

Chapter 3288

Wow!

The world changes color!

The powerful air current that she rushed over even directly caused the entire huge ring to tremble wildly. The surrounding air waves broke open, and countless spectators who were nearly 20 meters away from the arena were directly overturned by the air waves.

The ceremonial officials near the stage were even more miserable. They didn't know what was going on. They were blown away on the spot and blown around the ring like a ball, rolling east and west.

"What a powerful force." Beside the arena, the guards and masters beside Zhu Yan'er hurriedly propped up the energy wall as a resistance, but even so, Zhu Yan'er could almost see that the energy wall was almost completely broken into snowflakes.

Zhu Yanshuo smiled and was not shocked. Yes, he was very aware of the strength of the Black Mountain Demon Girl, and was naturally very satisfied.

George Han still closed his eyes slightly, without any panic at all, and even the Anti-Buddha was like a giant mountain, motionless.

But in fact, George Han had already used his thoughts to urge the little black stick to turn into a very strong armor on the outermost layer of his body. At the same time, the whole person also held his breath and stiffened his body, waiting for the terrifying blow of the Black Mountain Demon Girl.

Such a master, how could George Han not be prepared.

The Black Mountain Demon Girl clenched her teeth, hateful, annoying, she attacked so fiercely, but George Han was unmoved at all.

What does he mean by that? !

Sure enough, is there really an ambush? !

"Go to hell." She drank coldly, and as she got close to George Han, she punched him, but she also had to admit that because of her previous worries and Sisi's worries now, although this energy was the same. Not small, but definitely not doing enough.

boom!

A sky-shattering blow, coming at the same time!

With a sudden explosion, the Black Mountain Demon Girl smashed directly on George Han's body with an extremely strong punch.

The huge wave of the explosion directly caused the ground to burst within a few meters of the entire arena with George Han as the center, and the huge stones were scattered and smashed as if they had been blasted.

Pain pain.

The pain is almost deep into the bone marrow, even a guy like George Han with amazing pain tolerance can't help grinning at this time.

His anti-Buddha was crushed by more than a dozen mountains, and all the anti-Buddha in his body was crushed crazily.

"Bang!" With

a loud noise, the muscles burst!

boom!

The blood is flowing!

But what made George Han even more desperate was that his body suddenly loosened at this time. George Han knew that the outermost black stick was completely extinguished.

However, this strong current in front of him continued to squeeze himself mercilessly.

The blood continued to flow from his mouth, and George Han felt that he was about to die.

"Huh!"

"You lost."

Under the stage, the Zhuangzhuang person who was far away let out a long sigh. At this time, he finally put down the big stone in his heart, because it was obvious that the powerful demonic energy was attacking George Han like a complete explosion. Qian, and George Han at this time looked more like an egg in front of the boulder.

Not surprisingly, he was already on the verge of being destroyed.

The dog gambler also stomped his feet viciously, saying that the more he gambled on the dog, the more he gambled, and in the end his family was ruined.

Once he had bet his life's luck on the right one, but he didn't know what to do, so he insisted on being greedy again and again.

Shaking his head helplessly, he agreed.

But at this moment, the scene that was completely darkened by demonic energy was suddenly illuminated by golden light.

"what is that?"

The crowd exclaimed, and when Zhuang Zhuang and the dog gambler looked up, shock was written all over the golden face reflected by the golden light.

At this time, George Han, who was in the midst of demonic energy, suddenly burst into golden light all over his body!

He is like a god and Buddha in the midst of demonic energy.

"Roar!"

Long Xian!

“Roar!”

Feng Chu!

“Roar!”

Tiger howl!

“Roar!”

Xuanwu stood up!

The totem of the four-sided beast suddenly appeared beside George Han!

Mighty and extraordinary.

At the most dangerous moment, things that belong to George Han themselves play their own role as guardians without the need for George Han’s internal force to motivate them!

“What?!”

“What?”

“What?!”

