suddenly heard a knock on the door: "Knock, knock!"

Wu Zhiyong's face was expressionless as he slowly put down his cup of tea and asked, "Who is it?"

A man's voice came from outside, "Wu Zhiyong, open the door and welcome the guests!"

"....."

Wu Zhiyong's face was gloomy and frightening, he heard it, it was the voice of that friend of Ji Feng's, Zhang Lei, and also that kid from the Yanjing Tong family, he couldn't help but move in his heart to kill, it was really a tiger being bullied by a dog, what a cat or dog dared to jump in front of him!

Although he heard the voice outside, Wu Zhiyong did not get up, nor did he intend to open the door, but once again picked up his cup of tea and slowly sipped it, and did not speak again.

Wu Zhiyong had his own pride and conceit, since Ji Feng didn't even open his mouth, he naturally wouldn't open his mouth again. As for Zhang Lei, Wu Zhiyong really did not put him too much in his eyes, the status and position of the two sides are themselves very unequal, there is no comparison between the two of them at all.

If it was in the past, if someone of Zhang Lei's status dared to speak to him like that, he would never be so kind as to give up, but now, Wu Zhiyong chose to ignore it.

But Ji Feng, who was standing outside, was not going to just wait there stupidly. Ji Feng said, "Lei Zi, what should we do if they don't want to open the door and let us in?"

Zhang Lei grinned, "Good idea!"

Boom!

The next moment, Zhang Lei kicked the door heavily, this heavy kick actually kicked the door of the room open instantly. Zhang Lei sneered and directly pushed the door and walked in.

Yang Bin followed closely behind Ji Feng and also went in with him.

As soon as the three of them entered, they saw Wu Zhiyong's cold face and the flickering anger in his eyes.

"Wu Zhiyong, didn't I tell you to open the door and welcome the guests, have you got donkey hair in your ears? Zhang Lei said without thanking him, he did not have the slightest fear of Wu Zhiyong's grim look.

"You're looking for death!" Wu Zhiyong coldly stared at Zhang Lei and said.

Zhang Lei laughed and said, "I've never done such a stupid thing as seeking death, but I've climbed through the ghost gate a few times, so I'm not afraid of death! But you, Wu Zhiyong, just don't know if you like looking for death!"

This is Zhang Lei, even if he knew that the person standing opposite him was the first grandson of the eldest family of the Wu family, one of the top gentry in Yanjing, and that in terms of energy and skill, the two of them could easily cripple Wu Zhiyong, but Zhang Lei was not afraid, as long as he was considered an enemy or an enemy, even if his opponent was ten thousand times stronger than him, he was not afraid!

Because he never thought that fear could solve the problem, fear, would the enemy show you mercy? You're kidding!

"Ji Feng, when did you learn to be like the hooligans and gangsters on the street and want to burglarize a house?!" Wu Zhiyong asked coldly.

"If we're hooligans, then what are you?" Zhang Lei sneered, "Calculating others in secret, what kind of good thing do you think you are?!"

Wu Zhiyong's face sank, "Zhang Lei, you want to play?"

Zhang Lei laughed coldly, "So what if I play with you? I'll play any tricks you have!"

"Come on Lei Zi!"

Ji Feng patted Zhang Lei's shoulder, "We are here to settle scores, not to play lip service!"

He looked at Wu Zhiyong and said, "Wu Zhiyong, I'm not here for anything else today, I just have a score to settle with you!"

"Settle a score with me?"

Wu Zhiyong sneered, "Ji Feng, is it because the Tengfei Group is about to close down and you've gone crazy with poverty? I don't know what scores I have to settle with you!"

Ji Feng said, "I'm the one who wants to settle accounts with you!"

Wu Zhiyong sneered, "Heh! Then tell me, what kind of score do you want to settle with me?"

Ji Feng said, "Just a few hours ago, a dump truck was about to hit my car, directly scrapping my car, I caught the driver of the dump truck for interrogation and he said that you ordered it."

Wu Zhiyong's face suddenly sank at his words and he frowned, "You believe what he said?"

"I have no reason not to believe the words of the person involved!" Ji Feng said.

"In that case, even if I deny it you will likewise still think that the people I sent there did it, right?" Once Wu Zhiyong took a look at Ji Feng's stance, he knew that today's matter would definitely not end well.

