

Chapter 3314

When Ning Ruyu felt the pressure of the four strong breaths, the door was opened again, and the four figures also slowed down walked in slowly.

Even a future star like Ning Ruyu couldn't help but put his heart in his throat when he saw these four.

"Black Mountain Demon Girl, White Face Rain Demon, Phoenix Chicken Old Immortal, Big Foot Venerable!?"

Ning Ruyu exclaimed slightly, her face pale.

Although I had heard that after the fall of the city, many experts joined in, but after all, the rumors were just rumors, and it was shocking enough to see a super expert like the Black Mountain Demon Girl.

But who could have imagined that Zhu Yanshuo not only has masters like the Black Mountain Demon Girl, but there are four terrifyingly at once?

The white-faced rain demon, the old immortal phoenix, and the venerable bigfoot, they are all existences whose reputation and strength are absolutely no less than that of the black mountain enchantress. Everyone can shock one side, and they are real boss-level characters.

It's no wonder that Zhu Sandu, his personal bodyguard, was completely defeated after only a small block when the terrain was dominant.

"How dare you dare to break into the City Lord's Mansion at night, why, do you think you have lived too long?" The Black Mountain Demon Girl looked at the masked Young Master Ruyu and said coldly.

"Choose a way to die, whether you want to be completely unrecognizable, or the corpse is separated, we can satisfy you." The white-faced rain demon man, as his name suggests, has a face that is covered with flour to prevent Buddha, and it is terrifyingly white.

Although Fengji Lao Xian was an old man, he looked kind in white clothes and white hair, but the sharp cold light in his eyes always explained to everyone that this person was extremely insidious.

As for the Venerable Bigfoot, he is the only one of the four who looks normal and faces peace.

, but his big terrifying left foot is already daunting.

Ning Ruyu knew that her own strength was simply not enough to fight against these four people. Zhu Yanshuo had set up such a siege in the city lord's mansion.

"I didn't expect that I was lucky enough to be able to face the four top experts at the same time." Young Master Ruyu smiled lightly: "It

's a good thing to die." "However, as the saying goes, this rabbit is dead. I have to stare twice, and I naturally want to learn from it." When the words fell, as soon as Young Master Yu moved, a golden fan appeared directly in his hand, and in the next second, the whole person rushed directly towards the four of them.

In the face of Young Master Ruyu's rapid attack, the four of them just looked at each other and sneered at each other.

"Forget it, let the old man teach you, this child, what death is." As soon as the voice of the old immortal Fengji fell, the old body was like a rabbit in an instant.

Young Master Ruyu didn't even understand what was going on, but the figure of the old immortal Fengji suddenly appeared beside him strangely, and he still flew in the same direction as him.

"What speed is this?"

But at the moment he was surprised, suddenly, there was another flower in front of him, and the old phoenix immortal had already attacked from the opposite side.

"What?!"

Young Master Ruyu was in a panic and could only fight against each other, but the two only touched a little, and Young Master Ruyu only felt a huge force attack, and his whole body suddenly retreated several meters, and finally heavy The smashed on the wall, blood sprayed.

The old immortal Fengji smiled lightly, but at this time, his body was as if he had never moved before: "Child, you can't do it, your hands and feet are not as fast as me, an old guy."

Young Master Ruyu endured the pain, just as he was about to move again, the white-faced rain demon suddenly shoved his hand into the air, and Young Master Ruyu, who was several meters away, slammed heavily on the wall again, and the white-faced rain demon smiled grimly: "Without tutoring, we Are you allowed to move at will?"

"Moving is not necessarily a bad thing, it relaxes the muscles and activates the blood." On the side, Venerable Bigfoot smiled lightly, then lifted his left foot slightly, and then stomped on the ground.

The ground trembled, and Young Master Yu flew directly, just bounced from the ground to a height of several meters in the air, and smashed onto the roof before hitting the ground again.

