

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 307

Tang Long's expression was as uneasy as if he had actually eaten shit. Other individuals were not qualified to be big-headed in front of him, however Samuel was different. The relationship in between him as well as Liam was unusual.

Tang Long turned around and put Fan Xue in the face. There was nothing else means, so he might only let Follower Xue take the blame.

" Tell me, why did you slam Zhang Tianxin?" Flavor Long asked coldly.

Fan Xue covered her face in awe. It was Flavor Long that asked her to do this. Now, instead of helping her, he blamed her!

" You ... Flavor Long, what are you doing?" Follower Xue asked in a daze.

Tang Long gritted his teeth, winked at Follower Xue, and also stated, "I can allow you go if you make points clear."

Follower Xue knew that Flavor Long desired her to take responsibility, but why? Was it just because of the loser in front of her? Why should he do that?

" I. I."

" What are you speaking about? If you have something to state, say it rapidly," Tang Long stated coldly.

Fan Xue understood that if she did not take the blame, Flavor Long would definitely hold an animosity against her, as well as she would never have a good life in the future. If she could take duty for him, she might get some benefits, and she would certainly have the ability to endanger him with this matter in the future.

For Fan Xue, self-respect could be stomped by money. As long as she had money, she agreed to be a bitch.

" It's me. I really did not intend to operate in the exact same environment as this bonehead. It's me that discriminate against him. That's why I deliberately tore my stockings as well as blamed him." Fan Xue reduced her head as well as said.

When the colleagues heard these words, they were all shocked. Although they might not bear to see Zhang Tianxin, it was excessive to slam him this way. Besides, although he was a fool, he never ever rejected when the staff in the company asked him to run duties.

Some individuals also dealt with Zhang Tianxin as a dog as well as discarded the important things for him to pick up. They were very pleased.

No one had actually ever assumed of driving Zhang Tianxin out of the business in this method.

" Follower Xue, so you are such a person."

" I actually made a mistake. I like you for as long."

" He's simply a fool. Why do you need to say with him? If you actually hate him, you can just pretend that you can't see him."

A group of colleagues was very competent at transforming approaches according to the situation. Of course, the biggest reason was not due to sympathy for Zhang Tianxin, but due to Flavor Long's position.

Clearly, Tang Long was now making decisions for Zhang Tianxin. Just how could they attempt to speak up for Fan Xue?

Fan Xue didn't feel ashamed of being scoffed. It didn't matter even if she lost her task. With Tang Long's proof in hand, she might intimidate him to get cash in the future.

" Ask Forgiveness to Zhang Tianxin as well as Zhang Linghua," Tang Long claimed sternly. He felt eased in his heart. "If this female is not wise sufficient, this issue will never ever end today."

Fan Xue strolled to Zhang Linghua and Zhang Tianxin, bowed deeply, and stated, "I'm sorry."

Samuel frowned. The female's apology was very uncomplicated. It was due to Tang Long's stress. There was absolutely nothing incorrect with it, but the issue was why she had a faint smile on the edge of her mouth.

That could be so outrageous?

And also it was simply an outrageous thing. Could it make her happy? It was not a good thing for anyone to lose their job.

Unless ... unless she had various other passions.

If there really was interest, after that where did this advantage come from?

Samuel looked at Tang Long and afterwards asked Zhang Tianxin, "Has this big brother spoke with you recently?".

Zhang Tianxin elevated his head timidly. After glancing at Flavor Long, he promptly lowered his head again.

Samuel saw fear in Zhang Tianxin's eyes. He could not be afraid of Tang Wish for no factor. He made certain that Tang Long should have done something to him.

"What do you want to tell me? Don't be afraid," Samuel stated.

Zhang Tianxin had actually been saved by Samuel when, so he relied on Samuel very much. He lowered his head and also said, "This sibling asked me to bark like a pet, however my mother claimed I'm a guy. I can't kneel down at will."

Hearing this, Flavor Long's face altered substantially, and he shouted at Zhang Tianxin, "Bullshit. When did I say such a thing to you?".
