

Chapter 3032– 3033 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3032

“Especially you, Xu Lei, you white-eyed wolf, colluding with outsiders and messing up the family.”

“When the people of the Wei family kill the country boy, I will sell you to others as a prostitute!”

At this time, Xu Meifeng also ran over life and death, while supporting Wei Luo while cursing at Mark, Xu Lei and others.

Mark was expressionless and shook his head and whispered: “I rarely do anything to women, unless this person is really damned!”

The cold words contained endless killing intent.

When the words fell, Mark waved his hand into a knife, and was about to cut down at Xu Meifeng.

“Brother Mark, don’t~” Xu Lei shouted anxiously, and hurriedly stopped.

“Leier, such a snake and scorpion, why do you protect her?”

“You are very kind to her, and she won’t appreciate it!” Mark asked coldly.

“Brother Mark, I know what you said. But after all, she is my second uncle’s only daughter. Over the years, my second uncle has treated me very well. If she dies, I’m afraid my second uncle will be sad~” Xu Lei lowered her head, begging bitterly, and begged Mark to forgive Xu Meifeng for her life.

Mark was finally persuaded by Xu Lei.

The palm of his hand was weakened by a few points, and Xu Meifeng was taken away, nosebleeds flowed across.

“This time, for the sake of Leier’s plea, I will save you again.”

“In the future, if you don’t insult Xiao Lei any more, I will cut your head on top!”

Mark's words are cold and stern, making people feel like falling into an ice cellar.

In just a few breaths, both Wei Luo and Xu Meifeng were beaten by Mark for half their lives.

The man and the woman were lying on the ground, looking like a dead dog.

"Brother Mark, should we be here today?"

"Let's go quickly."

"I am really worried that when the Wei family arrives, they will..."

Mark's shot again made Xu Lei even more worried.

This time, she didn't mean anything, and directly persuaded Mark, hoping that Mark would leave here and avoid Wei Jiafeng.

"Leier, it doesn't matter."

"Just the Wei family, why can't you stop me."

"Just watch with peace of mind and look at your brother Mark, the real majesty!"

"After this turmoil, no one will dare to deceive you in this hot summer land." Mark's words were low, but powerful.

"Damn~"

"Sorry pen, right?"

"Really majesty?"

"You are a nouveau riche, a poor boy who walks out of a remote country, do you have the majesty of a fart?"

"You want to die and die outside, don't hurt our Xu family."

Hearing this, the people of the Xu family were no longer calm. With fear and disgust on their faces, they cursed at Mark.

"Xu Lei, look at the good man you brought!"

"If our Xu family is implicated because of this, it is thanks to you."

"I see what you have in the future, to meet your parents and the ancestors of the Xu family?"

“My Xu family has such descendants, it is really the great misfortune of my Xu family~”

In the hall, the elders of the Xu family scolded one after another, and the old faces were full of anxiety and panic.

Compared with Mark, it was undoubtedly the forces of the Wei family that feared the Xu family more.

After all, the Wei family is the No. 1 giant in Vietnam Overseas. Looking at the entire Vietnam, the Mo family can be compared with it.

But now, the prince of the Wei family was beaten to blood in their Xu family manor, which would undoubtedly greatly anger the Wei family.

When the time comes, the members of the Wei family will inevitably lead their anger to the Xu family when they are furious.

Therefore, they were naturally afraid and scolded Xu Lei one after another, leading the disaster to the family.

“You family sinner~”

“You go!”

....

“You are not welcome here...”

....

“Look for death outside, don’t involve us...”

.....

Suddenly, Mark and Xu Lei were accused by thousands of people.

The harsh scolding echoed throughout the Xujia Manor.

Under everyone’s insults, Xu Lei lowered her head in shame.

In the hall of Nuo Da, only Mark stood proudly.

His body is straight, his eyebrows are deep, and the whole person is like a spear standing upright, alone with endless wind and rain.

Chapter 3033

The scolding of everyone in the Xu family was in Mark's heart and did not cause any waves at all.

It seems that these people never entered Mark's eyes from beginning to end.

Yes, to Mark today, what is the Xu family and what is the Wei family? Even if the whole world humiliates him, ridiculed him, or satirizes him, Mark's heart will not have any fluctuations.

In this world, there are very few people who can shake Mark's state of mind.

The Yu Yun of that year counts as one, Helen Qiu from Wrillfill counts one, Xu Lei next to him counts one, and the rest is only Mark's blood relatives.

In addition to these, in Mark's eyes, how are the others different from that ant mote?

Therefore, facing his ex-husband's knowledge, Mark's eyebrows were full of prestige, and he remained unmoved.

He even stretched out his arm to embrace Xu Lei, who was full of uncomfortable self-blame in front of him, and comforted him softly: "Leier, why is it uncomfortable?"

"It's worthless for a group of old and mediocre people."

"Yeah." Xu Lei leaned against Mark's chest and gave a soft hum, but the sorrow and worry on her pretty face never disappeared.

Perhaps, what made her uncomfortable was not only the abuse of the people, but also the safety of Mark.

Everything started because of her.

If Mark was harmed because of this. This makes Xu Lei, what is in her heart?

At this time, in the hall, the scolding voices of the Xu family still echoed.

But suddenly, a gust of wind swept past.

The wind and sand blows up the sky, and the surrounding doors and windows can't help shaking.

It seems that a typhoon has passed.

"This~"

“what’s happenin?”

“What the hell happened?”

Inside the Xujia Manor, there was a commotion.

Suspicious voices started one after another.

However, everyone’s surprise has not yet subsided.

Immediately afterwards, deafening sounds resounded throughout the entire world.

Even the whole earth was trembling.

Just when everyone was bewildered, in the manor, there was a person shook his finger to the front and shouted in horror: “My God~”

“Look!”

“what is that?”

After hearing this, everyone looked up.

In the depths of the sky, several dark shadows appeared quietly.

At first, the shadow was extremely small, just like a spot of light.

But soon, the black spot got bigger and bigger, until in the end, a helicopter, like a torrent of steel, came into view.

The entire Xu family was shocked when they saw this scene.

A pair of old eyes stared hugely, like a ghost.

“This~”

“So many planes?”

“Is this... the Wei family has arrived?”

Xu Wenqing and others were shocked and trembling as they spoke.

Wei Luo, who was beaten by Mark with a blue nose and swollen face, obviously noticed the movement in the distance and looked up.

After seeing the plane, Wei Luo smiled suddenly.

“Hahaha~”

“My people are here!”

“Mark, you are done~”

“Your death date has come.”

“Immediately, my strong Wei family will break your body into thousands of pieces, making you hard to die~”

Wei Luo was mad, and stood up from the ground gritted his teeth.

While grinning grimly, he waved at the helicopter in the air.

Wei Luo was born in the Wei family and grew up in the Wei family.

Of course he knew his own private jet.

However, what surprised Wei Luo was that he didn't expect that the family would send so many people to rescue him this time.

After all, I'm afraid there are more than a dozen helicopters.

How many powerhouses this family had to send to siege Mark.

“Haha~”

“It's my father who loves me.”

“This time my Wei family is going out, Mark, you have something for you to do, this time it is difficult to fly!”

Wei Luo said proudly, full of confidence.

Xu Meifeng beside him is undoubtedly emboldened, and also scolds Xiang Mark:

“Haha~”

“Boy, do you see it?”

“This is the gap.”

“The gap between the hillbilly and the rich prince.”
