

Chapter 3024– 3025 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3024

In that way, it seems to be saying, what kind of shit Mr. Chu? What is Xujia Xuejia?

When facing the majesty of my Wei family, isn't it the same to apologize and subdue?

However, Wei Guang shook his head in response to what everyone said, "I said, not this."

"The Xu family is certainly powerful, but a declining wealthy family is in its heyday, and it is not enough to compete with our Wei family. As for the so-called three new noble Xue family, let alone an explosive family, it is not worthy of my specialization. survey."

"What I want to talk about this time is about the Lu family and the Xu family."

Everyone was stunned by Wei Guang's words.

"The Lu family and the Xu family?"

"You mean, the two red giants of Gritsberg?"

Wei Guang nodded: "It's them."

"Perhaps you didn't pay attention. The Lu and Xu family had a sudden change more than a year ago."

"Lu He, the head of the Lu family, was suspended and transferred, and the whole family quietly moved away from the ancestral land."

"And Xu Junlin, the old man of the Xu family, died violently, and the second master of the Xu family went to jail."

"Suddenly, the two great wealthies of the past fell from a height."

Wh.. what?

"The relocation of the Lu family?"

"The second head of the Xu family is in jail?"

“Elder Xu Junlin is also dead?”

“This... how is this possible?”

“When is this happening? Why don't we know at all.”

“What the hell happened?”

Wei Guang's words caused the whole hall to tremble.

In the hall, everyone was stunned, just feeling full of shock.

Although Gritsberg and Zhonghai are separated by thousands of miles.

However, the Lu Xu family and the Xue family are both one of the top forces in the summer, and they have had many contacts for so many years.

Especially when Xu Junlin was in power, the relationship between Xu and Wei was like glue.

Today, there is a girl from the Xu family who married in the Wei family.

It is precisely because of mutual understanding that the Wei family knows the background and strength of these two families.

However, they never expected that such a wealthy family would have such a big change overnight?

This makes people feel incredible, but also makes people particularly alert.

“You don't know it's normal.”

“The news is blocked.”

“It took a long time for me to learn about the status of their two families.”

“I have been investigating this matter all this time.”

“I also want to find out, what is the reason, the two giants that were once prosperous, overturned overnight?”

“It wasn't until this time that I went to Noirfork to fully understand the reason.”

Wei Guang's expression was serious, and his low voice kept echoing in the hall.

“Say, what's the reason?”

“Could it be that someone really has the means to reach the sky and can’t?”

“It’s our Wei family. If you want to step on the two giants of Gritsberg, it will definitely hurt your muscles and bones.”

Everyone raised their heads and asked Wei Guang anxiously.

In the words, there is full of curiosity and doubts.

Wei Chen’s expression also became serious, his brows furrowed tightly.

Could it be that in this hot summer land, what powerful forces have emerged to fail?

Facing everyone’s curiosity and doubts, Wei Guang did not speak.

Just let people hang a huge portrait poster on the wall.

The picture on the poster is of a teenager.

The figure is thin, with deep eyebrows.

He stood by the lake, holding his hands.

A pair of cold eyes, looking into the distance, almost penetrated through the ages.

“This...this is?”

Everyone was surprised.

Wei Guang said solemnly: “It’s him.”

“Noirfork’s Honor, Mark.”

“People, Mr. Chu!”

The audience was stagnant.

The entire hall almost held their breath.

Wei Chen’s niece, Wei Lu, was even more shocked to cover her red lips.

“This...”

“how can that be?”

“Just a teenager, he... he has so much energy?”

“Can defeat the wealthy family of a hundred years old?”

Everyone was gasping and talking in disbelief.

Chapter 3025

Wei Guangsi was not surprised by everyone’s surprise.

Because, when he first learned of all this, even Wei Guang himself was extremely unbelievable.

“Nothing is impossible.”

“That’s the truth.”

“This answer is obtained through my multiple verifications. There is nothing wrong with it.”

“The sudden overthrow of the two giants, Lu and Xu, is thanks to this person.”

Wei Guang’s face was expressionless, and his low voice echoed quietly.

“But this is not logical.”

“A young man, no matter how good he is, how good can he be?”

“Moreover, Noirfork is not a prosperous and rich place. Compared with Gritsberg, it is a small place.”

“How can people in such remote places bring down Gritsberg’s wealthy family?”

“Is it possible that this young man has a monstrous background?”

“Or is he a descendant of Gritsberg Mo’s family?”

Among the crowd, someone continued to ask.

Looking at the hot summer land, there are not many forces that can step on the rich family of Lu and Xu on the bright side.

Their Wei family barely counted one.

The other is the first of the four giants of Gritsberg, the low-key and mysterious Mo family.

For so many years, although the Mo family has rarely participated in secular disputes, it has always been firmly in the top of the four giants.

When the old man of the Wei family was not dead, she would go to Gritsberg every Chinese New Year, just to give gifts to the old man of the Mo family.

Moreover, before dying, the old man of the Wei family left only one sentence: “The hot summer is full of power. With my Wei family’s heritage, no one can match it, only Mo family.”

With this, we warned the descendants of the Wei family to never provoke the Mo family.

It is precisely because of this that for so many years, no matter how strong the Wei Family has grown, they have always kept away from the Mo Family.

This is why, the Wei family’s industries are scattered all over the hot summer, only the land of Gritsberg is not.

It is because they are afraid of touching the interests of the Mo family.

Now that the family of Lu and Xu were overthrown overnight, everyone naturally subconsciously linked Mark to the Mo family.

However, Wei Guang shook his head again: “I have checked the details of Mr. Chu.”

“Growing up in the country since I was a child, I only depended on a mother for life.”

“Later, I joined Zuoqiu’s house again and became the son-in-law.”

....

Listening to Wei Guang’s narration, the entire Wei family was shocked.

Wei Lu, the eldest princess of the Wei family, had huge eyes.

She couldn’t believe that Mr. Chu, who smashed Noirfork and stepped on the two great families of the hot summer, was just a countryman or a son-in-law?

This difference in identity gave Wei Lu a dramatic feeling.

“Small... novels, just... dare to write like this, right?”

Wei Lu’s red lips trembled, and he spoke softly.

To be honest, she suddenly became a little curious about this young man.

She really wanted to see with her own eyes what kind of young Mr. Chu, who has a legendary experience, really is.

Not only Wei Lu, but the rest of the Wei family felt that way.

A humble son-in-law, to the Noifork boss who stepped down on the two giants, such an ups and downs counterattack, who wouldn't be amazed?

“Right, uncle.”

“You sent Grandpa Han to deal with it earlier. Was it also called Mr. Chu?”

At this moment, Wei Lu suddenly remembered something, turned around and looked at Patriarch Wei Chen, worried.

Wei Chen waved his hand, and replied calmly, “It is Mr. Chu from Gritsberg that I told Master Han to deal with.”

“Your father is talking about Noifork, he is not alone at all.”

“Don't make a fuss.”

When Wei Lu heard this, he nodded, and the heart that had just been suspended suddenly let go.

But Wei Lu just breathed a sigh of relief here, but Wei Guang widened his eyes and said anxiously: “Big brother, what are you talking about?”
