

Chapter 3266

When George Han was awake again, the sun was already shining outside the window. Layers of sunlight poured in through the window, and the room was warm.

George Han subconsciously touched his left forehead. If he remembered correctly, when he turned around last night, he was suddenly attacked by something from this direction, and even hit here, and he fainted.

But as George Han got his hands in place, the whole person frowned.

The top of the forehead is abnormally smooth, not only is there no swelling, on the contrary, even a scar is not left.

The strangest thing is that when George Han dazzled his surroundings, although the architecture was different, George Han could tell at a glance that he was in his own wing last night.

It is also in the east wing room!

Could it be that the one who went to the West Chamber last night after nightfall was Dreamland? !

George Han didn't really know the time, but at least judging from the scar on his forehead and where he woke up, it was not unreasonable to guess the dream state.

But the fact that he went to the West Chamber last night was really real, not like a dream.

This...

what is going on?

Just when George Han was in a lot of doubts, at this time, he heard the noises outside, which was quite noisy.

"VIP, are you awake?"

A figure appeared at the door and asked patiently.

George Han knew that he was the old housekeeper last night, and he softly echoed: "What's the matter with the old housekeeper?"

"Hehe, it's fine, just honor the order of the city lord and give something away. If it's inconvenient for the distinguished guests, the old man will come back later. "After speaking, the old butler was about to turn around and leave.

"Come in." George Han replied, and then he got up from the bed and walked down.

The old butler opened the door and walked in with a smile, holding a tray in his hand, and on the tray was a set of exquisite clothes: "The Lord of the city asked Lao Yu early in the morning to let Lao Yu give this set of clothes to the distinguished guests. "

The old man came here earlier, but it was too early. I saw that there was no movement in the room. I guessed that the VIP might still be resting, so I didn't dare to disturb it. Okay?"

George Han's heart trembled. I don't know if his rest is good or not, but he smiled and said, "Thank you, the old housekeeper, for your concern. Rest is fine."

"Right, why is it outside? So noisy?" George Han turned off the topic.

"Haha." The old butler smiled, picked up the clothes on the tray, and put them in the air, so that George Han could come to change clothes, and at the same time slowly said: "As usual, generally speaking, this city lord's mansion is extremely quiet, because it's a quiet location, and when my city lord has always had nothing to do, I am quite happy."

"But today, it's different, because there have been major events in the city lord's mansion."

To be honest, George Han felt a little guilty when he heard this. After all, the night detective failed last night. Could it be that Zhu Yanshuo had already discovered that she had deliberately placed herself here to paralyze herself, but in fact she had already shouted and surrounded herself?

Thinking of this, an imperceptible chill flashed in George Han's eyes: "A big event? What a big event?"
The

old Guan family naturally did not pay attention to George Han's passing chill, and still said cheerfully on his face: "It's a very big thing. This is not only for our city lord, but also for the tens of thousands of people who should have fallen into the city."

Hearing this, George Han was a little strange. It has nothing to do with thousands of city citizens.

Could it be something else?

"The old butler, please tell me more." George Han said.

"Hehe, the old man has sold it a bit, and I hope that the distinguished guests will not be angry. After all, it is a happy event, and the old man is a little courageous." After the old housekeeper put on George Han's clothes, he continued to laugh and said: "My lady is going to get married."

"Getting married?" George Han frowned.

The old butler nodded again and again: "Yes, my young lady is facing the whole city today, facing the whole city, you say, this..."

Before the old butler finished speaking, George Han grabbed the old butler fiercely and drank in a hurry. "Your lady, but Xia Wei? No, Zhu Yan'er?" The old housekeeper was taken aback by George Han. Before he could answer, George Han rushed out!

Chapter 3267

George Han doesn't need the old butler to answer, because from his eyes, he has already got the answer he needs.

It was Zhu Yan'er and Xia Wei who were not the one who recruited relatives.

George Han would never let this happen. He knew Xia Wei's identity better than anyone else. She was the daughter of the Phoenix, so how could she just give it to others?

This is related to the nirvana rebirth of the Phoenix clan, Xia Ran handed her younger sister into her own hands, how could she let Xia Wei marry other people casually? ,

Even if I have no relationship with her, but the person who marries her, in George Han, must have Xia Wei's consent.

Thinking of this, George Han felt even more worried, and his pace toward the noisy and noisy place was also speeding up.

He didn't know what happened to Xia Wei, but at least before Xia Wei was sane, it was absolutely impossible for her to engage in a martial art contest.

A few minutes later, George Han traversed the entire apse and rushed to the main hall of the city lord's mansion.

Like many city lord's mansions, there is still an extremely empty hall in front of the lord's main hall, which can demonstrate the majesty of the lord's hall, and at the same time, it is also a training place for the city lord's generals.

However, on the training ground at this time, the ground that had already accommodated nearly 10,000 soldiers was abruptly crowded with people. It would not be an exaggeration to describe it as impenetrable.

George Han stared at the crowd in front of him, trying to rush through the crowd, but found that it was actually too crowded. Every time George Han charged almost half a meter outside the crowd, he was directly bounced away again. out.

But before George Han could react, more and more people poured in behind him, but his way was completely blocked.

"Hey, I didn't expect that City Lord Zhu who should be in the city actually has a younger sister. I haven't heard of that."

"That's not it. I always thought that City Lord Zhu was just a concubine who was kicked out. Where can I think of it and actually bring a younger sister out."

"However, it is probably not a good product if it is so hidden and tucked away. Otherwise, why would you not mention it on weekdays?" " "

but, in the end is Santo's sister ah, even if it is ugly identity in that, if she was to marry, and that is once flew up into the branches become Phoenix ah, that's Santo pro-brother ah. " "

Today, cloud magic ghost town were destroyed, the fall Santo potential big party, future prospects may be more unlimited, can become his brother, indeed very attractive. " "

At that time the house red flag does not fall, colorful flags fluttering outside, would not It's also a great event in life?"

At this time, the people around them were discussing with excitement, teasing, and agitated. Many people had even waited impatiently, looking eager to try.

For most people, the fact that the sister of the city lord is not beautiful is a thing of the future, and even many people have made up the determination that the sister of the city lord must be ugly.

After all, this city lord Zhu did not announce it long ago, but did not announce it later, but announced it at such a time when it was time to fall in the city. The purpose is really ready to come out!

This takes the opportunity to marry a younger sister.

Obviously, isn't it because of this?

But even so, what can be done? The most important thing at the moment is that the current City Lord Zhu is a popular fried chicken. Who can tie such a thigh is naturally worry-free in the future.

Even, you can still have power in your hands.

How can this make people uncomfortable?

And almost at this time, above the hall, a courtesy officer slowly walked out: "Everyone, be quiet, quiet."

"First of all, on behalf of City Lord Zhu, I would like to thank you all for coming to participate in the contest between City Master Zhu's sisters and sisters.

Recruiting relatives." "Next, I will invite City Lord Zhu and Princess Zhu to appear on the stage." After the words fell, Zhu Yanshuo and Zhu Yaner slowly walked out of the hall...