Almost at the same time, the Black Mountain Demon Girl, Zhu Yanshuo, and Zhu Yan’er opened their eyes and opened their mouths simultaneously.

How can this be? !

What is this? !

Of course, it’s not over yet, a more bizarre thing is still slowly rising in George Han’s arms...

Chapter 3289

it.” “What is it?” In the crowd, when someone saw the four-colored little thing, they couldn’t help but sigh.

Yes, it is very small, and it is almost inferior to a fist of a demon like them. Feel it’s unusual.

It was a strange force, even, you could say, four forces.

“Okay... I’m familiar with it, but I don’t seem to have seen it before.” Zhu Yanshuo frowned, not knowing why he had a particularly strange feeling in his heart.

The Black Mountain Demon Girl also frowned. Like Zhu Yanshuo, she also had an unusually strange feeling, unable to speak or speak.

Five Elements God Stone!

Like the totem of the four beasts, it also protected the master at a critical moment when George Han's life was fatally threatened.

Four forces slowly wrapped around George Han, who was scattered with golden bodies. Two of them repaired George Han's damaged body. The other two forces merged with the golden light of the golden body. On the front line, strangers yet familiar with each other against the enemy.

"What is the origin of this guy?" Zhu Yan'er stood up abruptly, she was puzzled, why George Han resisted the Black Eyed Mountain Demon Girl's move in this way.

She was even more puzzled as to what these strange things George Han were all about.

The Black Mountain Demon Girl stared at her eyes, and at the same time she was ready to be counterattacked at any time. Although she had agreed a move to determine the outcome, in the face of such a strange George Han, her subconsciousness also made her do it silently. Be prepared.

"Boom!"

With the explosion of all the rays of light on George Han's body, the demonic energy that rushed towards the periphery, the two rays of light exploded with a loud noise, and all the rays of light on George Han's body dissipated.

Everything seems to have become calm.

"Wow!"

"Bang!"

But before it completely dissipated, the remaining demonic energy, like a long sword, directly penetrated George Han's body...

"Pfft!"

George Han immediately gushed blood and sprayed Like blood fog, the sky is full of them.

"Beautiful!"

Almost at the same time, under the stand, the onlookers clenched their fists and shouted.

After many twists and turns, the final result was still very satisfying to them. In the end, the Black Mountain Demon Girl was superior in skills, and she almost beat the whistle to complete the most fatal blow.

"It turns out that it's meaningless to do a bunch of bells and whistles, at least in the face of absolute strength, it's almost no different from the clown jumping beam."

"This kid was a complete waste in my eyes at first, although he lost, but , To be honest, he broke my original impression of him, at least under such a ferocious attack from the Black Mountain Demon Girl, he can persist for so long."

“Being able to persist for one second and ten seconds is actually in essence. There is no difference, they all lose. However, objectively I agree with what you said that this kid is far less rubbish than he looks on the surface. However, it is a pity that this guy’s mouth is too stinky. Take your own life into it.”

“So, if you have a few pounds or two, you must have a familiar self-awareness. The toad wants to eat swan meat, and the last thing that falls is that even the skin of the toad has to be peeled off. It’s gone.”
In the stands, everyone was talking loudly and eloquently. Although they were no longer so vicious and abused against George Han, in fact it was only because the results were what they were happy to see, so they were so “kind” .

However, compared with them, the real participant Heishan Yaoji was not at all happy. She looked at George Han and stared at her. She was waiting. She knew that it was not the time to be happy.

“Bang!” There was a loud noise, and George Han slammed back on the ground in response.

At this moment, the icy face of the Black Mountain Demon Girl finally relaxed, showing bursts of smiles.

Only when the enemy in front of him completely falls down can the Black Mountain Demon Girl be sure that she is the real winner.

Clap clap clap!

Almost at the same time, on the stage, there was applause everywhere, thunder continued, and the group of vested interests, who were sitting in the village, cheered and rejoiced.

But almost at this moment, a cough suddenly appeared out of time...

Then, a slightly mocking voice also appeared...
