

Chapter 3232

Yes, the seventh princess is wearing a red belt and gold. Even if you don't know what happened, you can tell what they are here just by looking at the team's dress.

In addition, Yumian Shura has always been fighting against the ghost, as long as he is not a fool, he can understand the situation in each middle school.

Thinking of this situation, the group of rebels suddenly looked at each other.

In order to protect themselves, of course they don't mind killing Gui Zun to please George Han, after all, George Han at this time is the absolute advantage here.

But that's just what I see now at least.

If the seven princesses behind him were counted in, then the situation would be completely different.

Yes, although the entourage of the Seven Princesses at this time was only a hundred people, half of them were courtesy officials and servants, but the remaining half of the fifty-plus elites were obviously extraordinary at a glance.

Think about it, too, the seven princesses of the dignified Pei family dare to take so few people to travel in the land of the swords and blood shadows of the Demon Race. If they don't have two brushes, how could it be possible?

Moreover, the most terrifying thing is the future.

Who is Pei's family?

That is the Hao Xiong who occupies the neighborhood. If you provoke them, unless you don't want to be in the demon clan, otherwise, it is no different from looking for death.

Therefore, George Han may be more fierce now, but more of the current is still the power of the Seven Princesses.

When Gui Zun said these words, a group of people were dumbfounded on the spot, and their previous attitude completely disappeared, and their faces were full of fear.

"Haha, hahaha, come, you don't want to kill me, just come." Seeing this, Gui Zun laughed immediately, full of arrogance.

"Fuck, what are you traitors doing in a daze? Why don't you help me up?" As soon as he said this, several of his subordinates glanced at Hong Luan, looking like they wanted to move but didn't dare to move.

When they were like this, Hong Luan felt even more chaotic in his heart. At this time, he felt a bit difficult to ride a tiger. Finally, he mustered up his courage to use the rudder once when he saw the wind, but unexpectedly the rudder moved, but the wind stopped again.

Don't kill Guizun, George Han can't get through it, but if he kills, what should the follow-up pursuit of Pei family do?

Just as she hesitated, at this time, the Seventh Princess moved slowly.

With the support of several servants and the escort of those elite men, she walked over here.

Hong Luan hurriedly knelt on one knee, and seeing her doing this, a group of people knelt down, with a pious attitude: "I have seen the seventh princess." The seventh princess nodded calmly, and then walked a few steps to the side of the pit, slightly. He bowed his head and glanced at the ghost in the pit: "Are you okay?"

Hearing the words that the seventh princess cared about, even though the ghost was a little uncomfortable, he still squeezed a smile: "I'm fine with the seventh princess, I can't die, Xie Qi The princess cares."

And Hong Luan stopped talking at this time, and took a few of his men to jump down into the pit, and slowly helped the ghost respected, and at this time the ghost respected also finally let out the bad luck. There was a faint sneer on his face.

Let you bastards betray Lao Tzu, do you really think Lao Tzu has no other skills? !

"What are you all fucking doing? Why don't you quickly kill that stinky kid for me to integrate the team?" After Gui Zun was lifted up, he let out a cold cry.

A group of people nodded subconsciously, but they didn't dare to attack rashly. After all, George Han's majesty was still there.

Especially the most important point is the attitude of the Seven Princesses at this time.

"What the hell are you doing? Can't you hear me?" Gui Zun yelled angrily, eager to find his place.

But everyone was still unmoved, just looking at the seventh princess more nervously.

The seventh princess smiled: "Why are you so late?"

Hongluan's head slightly lowered: "Tell the princess, we...we are not his opponent."

Obviously, Hongluan knows very well that as long as it is not a brain disease, he will definitely not look for it when the two masters have been damaged. George Han's trouble.

Unless there is the support of the Seventh Princess and his gang, everyone can try again, otherwise, there is no need to think too much.

"So, you surrendered?" Seventh Princess said.

"Yes." Hongluan lowered his head.

"Fuck, trash, give it to me, give it to me." Guizun roared angrily: "There is the deity and the seventh princess, you are afraid of a hair, kill him."

"Wait." At this moment, the seventh princess spoke: "This matter has nothing to do with this palace, please don't get involved with this palace."

