

Chapter 3124– 3125 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3124

Aren't you going to do it for me?" "Otherwise I will remove you from your position!"

Dai MUYANG shouted sharply.

Naturally, Ding Kai didn't dare to speak any more, and walked up with his scalp.

"Head, are we really going to have an anal with Instructor Chu?"

There are obviously many people who have heard of Mark's name, and they can't help but ask in horror when they see Ding Kai coming over.

Ding Kai sighed: "There is no way, the military order is like a mountain, I can only bite the bullet and do it."

"The order goes on, all the bullets are loaded, and you are ready to fight."

"After a while, listen to my signal."

"As long as I give the order, you guys. Shoot immediately!"

"Give me long snacks, Major General Qinglong was able to move the three armies back then, by no means an ordinary generation."

Ding Kai was worried, and whispered to the next person.

Soon, Ding Kai's men began to move.

For a while, the sound of the bullet being loaded sounded one after another.

And Ding Kai also walked over, preparing to give Mark the final dissuasion.

"General Ye, I am..."

However, Ding Kai just walked up to Mark, before he had time to speak, he only felt a heavy pressure, like Mount Tai crushing the top, madly attacking.

Bang~

Ding Kai was so embarrassed that he knelt directly in front of Mark.

Behind them, when a group of soldiers saw this, they were immediately shocked, then they raised their guns and were about to open fire.

“Do you stop it!”

At the critical moment, an angry shout resounded through the void.

Immediately afterwards, a number of military vehicles, like beasts, galloped from the depths of the night.

The Helen Qiu light ripped through the night like a sword.

In the end, it stopped in front of the crowd.

The door opened, a group of several people, carrying Venus on their shoulders, majestic eyes.

Between dragons and tigers, I came straight here.

“This...this is...”

“Fang...Commander Fang and Lu...Instructor Lu?”

Seeing the two of them, Dai MUYANG, who was still full of majesty, immediately changed his face.

He didn't expect that the leaders of the military region would come so quickly?

As early as yesterday, he had received news that there would be superior leaders to inspect here.

Dai MUYANG thought that tomorrow morning would be the soonest.

But who ever thought it would be here so soon.

Moreover, these two powerful figures came!

For a time, Dai MUYANG was shocked and terrified.

Quickly trot all the way to meet him.

Then, a few steps away from the visitors, he stood at attention and stopped. Snap

Both feet touched, arms raised, Dai Muiyang immediately saluted a very standard military salute.

“Dai Muiyang, commander of the 27th Division, welcome several leaders to visit and inspect the work!”

“Although there is a slight accident temporarily.”

“But the head can rest assured, we will solve the trouble immediately!”

“We will strictly follow the orders of the superiors to blockade this place and prohibit anyone from entering or exiting!” The voice was strong and powerful, and it sounded here.

However, who would have thought that after Dai Muiyang finished speaking, the other party would not even look at him, and stretched out his hand to push him aside.

Afterwards, these people from the military area passed Dai Muiyang, walked straight towards Mark's location.

“Chief instructor of Noifork Military Region, Lu Tianhe, meet Major General Qinglong!!”

“This~” When

Lu Tianhe said, Dai Muiyang and others were taken aback.

But then, Fang Shaohong also clasped his fists, bowed to Mark in the most humble tone and the most respected gesture.

“Commander-in-chief of Noifork Military Region, Fang Shaohong, pay homage to Major General Qinglong!”

Boom~

Hong's voice resounded like thunder in the void.

Also blasted in everyone's minds!

“This...this...”

“This...this...how is it possible?”

Seeing two powerful figures, bowed and worshiped at a young boy.

Dai Muiyang, who had just been promoted not long ago, was directly stunned.

He opened his mouth wide, watching the scene before him in disbelief, and he was distraught!

He couldn't figure it out in his dreams. Why did the dignified chief instructor of the armed forces and the commander-in-chief of the thousand army bow to a young man?

Chapter 3125

“...Farewell, Major General Qinglong~”

...

The sound of worship, like the sound of the evening drum and the morning bell, shakes people's hearts.

The world here is silent for an instant.

Many people, just like Dai Muiyang, were stunned and dumbfounded.

The soldiers present, perhaps knew that there were not many Major General Qinglong.

After all, when Mark was famous in the military world, it was almost two years ago.

Moreover, the name Major General Qinglong, like the rise of a comet, comes quickly and goes quickly.

When dazzling, glorify the three armies.

But soon, it disappeared.

More than a year has been enough to forget some people.

What's more, during this time, among the soldiers present, there were many newcomers who had recently enlisted in the army.

I don't even know the name of Major General Qinglong.

For example, Dai Muiyang was transferred from the border regions of the motherland six months ago.

He is stationed in the country and guards the border all the year round. He doesn't even recognize the commander-in-chief of the major military regions, let alone Mark, who has only been in the army for a month or two?

However, Mark and the others may not know it, but Fang Shaohong and Lu Tianhe, the people present, did not know that no one knew.

After all, the two people in front of them are the real powerful figures in the Noifork Military Region, holding thousands of troops.

But now, such a big man in control of military power actually bowed his knees and worshiped a young man.

One can imagine how shocking Dai MUYANG and others are?

God!

What kind of character is this boy?

Dai MUYANG's face was pale, and there was a mourning in his heart.

As for Ding Kai, who was forced to kneel, his heart trembled.

Although he knew that Major General Qinglong was so awesome, he didn't know he was so awesome.

Ding Kai thought that Mark was a relative of the chief instructor or the commander-in-chief.

It now appears that where is this relative.

It's the relationship between the king and his courtiers!

Dead silence, long dead silence.

Although there are thousands of people here, no one is speaking.

Everyone stared at the sight of the young man, and walked away slowly in his arms like this.

Yes it is.

Mark ignored Fang Shaohong and the others, let alone stopped for them.

People are so awesome.

The key is Lu Tianhe and they have not complained.

He even ordered all soldiers to salute and watch Mark leave.

I don't know how long it took, after Mark completely disappeared from the end of the line of sight, Fang Shaohong and Lu Tianhe, who had been nervous all the time, breathed a long sigh of relief.

Although it was only a few minutes, to Lu Tianhe and the others, it was as long as a century.

“Hey... Tianhe, can you feel it? The pressure on General Ye is stronger than before.” Fang Shaohong's old face was pale, as he said, he wiped the cold sweat on his forehead.

Lu Tianhe was also considered a martial artist. Although he was oppressed when facing Mark, he could still stand it. But Fang Shaohong is an ordinary person after all, and he only feels pressured in front of the title powerhouse.

Lu Tianhe nodded: “Yeah, really a terrible guy.”

“Perhaps, in a few years, the hot summer sky will really change.”

I think that when I first saw Mark, he was still in a remote place.

At that time, Mark was just an unknown youth.

But who would have thought that this is only a short period of one or two years.

The nameless boy back then has grown to such a terrifying point.

Even make him daunted!

“Instructor Lu, what's the matter?”

“Why did you let him go so easily.”

“Also, it's just a junior, and it won't let you...”

When the two of Lu Tianhe were talking, they were on the sidelines. Dai MUYANG came forward with full of doubts, and asked incomprehensibly.

“Shut up!”

“Asshole things, you almost caused a disaster?”
