

Chapter 3044– 3045 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3044

In just a few days, the entire Gritsberg City went crazy.

The streets and alleys, restaurants and tea houses, are all talking about this matter.

Some savvy family forces heard that they still didn't believe it. They didn't fully believe this shocking fact until they rushed outside of the Xu Family Manor.

It's just that these dignitaries can't figure it out.

The Wei family is the top three of the top giants in the hot summer, and although the Xu family is not small, the foundation is still quite different from that of the Wei family.

Logically speaking, it was the Xu family kneeling for the Wei family.

But now, why is it the other way around?

Why does the dignified Zhonghai's No. 1 giant bow down to a mere Xu family?

"Among them, I'm afraid there is something else hidden."

"The Xu family alone has absolutely no power to make the Wei family bow their heads."

"Who will it be?" Remember the URL <http://m.kanshu8.net>

The same doubts exist in everyone's hearts.

Because of curiosity, more and more people gathered outside the Xujia Manor.

Obviously, everyone wants to see, which immortal is the Wei family who really wants to bow down?

When the city of Gritsberg was baffled by this incident, the Lu Family in Yanjiao was still a peaceful and desolate scene.

In the past, the Lu family ranked second among the four giants of Gritsberg. The guests are always in constant flow every day. What a beautiful scenery.

However, since the initial catastrophe, the Lu Family has undoubtedly completely lost its former glory.

The members of the Lu family have also changed their domineering temperament at the beginning, and now they have become extra cautious and cautious in their actions.

At this moment, in the study room of the Lu family, Patriarch Lu He was reading the documents.

Suddenly someone walked in and told Lu He about the Wei family.

Lu He, who was originally calm, was immediately taken aback.

“what did you say?”

“Wei Chen arrived in Gritsberg?”

“Leading the entire Wei family, kneeling outside Xu’s door?”

Lu He was surprised.

Of course Lu He knew the Wei family’s power.

When the Lu family was in its heyday, the Wei family had to respect three points.

Unexpectedly, such a prosperous giant would do such a humble thing.

“Yes, I guess, it was the Wei family that provoke the Xu family.” The subordinates guessed.

Lu He shook his head: “No, that’s wrong, the Xu family doesn’t have this power.”

“Even the three Xu families added up can’t stand the Wei family’s worship.”

“There must be other reasons~”

“By the way, who did you say about the little patron of the Xu family?”

“His name is Xu Lei. I heard that it was relying on Mr. Wang Chu from Gritsberg to take the position by force.” The subordinate replied.

“Mr. Chu?” Lu He pondered for a moment, then smiled.

“Haha~”

“Hahahaha~”

Lu He's laughter was hearty and rampant.

"Patriarch, what are you laughing at?"

"Haha~ I laughed at the Wei family. I didn't know whether to live or die, just like us, I provoke the heavenly king Laozi~"

"Hahaha~"

It's been too long, Lu He hasn't laughed like this.

Although there was some schadenfreude, it was always a comfort to Lu He.

After all, there is one more family that was stepped on by that boy in the future.

"No, good things have to be shared."

"Quickly, put me through the call of the head of the Xu family."

"Tell him that we have one more difficult brother."

"Haha~"

Lu He's laughter spread loudly throughout the family.

And when Lu He contacted the Xu family.

On the other side, in the land of Yanshan, the three permanent palace masters, King of Fighters, Sword Saint, and Grand Master Haotian, were holding regular meetings.

"King of Fighters, how is Wu Ya?"

"Counting this, it's been a lot of days, why there is no news at all."

"Has he contacted you?"

At the meeting, Juggernaut asked about Mo Wuya.

A few days ago, they instructed Mo Wuya to go to a neighboring country to find out the origins of those mysterious powerhouses.

There is no news now, which makes people a little worried.

Chapter 3045

"Yep."

“got engaged.”

“When he first arrived in the cold country, he already told me.”

“At this moment, it is estimated that I should have finished the business and left.”

Facing the inquiries from the Juggernaut and others, the King of Fighters Mo Gucheng replied lightly.