Upon hearing this, Hong Luan and others were suddenly shocked, and Gui Zun was even more astonished...

Chapter 3233

What does this mean?

"Princess Seventh, what do you mean?" Gui Zun asked suspiciously, he even doubted whether his ears were misheard.

"Isn't what I said clearly enough? This matter has nothing to do with this palace, and this palace will never intervene in it." The seventh princess said indifferently.

Gui Zun almost didn't come up in one sigh, and directly carried it by his back.

But when you think about it carefully, it seems that it is true. From beginning to end, their bet is that they and Yumian Shura will lead their own people to kill George Han.

Now that the hundreds of rounds are not over, it is indeed not suitable for her to intervene too much because of reason.

Thinking of this, Gui Zun's mood a little better, stabilized, and yelled at Hong Luan and others next to him: "The hundred rounds are not over yet, how can the Seventh Princess intervene, Hong Luan, immediately assemble the team and kill that kid."

"Although he is indeed a bit weird, don't forget. He has been fighting with us for so long. He is probably exhausted and he is just a paper tiger."

Hong Luan stopped talking, raising his eyes to George Han in the air. , But he didn't see the slightest damage. If she were to kill like this, she really doubted the truthfulness of the words of Ghost Zun.

He doesn't look like a paper tiger.

"Seven princesses." Hong Luan bit his teeth and simply knelt on the ground: "I was incompetent. Before that, Ghost Venerable and Yumian Shura led so many of us, and they couldn't hurt him any more. Instead, he let him kill the general. If you just rely on us, there is no difference between rushing and sending you to death."

"Instead of sending you to death like this, it is better to die at the hands of the seventh princess. I will not go there, but if the seventh princess wants to blame, please kill me. Wait, I have no regrets waiting for death." When the words fell, Hong Luan lowered his head fiercely, as if letting him deal with it.

"Like Hong Luan, I would like to hear the seventh princess condemnation and die without regret."

Almost at the same time, the group of monsters behind Hong Luan also knelt together at this time.

Although begging for sin, everyone understands that this is just retreat to advance. At least, with so many people in unison, even if the Seven Lords commit crimes, they will not kill everyone at once. Bar.

That being the case, it is much better than rushing to death.

Gui Zun was also flustered and angry, how could he think of it, this group of men would actually do it like this.

Convict ?” The seventh princess frowned, and said puzzledly : “What is the crime?” A group of people looked at each other, not understanding the seventh princess’s desire.

“You are all from Devil Cloud Ghost City. Although our princess is a princess, she can’t stretch her hands so long to take care of your troubles.” How clever the entourage was beside the seventh princess, she sneered softly.

“However, the seventh princess is not with my ghost and respect him...Although he hasn’t gone through the door, it is still half...” Hong Luan is not stupid, although she is only promise, she is obviously asking the point.

“Pay attention to your words and deeds.” The entourage said coldly: “My princess is still the son of a boudoir, why come to marry? If you wait for nonsense, the seventh princess really wants to punish you for death.” After the words fell, Hong Luan waited. Although people lowered their heads in shock on the surface, they actually laughed out of them as soon as they lowered their heads.

Because the seven princesses’ argument has actually proved a lot of things, and it has even turned their riding a tiger into a false alarm.

“Seven... Seventh princess, what... what do you mean? Jade-faced Shura said, didn’t you come here to marry me? In the future, Devil Cloud Ghost City will kiss the Pei family, why are you... “After that, the ghost looked at the servant strangely, looking at him suspiciously, as if asking him if he was wrong?

“Pop!”

But as soon as Gui Zun asked, he slapped his face with a slap, and the person who slapped him was not someone else, but just the follower of the Seventh Princess.

For many years, when it was the turn of others to slap himself in such a way, let alone a mere subordinate, the whole crowd was full of black energy on the spot.

It’s just that at this moment, he needs someone’s support even to stand, let alone trying to fight back.

He looked at the men behind him angrily, naturally expecting them to take action, but what he didn’t expect was that at this time, his body staggered, because even the men who were supporting him at this time all retracted their hands and withdrew. Got up...
