

Chapter 3322

it is simply resisting, asking the other party to abandon the child to admit defeat is simply equivalent to a fantasy, a fool's dream.

As I said before, if they want to admit defeat, they have to be scared.

Now facing two people's flanking attack is actually the only way to cause the greatest shock to their hearts.

Therefore, George Han's choice is that defense is the second priority, and defense of turning offense is what he needs to do.

Of course, the risks in the middle are huge, but if you want to win more with less, throughout the ages, it has never been just luck.

People and people are naturally at odds with each other, and the location is right, so naturally, he found Xia Wei at this time, and obtained the blood of the phoenix to complete the suppression of the seal of the earth. As for the time of day...

it is now!

Suddenly, just when everyone saw that the Black Mountain Enchantress was only a few centimeters away from George Han

, George Han's originally solid figure suddenly began to blur under the powerful offensive of the Black Mountain Enchantress.

"Illusion... No, it's an afterimage!" The phantom is illusory, the afterimage can only be realistic but more illusory, but George Han in front of him belongs to the latter.

"It's so fast."

even the so-called ghost-footed phoenix, I'm afraid it's definitely not as good in front of him?"

"Can this be done by humans?" The two masters were stunned. , together with Zhu San and Young Master Ruyu lying on the ground.

It would be a pity if the two of them didn't see George Han's shot at the martial arts recruiting conference before, or they were somewhat dissatisfied with their son and himself just admitting defeat.

So now, both his master and servant are serving.

At such a speed, even if the two of them tried their best, they couldn't resist.

"Brush!"

Almost at the same time, George Han's real body appeared within a millimeter of the Black Mountain Demon Girl, and when he bent to the limit to avoid it, his fingers were bitten in his mouth.

A drop of fresh blood flowed out, and George Han was able to wrap it directly, and patted it at the Black Mountain Demon Girl.

The blood drop is too small and the speed is fast. In addition, Han 3000's limit operation is almost not more than one point, not more than one centimeter. The distance between the two can be said to be short and short.

Even the Black Mountain Demon Girl had already found out that George Han had called her, and hurriedly poured all of her energy into her body to protect her, but as she punched her in the air, when she tried to move again, George Han hurriedly filled her body with energy. Qian's knee that was hit by the strange little dot suddenly kept calling and half-knelt down.

"Evil Fairy."

Seeing that Demon Fairy was empty, she knelt down beside him, and the old immortal Fengji shouted in a hurry.

However, at this time, the enchantress had no intention to deal with her at all. She covered the knee joint with her hand, showing a painful expression on her face. She felt that her knee had been penetrated to prevent Buddha, and the pain was penetrating into the bone marrow.

Looking down, he saw that black liquid slowly flowed out from the gap between his fingers, and when he took his hand away slightly, the whole person turned pale with fright.

I don't know when, there was actually a deep blood eye on her knee, and at the same time it was still going deep into it. If she hadn't hurriedly resisted it with luck in her body, I'm afraid she would have been directly pierced in a short while.

"Are you still fighting?" George Han drew back slightly, smiled lightly, and looked at the four masters sitting around on the ground.

The white-faced Jade Demon was in the distance, and the Venerable Bigfoot was by the other wall. The old phoenix immortal and the black mountain enchantress, who were fighting in a group, were half-kneeling, the other was lying there, and the nails of half their hands were broken.

but no matter

, The expressions of the four are almost synchronized, shocked, shocked, or shocked.

If there is any other emotion, I am afraid it is fear!

To say what George Han said before, they must have dismissed them, but now, they feel more and more terrifying, like a god of death smiling at them, but also a god of death despising them.

There were many people at the scene, but it was surprisingly quiet at this moment, no one dared to say a word, even a word.

Seeing that no one responded, George Han took a few steps to the iron box on the bed.

At this moment, the Black Mountain Demon Girl suddenly spoke up: "Even if you are better than us, so what? That iron box is extremely hard and is made of special materials. If you want to open it, it's just a fool's dream."

"Really??" George Han stopped and smiled slightly, then raised his foot and walked over,

Chapter 3323

See George Han like this, the four masters looked at each other and couldn't help sneering, even the most seriously injured Black Mountain Demon Girl couldn't help shaking her head and speechless .

That kind of iron box, since it dared to take it out and use it, has naturally passed various tests.

It was made by the strongest craftsman of the Demon Race using the oldest black iron. Even a master like George Han who could defeat the four of them would be absolutely helpless against such iron.

To unlock the bell, it is necessary to tie the bell. Except for the key that the master craftsman personally allocates, it is impossible for anyone or anything.

However, at this moment, George Han had already walked to the side of the bed, and then raised his feet slightly.

"Bang!"

With the force on the foot, there was a loud noise on the iron box.

The four who were sneering at each other suddenly were shocked, because the sound was obviously different after being kicked off by this kick.

"Da da da!"

Immediately afterwards, there was the sound of some iron sheets slamming into a place and trembling slightly.

The iron box is obviously a whole, how can there be the sound of iron?

The four of them gradually felt that something was wrong, and hurriedly looked back, but at this time they were completely dumbfounded.

George Han kicked the edge of the iron box straight away.

It was the sound of the falling edge falling to the ground that made the sound.

"I'm * ..." The

four super masters, after seeing all kinds of waves, have long been calm as water, even if the four of them were defeated under George Han's hands, they have never been so pale.

But just now, they have completely reversed their attitude.

The iron box was opened...

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, they would never have believed it.

How is this possible ? !

How could he do it? !

“Are you surprised? Reasonably, the reason why the gods are gods is that they can do things that mortals can’t, isn’t it?” Young Master Ruyu smiled.

When he first saw George Han’s blood on it, he really couldn’t believe that George Han would do this, and it would be effective. He even thought that George Han was insane.

However, when he saw the iron box melted under the blood, he had to believe that many things were not because of his lack of knowledge, but because he had not reached a special field at all, and naturally he did not know what happened in those special fields. matter.

Hearing the words of Young Master Ruyu, the four of them did not speak. In the past, if they were taught the truth in later life, they would definitely be disabled, but today

, they are indeed speechless.

Because it is obvious that what this young man said seems to be the case.

If you think about it, the Devil Cloud Ghost City, where the bullies have been for many years, have been taken down in the day and night, but they have been unable to attack it for a long time with the group of people who should have fallen into the city. The comparison of such differences has already shown that they are really not on the same level. superior.

Thinking of this, the four of them shook their heads, and after all, they lost all the energy they had just now.

At this time, George Han, after kicking the iron box, a beautiful figure wrapped in a black cloth bag, lying there quietly.

George Han patted her, but found that she had no reaction, but her body was still warm, which meant that Xia Wei was still alive.

With a movement of energy in his hand, he directly wrapped Xia Wei in the iron box and brought it under the bed.

Immediately afterwards, George Han directly carried her on his back

On his back, he greeted Young Master Ruyu and Zhu San, and the two of them hurriedly endured their injuries and hurried to George Han’s side.

George Han glanced at the four masters present: “I’m leaving, do you have any opinions?” After the words were finished, the room was silent.

“Very good.” George Han nodded, and nodded to Zhu San and Ruyu Young Master, letting them both go first and his own back.

The two were worried about George Han's safety, but seeing that George Han had made up his mind, they still walked towards the small door first.

George Han followed closely, without even turning his head, as if he was not at all worried or afraid that the four of them would make a sneak attack from behind.

The four of them did not dare to move at all, as George Han expected, but their eyes were full of sneers. Because, at this time in the city lord's mansion on the ground...
