

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 320

On the day of the family members.

Now, Lydia did not attempt to talk nonsense in front of Samuel. Even if she saw that Samuel was prepared to participate in the Family Day, she simply viewed.

When she considered just how Nangong Qianqiu had hung herself in the living-room that day, Lydia was still loaded with remaining anxiety. Although she did not think highly of her worthless son-in-law, she did not attempt to undervalue him.

" Do you intend to opt for us?" Yvonne asked Samuel.

" I met Harvey two days ago. He asked me to go, so I'll go and also join in the fun," Samuel said with a smile. If Gina turned up today, Yara should spit up all Gina's engagement presents. If there was an opportunity to watch such a great program, Samuel would not miss it.

Yvonne frowned and asked yourself if Harvey had transformed his mind. Exactly how could he allow Samuel go there?

At this time, Lydia could not aid asking Samuel, "Samuel, are we truly going to ask Yara spit over all the betrothal presents today?"

" Of course, but she has actually been living a comfortable life recently, and I don't understand just how much cash she has left," Samuel said. Yara took the cash, she invested it like running water.

Lydia couldn't wait to head to the Sue family's Suite to see this great program. Although this betrothal gift would certainly not fall under Yvonne's hands, it was still far better than Yara's.

And it was just today that the Sue family understood who this betrothal present was for.

" Mother, don't talk nonsense after you go." Yvonne reminded her, as if she had actually guessed Lydia was going to do.

"What do you indicate?" Lydia asked in confusion.

Yvonne took a look at Samuel as well as claimed to Lydia, "You can not claim that this engagement present was initially for me."

"Why?" Lydia was irritated. This was a matter of preserving one's honor for Yvonne. Why couldn't she state it?

"I told you not to claim anything. There's nothing wrong with it." Yvonne glared at Lydia.

Lydia took a mindful look at Samuel. "Is he resistant to expose this matter?"

If it remained in the past, Lydia would not have actually attempted to violate her will. Now, she had to consider Samuel's will. If he was not eager, she would certainly not have the ability to claim anything.

"Allow's listen to Yvonne," Samuel stated. After his identification was subjected, he was not sure if it would influence him. However it would certainly be a pity if his image, which took him three years to build, was messed up like this.

Much more importantly, Samuel sucked as to regulate whatever in secret.

Lydia sighed in her heart. Just how could she not state such a honored thing? Had not been she missed the chance to flaunt?

Samuel drove to the Sue household's mansion.

All the relatives in the rental property had not gotten here yet, yet Yara got here really early. She was showing off her name brand name clothing with her peers.

"This gown is a joint restricted style. I can't buy it now with money, yet I spent 10s of thousands of yuan on it."

"And this watch, do you recognize just how much it sets you back? More than 800,000, you can not afford it for the rest of your life."

"Just recently, I have actually taken a fancy to a locket, which costs greater than 300,000 yuan. It hasn't shown up. I can not wait any longer."

Listening to Yara's showing off words, those people echoed with smiles on the surface area, yet in fact, they were very miserable. If it weren't for Harvey providing her the betrothal gifts, just how could she have such a good life?

Currently, they hoped in their hearts that what Samuel had stated would hold true. They wanted to hit Yara difficult on the sharpness of Yara.

When Yvonne's family arrived at the suite, Yara looked displeased when she saw Samuel.
