

Chapter 3080– 3081 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3080

“You -” Ye are cursed pointed face, Mo isolated city almost to be mad, “You presumptuous!”

“You’re just an ordinary junior, dare to speak in such a tone with me.”

“I did not dare to KOF when this big bully Isn’t it a small thing?”

“Okay.” The God of War yelled, and stopped Mo Gucheng, “When is it all, it’s still fighting here.”

Then, the God of War looked at Mark again: “You are here to find out the truth, too. “

Yeah.” Mark nodded. “There is such a magnificent fire attribute energy fluctuation here inexplicably. It is probably strange.”

“Yeah, we are also looking for the reason. Okay, since you are here, we are five.” Just look for them separately. But Mark, you have to be careful. In addition to the five of us, there are other powerful titles in this area. If you find out, you should immediately send a signal to contact us.” God of War especially exhorted.

In this way, after a brief conversation, the five gods of war dispersed and probed carefully along this area.

It is the first time for Mark to go deep here. Even though it has been a long time since the previous burst of energy, the temperature here is still high and scary, and ordinary people can’t bear it at all, just like Mark and other martial arts experts. Can you withstand this temperature?

And, as Mark got deeper, the temperature became scarier.

The eyes are full of scorched earth.

The river bed also dried up, and several cracks broke out in the ground.

Even the vehicles on the side of the road are only half left.

The other half, it is estimated that when the previous energy burst, it was directly melted by the high temperature.

One can imagine how terrifying the previous energy should be.

_____The

surrounding world is terribly quiet.

Mark, who was walking here, had an illusion in a trance, as if this world really only left him.

Stepping on the sand and rocks, a rustling sound was made, and it fell in the ears, it was so clear.

Gradually, Mark seemed to step into a small town.

At this time, there were only broken walls in the former multi-span bungalows.

Mark still had the impression of this small town, it seemed to be called Yanyang Town. It's not far from Mark's grandfather's house.

When he was young, Mark often went to this town with Fatty to go to the market. Within a hundred li, Yanyang Town is considered the largest town.

But now, in the once prosperous town, there was only a piece of scorched earth left overnight. The residents of the small town who once lived here probably never thought that one day they would leave the world in this way, without even leaving a dead body.

Yes, even steel can melt at such a hot temperature, so what about people?

It is estimated that the residents of the small town were directly vaporized by the high temperature at the moment the energy burst.

However, one thing made Mark extremely puzzled.

When he came just now, he passed by his hometown Yeyang Town.

The two towns were so close that Yanyang Town was razed to the ground, but why Yeyang Town was unscathed, as if it were covered by a cover.

“Huh?”

“It's strange, why is the temperature here low?”

When Mark was puzzled, he suddenly found that the temperature of his body was significantly lowered.

Moreover, the further forward, the lower the temperature becomes.

Until Mark walked to the end of the alley, an intact courtyard appeared in front of Mark.

This courtyard is a bit old, the wooden gate is full of traces of the vicissitudes of life, and it looks dilapidated, as if many people have never lived before.

However, given the devastation of the entire town, only this courtyard was intact, which naturally made Mark very strange.

Moreover, the cold temperature here is also incompatible with the hot world outside.

What made Mark even more puzzled was that when he was standing outside this courtyard, he actually felt a familiar breath.

“Could it be...”

Chapter 3081

The Tianhe is full and the land is barren.

Above the small town of Nuo Da, there is a devastation, and the place where you see it is full of scorched earth.

Only the courtyard in front of you stands here intact.

The bitter wind, enveloping the bones of chill, blew slowly.

The teenager outside the courtyard stood outside the door for a long time.

In the end, he lifted his footsteps, pushed the door and stepped in.

This is an old courtyard, and the ground paved with bluestone is full of traces of time.

However, although this courtyard is old, it is exceptionally clean and tidy.

The things in the yard are all in order.

The steps in front of the door are also clean and spotless.

Even the air in the courtyard still contains a faint fragrance.

However, these are not important anymore.

From the moment Mark entered the yard, his gaze was always looking forward, never looking away.

I saw a beautiful shadow standing there quietly.

Although there was only a shallow back, but the dusty temperament still made people indulge and yearn.

She stood there like a bunch of proud Xuemei, opening in the cold, bullying Douxue.

“You are here.”

After a brief silence, a low female voice sounded slowly.

The soft tone is like meeting old people.

While speaking, she turned around and looked at Mark. At the same time, he took off the veil in front of him.

The light veil slid down, and a dusty face appeared in front of Mark without reservation.

Red lips are like fire, and eyebrows are like ink.

Wearing three thousand green silk, carrying a seven-foot long skirt.

The woman in front of me is like the most beautiful masterpiece of the creator.

Under her face, the sun, the moon and the stars were all pale.

Even the sun was in a trance for a while.

Some people, just standing there, are enough to be magnificent!

However, no one noticed that at the moment of seeing the young man in front of him, an inexplicable joy appeared in the depths of the beauty's eyebrows.

Just like this, under the sky, between the courtyards, the beautiful couple looked around.

At this time, they were so close, but so far.

The cold wind blew the clothes of the two of them, and the blue silk on their foreheads danced with the wind.

Speechless for a long time.

But, who knows what kind of turbulent waves are in the hearts of these two people in the silent silence.

Even Mark, who has a calm mind and experienced the wind and frost, once again saw the woman in front of him, that long-frozen heart also set off endless waves.

Especially when she heard the phrase "You are here", Mark's heart almost melted at that moment.

Tiehan's tenderness, so is it.

For a moment, Mark really wanted to step forward, and smiled and called her a lingering rhyme.

However, when he calmed down, Mark knew that the last rhyme of the year was no longer there.

All the good things that were once are in the past tense.

All the love between him and her was already in the rain forest, and was completely cut off by her sword.

Now she is just the master of Chumen, Tang Yun!

"It's really you, Tang Yun Tang master!"

"I should have thought of such a majestic energy explosion, such a large-scale wanton killing."

"In this world, except for your Tang Yun Tang master, I'm afraid it is. No one else can do it." The cold words, containing a deep chill, quietly sounded in the world.

Mark's tone was so strange and cold.

It's as if the enemy meets each other!

When he heard what Mark said, the beautiful woman in front of her trembled slightly.

A few touches of loss appeared on her stunningly pretty face quietly.

"Why?"

"Why didn't the Tang Sect master speak anymore?"

"Could it be that I, Mark, are quiet and unworthy to talk to you!"

"Haha~"

” Yes .”

“The Tang Sect master is the Chu Sect master, and is ranked No. 1. Powerful power.”

” Raise your hands and throw a lot of power , and you will burn thousands of miles away, and let hundreds of thousands of lives be wiped out.”
