

Chapter 3308

"The little land temple suddenly greeted the great god, and it is a real honor to come here two at a time." The shadow smiled faintly, and then he slowly turned around, revealing a slender and strange body.

It is like a wolf and a fox, about 1.6 meters high, without a waist, like a waist, like a fox head suddenly grows on the waist, and it seems that the fox below and the wolf above are combined into one.

"Blood ghosts?"

"Damn it, blood ghosts have always only appeared in the emperor's space, why did they come to the hall today?"

"Damn it, that kid really has a lot of background, this is unprecedented in our underground black market. It's the first time it's like this."

"Damn, it really is a real person who doesn't show his face. Fortunately, I just held back and didn't provoke this guy."

"Hey, yes, I don't think about it, people are so old at such a young age. If you don't have the ability to accompany a beautiful woman, how can you attract such a beautiful woman?" A group of people whispered, the core of the topic was still George Han, but they found a 360-degree change in attitude.

How much ridicule before, how much respect and envy now.

"It's not a great god, Ning is only a mere mortal, so one is enough." Ning Ruyu smiled lightly.

"There are rumors in the rivers and lakes that Young Master Ruyu is dignified and polite, young and promising, and quite prestigious, but now, he is willing to bow his knees in front of this son, which is surprising." After the words were finished, the man of the wolf wolf looked at George Han, smiled on both faces: "I've seen the young master at the helm of the underground black market."

George Han smiled and raised his hand slightly: "You're welcome."

"This place is not a place to talk. Emperor space, as for the sales fair, that's it for now." The shadow suddenly disappeared.

The old dwarf nodded slowly and announced that after today's auction was over, he led a few beautiful girls and walked towards George Han and the others.

"VIP, VIP, please come with me." The old dwarf's face was full of smiles, and his enthusiasm was almost bubbling.

Behind him, several girls tried their best to make themselves smile the most beautiful, so as to present their best side in front of George Han.

Even if they knew that he had female relatives, they didn't care at all. After all, it was totally worth it to spend a night with such a big man.

However, what disappointed them was that George Han's eyes never looked at them from beginning to end.

Under the leadership of the old dwarf, the group walked through the entire hall and went out towards the innermost center.

"Here in the underground black market, no matter whether it's a bloodbath or a mountain of corpses, it will always insist on holding auctions every night. It's almost been decades since the auction was suddenly suspended like today. This is enough to see us. How much importance does the master give to the two distinguished guests." The old dwarf said slowly and leisurely as he came along.

After passing through the hall, several people came to a black door at the end of the hall. After the old dwarf said some strange secret words to the door, as the door creaked open, the old dwarf bowed respectfully: "Several, Please come in."

Young Master Ruyu smiled, slightly polite, and gestured for George Han to go first.

George Han responded with a smile, and he was not polite, and took Zhu Yan'er into the door first.

Even George Han had seen many palaces, and he couldn't help but be amazed when he entered the door at this time.

The golden bricks and jade wares look like a golden house built in gold. The carvings in the jade wares are like the carvings. The whole house is full of jewels and jewels. It is simply luxurious to the extreme.

This house is very large, and there are three huge golden chairs in the house, which are half-reclining, graceful and luxurious, and there are several blankets on them. Just looking at it from a distance, you can see that the price is not cheap.

The imperial space, to be honest, even if it is really an emperor, it may not be able to have such an extravagant residence.

"Sit down on the jade unicorn chairs for the two distinguished guests." The old dwarf instructed, and the girls hurried to George Han and Young Master Ruyu.

The four women are surrounded by handrails and arms, as if the Buddha was supporting a dying man. When it was George Han's turn, Zhu Yan'er saw that the girls were so close to Young Master Ruyu, so she blocked them. Girl, she has to personally help George Han to sit on the chair.

At almost the same time, at the top of the space, the man of the jackal also put on a new suit and walked out slowly.

"Since you have entered the emperor, you are VIPs in the black market. Two, I don't know why you are here this time.

Chapter 3309

Ruyu Young Master smiled softly: "Ning is just here to accompany Brother Han, and has no other thoughts. As for what Brother Han wants, it is what Ning wants.

