

Chapter 3296– 3297 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3296

Chu Zhenghong, who learned of this, was almost pissed to death by the bastard he had given birth to.

I tried so hard to show you a wife of ten years, but your special mother became a son-in-law?

Chu Zhenghong, who was half-dead with anger, rushed to Huaxia without saying a word, trying to take Mark away.

What happened later became clear.

Mark was determined, and Chu Zhenghong didn't change his decision at all.

In desperation, Chu Zhenghong had no choice but to accept this fact and sent someone to make up for Helen Qiu's dowry.

But where did Chu Zhenghong think, his son, and An Qi still met later.

Things in this world are so mysterious.

Intentionally planting flowers does not bloom, unintentionally planting willows and willows make a shade.

However, Mark naturally ignored everyone's reaction.

In his eyes, there is only the Chu family and only the people in the Chu family who have brought him and his mother a serious disaster in front of him.

Facing Chu Zhengliang's sarcasm, Mark remained unmoved.

Instead, he looked around, as if looking for someone else.

“Chu Zhengliang, you and my grievances, I will count

it for you later.” “Chu Zhenghong, let him get out and see me!”

“There is also the old bastard Chu Yuan, whether he is dead or not.”

“If not. Death, let him get out too~”

“Tell him that Chu Tianfan, the bastard born to the Chu family who abandoned his son, came to the Chu family to collect debts!”

Mark looked around and shouted angrily.

The words are sonorous, just like a stone.

Senran’s words, Ling’s entire hall, the temperature dropped sharply, almost to freezing point.

And Mark’s original indifferent expression, at this moment, it is difficult to keep calm.

Ten years.

These words, he repeated in his heart over and over again for ten years.

Chu Yuan, Chu Zhengong, and the ruthless faces of the Chu family leaders still make Mark’s memory deep.

And now, ten years of sorrow, thousands of days of grievances, finally drank it today.

The emotion that has been suppressed for many years is just like flooding.

Everyone present felt a deep hatred and majestic murderous intent in Mark’s heart.

“Presumptuous!”

“You abandoned son, how dare

you

say nothing and disrespect the old man?” “Even if your father is here, he would never dare to insult him like this !” Hearing Mark’s rebellious remarks, everyone in the Chu family Undoubtedly, everyone was furious, and they scolded Mark one after another.

“This wicked species, he dares to come back?”

“It made my Chu family restless back then!”

“I was waiting for your dog’s life. I didn’t expect you to come to collect debt if you didn’t know how to be grateful

?”

“What does our Chu family owe you?”

“On the contrary, it’s you. The Chu family’s blood is still flowing in the body.”

“At the beginning, our Chu family should not be merciful. When a sword kills you, this little beast, it will destroy your Chu family. Lineage, why is there today’s incident?”

After learning that the young man in front of him was the bereaved dog Brian Chu that they had driven out of the house back then, the Chu family elders not only showed no regrets but became even angrier.

Think that this Mark is a white-eyed wolf, forgiving him for not dying, not grateful, but more than ten years later, actually came to revenge?

“What else is not owed?”

” Is it really not?” “Who humiliated my mother and son in every possible way?”

“Who is it, who chased me for ten years and wanted to kill me?”

“But, what you said is also what you said. Yes, the Chu family does not owe me anything.”

“It is you pigs and dogs that owe me!”

“I, Chu Tianfan, came back this time, not only Yixue’s shame back then but also the dream of the ancestors of the Chu family, killing you all. This group of pigs and dogs, clean up the door!”

Boom~ The

words fell, and Mark suddenly exploded.

Between the cracks of the floor under the feet, the majestic power brought up, unexpectedly turned these Chu family-stunned people on their backs.

“Die me!”

Mark yelled, sternly slapped a few Chu family elders in front of him, and directly photographed them.

Those old Chu family members were almost scared to pee at the time.

They resolutely discovered that the strength of the abandoned son of the Chu family was so terrifying? Only the release of coercion made them afraid to move.

“Animal, stop!”

Chapter 3297

Chu Zhengliang was undoubtedly shocked when he saw that Mark was going to kill the Chu family.

Quickly stepped forward, the energy swept, and the powder exploded.

A fierce attack fell immediately, and it collided fiercely with Mark's palm wind. After a stalemate, Mark's attack was eliminated.

After receiving Mark's palm, Chu Zhengliang stood in front of everyone, staring coldly at the young man in front of him.

"You bastard, you are so rebellious, you dare to attack my Chu family?"

"I think you really don't want to live anymore!"

"However, because you have the Chu family blood, I will save you the last face. . ."

"If want to die too hard to see it himself. "

so, also in the world, to leave dead bodies! "

spake, Chuzheng Liang took a sword in the hands of guards from the side, direct throw in the leaves Under Fan's feet, let Mark decide for himself.

Upon seeing this, Mark couldn't help laughing.

"Haha~"

"Chu Zhengliang, I think you have practiced Yundao Tianjue in the past few years, and you have broken your brain."

"If I, Chu Tianfan, would not be able to climb Chumen Mountain today?"

"Since I am standing here now, I naturally have the confidence to make your Chu family bow down and surrender!"

"Ten years."

"I have been drinking ice for ten years, Chu Tianfan, and I am here today. What you did to me and my mother back then, pay the price!"

Mark's words were cold, and his anger was full of murderous intent.

"Let us pay the price?"

Not only Chu Zhengliang laughed at Mark's words, the whole Chu family also laughed.

Even Mochizuki River and other martial arts leaders laughed.

Both Tang Hao and Sword Saint both shook their heads.

Obviously, they all felt that Mark's words were a bit big.

Although Brian Chu had decent strength, he was not even in the top ten in the rankings of that year.

Not to mention whether Chu Sect will intervene in today's affairs, even with the strength of the Chu Family alone, it is by no means Mark alone can contend.

You know, the strength of the Chu family is like a cloud, and there are even a few who are among the top ten on the list.

Mark wanted to step down the entire Chu Family with one person, which was nothing short of wishful thinking.

That's why, the Juggernaut would feel that Mark will make trouble in Chumen Mountain today, there will be no return.

Because a family with a huge background is definitely not something Mark alone can contend.

When everyone was ridiculing, Chu Zhengliang looked at Mark sarcastically: "My nephew, I admit that you are very good."

"It is said that you have stepped on the whole country of Japan with one person.

" However, you don't think that the little Japanese martial arts can be compared with my Chu family, right?"

"Only you, I want our Chu family to bow down and surrender."

"Three uncles, I can only say. Now you are too young, too naive, and too self-righteous."

Chu Zhengliang shook his head and said, with the lofty look and the proud voice, just like a monarch in the hands of a country, looking down on his own hand.

Chu Qitian next to him also snorted, "It's an idiot."

"A scornful abandoned son who wants to come back for revenge when he has some abilities ?" "A mere person, dare to provoke my Chu family?" " I can't help myself !" For a while, in the hall, there was a lot of laughter. .

Many people looked at Mark as if they were an idiot.

However, in the face of the full house of sarcasm, Mark didn't move. Instead, he chuckled and faintly replied: "Oh?"

"Who said that this time, I am the only one here?"

Mark said indifferently, and Ling was present. The people are all stagnant.

It was Chu Zhengliang's face that had originally sneered but also suddenly stagnated.

He frowned, looked at Mark, and said solemnly: "Could it be that you still have a party?"

Boom~
