

Chapter 3120– 3121 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3120

“Tang Hao, react accordingly for a while.”

“If the situation is not right, you can retreat at any time.”

“There is no need to smash.” The Sword Saint whispered.

The situation is getting worse, and the Juggernaut has to start thinking about the future.

“Yeah.” Tang Hao nodded.

Just as the two were talking, another cold wind swept from the depths of the dark night.

The chill was as strong as Tang Hao and the others, and they couldn't help feeling the chill.

Along with this cold wind, there was also a fuzzy figure.

In the night breeze, the man had a long robe fluttering, and the flowing hair tips reflected the icy blue brilliance under the reflection of the moonlight.

“Huh?”

“Is this?”

At the moment when he saw the long icy blue hair, Tang Hao and the Sword Saint wrinkled their eyebrows in unison.

It wasn't until that person was able to enter, that the two Juggernauts could see his face clearly.

Then, there was a big laugh.

“Hahaha~”

“Old Su, it turned out to be you!”

“It’s a special mother~”

“I ‘m scared to death.”

“I thought it was a helper from this group of Dogecoins.”

“It turned out to be you~”

Tang Hao laughed loudly, then rushed over and put his arm around the man’s shoulder.

The look of joy, as if an old friend met.

After seeing this person, Juggernaut’s hanging heart also instantly loosened.

“Mu Qiu, it’s been a long time.”

“In these years, where did you go?”

“I don’t know how to go to Yanshan.”

“I and the God of War, I miss you brothers.”

Sword Saint said kindly. .

Yes, the blue-haired man in front of him is not someone else, but one of the six pillar kingdoms of the martial arts in the summer, and the ice emperor, Su Muqiu, who has been missing for many years!

“Su Muqiu, you bastard~”

“You can’t see people clearly before you make a move?”

“My old bone, you are going to kill you!”

When the Juggernauts were reminiscing, they just vomited blood. The King of Fighters was surprised and happy, angry and angry.

What was pleasantly surprised was that the long-lost friends reunited again.

What was angry was that when the flood rushed into the Dragon King Temple, his family was beaten by his family.

During the curse, the King of Fighters got up, rushed over, and punched Su Muqiu “violently” on the back.

“Okay, okay, I ‘ll talk about it later.”

“The top priority is to solve these intruders first.”

“The four of us have our hands. Even if we can’t kill them today, we have to beat them to kneel and call him father!”

“Te Niang, a group of mobs, still claiming to be Dragon Gods?”

“Today, our Four Pillars Kingdom in the Summer, beat your so-called Dragon Gods into dead dogs!”

Mo Gucheng looked at Gaia and the others, smiling wantonly.

“Don’t worry, if we solve you, we will chase after you, and abolish your bullshit dragon master!”

Bang~

Mo Gucheng just finished his words, and only heard a crash.

The blue-haired man slapped it on the King of Fighters’ face.

Mo Gucheng screamed, and the whole person was beaten out again, with blood drawn out of his face.

“Old Su, are you crazy?”

“What are you doing?”

“What are you doing

against the King of Fighters?” “It’s them that you should deal with?”

Tang Hao and Sword Saint were shocked and shouted at Su Muqiu.

Su Muqiu didn’t speak, but turned to look at Yue Yao next to him: “Yue Yao Medical Immortal, where is the Dragon Lord and others?”

“Just left.” “You shout now . A few times, I guess he can still hear it.”

Su Muqiu nodded, and then, amidst the trembling gazes of the Juggernaut and others, he knelt down in the direction where Mark was leaving.

In the next moment, the voice of respect and worship resounded like a nine-day thunder in the world.

“The god of ice and water, Ice Emperor Su Muqiu, pay homage to the dragon lord!”

” Welcome to the dragon lord~”

Between the sea of clouds, the cold wind was bitter.

Under the sky, the respect echoed.

Looking at the Ice Emperor who was kneeling on the ground, the Sword Saint was stunned, Tang Hao was stunned, and the King of Fighters Mo Gucheng was stunned.

The three titles of Wushen Temple were just like five thunders, and there was a blank in the brain.

Chapter 3121

“Ice...Ice river and water?”

“Dragon...Lord of the Dragon?”

“Could it be that the Ice Emperor, like them, entered... into Chumen?”

Tang Hao and others froze in place, feeling more in their hearts. Is set off a monstrous wave.

They looked ahead in disbelief, and at this moment they only felt that God had made a great joke for them in the summer.

The comrades who used to fight side by side in the past have also betrayed Yan Xia and entered Chu Sect.

Irony, great irony!

Before that, the Juggernauts had never thought that Chu Sect's tentacles could reach the highest level of their martial arts in the summer.

Up to now, the Juggernauts still believe that these powerful titles in front of them were sent by Tang Yun.

After all, in their cognition, the only person in the world who can mobilize so many titled powerhouses for their own use is Tang Yun, the lord of Chumen.

It was true before.

But after today, in this martial arts world, there is one person who can have such power besides Tang Yun.

That is the Lord of Dragon God, Mark!

Of course, the Dragon Temple today is still unknown.

But as the saying goes, non-ming is already a blockbuster.

When Mark truly reveals his majesty, he will surely shock the world! Woo cold wind is blowing wildly, and there is a lot of wind and sand.

Under the moonlit night, several figures stood prestigiously.

With the addition of the gods of ice and water, Gaia's title number has undoubtedly become four. Coupled with Yue Yao's powerful assistance and treatment.

It can be said that the situation here has been completely reversed.

Now the Juggernauts, they are not thinking about how to kill Gaia and others, but about how to retreat with their whole body.

"Damn~"

"How could this be?"

"The Ice King, he also betrayed us?" The King of Fighters was already scarred, but still standing there, gritted his teeth and said.

The original high-spirited fighting spirit, after seeing the Ice Emperor kneeling down, undoubtedly disappeared.

Juggernaut and Tang Hao couldn't keep calm no matter what.

The old face was gloomy, almost dripping.

"Now, it's not easy~"

Sword Saint's solemn voice was crushed by the oncoming wind.

And in front of them, the five powerful dragon gods, like five mountains, lay here.

That overwhelming aura makes the three Juggernauts, like facing the abyss, walking on thin ice!

For the first time since the catastrophe of Chumen, Yan Xia martial arts has fallen into such a huge crisis for the first time in many years.

The next battle is very likely to cause the fall of the strongest of the Pillar Kingdom in the Summer.

Thinking of this, the King of Fighters Mo Gucheng's old face was pale as paper, and he couldn't help thinking about his last words.

After all, among the big titles present, the one in the worst condition and the most injured is the King of Fighters Mo Gucheng.

At the beginning, he was called the favorite.

Now, he is the most difficult to protect himself.

---

---

When the King of Fighters and others were almost desperate.

On the other side, Mark hugged Tang Yun, but he was already far away from this small town and walked towards the east side of Denham City.

On the way out, Mark had already helped Tang Yun see the injury.

Mark never thought that Tang Yun was hurt so badly.

Even more severe than the last time in the Chu family forbidden ground.

At that time, Tang Yun was in a madness, and at best her veins and veins were destroyed, and she couldn't practice.

But this time, Tang Yun's injuries had already given her life.

"How on earth did you do it?"

"How did you get hurt like this, the master of Truth?" Mark frowned, and said in awe.

Tang Yun's current situation is completely half-life left.

Not only the loss of vitality, but also the loss of vitality.

In other words, Tang Yun is now half the person who stepped into the ghost gate.

“Speak?”

“Don’t sleep.”

“You won’t be able to wake up after sleeping.” After leaving the battlefield, Tang Yun’s tight string also slackened.