"The humility also raised the position of George Han very high. Even George Han had to admit that it was indeed very pleasing to speak like a jade son.

"This is the first time this VIP has met. I think it's not me who should be in the city." The man of the jackal smiled softly, looking at George Han.

"Anyone who enters the imperial space can put forward what they want. Whether it is a rare treasure or other unimaginable things, my master will try his best to satisfy it."

George Han nodded, his hand moved slightly, and the space As soon as the ring was opened, a small mountain of gold jewelry was poured out.

"Except for the 10 million amethysts that were full of things just now, I believe that this batch of jewels is enough to have at least 5 million left. Does the blood boss have any doubts about this?"

Wei Wei swept the jewels on the ground, the blood ghost Wei Wei A smile: "This batch of jewelry is worth 18 million, and the VIPs are underestimated."

"What the VIPs want, please tell me."

"I want to find someone." After George Han finished speaking, he glanced at the next door Zhu Yan'er said, "I want to find someone who looks exactly like her."

Hearing this, the blood ghost was stunned for a moment, and his voice suddenly changed to a female voice. George Han lowered his eyes and looked down. , but found that the vampire talking at this time was no longer the wolf head at the top, but the fox head in the center: "What do you mean by VIP?"

"I have a friend who looks exactly like her, she should be there She has been in the city or has been around, so I wonder if you can provide some clues about her?" The blood ghost smiled slightly, then moved his hand slightly, and the pile of gold was pushed directly in front of George Han, smiled, and said: "This is Fate and fate in the world are all destined, since there are already completely replaceable people around the distinguished guests, why go to the former people?"

"It's like a sword. It's a pity to lose it, but with age, it's inevitable that the sword in your hand will rot a lot. If you have the same new sword, why not do it?"

"Yu VIP, general."

"The old slave is here. " "Take care of the two VIPs, I will pay for today's consumption."

"Yes, master." After the words were finished, the blood ghost got up gently and was about to leave.

"I'm used to using a sword, and my hands naturally have calluses. How can I hold a new sword easily?" George Han stood up slightly, looking at the blood ghost and said anxiously.

"Gu Jian is deeply in love, it's a good thing, but sometimes it's too emotional, but... hehe." Shaking his head, his figure suddenly disappeared.

George Han and the others looked at each other in dismay, and Young Master Ruyu also stood up at this time, looking at the old dwarf and said: "Old senior, in the imperial space, there has always been a rule that guests make requests, and the black market will never refuse, today, it is again What do you mean?" The old dwarf shook his head: "Theoretically, this is true, but there are exceptions to everything. Since my master is unwilling to take orders, as far as the old slave is concerned, the VIPs should dismiss this matter.

"The signboard has been ringing for many years, and the owner of the house will not refuse it unless it is a last resort.

On the contrary, if the boss chooses to refuse, it also confirms the high difficulty of the matter in some aspects.

For this, Young Master Ruyu naturally understood, and could only look at George Han and said, "If Brother Han doesn't dislike it, Ning has some entourage who can be dispatched."

"I'm sorry, I didn't expect even blood ghosts. I can't help you." Zhu Yan'er was also apologetic.

George Han's expression was slightly condensed, and he didn't say a word, not knowing what he was thinking.

For a moment, he suddenly looked at the old dwarf and said with a smile: "Since I have taken out the money, there is no reason to take it back. Can you let me see your master alone again?"

"VIP, this..." The old dwarf was extremely Difficult.

The host's words are always the same, neither taking orders, nor bothering too much is boring.

"Don't worry, I just want to buy one thing, and it has absolutely nothing to do with what I just asked."

Hearing George Han's words, the old dwarf glanced at Ning Ruyu, saw him nodding, and sighed: "I'll ask Master." The words fell, and the old dwarf walked into the distance, and then disappeared.

After a while, the old dwarf reappeared, looking at George Han, he nodded: "Please come with me, the master agrees."

George Han nodded and walked over there, leaving only Ning Ruyu He and Zhu Yaner were in a daze, wondering what George Han wanted to buy.