As an old rival, he actually knew Ji Feng better than anyone else, and he knew that although Ji Feng seemed to be impulsive at times and liked to rush to the front line, he was actually a very stable person who had a plan for everything he did and was quite well thought out.

Then, since Ji Feng had found his way here today, he naturally wouldn't just unveil it so lightly!

Ji Feng said, "I want to know, what do you think about this?"

Wu Zhiyong smiled, "I feel very sorry!"

"Regret your ass!"

When Zhang Lei heard this, he was on fire, Ji Feng and Bai Zhu were almost killed by a dump truck, and this son of a bitch just felt regret? Was this doling out a bit of pitiful sympathy, or was it pity?

Wu Zhiyong sank his face and asked, "Ji Feng, don't you think that it's time to keep your mouths shut?"

"I think"

Ji Feng chuckled, suddenly his face sank and he kicked over violently, with a bang, the kick landed squarely on Wu Zhiyong's stomach, instantly sending his entire body flying backwards, hailing the table behind him, spilling the tea cups and ashtrays on it onto the floor.

"Ugh!"

Wu Zhiyong let out a muffled cry, obviously kicked by Ji Feng, he was lying on the ground, looking at Ji Feng with a grim expression, the veins on his forehead were rising high because of the pain he was forcing himself to endure.

Zhang Lei couldn't help but be shocked, he didn't expect Ji Feng to really make a move and be so unforgiving, coming up with a kick that knocked Wu Zhiyong to the ground!

However, Ji Feng's kick was really good!

Zhang Lei had wanted to hit this bastard for a long time, he had been insidiously hiding behind his back all day to calculate people and was quite shameless, this kind of person should be taught a lesson fiercely, so that he knew what it was like to be beaten up!

"Ji Feng!"

Wu Zhiyong gritted his teeth and coldly burst out these two words from between his teeth, looking at his eyes, he really hated Ji Feng.

The smile on Ji Feng's face had also disappeared, not even a cold smile, he just said coldly, "Wu Zhiyong, this kick today is just a lesson, we haven't finished settling this score, I will settle it slowly with you later! If something like this happens again next time, it won't be a matter of one kick, you want my life, then I'll take yours first!"

Standing slightly straight, Ji Feng slowly said, "If you don't believe me, you can try it by all means!"

Wu Zhiyong gritted his teeth and looked fierce to the extreme: "Ji Feng, you want to start a war, right?"

"You're already at war with your actions, I'll accompany you to the end!"

After Ji Feng said this, he didn't even look at him again, turned around and left.

Zhang Lei stretched his hands, "Beaten up, now you're comfortable?" After saying that, he bristled and also walked out.

Looking at Ji Feng's three figures disappearing outside the door, Wu Zhiyong's face was extraordinarily hideous as he slowly climbed up, he had one hand covering his stomach and a fierce look in his eyes!

"Ji Feng! I'll make sure you die!" Wu Zhiyong roared low.

Campus Master Chapter 3010

"Crazy, that kick you gave me was really good, cool!"

In the lift of the hotel, Zhang Lei's excitement still hadn't faded, he couldn't help but wave his fist, "Damn, a son of a bitch like Wu Zhiyong should be beaten up, don't behave like a two-fifths man all day long, let his men take over everything with a move of the lips!"

Zhang Lei hated people like Wu Zhiyong, who was always scheming behind people's backs because of his status and was insidious, but if he failed, he was unwilling to take responsibility and just put up a scapegoat to suffer on his behalf.

The last time he was pushed by Ji Feng, he even ended up throwing all the dirty water on his dead brother Wu Zhihe. Although Wu Zhiyong's behaviour had caused his image to fall and was criticised, it did not cause much damage to him, and after a decade or two, people would naturally fade away.

At that time, as long as the Wu family still supports him, he may be able to step up to the centre.

And there are many more things like this, and each time, no matter how bad the situation is, it will never directly involve him.

And because of this, as a result, people like Wu Zhiyong have instead formed a habit of, for example, letting their men fight to the death when two wealthy or wealthy boys are fighting, and they become the audience instead!

Especially, Wu Zhiyong did it and still refused to admit it, which was even more irritating.

