

Chapter 3276– 3277 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3276

Today is the day of great joy in the Chu family, and all the places along the way are full of flowers.

Even the stone steps below are covered with brand new red carpets.

On both sides of the mountain road, the guards of the Chu family stood on both sides.

One post with ten steps and one post with five steps.

The densely packed guards undoubtedly constitute today's steel defense, guarding the Chumen Hall on the top of the mountain.

At this time, the change of the mountain gate naturally quickly attracted the attention of nearby guards.

Soon, a series of guards walked down.

However, in front of Mark, these people looked like chickens and dogs, but they couldn't even stop Mark for a moment. After only one face, Mark vomited blood and flew upside down.

However, as more and more guards came down, more and more powerful men gathered in front of Mark.

In the end, the twelve wolf-level internal guards who were responsible for maintaining the public order of the Chu family had been dispatched.

They were half a month old, surrounding the youth group in front of them.

Senran's cold eyes, like a wolf before the hunt, locked Mark only.

"Who came, dare to make trouble in my Chumen Mountain?"

"I really don't know what to die?"

Twelve of the Chu family's wolf-class internal guards yelled, sullen and stunned everywhere.

“Chu Family, Chu Tianfan.” The faint voice echoed quietly.

“Huh?”

“Chu family?”

“Which Chu family are you?”

“Could it be that a distant relative of the Chu family failed.”

“Since the Chu family has the same surname, on the day of the Chu family’s young master’s wedding, why don’t you bow down to congratulate you, why are you doing things indiscriminately here?”

“Frankly explain, you come to Chumen Mountain , What are you trying to do?” The Chu family’s strong internal guard asked again angrily.

The young man raised his head, and a cold voice sounded: “According to the ancestor’s order, kill Chu Qitian, destroy Chu Zhengliang, clean up the door!”

Boom ~ The

cold storm lifted up the wind and sand in the sky.

The few words of the young man in front of him fell in the ears of everyone, no doubt like a shocking stone.

All the people present were shocked.

Chu family within that twelve wolves level guard, is furious: “! Presumptuous” “I Chu Lord every family, did you that children can offend insult”?

“Is simply seeking death!”

Beneath the anger, strong front Those who did, they all shot together and rushed up.

A melee is about to start!

Below the mountain gate, there was already a mess.

The top of Chumen Mountain is still prosperous and lively.

In the hall, dozens of musicians played in unison.

The cheerful music makes the atmosphere here more enthusiastic.

At this time, in the melodious music, the two newcomers have already stepped onto the red carpet.

Chu Qitian's face was radiant, and his white suit showed his noble and handsome temperament.

From a distance, it looked like a gentle and elegant noble son.

And the woman next to him, dressed in a snow-white wedding dress, with long golden hair like a waterfall flowing. The exquisite facial features, even under the veil of the wedding dress, are still intoxicating.

“Perfect match ~”

“perfect match ah.”

“Congratulations Chu master of the house, the master of the house Hershey Chu.”

“Tianqi nephew to marry such a wife, which later gave birth to the next generation, and will also Empress Dowager ah.”

Japan country Wangyuehe, the sword god, gave a compliment.

With the flattering face, he almost knelt on the ground and wagged his tail for Chu Zhengliang.

Originally, this time the Chu family invited the Japanese Moon God to attend.

However, the Moon God has always disliked the secular world, so he could only attend the banquet by the palace lord of the Sword God Palace, Mochizuki River.

Tang Hao, who was next to him, looked at Mochizuki's face, but he was contemptuous.

“But Juggernaut, we also have to admit that this Chu family did indeed marry a good daughter-in-law.”

“I heard that the eldest lady of the Jones family is not only beautiful and beautiful, but there seems to be something hidden in her body. Secret.”

“I was thinking before, let us find a way to soak the eldest lady of the Jones family.”

“Now it seems that we can only die of this heart.”

Chapter 3277

Tang Hao sighed, and his words were full of regrets.

After all, if Mo Wuya can soak An Qi Jones in his hands, then the Yanxia martial arts will not only have a powerful foreign aid, but also the secrets of this Miss An Qi will belong to them.

At that time, their overall power in the hot summer martial arts will surely rise to a higher level.

However, when he heard what Tang Hao said, the Juggernaut shook his head and smiled: "You fellow, always think about good things."

"Not to mention that we have no boundaries, can we capture the heart of the young lady of the Jones family."

"That's it . I really like this Miss Jones. Do you think the Truman family will agree to this marriage?"

"In the future, I should say less about such unrealistic things." "Can't you think about it?" Tang Hao complained. Screamed.

"I'm not thinking about this for our hot summer. If Miss Jones family marries our hot summer, we will not only have an alluring beauty in the hot summer, but also enjoy the secrets of the Jones family eldest." The Juggernaut still shook his head. With a smile: "Just dream. If you want to conquer the eldest lady of the Truman Jones family, first of all, we will come up with an outstanding wizard comparable to Chu Qitian in the summer."

"Wu Ya, this child is also very good.

" But in the past two years, I've been severely injured and dying when going out for experience."

"From this aspect, it shows that Wuya's ability is still insufficient. At this time, it's simply embarrassing and needs to be tempered."

"You Chu family. The Three Young Master Zhuyu is in front, do you think people can appreciate our Wuya?" The wedding is still going on here, but the Juggernaut and Tang Hao are discussing the land of hot summer, who has the patience and deserves it. The Truman goddess conquered the little princess of the Jones family.

“What about Mark?”

“Mark is always worthy of this little princess.” “The titled master in his early twenties, looking at the world, he should be Mark alone.”

Tang Hao suddenly said that. Come out Mark’s name.

Seeing the face of Juggernaut, he suddenly became cold.

Obviously, Mark now has a very bad impression in the heart of the Juggernaut.

“This Mark is very talented, but his morality is corrupt and he has abandoned his family and abandoning his country.”

“This son’s virtue is not worthy, and it will be difficult for long. It will be sooner or later that he falls prematurely.”

“What’s more, this Mark was born humble. He is covered with bad habits, like those village ruffians on the street. What’s the difference?”

“Then he is compared with the third young master of the Chu family, you are afraid that he is praised.”

“As for the realm, maybe Mark is now above the young master of the Chu family.”

“But don’t forget, the third young master of the Chu family is only about 20 this year.”

“Give him a few more years. When he reaches Mark’s grade, his realm skills will definitely not be inferior to that of Mark.”

“What’s more, Even if the realm of Chu Qitian is not better than that of Mark, he gave an order to mobilize countless powerhouses in the Chu family. When Mark sees it, he can only escape by hearing the wind.”

“Family background, background, and the power he mastered, which one? are a far cry. “Chu family with three young master “

Relying on this, except for the little princess blind Jones family, otherwise it might not fancy this and other non-German righteous generation as Fan Ye! “

Juggernaut The words are cold, and the cold words are full of anger.

Originally, the Juggernaut had doubts about Mark’s virtue and ability.

However, due to the strong sponsorship of the God of War and others, the Juggernaut was able to endure all the killings and cross-line incidents committed by Mark before, opening one eye and closing one eye.

But this time, in the battle on Trivan Lake, Mark first beheaded the five imperial masters, and then injured Mo Gucheng, the permanent master of the Wushen Temple.

So far, Mo Gucheng can't afford to be seriously injured.

Such behavior has already trampled on the bottom line of the Juggernaut.

Keeping this child will do more harm than good to the hot summer.