“That’s good.”

“Otherwise, I’m still worried, what accident happened to Wu Ya.”

The Juggernaut smiled slightly.

Mo Gucheng waved his hand and said indifferently, “Sword Saint, you are too worried.”

“Wuya’s ability, others don’t know, you still don’t know?”

“This little thing, for him, what else can happen unexpectedly.” Remember the URL <http://m.kanshu8.net>

“Wang Ya do business, don’t worry!”

“So, don’t worry about him, let’s just wait for the information from him here.”

To his son, Mo Gucheng’s expression was full of confidence and pride.

However, to be honest, Mo Wuya’s son is indeed upbeat.

Over the years, there have been many strong titles in Yanxia Wudao, but both father and son are titles, but they are unprecedented, and there is no future.

Now Mo Wuya, although he has not yet accepted the canonization title, it is only a matter of time.

Moreover, there have been many people in the martial arts world, calling Mo Wuya the little king of fighters.

With one title and two titles, such an honor, the King of Fighters and his sons indeed have the proud capital.

“Haha~”

“Yes, Wuya is so good, what do we bother about?”

The Juggernaut also smiled and didn’t ask about Mo Wuya again.

“Okay, let’s talk about business.”

“Recently what happened in Gritsberg City, I guess you two have also heard some of it.”

The Juggernaut suddenly became serious and looked at the King of Fighters and Tang Hao.

“Ok?”

“Recently, has something happened to Gritsberg Martial Arts?”

The King of Fighters frowned.

These days, he has been living at home and practicing, but he doesn’t know anything about things outside.

However, Tang Hao had heard a little bit. He turned his head to look at the Sword Saint: “Are you talking about the Xu and Wei family?”

The Juggernaut nodded: “Well, that’s right.”

“The Xu family will not talk about it. Although the Wei family cannot be called a martial arts family, it is considered close to us martial arts people.”

“When they first arrived in Gritsberg, I had already received the news.”

“I thought it was just a normal secular activity, but it didn’t make people pay more attention.”

“But now it seems that the Wei family has provoke someone?”

The Juggernaut spoke slowly, but his tone was calm.

After all, this matter of the Wei family may be a terrifying event in the secular world, but in the eyes of the Juggernauts, it is at best a small ordinary event.

If it weren’t for the Wei family’s involvement with the martial arts world, it is estimated that the Martial God Temple would not even pay attention to it.

“Wei Family?”

“You mean the Wei family in Zhonghai?”

“This family can be regarded as the most powerful family in the secular world.”

“What, has something happened to the Wei family?”

For the Zhonghai Wei Family, Mo Gucheng naturally knew.

In today's hot summer, the most powerful force on the surface is the Mo family who is protected by him.

And below the Mo family is the Zhonghai Wei family.

Back then, when the old man of the Wei family had not passed away, the Mo family would come to greet and visit during the holidays.

So, from this perspective, the Wei family and the Mo family can be regarded as some old friendships.

"It seems you really don't know."

"Then I will tell you briefly."

Seeing Mo Gucheng's doubts, the Sword Saint retelled the news he had learned about the Wei family to Mo Gucheng briefly.

When the king of fighters heard it, he frowned and said in shock: "What did you say?"

"The Wei family came to Gritsberg with their family, and could not afford to kneel outside Xu's gate for three days?"

"how can that be?"

"The Xu family is no more than a declining family, it is in its heyday, and it is not at the same level as the Wei family."

"The head of the Wei Family Patriarch was kicked by a donkey. Why did he surrender himself and come and bow down to the Xu Family?"

The King of Fighters stared and said in surprise.

In the words, there is incredible color.

Tang Hao shook his head and smiled: "Who knows this."

"Yes, this matter is indeed a bit weird." Juggernaut also smiled and said, "However, I have arranged for someone to investigate."

"I guess there must be something hidden in it."

"Otherwise, a small Xu family won't make the Wei family afraid of this."

The King of Fighters also nodded, agreeing with the Juggernaut's point of view.