Now that Ji Feng's kick was really a big hit, Zhang Lei felt great in his heart!

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, "You're so excited by a kick?"

Zhang Lei laughed heatedly, "It's very relieving anyway!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed: "Relief is indeed very relief, but have you thought about it, that kick on Wu Zhiyong's body, in fact, it would be better to hold back now and wait until the critical moment to kill him with a single blow, now instead, you've even surprised the snake!"

Zhang Lei asked, "Then why don't you hold back a little?"

"Because I can't hold back!"

Ji Feng laughed: "That kick, I actually had a good time!"

Zhang Lei froze, and the two of them glanced at each other, and then they laughed harshly.

When he came to settle the score with Wu Zhiyong, Ji Feng had actually already thought about it, regardless of what he did to scare the snake, and regardless of whether it would make Wu Zhiyong act in an even more extreme manner, he would beat him first.

He had wanted to beat that bastard up for a long time!

As for saying that it would be better to scare the snake, it would be better to knock the mountain and shake the tiger, so that the wind and waves remain calm, no one knows what kind of conspiracy Wu Zhiyong may have secretly, now beat him up, if it can completely provoke Wu Zhiyong and make him do something irrational, that is better.

If Wu Zhiyong made any moves, Ji Feng could see what he could do and even seize the opportunity to bring Wu Zhiyong down completely in one fell swoop!

Especially at this stage, the oldest member of the Wu family, Wu Zhengmin, has retired to the second line and is now bedridden, and his condition is said to be very serious, the second member of the Wu family is now in charge, this is a good opportunity to bring down Wu Zhiyong!

Even if he can't bring down Wu Zhiyong at this time, at least, he can teach him a deep lesson, so that he will think twice before he plays any schemes in the future, and will let him know that if he really angers Ji Feng, Ji Feng will not play with him according to the rules of the game, and will directly kill him!

This is also one of the purposes in terms of preventing Wu Zhiyong from laying hands on Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei and the girls in the future, which is something that Ji Feng absolutely cannot tolerate.

The two of them were strong enough to escape from the accident, but if it was Tong Lei or any of Xiao Yuxuan and the girls who were attacked, the consequences would have been unthinkable!

Therefore, Ji Feng was furious!

He directly found Wu Zhiyong and gave him a lesson, and used that kick to tell Wu Zhiyong that if Wu Zhiyong played a conspiracy and played tricks behind his back, then he would dare to directly take his life!

This was the most powerful warning!

“Madman, are you really sure that what happened today was directed by Wu Zhiyong behind the scenes?” Zhang Lei suddenly asked.

He was a bit strange because Ji Feng had told him earlier that the dump truck driver had only said the word Wu, but that didn't necessarily mean that it must have been sent by Wu Zhiyong, but Ji Feng had not only decided that it was Wu Zhiyong's doing because of that, but he had also come straight to his door and beaten up Wu Zhiyong!

He was completely sure that it was Wu Zhiyong's doing!

“Not sure!” Ji Feng said.

“Then you” Zhang Lei was stunned.

“Because I've wanted to beat up Wu Zhiyong for a long time!” Ji Feng said.

Zhang Lei: “.....”

He couldn't help but heave a smile, “Actually, I've wanted to beat him for a long time too, how good it would be if you said you wanted to do it earlier, I'll do it!”

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “It's not appropriate for you to do it.”

Although Wu Zhiyong has lost his power now, yet, he is still the first grandson of the Wu family's eldest family, his energy is definitely not comparable to the current Zhang Lei, if that kick was kicked by Zhang Lei, Wu Zhiyong would definitely take revenge on Zhang Lei regardless of everything and by any means.

“This person Wu Zhiyong is extraordinarily conceited and extremely sinister. If you hit him, he will definitely consider it a provocation from a sheep to a lion, he has been greatly insulted and may even think his dignity has been trampled on, he will definitely retaliate against you regardless of anything!" Ji Feng explained.

Zhang Lei snorted, "I understand. Self-esteem is the problem!"

Ji Feng said, "If I come to beat him up, his pride will likewise be unbearable, and I'm afraid he'll take revenge soon, I do hope he'll hurry up!"

Zhang Lei said, "Wu Zhiyong is a particularly tolerant person, are you sure he will act?"

