

Chapter 3380 – 3381 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3380

“Originally, Brother Mark didn’t want to kill, but just made an appointment with the Patriarch of the Chu family. If Brother Mark wins, the Chu family will go to the hot summer and apologize to Brother Mark’s mother.”

“The Chu family also agreed at the time.”

“But later, after Mark’s brother won the gambling battle, the Chu family temporarily repented.”

“More than that, the Chu family also sent strong men to besiege Brother Mark!”

“If Brother Mark doesn’t kill them, he will be killed.”

“Anyway, I think the morality is on Brother Mark’s side. Even if the Chu family were killed by a group, they wouldn’t take any reason.”

An Qitong blushed and said a lot angrily.

However, after she said these words, the members of the Jones family were directly scared to pee.

Bill Jones immediately ran over and slapped Angie’s face with a slap: “You bastard, what are you talking about?”

“Don’t get out of me yet!”

Bill Jones yelled angrily and was about to take An Qi away, but was stopped by Tang Yun.

“Angie, what you said is true?”

Tang Yun looked over, and this time, the sensation in her eyes suddenly faded a bit. ,

“It’s the real Auntie Tang.”

“If you don’t believe it, ask the Chu family.”

“Everyone present is a witness.”

An Qi quickly said.

Hearing this, Tang Yun’s murderous intent suddenly disappeared.

She looked back at Chu Yuan, and asked in a low voice, “Teacher, but the Chu family, is it the first to break the contract?”

Chu Yuan frowned: “Xiao Yun, this is not important.”

“No, it’s very important to me.” Tang Yun replied coldly, “I am the Lord of Trumen, not only to maintain the safety of Trumen, but also to maintain the reputation of Trumen.”

“It’s okay to kill or kill, but it has to be a rational word.”

“Teacher, I’m sorry.”

“I won’t do things that are not moral, nor will Truman.”

After Tang Yun finished saying this, she didn’t wait for Chu Yuan to answer at all, turned around and looked at everyone in Chumen.

“Fan Chu Sect belongs to, without my order, you can’t act rashly!”

“Wait, understand?”

Tang Yun looked around with majestic eyes.

For a long time, Tang Yun’s prestige formed in Chumen Mountain is naturally not small.

For a time, all the elders of Truman bowed their heads to their orders.

“You...”?

Chu Yuan looked at the scene before him, but his old face was pale with anger.

However, no matter how angry, Chu Yuan is not easy to attack.

After all, Tang Yun was right.

As the master of the Chu Clan, it is impossible for her to disregard the reputation of the entire Clan in order to help the Chu Clan.

From this perspective, Tang Yun did nothing wrong.

Tang Yun is to blame, he can only blame his descendants, mediocre and incompetent!

Seeing Tang Yun and the Chu Clan powerhouses all retreating, Gaia and the others who were worried about dying just now let out a long sigh of relief.

“This Chu Sect master is a god and righteous.” Gaia sighed with emotion.

Irving smiled meaningfully: “Is it really clear and righteous, or is there another reason?”

Owen laughed in a low voice, but that smile was really wretched.

Seeing Tang Yun retreating, Mark didn't irritate the woman anymore.

She once again set her sights on the Chu family.

“Chu Yuan, I will ask you one last time, do you honor the agreement or not?”

Mark asked coldly.

The words were as cold as ice.

At the same time, the five powerful dragon gods all stepped up, and the moon gods next to them were also eyeing.

All the pressure came to Chu Yuan alone.

Silence, a long silence.

Chu Yuan did not respond for a long time.

It's just a pair of old eyes turning around, no one knows, what is this old man's heart planning?

Finally, just when Mark waited impatiently, Chu Yuan, who had been silent for a long time, replied.

“good!”

“I wish to bet and lose, my Chu family, fulfill the promise, as you wish!”

Chapter 3381

What?

“No!”

Hearing what Chu Yuan said, the people of the Chu family were shocked.

Chu Shen, who was beaten to death by Mark just now, got up from the ground anxiously, and stopped at Chu Yuan.

“Old Patriarch, don’t do it.”

“My dignified Chu family, the most powerful family in the world, how can I bow my head to apologize to a mother and son in the countryside?”

“From now on, how can our Chu family still gain a foothold in the world of martial arts?”

“It’s going to be spread out, so I won’t let people laugh out loud!”

Chu Shen knew how to use affection, and when he moved with reason, he repeatedly dissuaded him.

Before, after Chu Zhengliang’s defeat, Chu Shen and others had already discussed whether or not to fulfill the agreement and go to the hot summer to apologize to Mark’s mother and son.

But in the end, the result of the family discussion was to break the contract, gather the power of the whole family, and besieged Mark.

Although it turned out that the entire Chu family was almost killed by Mark, fortunately, the old man came out to turn the tide at a critical moment.

Now the situation is very good, but in this case, the old man Chu Yuan actually decided to honor the bet, and agreed to Mark’s request to go to the hot summer to apologize to a country woman.

This is undoubtedly something that the Chu family does not understand and is extremely difficult to accept.

“Now it makes people laugh out of their teeth.”

“A group of unsatisfied people who have lost the gambling and gambling, and want to break the contract here again?”

“What did you do early?”

“If you don’t have the ability, what can you do to make a fight with others?”

“Since it is a gambling battle, then I am willing to bet and lose.”

“If there is no word, don’t you let the world laugh?”

“My ancestors of the Chu family have a clear style from generation to generation. If you go wrong, your ancestor’s face will be cleansed by you!”

Chu Yuan scowled sharply with a cold face.

These words of Chu Yuan were naturally clear to Chu Shen and others.

“But old man, although you have to be embarrassed before and after, it is better to be unbelievable than to kneel down and apologize?”

“The two evils have the least power!”

“Furthermore, if we kill the abandoned son, this bet will naturally cease to exist, let alone that there is nothing to say without faith.”

The Chu family was still unwilling to go to the hot summer to apologize to Mark’s mother, and would rather risk the world’s unrest and violate the agreement than to be ashamed in the hot summer.

“OK.”

“If you want to kill, you can kill if you have the ability.”

“Then Brian Chuis standing there.”?

“Which of you can kill him, I will let whoever be the head of the Chu Family!”

Chu Yuan sneered and shouted directly.

For a while, the entire Chu family bowed their heads.

After all, these people present, except Chu Yuan, are all defeated by Mark.

In this situation, if Chu Yuan didn’t take action, no one in the Chu family would have moved Mark the slightest.

“how?”

“Not talking anymore?”

“Know that you are overwhelmed?”

“If that’s the case, just shut up and show me less shame!”

Chu Yuan was also very popular by his clan.

A group of junk things, not very capable, but put their own face very seriously.

Of course, why didn’t Chu Yuan want to kill Mark?

However, with the current situation, Chu Yuan had no other choice.

Mark had already put the words there just now. If their Chu family didn't agree to honor their previous agreement, then he and the Chu family would never die.

Today's Mark is already at the end of the force, and he is not afraid of it in his heyday, so if there is only one Mark, Chu Yuan is naturally not afraid.

But the point is that behind Mark, there is a Moon God.

Once the Chu Family and Mark were all together again, he Chu Yuan specified that he would be restrained by the Moon God.

Then the remaining Chu family must not be killed by Mark's men.

At that time, he and Moon God had not yet decided the victory or defeat, and it was estimated that their Chu family would already have corpses everywhere.

It can be said that when Tang Yun decided to let Chu Men stop interfering in this matter, Chu Yuan had no other choice but to bow his head.
