

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 308

Flavor Long's loud voice made Zhang Tianxin tremble with concern. He hid behind Zhang Linghua and also dared not speak again.

Samuel had actually already figured out what was going on. Although Fan Xue had actually stirred up the issue, Tang Long was the genuine initiator of wickedness.

It was since he didn't like Zhang Tianxin that he utilized in this manner to slam Zhang Tianxin to drive them away.

" I have actually currently provided this individual an opportunity last time. I didn't expect him to still mess around in the company depending on his power."

Right now, Liam came to the door of the company, followed by Harvey, that was grinning all the time.

Because Harvey became the chairman of the Sue household, he had considered several ways to obtain closer to Liam.

Because the task in the west of the city was almost the Sue household's life door now, and also it was not a good thing for Yvonne to regulate this teamwork, so he really hoped that after obtaining closer to Liam, he could take charge of the project in the west of the city.

Because of the previous experience, Harvey did not dare to directly say it out. He could only save the nation by utilizing numerous methods to please Liam. It was a pity that the impact was very small, however in this situation, Harvey still did not give up.

Both of them walked into the workplace. When Liam saw Samuel, he was surprised. "Why is the Young Master below?"

Liam knew a lot concerning the recent modifications in the Hannigan family members. Han Jun was handicapped and also Han Cheng was dead. It was claimed that even the old lady, Nangong Qianqiu, was dead!

With the support of Nangong Qianqiu, Han Jun could end up being the head of the Hannigan family in the future. Currently that Nangong Qianqiu was dead and Han Jun was disabled, the only individual that can inherit the Hannigan household's power was Samuel.

If Liam had actually wanted to betray Samuel prior to, today, he really did not think of it in any way.

He worked for the Hannigan household. Presently, Samuel was the just one that can acquire the Hannigan household. Apart from being loyal to Samuel, he had no other option.

When Liam saw Samuel, Harvey also saw him, and a doubt rose in his heart. Why was this good-for-nothing here? And also it seemed that something had actually occurred.

Harvey smiled faintly. "This bad guy, did he cause trouble Weakriver Property?"

Just as Harvey was ready to enjoy the show, he listened to Liam state, "President Sue, I have something to do at the business today. Let's satisfy one more day."

" Sibling Jude, Samuel is such a good-for-nothing. Harvey claimed.

" President Sue, do not you recognize what I'm claiming? I am telling you. We'll fulfill one more day," Liam claimed coldly.

Harvey wanted to see an excellent program, however Liam's present mindset was certainly really dissatisfied. Moreover, because the guest-leaving order was so noticeable, if he still stayed here, Liam would only be disappointed with him.

Harvey walked out of the company reluctantly and vowed, "What a mess! I almost created Liam's discontentment. You mommy fucker, you 'd much better not make problem for me.

"What's going on?" Liam strolled into the group and also asked Tang Long.

When Flavor Long saw Liam, he suddenly really felt guilty. It was not the right time for him to find back! If he was asked to interfere in this matter, it would certainly not end well.

Nonetheless, Flavor Long thought of it. He was a talent that Liam had invested a great deal of cash on. Liam valued his capacity, so he would not make things difficult for him because of a good-for-nothing staff member. Even if he was slammed, he would only be reprimanded at most.

"Sibling Jude, there's a misconception," Tang Long said.

Liam looked at Zhang Tianxin and also his heart sank. His face had actually been defeated black and blue. Could it be a misconception?

The mommy as well as child were arranged by the Young Master to get in the firm. Tang Long, that was so stupid, really touched the Young Master's eyebrows once more.

"Follow me to my workplace," Liam coldly.

Flavor Long was satisfied. If he went to the workplace to be reprimanded, he would not lose face. It appeared Liam still appreciated his face.

As expected, a capable individual would certainly be treated with unique therapy anywhere he went. Even if he slipped up, he would not be penalized as well significantly.

Flavor Long, that was adhering to Liam, aligned his back proudly.