"He can tolerate other things, but now that he's been beaten up himself, he can't tolerate such things!" Ji Feng said.

"He could have put up with even his brother's death before!" Zhang Lei said.

"That was his brother, not himself, and it was good that he could save himself at that time, so he had to put up with it even if he couldn't!" Ji Feng said, "But now it's different, he definitely can't put up with it."

I'm afraid that the person who knows Ji Feng best is Wu Zhiyong, and to say that he knows Wu Zhiyong best, Ji Feng can definitely be counted as one. This is in line with the old saying that the person who knows you best is not yourself, but your enemy.

The most important thing is that you have to be able to understand Ji Feng, and Ji Feng did not stay idle either. He knew that Wu Zhiyong was an extremely selfish and extremely conceited person. Perhaps to them people, it was called their pride, but to Ji Feng, it was conceit!

Therefore, Wu Zhiyong would definitely do something because of this kick today, it was only a matter of time before or after.

"So you're now putting a hard-on on Wu Zhiyong for the car accident?" Zhang Lei asked.

"It's not that cheap!"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "I'm afraid this matter was not done by Wu Zhiyong, his reaction was not right!"

Zhang Lei immediately asked, "Are you saying that the mastermind of this car accident is someone else?"

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Eight out of ten other people, it shouldn't be Wu Zhiyong." When he was talking to Wu Zhiyong about the car accident earlier, he noticed that Wu Zhiyong's first reaction was actually bewilderment, and only then did a look of surprise appear deep in his eyes, although this reaction of Wu Zhiyong was subtle, it did not escape Ji Feng's eyes.

If Wu Zhiyong was in disguise, then it would be more than enough for him to compete for the Oscar, so Ji Feng guessed that this incident should not have been done by Wu Zhiyong.

Rather, it was someone else!

"Son of a bitch!"

Zhang Lei couldn't help but curse, "Apart from Wu Zhiyong, who else hates you so much? Suddenly coming up with such a stunt, it's clear that he wants you dead!"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "There are many people who want my life! I've offended a lot of people!"

Zhang Lei said, "Then you should be careful, if the other party didn't succeed once, there might be a second and third time."

"Don't worry, I'll be careful." Ji Feng patted his shoulder, "On the contrary, you should learn from Old Yi and the others in the battle team, their experience can't be bought with any amount of money."

“You don’t have to worry about me, I know what to do.” Zhang Lei said, “On the other hand, you have to be careful at home, those people can’t get you, they might target people around you, don’t take it lightly!”

“Don’t worry, I have it in my heart.” Ji Feng smiled and nodded, he had taken all these into consideration.

As they were talking, the three of them had arrived at the front desk of the hotel, Ji Feng took out some cash and placed it at the front desk, saying, “Broke your room door, here’s the money for compensation! It’s the room that I told you to call just now!”

And then, under the dumbfounded gaze of the receptionist, the three left the hotel.

Just on the way back, Ji Feng suddenly received a call from Xiang Yongzhan, “Ji Feng, the provenance of the dump truck has been found, it’s a stolen car!”

Ji Feng was not the least bit surprised by this, since the other party dared to arrange this crash, if they still dared to use a car that could be easily traced, then they were really looking for death!

“In addition, the identity of the driver has also been found out, it’s a fugitive, nothing useful has been found out yet.” Xiang Yongzhan added, “The rest is still being pursued, don’t worry, there will definitely be some clues soon.”

“It’s alright, take your time!” Ji Feng laughed, to be able to find out all this in such a short time, Xiang Yongzhan had obviously put in some effort, “Even if we can’t find out this time, the other side will reveal their fox tails sooner or later!”

.....

“Get out! Get out immediately!”

At this moment, Wu Zhiyong was like a furious lion, roaring low and driving out the hotel service staff who came to check the situation, his eyes were a little red from extreme anger, Wu Zhiyong was furious to the extreme.

A few moments later, his emotions calmed down a little and he suddenly remembered something, then picked up his mobile phone and after a moment's hesitation, he dialed a number.

"Young Master Wu, why have you suddenly remembered to call me?" On the other end of the phone, a frivolous voice came from the other end.

"Ji Feng was involved in a car accident, and it was you who did it!" Wu Zhiyong said in a cold voice.