Blood continued to seep out of his mouth as if he didn't want money.

But at this moment, a voice suddenly came: "Four old immortals bully a young man, and I don't know where you have the courage to laugh..."

Chapter 3315

The four of them had just finished joking about the jade son, but when they were complacent, they suddenly heard this rather harsh voice , suddenly furious, dazzling around, looking for the person who made this sound.

At this moment, in the corner, a figure slowly stood up.

Young Master Ruyu, who was suffering from pain all over his body, also looked up at this time. When he saw the figure, his face under the veil suddenly burst into a smile, and the whole person could not help but let out a sigh of relief: "Brother Han, you finally woke up. That's it."

George Han glanced at Young Master Ruyu and smiled lightly, signaling him not to worry.

Judging from his situation, although he was seriously injured, he did not die. It was obvious that these four old people were bullying others and did not intend to kill him. Instead, they just regarded Young Master Ruyu as a kind of casual tyrant. Toy.

Seeing George Han come out, the four of them looked at each other, not even a trace of surprise on their faces, but only cold smiles.

For them, with the four of them here, everyone is just an ant that is kneading at will, and naturally they have no intentions.

"Another one to die." The Black Mountain Demon Girl sneered.

Because of the night attack, the three were all covered with veils, so they were not recognized.

George Han smiled and didn't speak. Instead, he walked to the bed with a few steps, and then glanced at the iron box on the bed.

According to George Han's intentional arrangement in advance, the blood could just cut open the iron box directly. Now it seems that the effect is not bad. Basically, the front side has been completely melted.

This made George Han feel at ease.

Then, he walked to the center in a few steps, glanced at the four old things and a group of elite soldiers, George Han smiled: "

How about I play with you?"

"Boy, your tone is quite big?" The Venerable Bigfoot smiled coldly, and then patted his thigh: "But it stinks when it's too big, even more stinky than my leg." After the words were finished, a group of people raised their heads and laughed.

"When the grandfathers were in the arena, you were still a motherf***, and you dared to make trouble with us here? Brat, do you know how much you weigh?" Old Immortal Fengji sneered disdainfully.

The white-faced rain demon glanced at George Han: "However, the mouth is useless, but it looks even more miserable when you cry and yell."

"Since you all said this, then I can at least rest assured." George Han smiled lightly: "It's easy for people to say that I bullied the old and humiliated women."

"I am one, and I beat the four of you, how about it?"

"You sound really big."

As he looked at the other three, all three were full of disdain.

“However, for the sake of fairness, I have a small request.” George Han finished his words and glanced at the box behind him.

“Request? What request do you have? Do you want us to not shoot too hard, so as not to kill you twice?”

“Or, we will let you keep your hands all the time?”

“Or we will leave you a whole body. ?” The four of you said each and every one of your words, ridiculed to the extreme, and you didn’t take George Han in your eyes at all.

“Hehe, fists and feet have no eyes. It’s not normal to have one arm and one leg. Maybe I can swell that uncle’s other leg.” George Han looked at Venerable Bigfoot and couldn’t help but smile.

As soon as these words came out, Venerable Bigfoot suddenly couldn’t hang up. Isn’t it obvious that he was humiliating him.

But at this moment, George Han opened again.

Mouth: “My request is very simple, how about calling after half an hour?”

“Half an hour?”

Hearing this request, the four of them looked at each other, completely understanding what George Han was asking for, which was a bit unbelievable. .

“What? Scared?” George Han laughed.

“We will be afraid of you? Don’t say half an hour, what if I give you an hour? Time it now.” After the words were finished, the four of them waited in place.

With them here, they naturally don’t worry about any trouble.

But for George Han, this time is enough time to completely suppress the seal of the earth, and at the same time the iron box can be completely opened, so this is the time for him to completely let go.

He is really looking forward to what it will be like to face the four famous masters of the Demon Race alone!

Dazzling, half an hour has passed...
